Luck Has Nothing To Do With It

Some people consider 13 to be an unlucky number. We, the seniors at Bay Shore High School, challenge that. Luck has not gotten us to be where we are today, but rather it is the hard work, dedication, friendships and full hearts that have brought us success in our high school careers. We will continue to challenge this "unlucky" number. Our senior year is just the beginning of incredible accomplishments to come. We may be the class of '13, but luck has nothing to do with it.

13 Beginning
Fall

Olivia O'Connor, Kerry Maerki, Bri Heuthie, and Sarah Sanchez, seniors, celebrate their Senior Day at a varsity Gymnastics meet.

Several varsity Field Hockey players show off their Pep Rally Shirts before their Pep Rally dance.

1. Arjge Brothers and Melanie Henriquez, seniors, salute in their pilot uniforms for USA Day.

2. Shannon Butler, sophomore, decorates Nick Psomas's, senior, white t-shirt for Peace Day.

Marchael Giles, Remy DeJoseph, Krisbel Brenes, Kordell Hammond, James Vaughan, Jasmen Wimbush and Camille Warner join together in spirit on USA day.

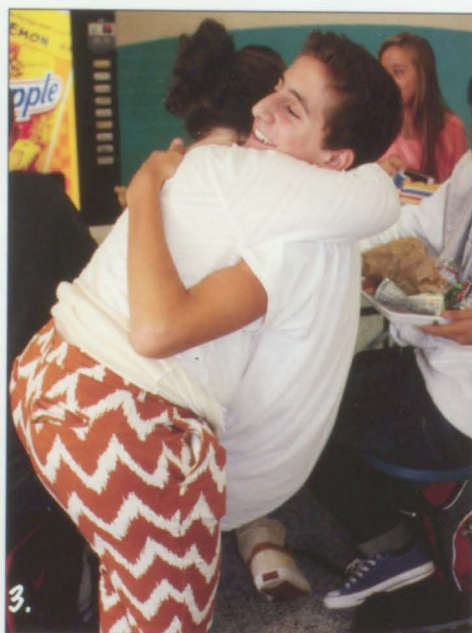

3. Antonio Leone, sophomore, hugs Kaitlin Metzger, senior, to celebrate their bond on peace day.

4. Geraldine Chapey, junior, and Lindsay Robinson, sophomore, pose for a photo while supporting their favorite sports team.

5. Elise Ambos and Corinne Schmidt, juniors, strut their stuff on neon day.

6. Mr. Marco cracks up his physics students while wearing a windbreaker representing his favorite sports team.

7. Griselide Pascual, Collin Pearce, Kristine Cuartas, and Amanda Soler, seniors, share a laugh during the Senior Black Out.

Xena Colon, junior, and Yadier Pagan, senior, walk alongside Jamie Sblendorio, junior, as they observe others participating in Sports Team Day.

A group of seniors show their spirit by wearing all black and gathering for a group photo.

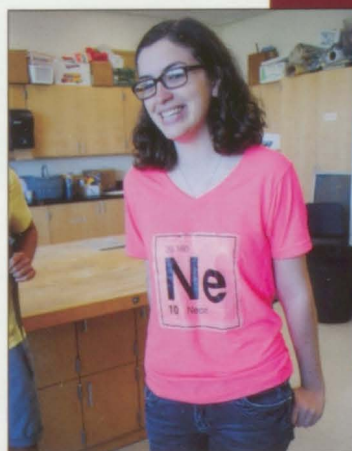

"I've never dressed up for spirit week before so I figured I would for my senior year and I actually had a good time."
-Alejandro Contreras, Senior

"White represents our idea of unity, which shows we can come together as a group for a goal and take pride in what we believe. This was important to have during Spirit Week so Bay Shore could come together."
-Andrew Nelson, Senior

"I missed having Color War; I feel like it was something everyone looked forward to during Spirit Week. Regardless, I made the best out of what we were given."
-Bianca Egas, Junior

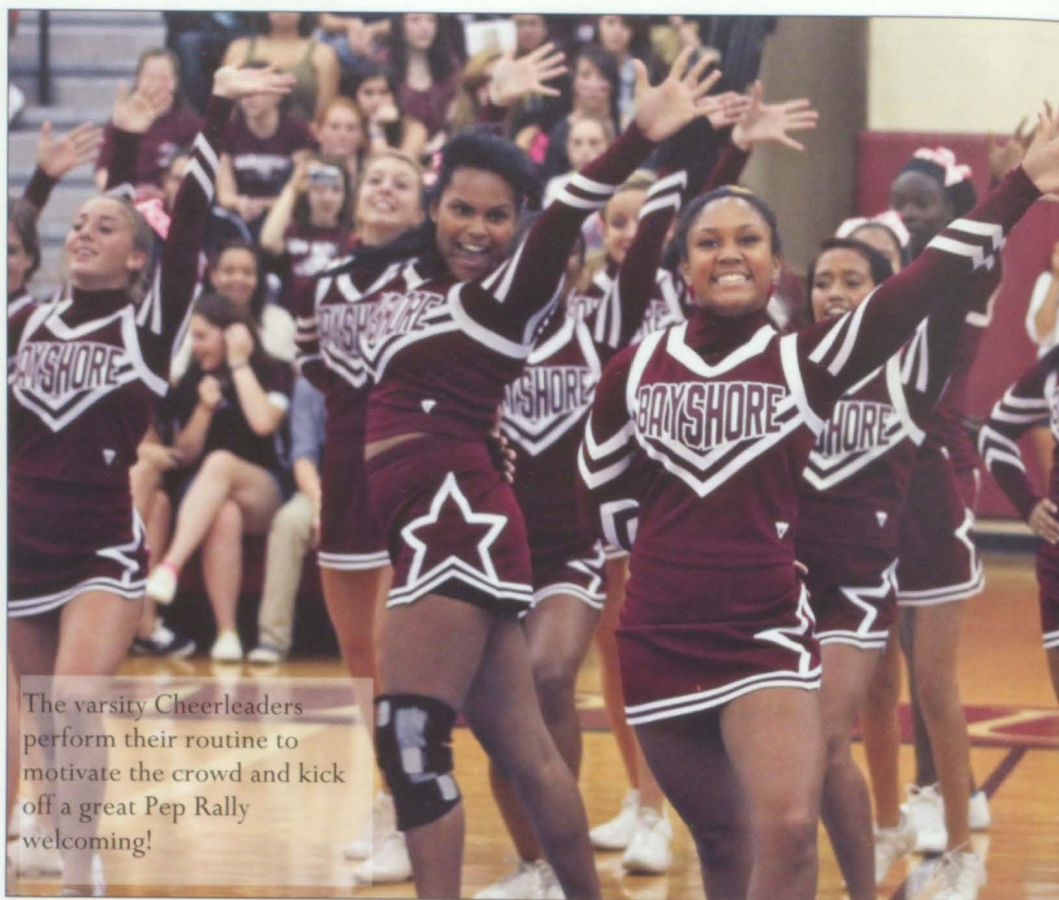

"We definitely need to bring back Superhero Day, considering that was the only good day, in my opinion. I only did Neon Day to compensate for the not-so-interesting Wpirit Week this year."
-Victoria Halpin, Junior

Bay Shore Pride

1. Bay Shore High School athletes get pumped up for the opening ceremonies of the Pep Rally.

2. DeVaughn Burton, junior, shows excitement as he poses for the camera at his first Bay Shore Pep Rally.

The varsity Cheerleaders perform their routine to motivate the crowd and kick off a great Pep Rally welcoming!

3. The Girls Cross Country team anxiously awaits the announcement of the winner of the spirit stick.

4. The Boys Soccer team performs its dance, featuring break dancing moves within their team circle.

5. The Girls Volleyball team shows its spirit by performing a sassy dance to "Gagnam Style".

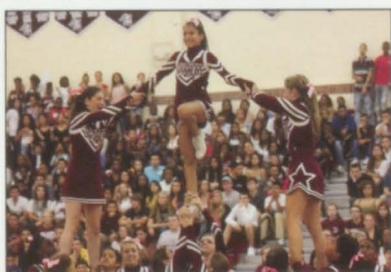

6. Students of all grades get excited and rallied up at the bonfire before heading into the gym.

7. Maggie Berke, senior, conducts the Marauder Marching Band with poise and energy.

The varsity Cheerleading team performs a stunt. Paola Goetz, freshman, smiles at the crowd while balancing.

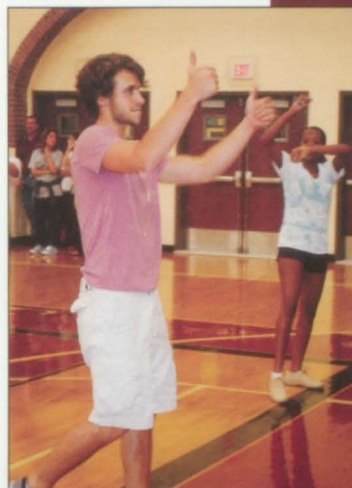

The incredible drum majors conduct the Marching Band and warm up the crowd.

The Boys Golf team makes a memorable entrance by arriving on a golf cart.

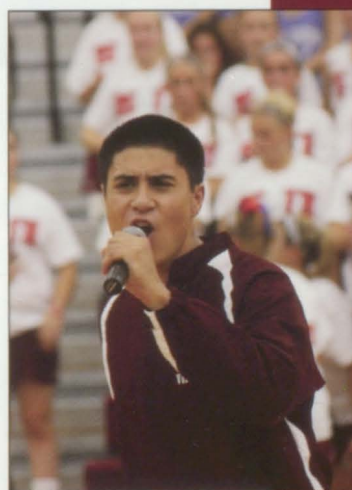

"All of the senior Field Hockey team members came together and worked hard and long hours, including after practice, to prepare a Pep Rally dance. The dance is extremely important to us because Field Hockey was the first team to put the dances in Pep Rally, and tradition never graduates."

-Emily Lindahl, Senior

"Of course being at the Pep Rally gives us all a sense of pride in our school, but it also helps people see what's going on that we may not have heard about. I'm glad I attended each Pep Rally I could, seeing that it helped open up the greatness of this school a little wider for me."

-Jimmy Brewer, Senior

"This was definitely my favorite Pep Rally so far and I wish I can say that I prepared for this years performance, but I really didn't. My coach just put me on the spot. At first I was nervous because I've never done this before but I kind of just allowed the crowd to woo me in."

-Marc Barrreda, Junior.

"I was incredibly nervous singing at the Pep Rally because it was a moment I had waited for for my entire life. Seeing the faces of the kids whom I had known since childhood, and knowing this was one of the last times we'd all truly be together made the experience that much more emotional for me and memorable nonetheless."

-Sara Chiehti, Senior

"Homecoming is that one game of the year that is like no other. You know that everyone is watching and it's your job to represent your school. You have no option but to dominate for your fans."

