We dedicate this book to a man wise in the affairs of the student. His understanding and sympathy, his knowledge and wit distinguish him.

He is so much a part of our class that we feel he is going with us as we leave, and that he will always be present to talk with us, to guide us, and to set an example for us. We know this cannot happen, yet each of us does take a little of him with us. We will always carry with us his forthright manner, his way of tempering a lecture with humor, his ability to put one at ease with just the right word. We will remember, above all, the smile that lights his eyes when he tries to appear stern.

He exemplifies the shining spirit of knight-hood; the truth, open-handedness and courtesy. The Class of 1960 salutes John Douglas, gentleman and scholar.

*To build a world of peace and love
That task is ours today—
But first tomorrow's world will need
The dreams of yesterday.*

THEMIE

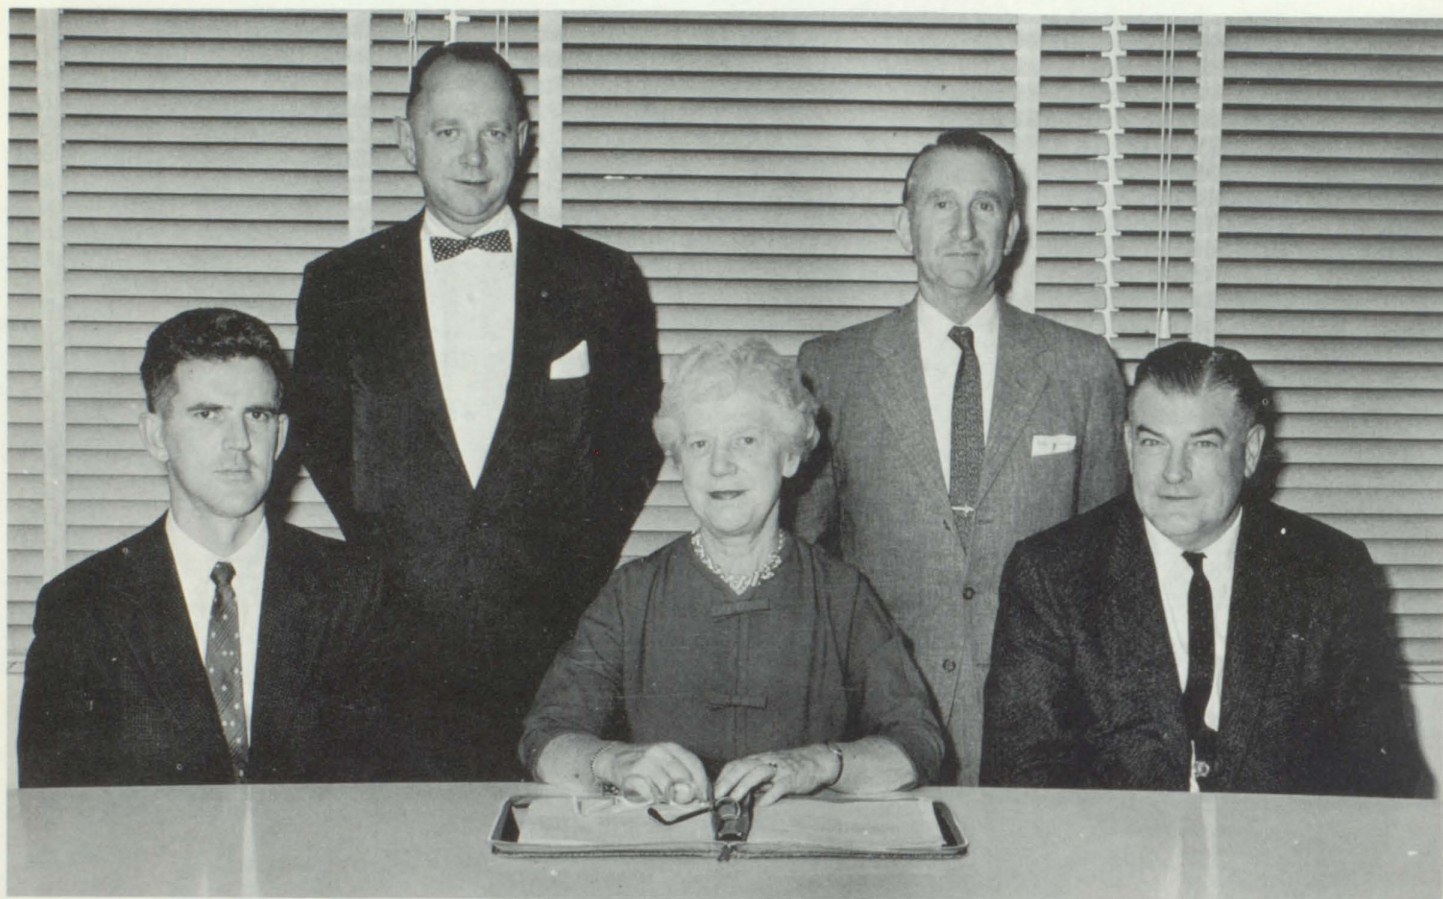

We chose this year to return to the medieval era, to the strength of the castle, the discipline of the scholar and the grace and chivalry of the lady and the knight. Out of the ideals of the past come the dreams of the future. Our hope is that this code of chivalry will give us the wisdom, courage and honor to step forth with confidence into the light of tomorrow.

SENIORS

SENIORS SAY

Today's teenagers make headlines and are blamed for just about everything. In reality, there are only a few who are to blame for the black marks on the teenagers record. Those who want to erase the black marks can do so with constructive action. Instead of sitting back while teenagers are villified, they should try to curtail activities which give teenagers a bad name.

There is good in everyone. When so-called bad kids see the constructive uses to which their fellows put their energies they will be influenced to change their ways. Working for an ideal rarely brings material rewards; the satisfaction comes from the knowledge that you have helped another. Virtue is its own reward.

