

FREE CONCERT SERIES

Beginning in the early 1960s under the leadership of John E. Clark, the Friends of the Bay Shore-Brightwaters Public Library was established and continues some 50 years later bringing distinguished artists and musicians to our community. In earlier years, under the auspices of the Friends, Itzak Perlman, YoYo Ma, Kathleen Battle, Maya Angelou, Alvin Ailey, Rudolf Serkin, Edward Vilella, Patricia Mc Bride, Emmanuel Ax, James Galway and many others of world renown fame have shared their talents with local residents, attracting supporters from all over Long Island.

The Friends Performing Arts Series continues with its FREE concerts that feature professional musicians and local favorites of the highest caliber. Come away refreshed and revitalized.

All performances will be held in the Owen Johnson Auditorium at the Library.

We will continue to write to friends and supporters to ask for contributions for each new season. As we all know, these are truly challenging times for the cultural arts, and we graciously ask you for your assistance in the continuation of this Series.