-Aaron Lewis, Junior

"The Homecoming Parade helps to shake off some nerves before the half time show and it gives the danceline time to have some fun with the routines before our main performance."

-Kerry Maerki, Senior

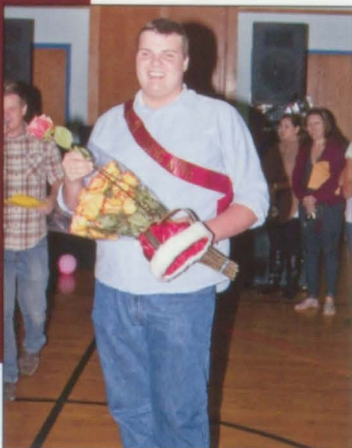

"I didn't expect to be nominated or even win, but it was a great surprise. Homecoming Queen is a big deal where I come from in El Salvador, so I was excited to tell all of my family."

-Betty Duran, Senior

"Homecoming was a ton of fun. I got to watch our football team kick butt and then I won Homecoming King. It was a fun-filled and unforgettable day that will truly be one of the best memories from my senior year."

-Spencer Schnorr, Senior

13eyond the spirit

Students show their spirit at the Homecoming Dance by shouting and throwing their hands up in the air.

1. Matthais Eato, senior, gets a pat on the back from his teammates Matt Killeen and Joe Volavka, seniors, after completing a successful play in the game.

2. Sherilyn Bennett, Ambar Durango, and Maggie Berke, seniors, perform the kickline with Patrice Baston, sophomore, and Shanice Douglas, junior.

3. Alyssa Taylor and Tracy Ambos, juniors, line up to play the clarinet in the Marauder Marching Band Half Time Show.

4. The Homecoming Dance was full of excitement when Sebastian Guzman Gonzalez, senior, showed off his dance moves after the big win.

5. The varsity football team lines up after the second quarter to walk off the field together.

6. The varsity Cheerleaders hold their final stunt after performing at the Homecoming Game's Half Time Show.

Homecoming

13lawing in the wind

1. Sara Farnan, freshman, walks through the flooded streets of her neighborhood following the hurricane.
2. A fallen tree takes out a power line leaving this neighborhood without power for two weeks.

Emmet Farnan, senior, and Megan Farnan, freshman, trek with enthusiasm through the flooded streets of Bay Shore.

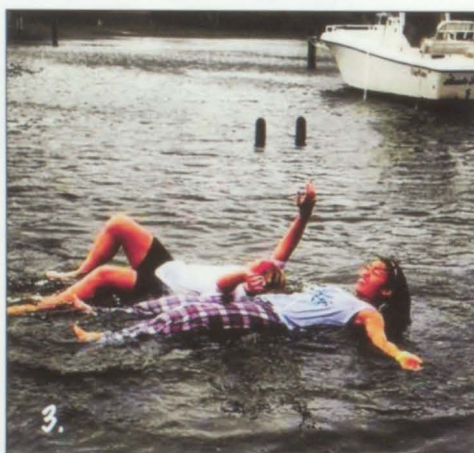

3. Killeen Martin, senior, and Kyra Harney, junior, lay down to play in the flooded streets near the Brightwaters canal.

4. Karly White, senior, sits on a floating refrigerator found in a flooded street in her neighborhood.

5. A van drives through the flooded streets of Bay Shore to provide relief to those in need.

6. A fallen tree destroys a fence on a family's property.

7. Spencer Schnorr, senior, kayaks down his block to check the damage that Hurricane Sandy caused.

Bianca Egas, junior, captures Stephanie Carroll, freshman splashing through the puddles in the streets after the storm.

This massive tree was completely uprooted because of Sandy's high winds. This sight could be found all around Bay Shore.

The school's American Flag wearily sways in the wind after being torn from the effects of the hurricane.

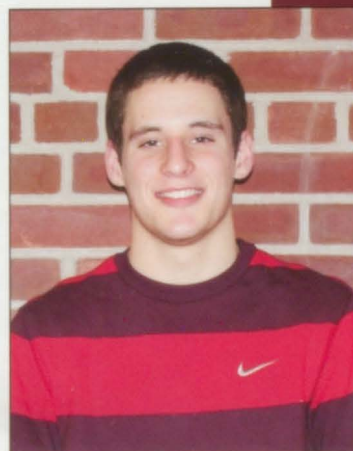

"Hurricane Sandy was really draining, but I think it brought not only New York together, but also brought Bay Shore together and has made us a stronger town and family."
- Catherine Darcy, Junior

"I was affected badly by Hurricane Sandy and lost power for almost two weeks. It was annoying to not be able to leave my house or even charge my phone. However, it was nice to have a week off from school and chill with my boys."
-Mike Duquette, Senior

"Although my house was surrounded by water on all four sides, my house had little to no damage. I was so lucky in comparison to others. I think that as a school we were all disappointed that we didn't get to celebrate Halloween. Hopefully nothing like this happens again."
-Sydney Leone, Junior

"My dad and I tried to stop the water from coming in the house many different ways, but nothing seemed to work. We weren't as prepared as we thought we were, but we all ended up alright."
-Rich Arcuri, Senior

"Not only was I able to be in the show, but I got to be an assistant director. It was a really enriching and rewarding experience working on and off the stage."

-Krisbel Brenes, Senior

"I liked doing this show. We got a lot done in such a short amount of time since it was only two of us. I enjoyed doing a show that was serious and had a really big cliff hanger."

-Melissa Lopez, Senior

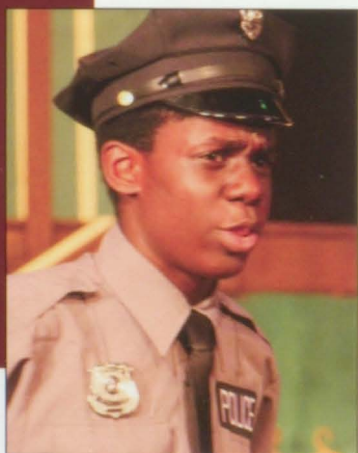

"This show was a ton of fun. Not only was it funny, but there were serious moments that you got the best of both worlds; you got to make everyone laugh and at the same time you got to keep everyone on the edge of their seats."

-Spencer Schnorr, Senior

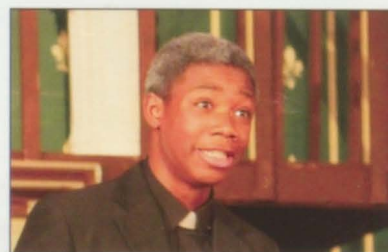

"I was one of a few freshmen in the show and it was a really great experience working with such a talented cast. Not only did I learn a lot, but I got to work with my older brother in one of his last shows on the Bay Shore stage."

-Kwaku Owusu, Freshman

Camille Warner, senior, acts out her character in the fall show Arsenic and Old Lace. Warner has been a part of the drama club since freshman year.

Annie Mack, senior, applies blush to act out her role. Mack has been involved in numerous shows throughout high school.

Kordell Hammond, sophomore, plays the role of an elderly reverend in the show.

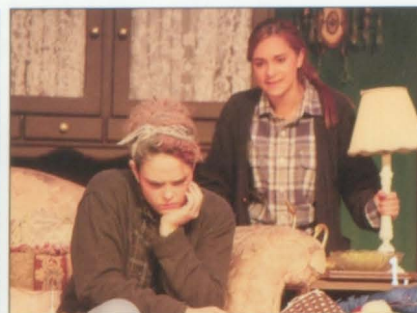

Fall

Break a leg

Spencer Schnorr, senior, tries to calm down Jasmen Wimbush and Camille Warner, seniors, from senior James Brewer's actions.

1. Maggie Berke and Melissa Lopez, seniors, act out an argument during the show Night Mother.

2. Jasmen Wimbush and Camille Warner, seniors, stand together and listen intently to a fellow cast member.

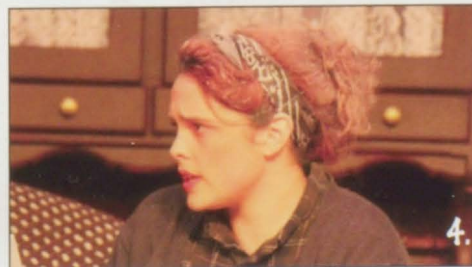

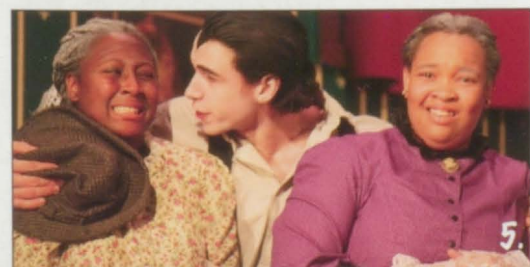

3. Annie Mack, senior, brings in some sass by playing a romantic, ditzy girl who falls in love with a playwright.

4. Maggie Berke, senior, shows distress when she finds out her daughter in Night Mother wants to commit suicide.

5. Camille Warner and Jasmen Wimbush, seniors, react to the foul stench of senior Jimmy Brewer's character in Arsenic and Old Lace.

6. James Vaughn, junior, reacts shockingly when he discovers his "aunts" have murdered twelve men.

7. Remy DeJoseph, junior, re-enacts a naval battle that his character once fought in.

Drama Production

1. Courtney Syrett, senior, marches with her saxophone during the Homecoming game. Syrett was the section leader of her line and was successful in leading the drill.

2. Valerie Casola, senior, swings her flag to the beat of the music. Casola helped the color guard stay focused and together.

Maggie Berke, senior, directs the marching band during the field show at the Homecoming game. Berke was the head drum major this year and led to band to success.

3. Walpole Jean-Philippe, junior, Michael Stickney, and Nigel Nelson, seniors, show off their moves during the drum solo. Nelson was this year's drumline captain.

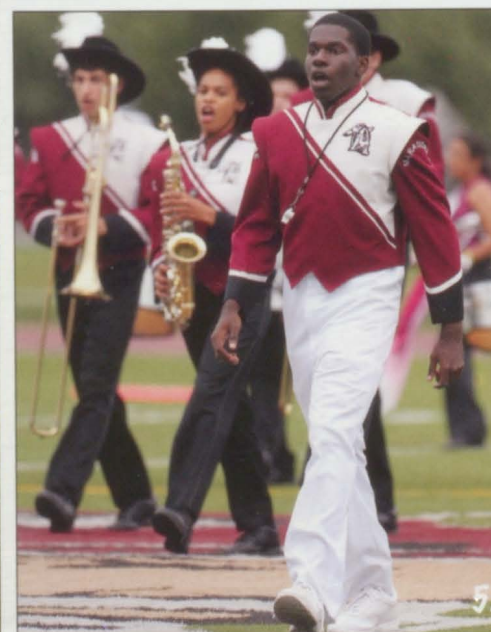

4. Olivia O'Connor, senior, finishes in a split after the field show. O'Connor has been an excellent danceline captain for two years.