TONY DOLCE

Last night I dreamed as I lay in bed,
Of the life in the future—of the life I had led.
The moon gave a haunting, impetuous glow.
It seemed to be laughing and saying "I know."
I know of the days you'd sing like a lark
How you waited and never knew why
I know of the days you'd sing like a lark
Then—suddenly—stop, and cry.
I know of the pain that lives in your heart—
A pain that's cruel and sad
I know of the hopes of two lovers, apart
Remembering the fun they'd had
I know how you grieved when first he'd gone
I know how he tried not to cry
I know how you wonder "Can I go on?"
And I know that you know you must try.
There's a Spirit above that watches us all
He listens for voices so low
Your love will return whenever you call
The Spirit has told me so."
When I woke I remembered the words of the moon
The sun hid the sky's night black
On the table—a letter that said, very soon
My darling would be coming back.
Strange, too, he said that when evening did fall
In the moon's new warm, glowing beam
His heart always felt that he heard me call
Now I wonder—Was it a dream?

SUZANNE CONNOLLY

*Could it be the time they speak of
When you've finally found the one?
Could all dreams be reality—
Has my life, today begun?*

SUZANNE CONNOLLY

*As a thief in the night you came searching
Tearing my world apart.
I can't say if you found what you wanted—
But I know you have stolen my heart!*

SUZANNE CONNOLLY

The devil tortures his victims
With the slow sure tricks of his time.
Just as the clock tortures me
As it slowly ticks off the time.

Then minutes take wings
As the pendulum swings
At a rapid rate.
But now it's my will
That time should stand still.
Alas, inevitable fate!

HARBOR LIGHTS

Fishnets . . . sparkling lights . . . a shell throne nestled in crystal sands . . . this was Harbor Lights. The photographs and favors remind us that this was a night when every girl was a queen, every boy a king.