8. Zack Romanzi and Emmet Farnan, seniors, play by memory the "Tower of Power" medley.

7. Christian Holzer, senior, hits his bass drum with vigor. Holzer was an essential part of the drum line.

"Colorguard is like any other sports team: everyone needs to work together in order to be the best that we can be. Compared to the other two years I was on colorguard, this year was, by far, the most grueling season. However, everyone put their best foot forward to make this year successful."

Farria Ashfaq, 12

"I thought that the band sounded incredible. Audibly we were better than ever this year. We had some tough music to play, but we all were able to pull off a great show. The drumline had a really cool solo that we performed, and it was awesome. I'm going to miss this next year."

Nigel Nelson, 12

"This year in marching band, we had a great group. The music was different from what we've done before, and was a huge challenge. Throughout the season, we all worked really hard, and ended up having a wonderful show at the Newsday festival. I couldn't have asked for a better season."

Maggie Berke, 12

"My role as captain (of the danceline) was to come up with choreography, which Olivia O'Connor and I worked together on. She did parts and I did others. We both kept the girls focused and excited to dance to the music that our classmates played. It was one of the best shows yet."

Ambar Durango, 12

"Getting to cheer on a crowd in front of the marching band was a great feeling. Marching is nice, but I am going to college for acting and singing, so I'm grateful that Mr. Rotello and Mr. Scalzo let me follow my interest while I was still in high school."

Jimmy Brewer, 12

6. Katie Kennedy, junior, and other members of the brass section line up during the show to play their horns.

5. Kwaku Owusu, senior, leads the band to its starting position. Owusu was one of three drum majors.

Marching Band

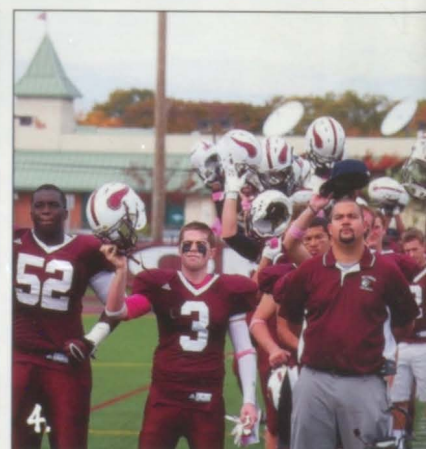

1. McKinley Skinner, senior, receives a pass from the quarterback to put Bay Shore in a position to score a field goal. Skinner ended the season with a total of 534 yards.

2. Joe Sullivan, senior, kicks the ball to add an extra point after the team scores a touchdown. Sullivan ended the season with a total of three field goals.

3. Jake Sheets, junior, looks upfield to pass the ball to an open receiver, helping Bay Shore gain yardage. Sheets went on to have 7 touchdown passes in the season.

4. The team raises its helmets to pay respect as the National Anthem plays before the game.

7. Matthais Eato, senior and co-captain, carries the ball past his defender to secure the first down for Bay Shore. Eato ended the season with a total of 18 touchdowns

6. Ousmane Camara, senior and co-captain, tackles the ball carrier to stop the opposing team from getting a first down. Camara ended the season with a total of 120 tackles.

13 brotherhood forever

"The most important part of the season was the preparation it implemented in my life. Coach G, Ryan Mazzie, and myself were all going through a very rough time with our personal lives, but we did not quit. We remained strong throughout the season and gave it our best. This season has prepared us for the biggest obstacles in life. To know that you have 50 players who are like brothers is a great feeling."

Joel Nunez, 12

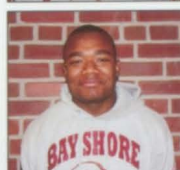

"Many people thought that we would never get into the playoffs, so it was rewarding when we finally did make it. These guys have been together since they were in the middle school, and the fact that they opened their arms out to me meant a lot, and I know that I will remember them forever."

Ousmane Camara, 12

"Having known these guys since I was nine made this season the best one yet. Playing in my last home game was an emotional day because we all grew so close to each other and I know that I will remember my teammates for many years to come. Football is the perfect sport because you have 40 individuals forming into one to become the best. I couldn't have asked for a better team."

Michael Duquette, 12

"Knowing that this season was my last was a bittersweet feeling. It was sad to think that this was the last season with my brothers. However, I was happy because I knew that as a captain I would be able to motivate everyone to make it to playoffs. Especially since my co-captain had a terrible loss this season, I had to step up."

Football

1. Elizabeth Athing, senior and captain, recovers the ball away from an offender and is headed to the goal. Athing hopes to continue playing field hockey at the collegiate level.

2. Emily Lindahl, senior, reverse sweeps the ball away from a defender. Lindahl continues her passion for field hockey on a travel team.

Courtney Syrett, senior and captain, goes after the ball to retrieve it for her team. Syrett is a two year All County candidate.

3. The Bay Shore Field Hockey team goes into playoffs with a phenomenal record of 16-3-0.

4. Courtney Syrett, Kyra Harney, Haleigh Rock, juniors, and goalie, Chelsea Lombardo, sophomore, defend the net from a corner.

Fall

7. Jacqueline Ulrich, senior, recovers after making an amazing play. Ulrich was the second leading scorer for the team this year.

6. Kyra Harney, junior, passes the ball upfield to her teammate. Harney received Newsday's First Team All-Long Island Award this season.

13reaking records

"We started and ended really strong in our season. I don't think we realized how good of a team we were until we made it to counties for the first time in so long. This was the best team I was a part of over the past four years."

Elizabeth Athling, 12

"This season is the farthest that the Bay Shore Field Hockey team has ever gone in the past. It is an honor to know that I helped my team achieve something we had not in history."

Courtney Syrett, 12

"We have beaten major Long Island Field Hockey power houses, and have shocked everyone with how good our team is. We couldn't be more proud of ourselves."

Emily Lindahl, 12

"Our expectations were fulfilled; we made it the furthest that Bay Shore Field Hockey has made it in the past 20 years. There's no greater feeling than knowing you accomplished what you wanted."

5. Killeen Martin, senior, rings the opponent's free hit to obtain the ball for her team. Martin is a 4-year varsity field hockey player.

Field Hockey

1. Dimitri Beauchamp, senior and captain, dribbles down the field. Beauchamp helped the team give up only nine goals throughout the entire season with his center defending skills.

2. Jorge Rodriguez, senior, settles the ball with his chest as the ball comes down from the air. Rodriguez enjoyed his first year on varsity.

3. The varsity Soccer team huddles before their game. They defeated Walt Whitman High School by two points.

4. Braulio Sandoval and Matthew Smith, juniors, discuss a game plan. The "dynamic duo" will be back to play again next year.

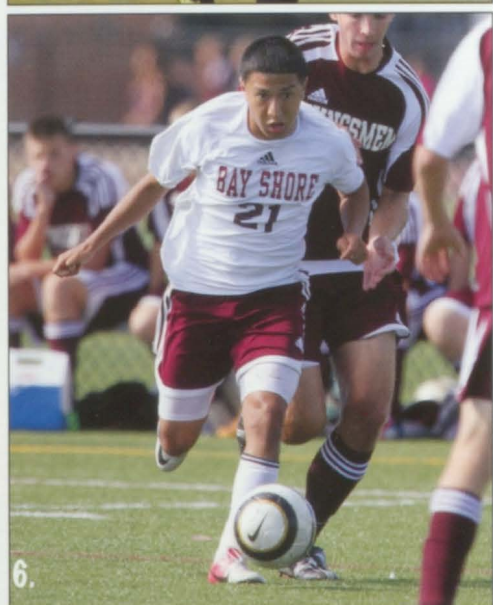

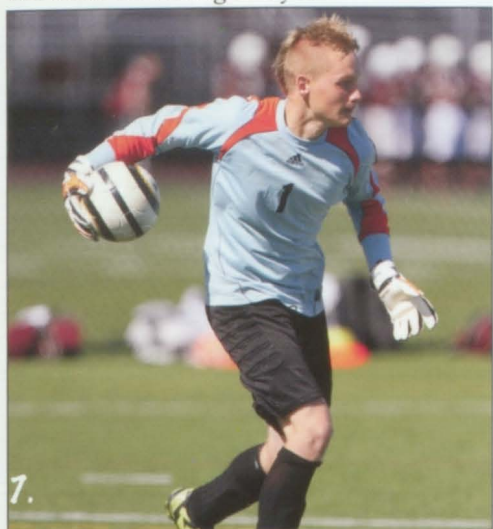

Fall

7. Goalie, Avery Gomez, senior and captain, rolls the ball out to a teammate. Gomez started in goal for his second straight year on varsity.

6. Braulio Sandoval, junior, dribbles down the field with a defender right on his back. He led the team in scoring this year.

13villiance on the field

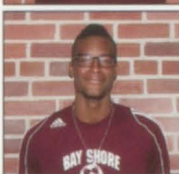

"At the beginning of the season I thought it was going to be a tough road, but it didn't go too bad. It wasn't easy, but we did end up accomplishing a lot this season. We did great this season because of our different personalities and we have great chemistry."

Avery Gomez, 12

"Honestly, I didn't expect to do as well as we did; we finished the season as second seed in Division II. Our communication and chemistry were our biggest strengths. Bay Shore Soccer continues to do great things."

Joe Sullivan, 12

"I think we succeeded the most when we just played our game. We knew what we are capable of and it's possible to beat any team that we want to."

Dimitri Beauchamp, 12

"Our strengths were our central defense, goalkeeping, and communication on the pitch. We knew that if our defense held strong through the whole season, we would be more inclined to win games. And that's what we did."

13 believe

as a team

"My favorite memory of this season was playing in our Senior Day game; I scored the winning goal. It was a great feeling to end my season on such a positive note."

Aracely Romero, 12

"The expectations for this season were to play as a team and work our way to the top. Being a team player, not settling for less, and always having motivation are important to us because those things will help us succeed."

Gabby Attanasio, 11

"We prepare for a game by warming up and working on our first touches. We also keep a strong energy as we go into every game, along with having a positive attitude and a clear mind."

Erica Silhan, 11

"I am going to miss my team the most, and the way we all worked together and got along. We kept our heads high throughout the season and enjoyed every minute of it."

Yesica Alberto, 12

1. The girls watch intently as the game is being played. They worked hard to perfect their skills and they all brought their positive energy to the field.

Bump, set, spike!

"I'm pretty honored to be captain. It's nice to be in charge and work with my teammates to help them improve. We had a pretty good season, and I'm happy that our teamwork and dedication payed off."

Jack McLoughlin, 12

"It is important to me to have a lot of fun and not always be serious because it shows that you can still have fun but succeed."

Chris Dannenfelser, 12

"It feels good to be one of the younger kids on the team because I have the responsibility to fill in their shoes next year and now I know how to be successful based on their accomplishments throughout the season."