SENIOR PLAY

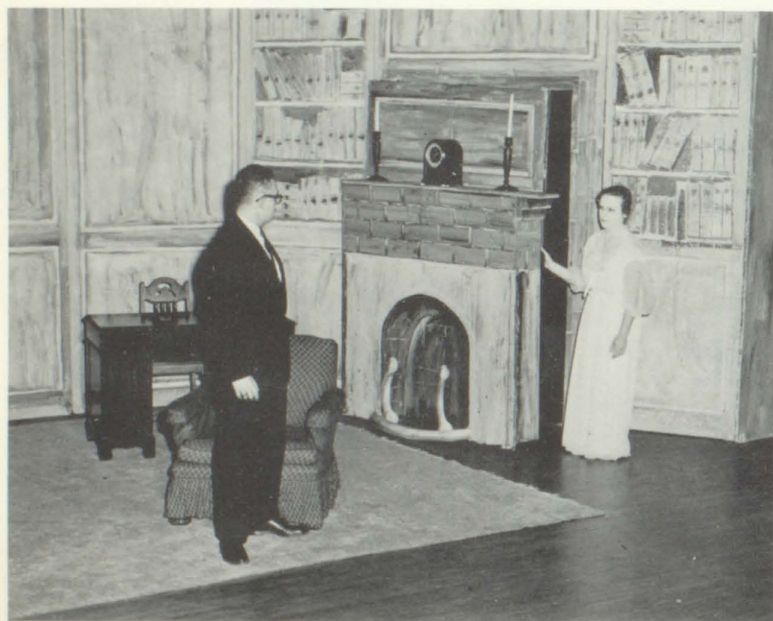

HANGMAN'S NOOSE

This year's senior play, Hangman's Noose, was a mystery with a dash of comedy. The cast worked hard but the delighted laughs and screams of the audience made it well worth the effort.

The senior class wishes to thank the hard-working Backstage Club and Miss Simpson for the wonderful set which provided a fine backdrop for the murders and the laughs.

The will reads as follows . . .

There is nothing supernatural.

Where is that necklace, Polly?

After him Gareth, don't let him get away.

Is he dead?

SAYONARA

Class Day 1959-Sayonara . . . This was the sad and final word with which the class of 1959 left Bay Shore High. But for class day the seniors veiled their sorrow and presented a delightful program. Their hilarious antics amused everyone; the momentos displayed a true sense of humor; the thoughts behind them revealed deep sincerity.

Finally the sad moment of departure arrived. As the seniors marched up the aisle, they entered a new world. This was the final Sayonara of the senior class of 1959.

CLASS DAY

SENIOR CARD PARTY AND FASHION SHOW

One of the most successful senior projects was the fashion show held on November 24, 1959. Under the direction of Miss Irmgard Wentzel and Sue Petrie, many seniors worked together to make "Midnight in Times Square" a sparkling, glowing affair. The models wore clothes which ranged from casual skating outfits to sophisticated evening gowns.

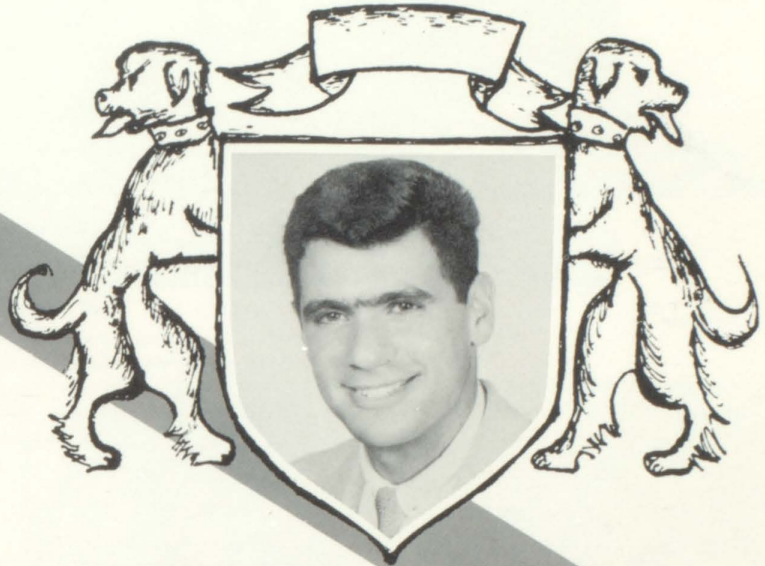

SPAGHETTI DINNER

It's almost like eating in Italy . . . This year, a first: Progresso donated $50 to buy food . . . a great help for the senior class. The Spaghetti Dinner was this year, as it is every year, an outstanding success. Co-chairman Sue Petrie and Mike Cooper are to be congratulated on a job well done.

It seemed that we would never see the book completed. But we did get it out. From the first summer meeting to the final check for errors, working on this book has been an experience that we will long remember as one of the most rewarding of all our school activities. The excursions to the publishing company, the last minute meetings, the worrying about funds are all at an end, but the product of our labor, the 1960 MAROON AND WHITE will remind us of all the fun, all the laughs, and a few of the tears that went into making it.