Dylon Cruz, 11

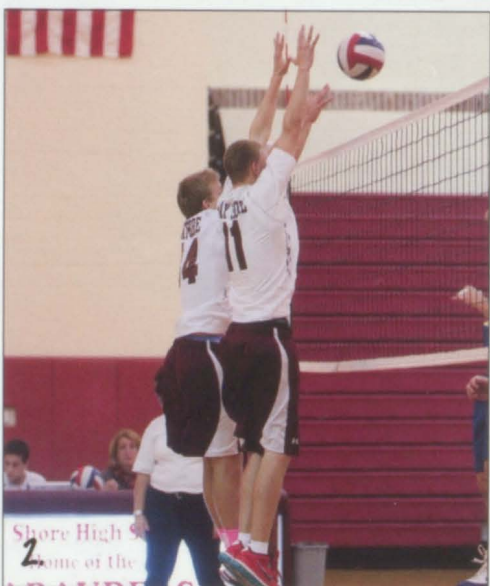

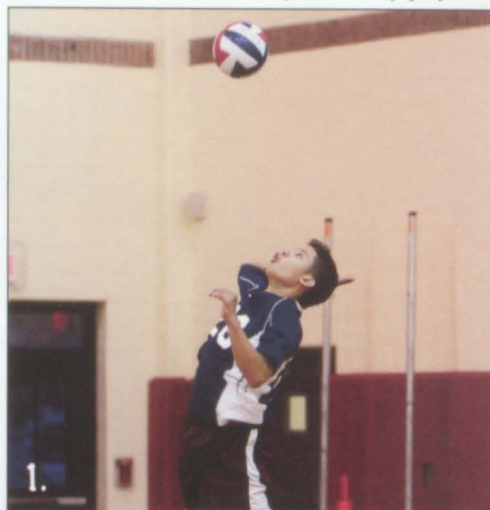

"We had a really good season this year and all the seniors are inspirational to me. I look up to all of them and am sad to see them graduate. I am excited for the future."

Mark Jensen, 10

1. Dylon Cruz, junior, is known for his talented jump serves and great passing. Cruz has been playing since freshman year, and wore the libero jersey.

2. Chris Dannenfelser and Johnny Sammis, seniors, work well to block their opponent's spikes throughout the season. Both boys are first year varsity players.

a Bundance of passion

"We finished with a great winning record that I am beyond proud of to be captain of. As a senior I couldn't be happier with how I spent my last season playing with this team."

Victoria Reilly, 12

"We are a small team so everyone gets a chance to know everyone on an extensive level. It was a great bonding experience."

Karly White, 12

"Making playoffs for the first time in two years alone was one of the best feelings in the world. Then playing Pat-Med in the first game of the post season and beating them made the year so special."

Carly Cox, 11

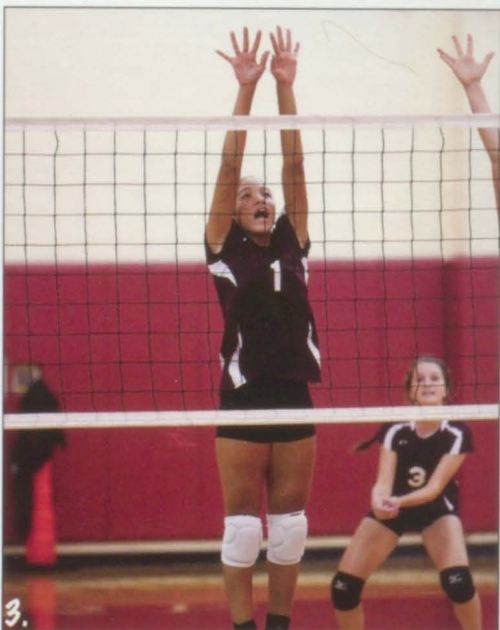

"Before games we go back by the locker room and play ninja to bring us close together and get us pumped up. I know it sounds weird, but it really has become a big part of our pregame ritual. It's the small things like that I will miss the most about Bay Shore when I graduate."

Katie Henriksen, 12

1. Katie Henriksen, senior and co-captain, makes an acrobatic dig. Henriksen's forearm pass was one of the top parts of her game after being named the libero.

2. Carly Cox, junior, spikes the ball to win a point in the win against Walt Whitman. Cox helped the team to a winning season with an 8-3 record.

3. Asia Stewart, junior, goes up for a block. Stewart was named Scholar-Athlete in Suffolk County this year for her first year on varsity.

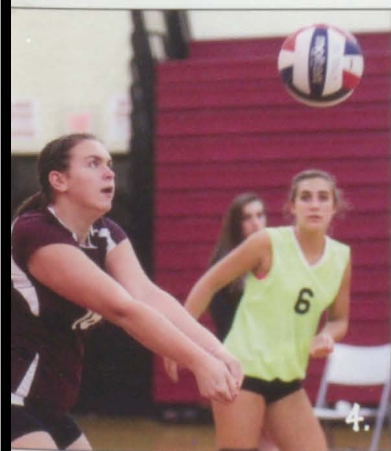

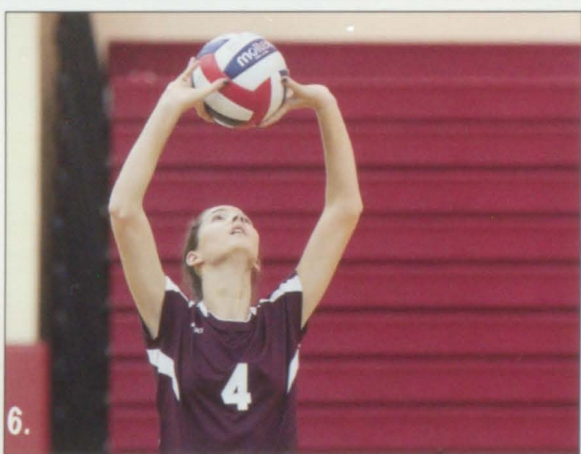

Fall

Karly White, senior and co-captain, spikes the ball to victory. White was named a Long Island Top Ten Player by Newsday this season and will play Division 1 volleyball in college.

7. Victoria Reilly, senior and co-captain, serves the ball to success. As an All-League player, success is the only thing Reilly has known while starting on the varsity team for two years.

6. Sophomore setter, Miranda Hogan, sets the ball up for a spike by one of her teammates. Hogan was the Rookie of the Year in the team's league.

4. Hailey Callahan, sophomore, passes the ball to one of her teammates. Callahan played an important role for her first year on varsity.

5. The team huddles up before a game. The captains this year inspired the underclassmen and rookies to create a family.

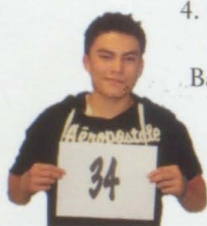

1. Senior captain, Perri Baker, sprints to the ball before it double bounces. Baker has had a huge impact on the team's successes.

2. Lindsey Robinson, sophomore, volleys with a partner against opponent Connetquot. Robinson was named All League this season.

3. Senior, Gianna Keshtgar warms up before a big match. Keshtgar was a first year captain and did a great job inspiring her team.

4. Perri Baker, senior, makes sure there is a good spin on the ball. Baker is a six-year Varsity Tennis athlete.

Fall

7. Christine Martin, junior, playing second doubles against oppenonet with partner,sophmore, Emily Hoffman. This is Christines first year playing tennis for Bay Shore.

6. Lauren Tenhoopen, sophmore, does a backhand to save the ball. This is Tenhoppens second year on varsity as a sophmore.

foot forward

We have a mixture of girls . We have girls who have been playing for a while and girls who just starting playing but are athletic so we help each other out in that aspect.

Perri Baker, 12

The team is so small, everyone is so close and we have really have bonded over our season. We have fun everyday at practice and I think fun is a big component of high school sports.

Kaitlyn Arnold, 12

Our doubles teams have good chemistry on the court and know how to pick each other up if we are losing, and the single girls are extremely competitve to help bring wins.

Gianna Keshtgar, 12

I am excited for next year's season, but we will miss our leading seniors who had a huge impact on our team.

Girls Tennis

1. Sarah Trupp, freshman, does a back hand spring on the beam. Trupp was named All-County this season.
2. Briana Heuthe, senior, executes a vault with the help of Coach Peter Neu. Heuthe has helped the team be successful for 2 years.

Olivia O'Connor, senior and captain, swings on the high bar while keeping perfect form. O'Connor broke the Suffolk County record for highest All Around score, and will be continuing gymnastics at a Division I collegiate level.

3. Cameron Fandale, eighth grader, smiles while performing her floor routine. Fandale plans to continue gymnastics throughout high school.

4. Kerry Maerki, senior and captain, performs a front tuck on the floor, landing it perfectly. Maerki has been on the team for six years and was named All-League this season.

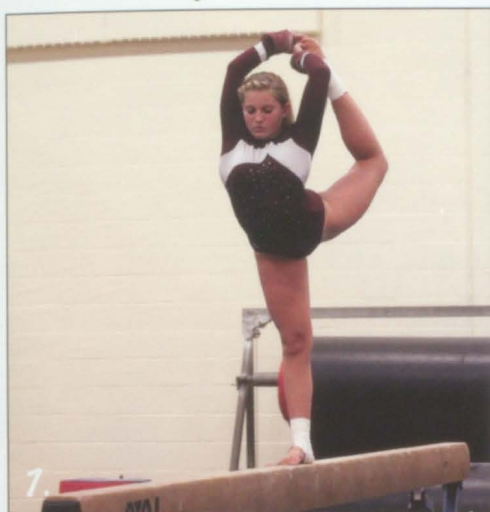

Fall

7. Kameron Christie, freshman, focuses while doing a difficult scale on the beam. Christie was named the Honorable All-League for her performance this season.

6. Kerry Maerki, senior, helps a younger teammate, Sarah Trupp, freshman, fix her hair, a common pre-meet ritual.

13 Balance for perfection

"It is truly flattering to know that my teammates look up to me. As captain, it is my job to inspire them and help them keep their love for the sport alive as well as helping them improve. We had one of the best seasons in our history, and it's an honor to know that I contributed. We achieved our goal of making it to counties, but beyond that, we became like sisters. I couldn't be more proud of my girls."

Olivia O'Connor, 12

"I have been on this team for six years, and we've all been able to become really close, like a family. I can't explain our relationship with the team, it's just something you have to experience. I definitely enjoy competing; I love this sport."

Kerry Maerki, 12

"The highlight of our season was definitely when we beat Kings Park because we haven't beaten them in our history, so this was a major accomplishment for us. Our team is really small so I think we have a closer bond compared to other teams since we are all able to hangout in one spot. This season was unforgettable."

Bri Heuthe, 12

"Next year is going to be really weird without the seniors because I have been with them since I joined in 7th grade. We are all so close but I still look forward to doing gymnastics."

Winter

Amanda Voges and Perri Baker, seniors, smile big while having fun at the Senior Banquet.

A group of friends gather on the Brightwaters Lakes for a game of "broom ball".

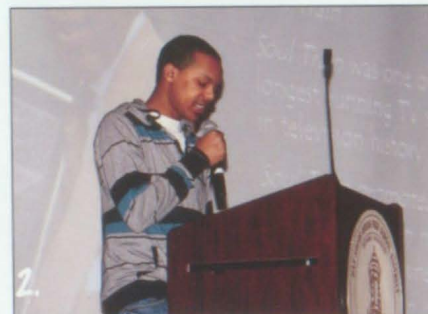

Gerrel Irvin, senior, shoots as his opponent tries to block him. Irvin helped his team win 8 games this season.

The seniors dance the night away at the Senior Banquet.

Building a better future

1. Gregory Singer, guest speaker, gives a speech about becoming something from nothing.

2. Jeffrey Clinton, senior, helps to introduce the guest speakers for the assembly.

3. Damien Escobar, member of the Nuttin' But Stringz violin duo, performs hit songs from Rihanna, Miguel, and other popular artists.

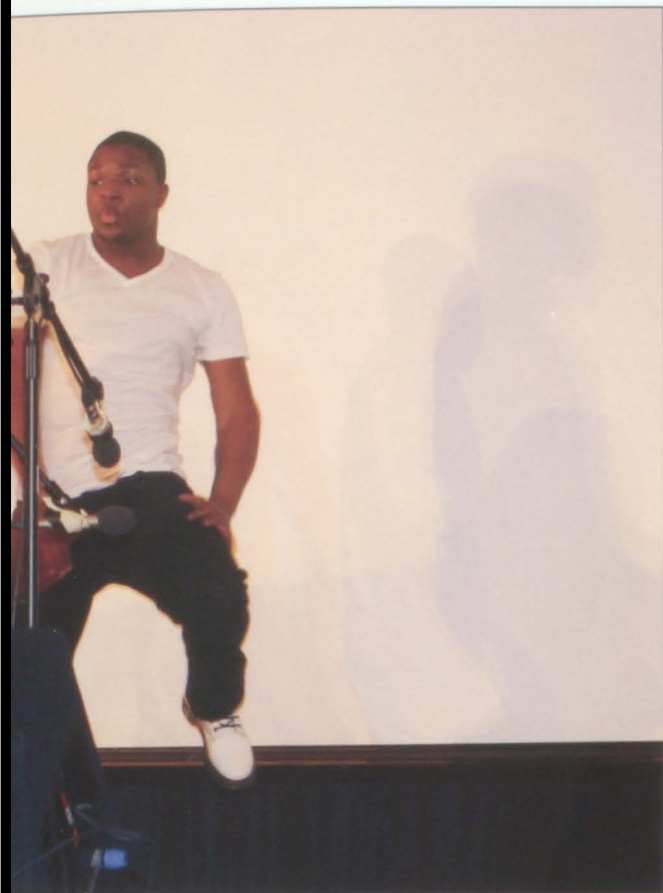

4. Students sing along to Escobar's version of "Up in Here," by DMX.

5. Arjge Brothers, senior, strikes a pose while performing in the Black History Month assembly.

6. Anthony Blythe, senior and co-organizer of the day, introduces Damien Escobar.

7. Moniqua Johnson, sophomore, sings the National Anthem to bring students together and start the assembly.

Students dance and sing to Damien Escobar's upbeat performance.

Mr. Aaron Johnson gives an inspiring speech on the background and importance of Black History Month.

Natali Diggs, senior, opens the assembly with her version of "Lift Every Voice and Sing."

"Black History Month is important because it allows African Americans to have something to be proud of."
- Anthony Blythe, Senior

"It is nice to be educated about things I don't know. It helps me understand the African American culture."
-Dylan Teitelbaum, Senior

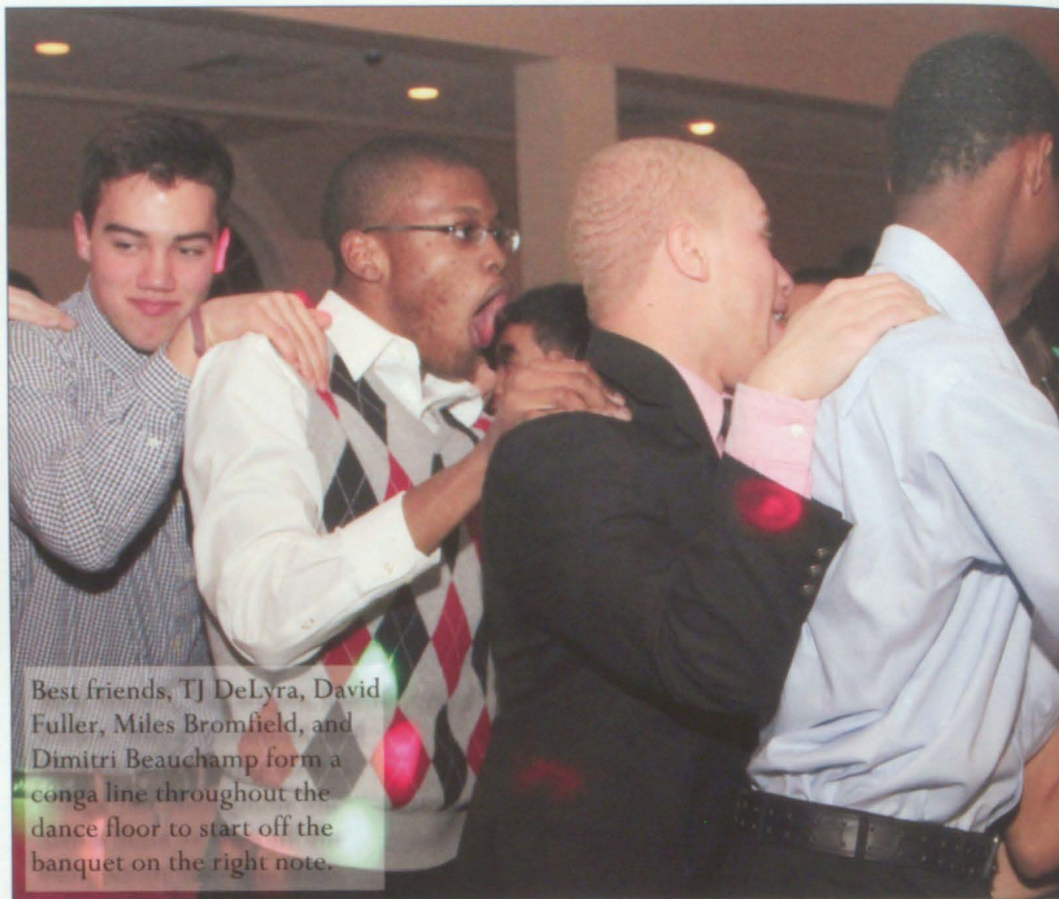

"I was impacted by Mr. Singer's poetry. It paid tribute to civil rights activists."
- Jeffrey Clinton, Senior

"When Damien Escobar performed I fell in love with his passion for music."
-Jessica Rousseau, Senior

2. Mallory Wood and Caroline Mulligan break it down in the middle of the dance floor.

Best friends, TJ DeLyra, David Fuller, Miles Bromfield, and Dimitri Beauchamp form a conga line throughout the dance floor to start off the banquet on the right note.

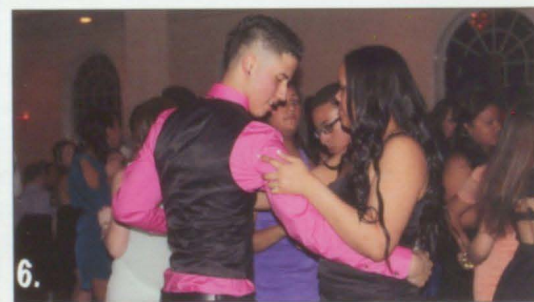

3. Shaiya Williams celebrates her senior year by throwing her hands in the air with her friends.

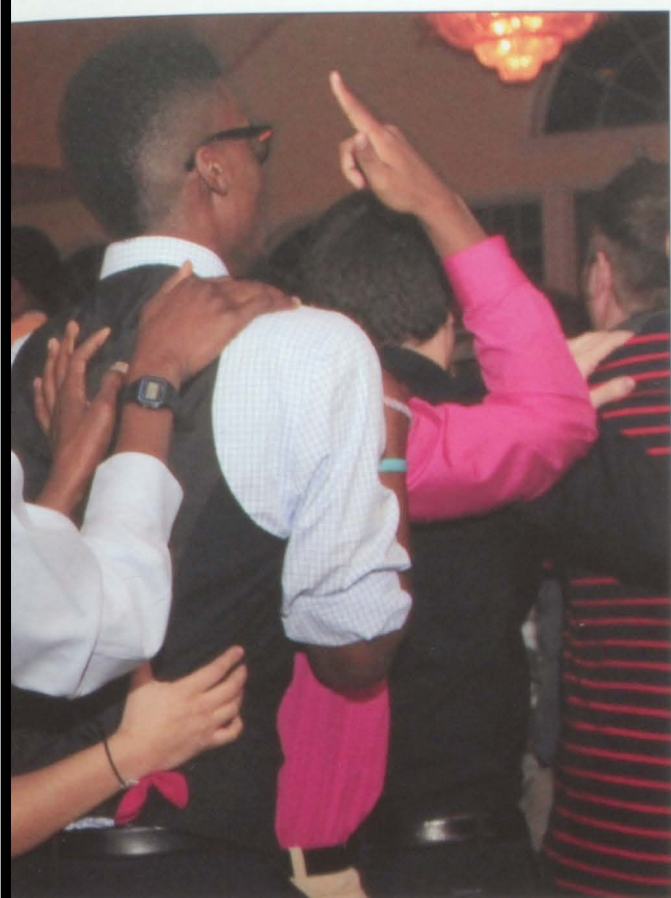

4. Keyanna Jones, Frank Villalta, Eric Jimenez, Ivette Tufino, Jorge Rodriguez, and Chester Costales pose for a group photo.

5. Cosmo Diercks, Kelsey Palomino, and Matthais Eato pose together for a nice picture on the dance floor.

6. Elbin Cuevas and Dahiana Peralta Torres dance Latin style, having a great time with all their friends.

7. Valerie Casola and Ambar Orench-Durango show their happiness towards the festivities and pose for a picture.

Before the banquet, Asia Sains and Lucille Bootman get together to take a picture for a night they will always remember.

Arlene Tucker and Bianca Arevalo Bustillos cling hands while they are having an awesome time on the dance floor.

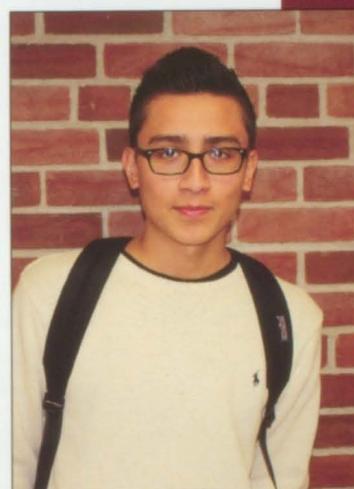

Emmet Farnan, Tatiana Moreira and Emily Lindahl smile for a group shot.