But this book is for you, and the staff hopes you enjoy reading it as much as we enjoyed putting it together.

DOCTOR GATJE

In the case of the late Dr. George Gatje it cannot be said that the "evil that men do lives after them; the good is oft interred with their bones." The good he did is now enjoyed by every student and every member of the faculty. Because he put so much of himself into his work, the projects he initiated and the ideas he realized will continue to grow and renew themselves with each succeeding class at Bay Shore High. Everyone, from the kindergartener to the departing senior, is affected in one way or another by Dr. Gatje's sincere effort to provide the best education for Bay Shore students.

In addition to being instrumental in raising the standing of Bay Shore High, he also pioneered in the development of outstanding extra-curricular activities which we now often take for granted.

Although we have lost Dr. Gatje, the good he did will remain with us, and with everyone who will ever be part of the Bay Shore Schools.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. BITTNER

It is difficult to describe the qualities of a fine teacher. One might say he must know and like both his students and his subject, that he must get along well with others, and that he must have a sense of humor; there are, of course, many other qualities which when put together make a good teacher. Harold Bittner had all these qualities.

But he had something more which wasn't always evident. He was not one whose personality dominated the scene. Rather, he was sure in his knowledge of himself and others and this quiet assurance gave him a subtle charm and a delightful wit. Those who knew him will never forget this gentle man who was so respected and loved.

WILLIAM P. FIELDS III

Although Billy was with us just a little more than a year we shall always remember him for his fine qualities of character. He was unselfish and kind and had a sense of humor that brightened the day for those who came in contact with him. He was a friend to all and we shall always miss him.

JUNIORS

Hear ye! Hear ye! The royal cards and ladies of the kingdom, ready to assume the axalted positions of Kings and Queens next year-ye Jolly Juniors. Lead by Miss Barbara Treat and Jim Rowan they have shown themselves ready to lead the kingdom. Among the many grand court affairs staged by these inspired nobles is the Great Court Ball, known to all as the Junior Prom.

Among the Juniors are some of the leaders of all phases of court life; social, academic and athletic. To them we hay —Hail!—and offer our wishes for a prosperous and happy reign as Seniors.

Four to go.

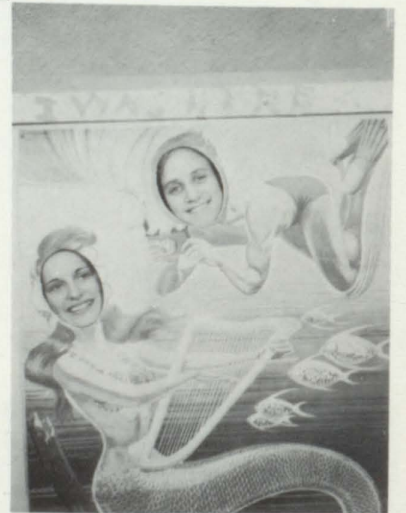

The Anvil Chorus?

Forward, march!!

The lineup.

Venus on the half-shell.

Where's the body?

Pray tell, dost thou know the merits of ye gay sophomore class?

We were happy to extend kindnesses to needy families at Christmas. We filled baskets with toys and sweets and tried to render good will and much cheer.

Twice were we given the opportunity to sell to the students of Bay Shore High covers to clothe ye books of learning.

From the labour of the Smorgasbord Dinner and other exploits, the royal treasury became laden with silver.

A jewelled crown to Miss Minnis, our class advisor. She doth deserve the highest honour for offering much good counsel and inspiration.

FRESHMAN CLASS

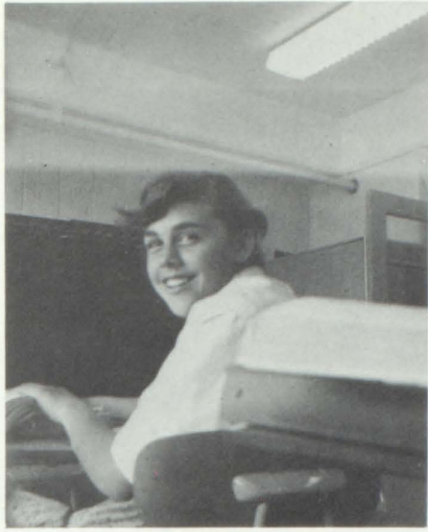

Let me speak this speech I pray you. Following is a manuscript concerning the shire of Freshman Class.