"Everyone was so well dressed, and everyone seemed like they were having a great time. I wish less people were sitting down and more were dancing, but I had a lot of fun dancing, especially with our senior class together."
-Chester Costales

"It was really special to have a night together as a senior class where we could simply just have fun together. The unity that we have as a class was really evident because the majority of the night everyone was just out on the dance floor not worrying about which 'clique' he or she belonged to."
-Victoria Reilly

"It was good to get together with the whole senior class; it was really cool. The best part of the night is that our class got to share it together."
-Gerson Sandoval

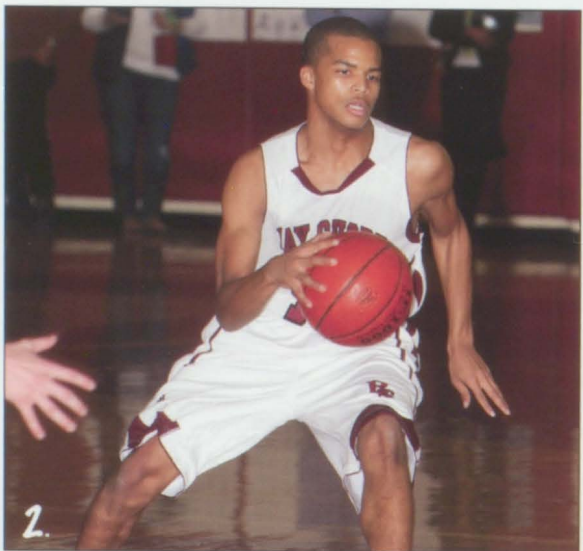

"It was a great experience just for the fact that I am not the school dance type of person. It was so much fun because everyone came together as one and had a good time. It was truly a night to remember. I can say that this is a high school memory that will never be forgotten."
-Jahseek Burgess

1. Tisean Wright, senior, drives to the basket in hopes of scoring to put Bay Shore in the lead. Wright has been on Varsity for three years.

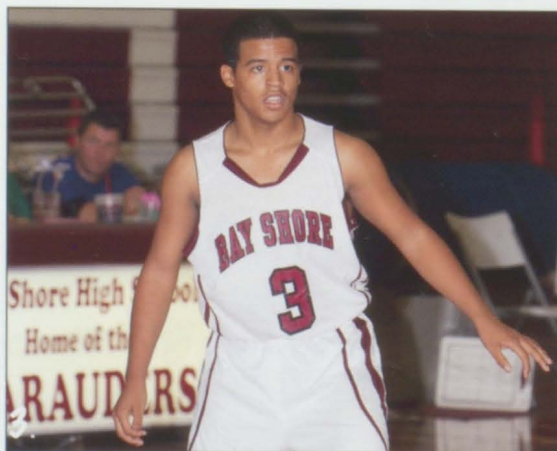

2. Tyson Morton, junior, dribbles the ball up the court in order to get into a better scoring position. This is Morton's first year on varsity.

Bryson Lassiter, senior, runs by his defender to get the ball down court, as he has for the past three years. Lassiter expects to play basketball at a college level next year.

3. Marquis Rolon, junior, waits to receive a pass from a fellow teammate. This is Rolon's first year on varsity.

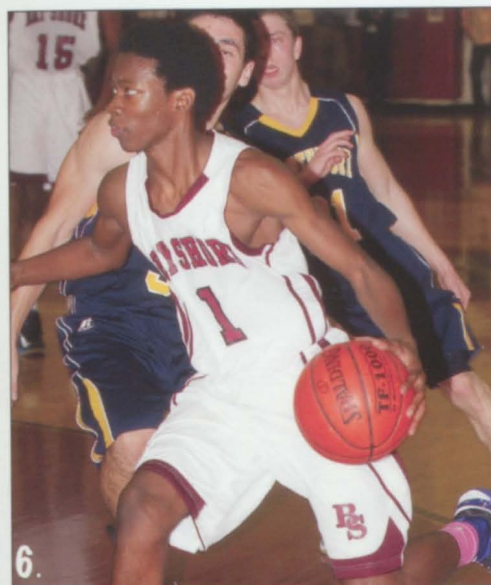

4. Jason Wright, senior, dribbles the ball past his opponent. Wright has been on varsity for three years.

Winter

7. Coach Gary Williams talks to his team during a time out. Coach Williams led his team to a 12 and 6 record this year.

6. Furious Jackson, senior, breaks the press and dribbles the ball up court. This was Jackson's second year on the varsity team.

Nothing But net

"My team and I have great chemistry on the court. We've been playing for some time now and we build a lot during the Fall. We also have a lot of charisma while we play, which makes us different from the other teams."

Bryson Lassiter, 12

"What makes us special is the love and respect for each other. We are basically one big family. I also feel my role as a captain is to make sure me and my teammates are always on the same page."

Devin Farmer, 12

"As a captain I feel my role is to be a leader and a positive example for the team. We all have great chemistry because we have been playing together for so long, so I am confident that we can go very far this season."

Jason Wright, 12

"Our team is different from most teams; we're more disciplined, more conditioned and have great chemistry. Us seniors have played with each other since 7th grade."

3. Head Coach Mark Spruyt gives his team a pep talk during halftime to inspire and motivate his girls.

4. Kaly Alzate, freshman, goes up for a layup against a defender. Alzate is the only freshman to make the varsity team this year.

Winter

7. Karly White, senior, boxes out her defenders during a foul shot. White is a key component of this team with her superior height and talent.

6. Courtney Syrett, senior and captain, dribbles the ball and makes a move toward her defender.

13 boundaries are nonexistent

"My job as a captain is to be a role model, make sure everyone is getting along well, and also make sure that we all have the same goals in mind. If we grow as a team and remain motivated, there is no doubt in my mind that we will have a successful season this year."

Courtney Syrett, 12

"I love being a part of the basketball team because I am friendly with all the girls on the team, so it makes practice and games more enjoyable. I've been on varsity since ninth grade, and since this year is my senior year I want to make it the best and have fun."

Casey Taggart, 12

"I came back to basketball because I felt like the program was really trying to start up again. At practice we try hard everyday, and the program is continuing to get better. Also it keeps me in great shape for other sports that I am in. I'm happy I came back to basketball for my senior year and I can say I had a great experience."

Amanda Voges, 12

"My responsibility as a captain is to keep everyone focused and on track at practice, but to also have fun and make sure everyone is enjoying it so we can be successful. I play basketball because I have been playing since I was little, and also it's a great way to stay in shape. I just love the sport and how it brings the team together."

Blazing at the speed of light

"Track is more work than the other activities I participate in, but I like a challenge. It's enjoyable, exciting, and it's a rush getting the medals. Many people believe that you have to be big in order to be good at shot put, but I was able to prove all of my critics wrong. If there is one thing I can pass down to someone else, it is that size doesn't matter."

Andrew Nelson, 12

"This year I gained a lot from being a part of the boys winter track team. Track differs from many other sports because it is very individually oriented. You compete as an individual most of the time and the person you are trying to beat is yourself, trying to get a new personal best."

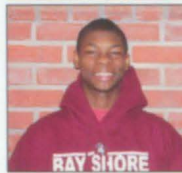

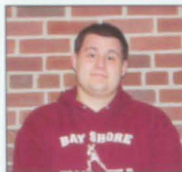

John Mirabito, 12

"I was competing since I was seven and winning is always the best feeling to me. It gives me such an adrenaline rush. I want to be able to run professionally and I feel that this will help towards my goal."

Kareem Roberts, 12

"The track team is like my second family. I am very close to my teammates. We have a lot more freshmen and sophomores than previous years and I have grown close to them."

Matthais Eato, 12

1. John Mirabito, senior, prepares to throw the shot put. Mirabito went 36-3.75 in the Shot Put at Section 11 Boy's Crossover B, placing 4th.

5. Omari Buckmire, junior, goes for the win and puts everything into his triple jump. Buckmire met the national standard, jumping 45 feet 4 inches.

4. Noah Craig, sophomore, pushes forward to lead the race. Craig ran his personal best of 5:20.76 in the mile at the Hispanic Games.

Boys Track

1. Cynthia Delcore, senior, runs the anchor leg of the 4x400 meter relay, which placed second in the league meet.

2. Nia McCaslin, sophomore, runs in the 4x800 meter relay. McCaslin was part of the team that qualified for Nationals this year at the Armory.

Nailah Braxton, senior and captain, high jumps at League Relays. Braxton jumped a personal best of 5'2" this winter.

4. Marisol Nazario, senior, finishes up the 4x800 meter relay in the League Championships. Nazario has been on the team all four years of her high school career.

Winter

7. Cesia Andrade, junior, focuses on the first lap of the 4x400 meter relay. Andrade also participated in the 4x800 meter relay throughout the season.

6. Imani McGhee, junior and captain, jumps in the long jump during counties. McGhee placed in the long jump at the League Championships.

Bringing home the gold

"It's great being a captain on a team like this. The best part of being a captain is the role of being both a teammate and a leader. My role is to lead the team when Coach isn't around and make sure the team is doing what they're supposed to be doing. I am honored to have this position."

Lindsay Arcuri, 12

"I feel like meet after meet we continue to improve. Before each event we all do lucky pounds to motivate each other to do our best, whether it be running, jumping, or throwing."

Kelsey Palomino, 12

"My expectations as a captain were met this year when we won both leagues and counties. The best part of being a captain is when the new track runners come to you for advice and look up to you in a performance aspect."

Cheerleading

13awling in style

"It's been a pleasure and a lot of fun being a part of the team. Making Counties for two out of the three years I was on the team was a really great experience."

John Scollo, 12

"Even though Bay Shore doesn't have a strong youth involvement in bowling, we've managed to create a really strong bowling program and have become real county contenders."

Angel Rodriguez, 12

Brianna Barnett, senior, diligently reads and takes notes in a gourmet foods class.

Jeniffer Leon Pincay, senior, works on her project in her senior elective.

"I like my schedule this year because I have nice, relaxed classes in the morning, then I have all of my harder classes later. So it was less stressful because I didn't have hard classes early in the morning."
-Morgan Varone, Senior

"I am really happy to be able to go to Bay Shore because there are so many academic advanced placement options. My favorite is AP Calculus with Mrs. Bosley. She always is there if I need extra help."
-Emily Napear, Junior

"Bay Shore High School as a whole has been a great experience. What I enjoyed most about my four years at Bay Shore is the diversity we have in the school. It's really great to be able to see all the different cultures."
-Jack McLoughlin, senior

"I really enjoyed all the electives I have taken throughout my years at Bay Shore. As a senior I really liked the English elective Film Studies. We watch movies and learn about different film techniques."

"I have been in Jazz Band since the sixth grade and I absolutely love it. It is not the most serious jazz band, but we have fun while we practice, especially when Mr. Rotello decides to wear his Hawaiian shirts."