The town officers have donned their wigs and are ready to submit to the people a brief history of social functions and give honour to all town subjects for their earnest and sincere participation in these community functions.

Attendance at the Frosh Ball was impressive. The annual pageant was a mighty success. Many gallons of printer's ink were consumed for the Freshman publication.

From all indication this class will prove most worthy of high rank as they move along the road to royalty.

Come, sit with me!

Say cheese!

When we're out together dancing . . .

Would somebody please answer the phone?

Tomorrow, tomorrow and tomorrow . . .

Don't look now, but . . .

Bay Shore High School's General Organization can be likened to Britain's House of Commons, in that, in one way or another every student in the school is represented in it. The most important piece of legislation to be passed this year was an amendment to the Constitution which changed the time of G.O. elections from February to the third week after Easter vacation. There were many other matters brought up in the G.O. which required careful consideration and thoughtful voting. The G.O. is an example of representative democracy in action, an idea which had one of its roots in Britain.

HONOR SOCIETY

KNOWLEDGE IS MORE THAN EQUIVALENT TO FORCE.

Members of our National Honor Society are knights of scholarship. Qualified Juniors and Seniors are inducted in a very impressive assembly in the fall of the year. They are obliged to uphold the aims of the club, to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service and to reward character and leadership. Twice a year they represent us at roundtable discussions of current events with honorable knights from other schools. Most of all, they give us a kind of scholastic chivalry to look up to in Bay Shore High School.

Judy, all the best of luck to you, a wonderful kid who has a fine personality. Good luck always. Love, Harriet.

Through history, man has found that the pen is mightier than the sword. Truth manifests itself mainly through the written word. We write about the events of the kingdom: the jousts, the musical ceremonies, and the scholars' discoveries. In so vast a domain, word of mouth is insufficient to convey information; we bring the news to the people.

VARSIITY FOOTBALL

The pigskin toters returned with only five varsity men and had to rely on last year's J.V. squad. Bay Shore faced exceptionally strong opposition but posted a 5-3 record, despite injuries to key-men Paul Powell and Frank MacRory.

The Marauders won their first three games against strong opponents and came from behind in two of these games to win by close scores. The Varsity gridgers won their next two games before losing to Sayville in a game of fumbleitis caused by continual downpour. We then were hosts to the Huntington Blue Devils, who proved to be the stronger team.

Joe Easley and Peter Dexter were selected to the All Scholastic Team. Mike Cooper, Ed Brown and Frank Farmer were awarded honorable mentions.

VARSIY SOCCER

Coach Boyd, aided by the return of almost all of last year's starting team, completed this year the process of rebuilding started last year. The soccer team compiled more wins this year than has any Bay Shore team in the past decade. This record of ten wins against four losses surpasses the record of the championship team of 1956.

Four Boyd men were selected as outstanding players by Newsday. John Cody and Mike Amendolare made the second team. Dan Luccari and Richard Worsley received honorable mention.

VARSVITY BASKETBALL

After a rather sluggish start Coach Iggy Darsen's hoopster's gradually picked up steam progressing enough to beat Amityville and Babylon, who rank one and two in the league. The team suffered slightly when high scorer Spencer Goldsen was lost because of a broken wrist. But strong teamwork pulled the team up and developed dependable players.