Michael Stickney, 12

"I love Thursday Night Jazz because improvising is a lot more freeing than a traditional concert band setting. Jazz is smooth and fun compared to some other types of music."

Steven Masciale, 12

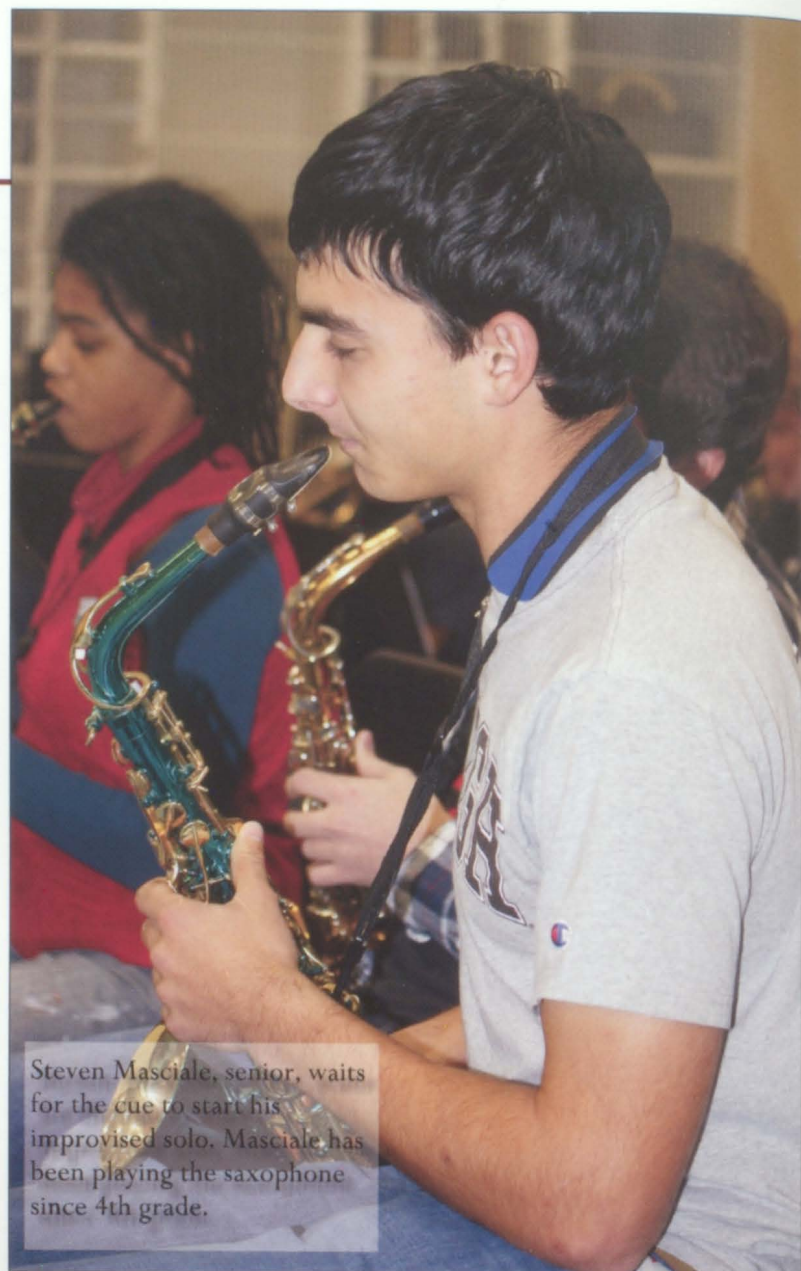

"I love being in jazz band, because of the freedom that it allows you to express. Mr. Rotello is fun, yet gets right to the point. I couldn't have asked for a better musical group to be a part of."

Matt Bzdyk, 12

Seniors: Matt Bzdyk, Steven Masciale, Raymond Morales, Michael Stickney, Ayla Von Essen

"When I was first asked to join jazz band in the sixth grade, I was not sure about what I was getting myself into. What I was going through at that point in my life didn't revolve around the deeper meaning of jazz. However, it has opened my mind into a new perspective about life in general and how people usually stick to old habits."

Langston Cummings, 12

"I was very honored when I was asked to join the Hip Katz, because Mr. Scalzo only asks a very select few amount of people. Jazz band has helped me relax more when I play, and it taught me to be more comfortable with others."

Shari Cummings, 12

Seniors: Ben Attisani, James Brewer, Langston Cummings, Shari Cummings, Emmet Farnan, Jake Polosino, Zack Romanzi, TJ Wilkinson

Senior, Maggie Berke studies her lines carefully as she works on an IB Film Studies project for her classmates.

"Making the decision to do IB changes you as a person, not only a student. I think IB is important because it is about so much more than grades and schoolwork. IB is about self-improvement and fostering open mindedness in all people. IB is a lot of work, but it was definitely worth it"

Maggie Berke, 12

"I think the best thing about IB is that you get to look at different cultures in every class. You get to look at different perspectives in English, Science, History and any IB elective."

Marisa Christie, 12

Senior IB Diploma Candidates: Maggie Berke, Marisa Christie, Yorman Guzman Gomez, Allison Hedemark, Brianna Joseph, Saroosh Khan, Maribeatta Russo, Brittany Thomson, Tiziana Vecchio, Ayla von Lessen, Camille Warner

"The Science Olympiads program has really been an extraordinary opportunity for me. Over my four years on the team I have participated in building events, lab events, and test events. Each event takes a different approach and I really enjoy taking the challenge. I'm looking forward to this year's competition and hope to take some medals home for Bay Shore."

Steven Masciale, 12

"Science Olympiads is the most interesting club that I am involved in. Most people think it's only for brainiacs who know the periodic table like the back of their hand, but it's not. You have to have an interest in science to enjoy it. The competitions are tough, but whether we win or lose, the experience is still amazing, and you leave learning a lot of new things."

Yannie Baptiste, 12

Seniors: Yannie Baptiste, Emmet Farnan, Steve Masciale, Tatiana Moreira, Ambar Durango, Evan Rosner, Priscilla Russo, Mehul Shah, James Sotomayor
Underclassmen: Omonikhefe Aghomon, Timothy Bryant, Jonathan Friely, Julianne Gortakowski, Jonathan Hodge, Nicholas Moreira

Melanie Henriquez and Arjge Brothers, seniors, have some fun at the leadership retreat by showing off their moves.

"I enjoy helping others and being a mentor to the underclassmen. Becoming a part of peer support has helped me learn my potential as a person and it has shown me how important it is to spread joy and happiness with everyone in the school."

Andrew Nelson, 12

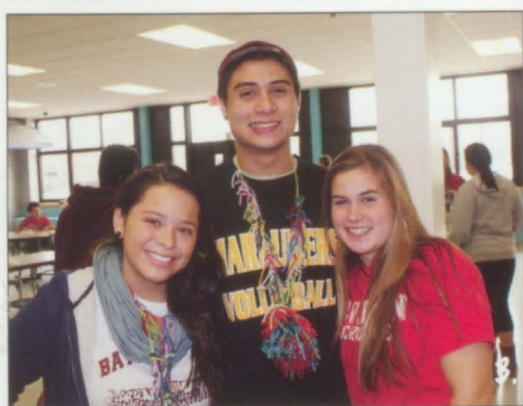

"Peer support helped me in ninth grade when I was having a tough time adjusting to the High School, so I wanted to become a mentor and help everyone else. I love how everyone in the club is so open and they don't hold back. This being my last year, it is really sad, but I know that Peer Support has prepared me for what comes ahead."

Booking your memories

Editors, Olivia O' Connor and Spencer Schnorr review the Senior Banquet layout. As the editors within the class, they are responsible for keeping all of the staff on task and assigning projects as well as reviewing all material.

"I love playing a role in the creation of the yearbook because it's a book about everyone else. You get the chance to learn about people who don't cross your path every day and it makes you realize how great Bay Shore really is. It's a great feeling to know you are preserving moments that will last a life time."

Kerry Maerki, 12

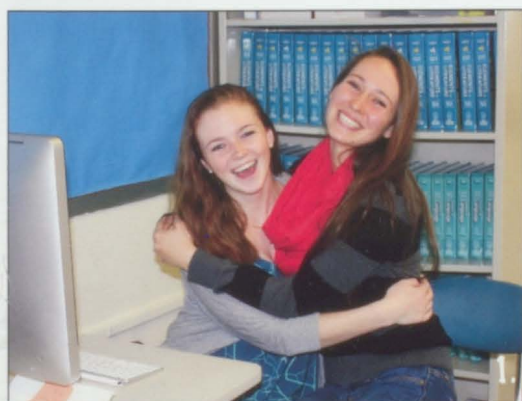

"Being able to work hands on with the staff members of this yearbook was so much fun. Being editor claims a lot of responsibilities, but all the hard work was definitely worth it. I am confident that there will be positive feedback in regards to the outcome of the 2013 Marauder."

Olivia O'Connor, 12

Seniors: Lindsay Arcuri, Rich Arcuri, Farria Ashfaq, Anthony Blythe, Shannon Dalo, Alyssa Gravina, Katie Henriksen, Gianna Keshtgar, Sarah Kirkup, Kerry Maerki, Claire Menart, Norma Miller, Olivia O'Connor, Sam Passante, Victoria Reilly, Spencer Schnorr, Sarah Simone, Ivette Tufino, Arlene Tucker

Gregory Weissert

Greg,

Congratulations!

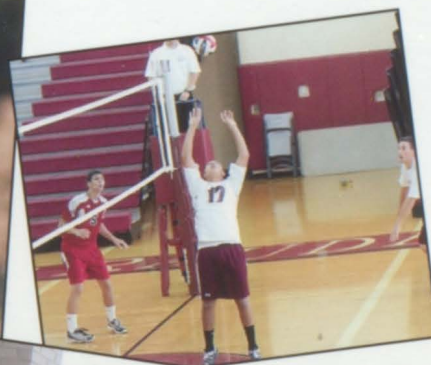

We want you to know that we are so proud of you and all you have accomplished. You have worked so hard on and off the field to make your dream come true. We wish you the best of everything life has to offer. Enjoy it all but always remember..

"What we are is God's gift to us, What we become is our gift to God"

~Eleanore Powell

Continue to work hard, be a good person and stay true to yourself. Great things are bound to come your way.

We love you and wish you the best!
Dad, Mom, Nicole and Brian

Lucia Rose DiVittorio

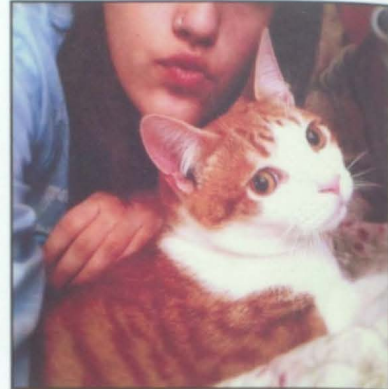

I hope your dreams take you to the corners of your smiles, to the highest of your hopes, to the windows of your opportunities, and to the most special places your heart has ever known.

My Niece

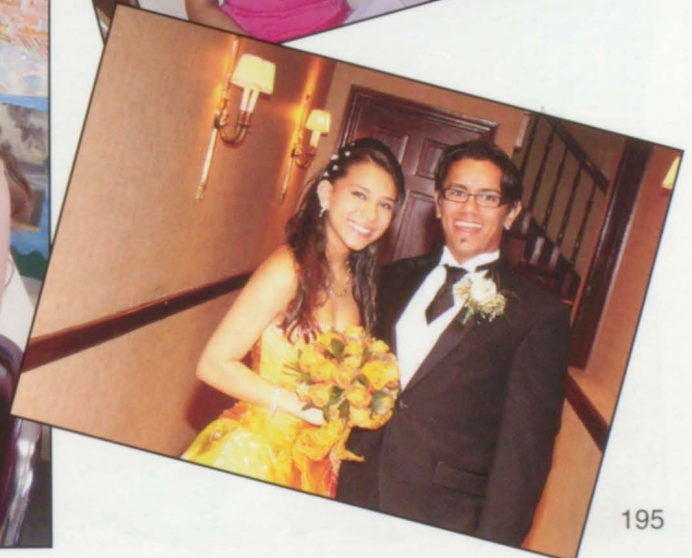

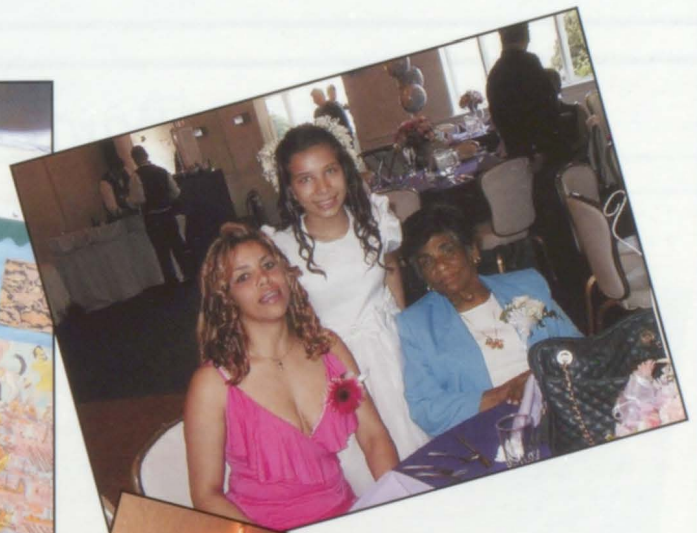

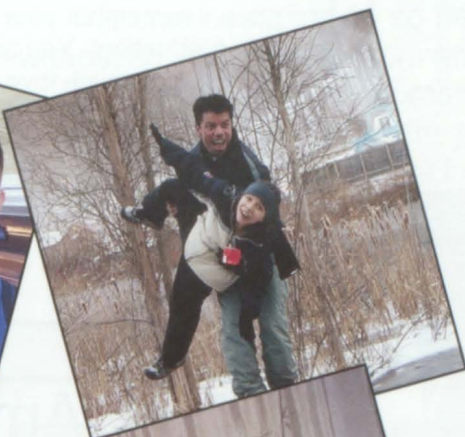

A beautiful flower I have seen you bloom into a responsible, intelligent young lady.

You come from a humble, small family who has given you nothing but love.

Always remember as you walk into your future, that your family (the people who love you) will always be proud of you and support you every step of the way.

Remember that I'll love you forever, I'll like you for always, As long as I'm living my baby you'll be.

XOXOX ... Juan C. Huerfano

Kerry Jane

Your courage to try, commitment to succeed and passion to make a difference have been a joy to watch. Always remember that the future comes one day at a time.

We love you so,
Mom, Dad, Jack and Ian

Killeen Martin

It's so cliché to say "where has the time gone", but it's true. I remember your 1st day of kindergarten and now it's graduation! You are a wonderful daughter and have brought so much love, laughter, joy and friendship into many people's lives. Continue to do your best!

Love,
Mom xoxo

Karly Amanda White

WE LOVE YOU AND
ARE SO INCREDIBLY PROUD OF YOU!!!
LOVE MOM, DAD

Priscilla Russo

The time has gone by so fast. We have witnessed you develop from an adorable child to a beautiful young woman. You have consistently amazed us with your hardwork, dedication, and passion. We love you and we are so proud of you. We are so excited for the next phase of your life. Congratulations!

Love,
Mom & Dad

Sherilyn P. Bennett

*Sherilyn my love:
Congratulations on your graduation day.
Keep up your beautiful personality, dream, live life to the fullest, reach for the stars and never stop smiling.*

Alyssa Abdul

Dear Alyssa,
We are so proud of you!
As you head off to college remember you now have a purpose and direction so make the effort and have the courage to see it through.

Love,
Dad, Mom, Pat and AJ

Emily Lindahl

It has been a joy watching you grow in wisdom, beauty and kindness.
Love, Mom & Dad

I'm glad Mom & Dad didn't take my advice and leave you in the hospital after you were born.
Love you lots,
Beth

Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things that you didn't do than by the ones you did do. So throw off the

You get what you give.

Perri, you have given 100 percent in each and everything you do, and now it is time for you to reap your rewards.

Good luck at CU- Go Buffs! We love you,

Casey Taggart

Casey, you are the best "big sister" ever!!! We will miss you and all the times you stop by to hang out with us. We wish you all the best in the future!!

Love your "brothers" Teddy, Jarrett, and Nate.

Emmy, Tat and Sah

Although our friendship only started at the beginning of high school, we've managed to become like sisters. Being best friends isn't about who has known each other the longest, it's about who gets the closest and manages to stay that way. Ca2, Pon De Floor, Rice, Mole, Serah, and Tater tots only begins to describe our friendship, and the list will continue for quite some time.

Brought It

Luck Had Nothing To Do With It

As we now venture into a world beyond Bay Shore High School, we will not forget how we made it through these past four years. The bonds we have formed, the tears and laughs we have shared, and the memories we have created will never leave us, but remain eternally etched within us. These experiences were not brought to us by luck or chance, but for a purpose. We worked hard and we achieved. We loved and we believed. And now we move on, knowing that luck is not how we are rewarded in life with bliss. Luck had nothing to do with it.

Colophon

The 2013 Marauder Yearbook was published by Jostens and produced entirely by a staff of 28 students, led by Co-Editors-in-Chief Kerry Maerki and Olivia O'Connor and under the supervision of Mr. Michael Hochman. 350 copies of the 90th volume of the Marauder were printed. This edition is comprised of 216 full-color, 100# matte pages and was distributed in May, 2013. A "Spring Supplement" was planned for distribution in July of 2013.

Computers: The staff used Apple iMac and Apple MacBook computers, exclusively.

Photography: All candid photos, club photos, teacher portraits, and special section photos were taken by the Marauder staff using one Canon XS camera (except for the lens Spencer broke) and one Canon XSi camera. All student portrait pictures and sports photos were taken by Legacy Studios and are used with their permission.

Fonts: Quotes are 'Olive Oil' size 8; Captions are 'English Serif' size 10; Headlines are 'Sleepwalker' size 48 and 'Hawn Optimist' size 36.

Senior Superlatives: Ballot sheets were distributed to all seniors. Only those received were counted and we received over 225 of the superlative forms to count. On the superlative pages the runners up are shown in the smaller, inset pictures.

The 2013 Marauder staff wishes to extend the following thank yous:

-The Jostens staff, especially Mr. Matt Stucchio and Ms. Crystal Gault. We can't imagine two more supportive people to have helped us with this book.

-Legacy Studios

-The high school and district administrators; thank you for your continued support in helping us achieve our vision.

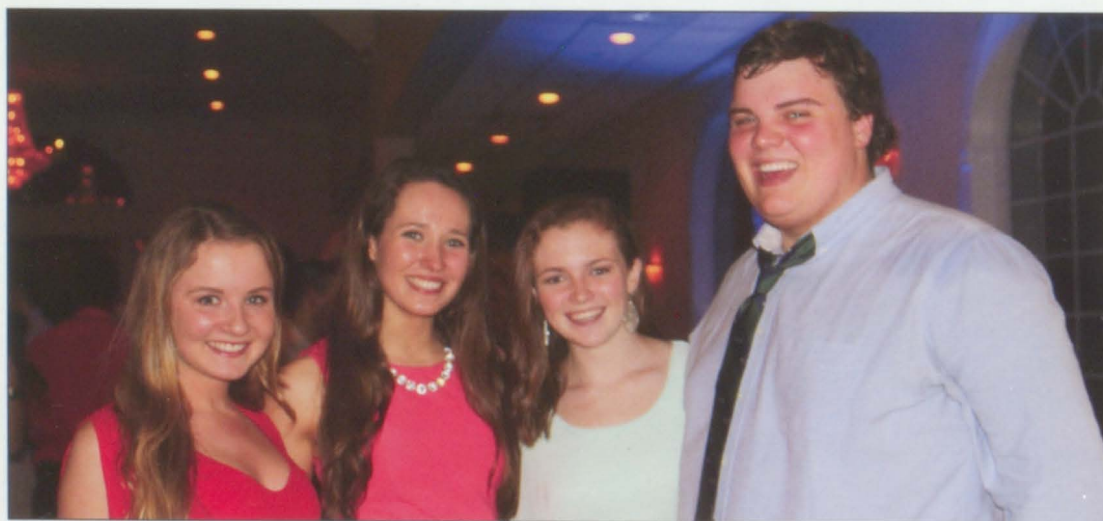

-To the secretaries: Laura Giordano and Vicki Kristiansen from the Main Office, thank you for endlessly paging people to us. How do you not hate us by now? Arlene Boeree and Mary Anne Bisogno, from the Principal's office, thank you for answering questions, supplying forms, mailing stuff and so much more. Thanks to Christina Nardone for all your help with class lists. You are all incredible people.

-IT staff: Dawn, Mark, Phil, and Joe. Thanks for always being so fast to help us.

-To the custodians, thank you for lugging cartons large and small. You guys are the best.

-The following teachers helped to supply photos: Ted Scalzo and Chris Bilella.

-Thank you to the students who helped supply photos for our "Sandy" spread.

Kerry Maerki, Co-Editor-in-Chief, and Spencer Schnorr, Co-Managing Editor

Mr. Michael Hochman, adviser, would like to thank Kerry, Olivia, Spencer, and Victoria for their hard work and dedication to this project. The work for this book started in the last school year, took place during the summer, and continued through the final deadline in April, with even more work to follow after graduation. This is the 5th 'Marauder' I've advised and I have never had an editorial board stay on top of tasks so efficiently and enthusiastically. You should all be extremely proud of what you have accomplished. Years from now, as you look through this yearbook, I hope that you will remember your time spent creating it as fondly as I will.