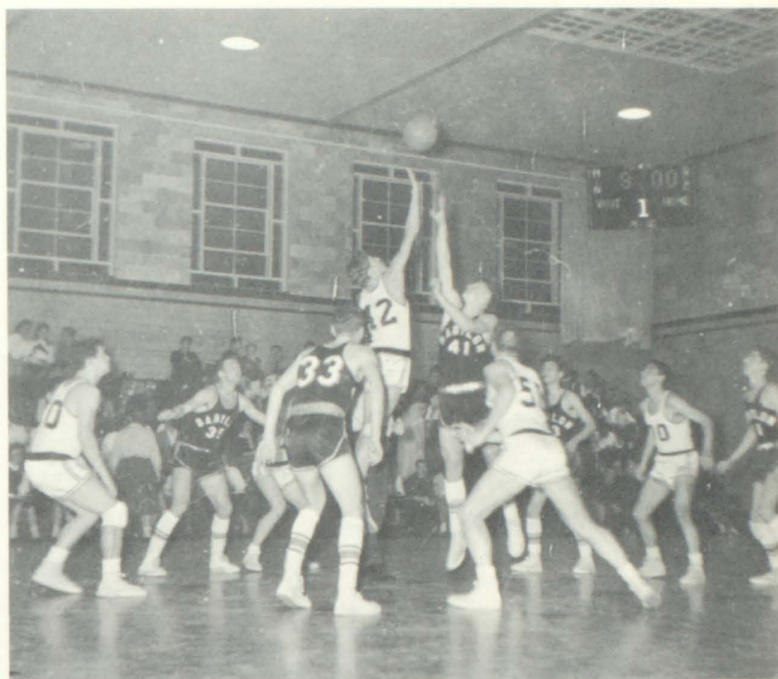

The cagers chalked up nine wins against nine losses which was good enough to earn the team a fourth place in the league. On the whole it was a hard working but unpredictable team. One week they beat the first place team and another they lost to the last place team.

With seven juniors returning next year, Coach Darsen is looking forward to a very successful season.

Once again Coach Cliff Clark and his outstanding wrestling team can look back on a fine, perhaps the best, season on the mats. The Clarkmen became the first team in Bay Shore High history to carry home a county championship this year. The matmen turned out to be the top team on the Island. It just goes to show that hard work and tremendous team spirit do pay off.

This year the grapplers were led by Seniors Ralph Leyrer, Chuck Geddes, Bob Ackerson, Ken Schroeder, Steve Santamaria, and the little man with so much spirit, Dick Worsley, who was also the team's captain. A great deal of the team's strength, however, came from the junior class. Such talent as Fritz Schabauer, Jon Clark, Jim Pidgeon, Joe Easley, Richie Samuelson, Frank Farmer and Richie Dromerhauser came from the class of 61. They will be the backbone of next year's team.

Mr. Clark's wrestlers won the league, county and, most important of all, the Long Island Championship. Dick Worsley (104), Ralph Leyrer (109), Jim Pidgeon (148), Joe Easley (158), and Richie Samuelson (168), all took league titles. Worsley, Geddes (122), Pidgeon, Easley, Schabauer, and Samuelson all took county titles with Leyrer placing second. Worsley, Geddes, Easley, and Pidgeon all went on to win the Islands and set a new record by taking four titles back to a single school. Ralph Leyrer placed third and Richie Samuelson placed second.

The grapplers compiled 13 wins against 1 loss in dual meet competition. The only loss was suffered at the hands of Massapequa. But this loss was overshadowed in the Long Island Tourney. The season was highlighted by defeating our arch rival Amityville by the score of 30-11 and by squeezing the ever powerful Mephram Pirates 19-18.

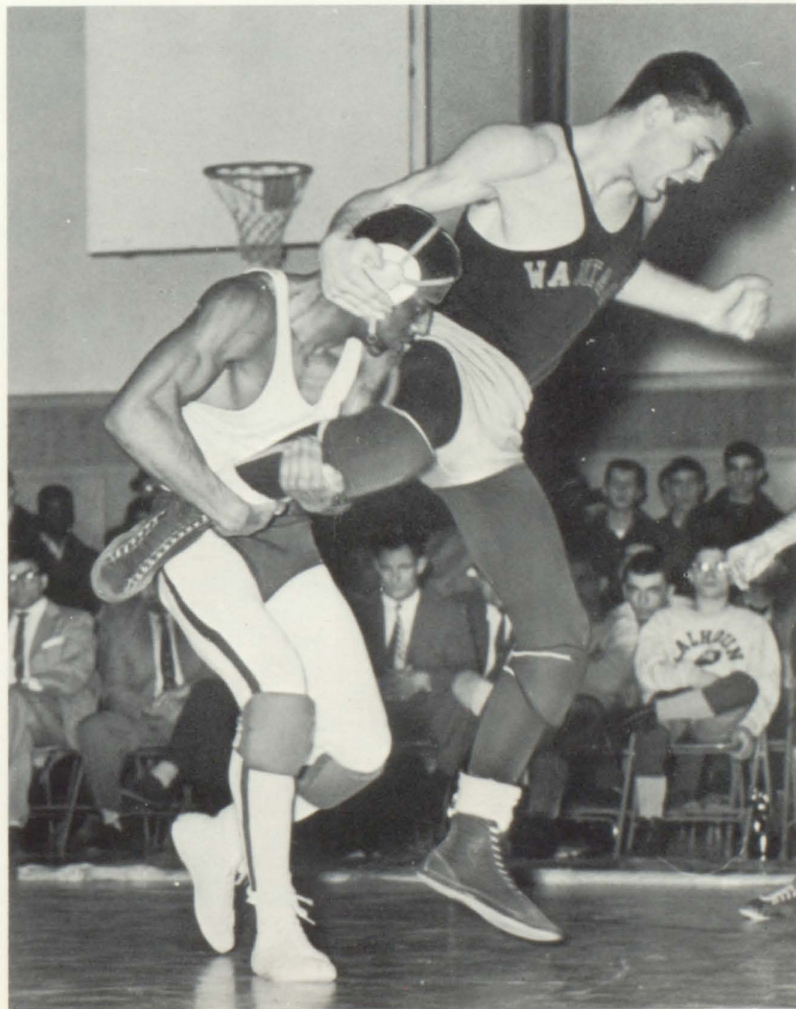

From this you can see what happens when Cliff Clark's veteran coaching is combined with eager, ambitious wrestlers.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Maroon harriers, under Lester Gosier's supervision, placed a man in the state run-offs for the first time in many years. The honor this year fell to Fritz Schabauer. Led by Fritz and John Petty, co-captains, the cross country team defeated ten Suffolk schools in stiff competition.

Losing only two seniors, Mike Pascal and George McDonald, the remaining Varsity squad should have the experience necessary to perform at their best. Varsity lettermen to return next year are Jim Rowan, Fred Kassman, Tom Moreland, Bill Fehring, Harry Willis and Ed Latenhauer. The Maroon also has on call a host of underclassmen to fill the ranks so Bay Shore should field a real threat next year.

L. Galvin, B. Estler, M. Jordan, T. Janszkiewicz, J. Gosier, R. Patton, Coach Gosier, F. Schabauer, (Co-Captain), B. Fehring, F. Kassman, E. Dattenhauser, M. Pascal, W. Whitlock, H. Wallace, T. Moreland, G. McDonald, J. Rowan, J. Petty (Co-Captain).

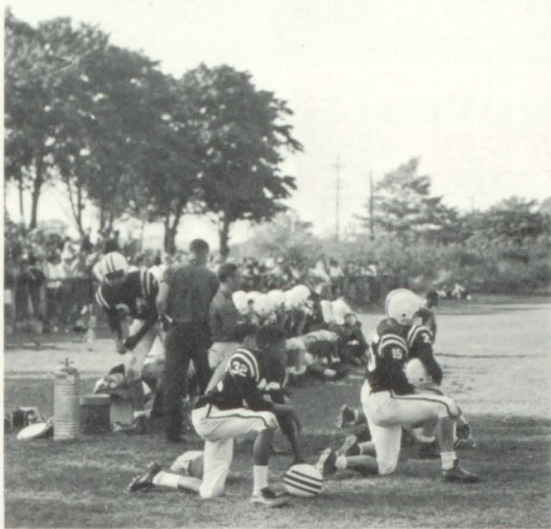

And they ran and ran and ran.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

The Varsity Cheerleaders under the supervision of captain, Mary Stocks, spent an enjoyable year cheering at school events. Rain or shine the cheerleaders were present at all football and basketball games, encouraging school spirit. The girls cheered for Bay Shore in the Hauppague tournament for the second time. During the Christmas season they visited the hospitals and distributed gifts from the Salvation Army. All in all, the year was very enjoyable and the girls look forward to cheering next year.

HOCKEY

Yelling girls, heavy sweatshirts, unmatched shinguards, varied hockey sticks and lots of fun spell the Girls' Hockey Intramural Program. It's the first intramural sport of the year and one that's constantly gaining in popularity. After the teams are chosen and schedules organized, the games begin. By the end of the season an Honor team has played interschool games, class honor teams have staged exciting interclass games and all team members are sorry to leave hockey with its action packed games and many new acquaintances.

VOLLEY BALL

One of the favorite intramural sports among Bay Shore girls is volleyball. Every year, the gym is overrun with girls eager to get on a team. Although only eight girls can be on the court at one time, the teams have as many as fifteen players. Almost every girl knows the rules for this popular sport.

Honor Teams, class honor teams, and the regular intramural teams comprise the volleyball program. The Honor Team plays at the Volleyball Sports' day to determine what team is the best. There are playoffs between the freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior class honor team teams. From these playoffs comes the best class volleyball team.

BASKETBALL

Winter is the time for learning the rules and regulations of basketball. Although the rules for girls basketball differ from boys basketball rules the game is just as fast moving and exciting. A game requiring skill and precision, basketball is a very popular winter sport.

GOLD KEY

The Gold Key Award is the highest honor a girl can achieve in high school athletics. It is won by earning 600 accumulative points in intramural sports such as hockey, volleyball, basketball, and softball. Girls who receive this are those who show superior interest and skill in athletics.

SPRING PREVIEW

Coach Komoroski, B. DeLizio, J. Stevens, T. Loughlin, J. Cody, J. Misner.

The road to the League Baseball Championship turned out to be a bit rough for the 1959 Marauders. However, led by captain Artie Dromerhauser, Cliff Hill, Spenser Goldsen, Mike Cooper, John Morrison, Paul Thorpe, and Richie Reeves the sluggers put up a stiff battle until the final pitch of every game.

This year Leon Komoroski, veteran coach of the Varsity Baseball Team, hopes to make the league race pretty hot for his opponents. The only returning lettermen are Spenser Goldsen (injury permitting), Jim Misner, best known for his pitching ability, Dave Thomas, and captain Mike Cooper, catcher. Such hustlers as Don Bentsen, Charlie Grouse, Joe Grady, "slugger" DeNatale, Richie Walker, Richie Dromerhauser, Tim Loughlin, Joe Stevens, and Bob DeLizio, are expected to add a lot of spark to the Diamond-Dust kids.

Bay Shore's 1959 track team tackled a pretty rough schedule last season as their record clearly showed. However, the cindermen had a relatively young squad. Coach Mohr now expects bigger and better things from them this season. In fact, Coach Mohr, who will be aided by the Junior Highs', Larry Isacksen, is looking forward to a very successful season—"We should do much better than last year."

Although Dan Murtha, Gorden Schupp, and Tom Ketchem are gone; Fritz Schabauer, Joe Easley, Riley Carter, John Berry, Tim Jackson, Ed Brown, Paul Gilbert and Jim Dwyer, the lone Senior letterman remain to make up the nucleus of a team which could possibly bring the county track laurels back to Bay Shore High.

W. Roos, H. Loy, P. Nowinski, E. Neu, G. Suttmeier, G. Hall, D. Spina, M. Watterson, R. Singer, Coach Sullivan

With four of last season's first six men returning, John Sullivan, coach of the Marauder linksmen, is looking forward to a fine season. Veterans Dave Spina, Gary Hull, Bill Roos, and Richie Suttmeier will be backed up by newcomers Ted Golon, Mike Waterson, and Fred Kassman. Aspiring Freshmen Mark Kennedy, Richard Singer, and Eric Neu will also be out for what looks like an exciting and successful season.

Al Van Nostrand the new coach of the tennis team has a flock of lettermen returning to the squad. Seniors Al Thompson and Pete Burvenich and Juniors Chet Fedorowicz, Tom Moreland, Ed Kaufman, Bruce Beordseu, Dick Berls and Ronnie Boyajian have proven themselves in the past and we can expect a good showing from them. Fedorowicz, Thompson, and Moreland will probably hold down the singles division while the doubles section will probably remain up for grabs all season.

Waiting to be picked on a team, trying out for the honor team, and the anxiety to find out what team will win the intramurals are all part of the Girls' Intramural Softball program. The spring weather brings out many participants who want to try their luck with a ball and bat. The members of the honor team play other school teams and at the end of the season play in Sports' Day to determine the best girls' softball honor team.

Grappling for a mit, arguing over what position to play, and trying to find someone to wear the catcher's gear are all by-products of this favorite girls' sport.
