MAROON AND

SUMMER

White heat beating down on the sand; bees buzzing in the clover; cool water splashing; and brightness all over.

A world alive and green and beautiful.

This is the summer.

FALL

Multi-colored leaves rustling underfoot; orange pumpkins; cool breezes in your face; and a quiet calm settling over the place.

A world bidding farewell — all scarlet and amber and beautiful.

This is the fall.

WINTER

Noiseless footfalls in the snow; icicles and frost-bitten feet; silver blades skimming o'er the ice; now the warm fireside is worth any price.

A world asleep—all white and glistening and beautiful.

This is the winter.

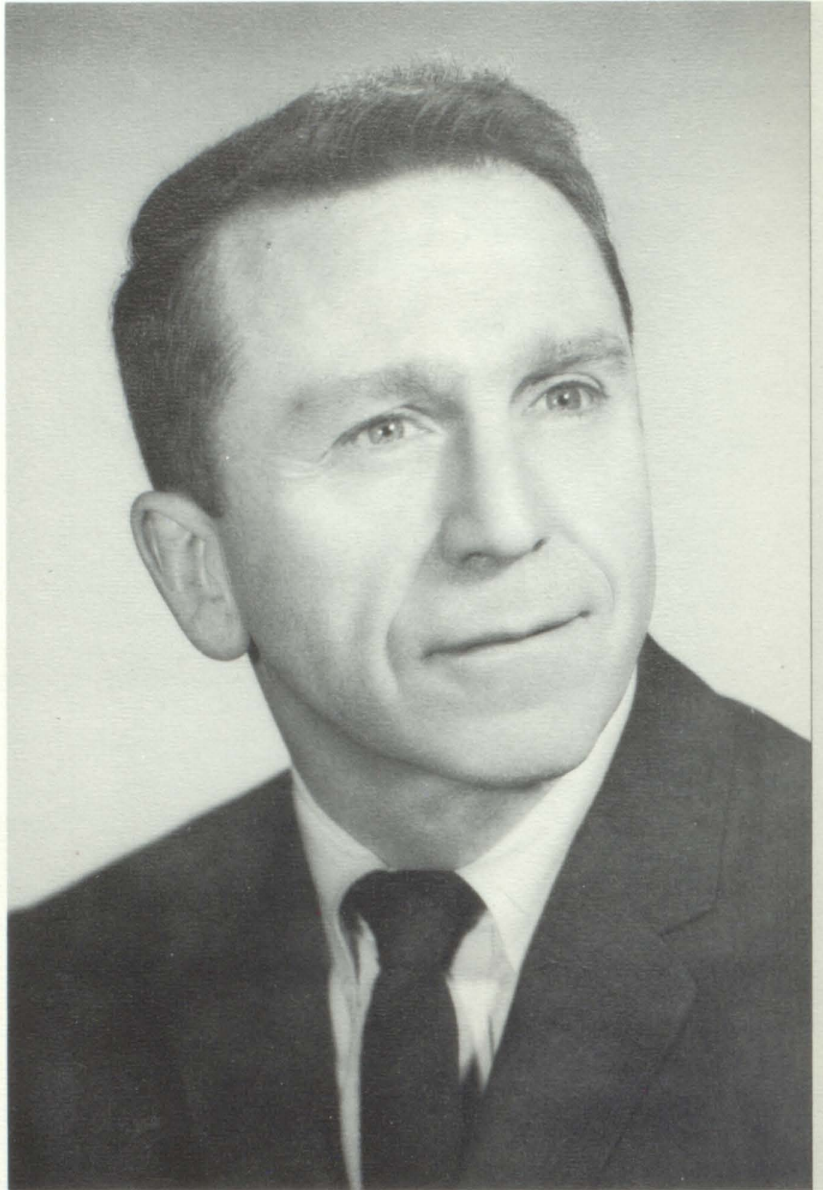

SPRING

Chirping birds feeding their young; crocus buds bursting open; light showers and soft breezes ruffling your hair; the cool smell of freshness is everywhere.

A world awakening — all green and yellow and pink and beautiful.

This is the spring.

He preferred to be, rather than to seem good;

Hence, the less he sought fame, the more it pursued him.

DEDICATION

Small stature and a quiet manner combine to conceal the true giant in the unassuming Lester Faggiani. The senior class of 1963 proudly draws the cloak aside to reveal its honored friend and mentor.

Mr Faggiani, each of us has found in you that rare quality of sincerity and genuine concern for each of us individually. We found it, not in earth-shaking activity nor in boisterous gems of rhetoric, but rather in your unfailing warm smile, kind words, and gentlemanly bearing, as well as in the intellectual integrity of your ideas.

With a sparkle of real pleasure in your eyes, you have given to your fellow men that most precious commodity of life—yourself. Each of us is proud to say that he knows you, Mr. Faggiani, as a teacher and as a friend. Thus, it is with the greatest pleasure and highest esteem that we—the Class of 1963—dedicate this, our yearbook, to you.

CURRICULUM

With the completion of the 1962-63 school year, two of our most revered faculty members will bid farewell to Bay Shore High School. Miss Louise Minnis and Mrs. Christine McDonald have decided to relinquish their respective positions as English teacher and school nurse.

Miss Minnis has been a dedicated teacher of English at Bay Shore since 1942. In addition, she has put much time and effort into advising the sophomore class and Dramatics Club.

Mrs. McDonald came to Bay Shore seventeen years ago and has since served as school nurse, ministering to the health of Bay Shore's many thousands of students.

We, the Class of '63, hope that these two fine women will leave Bay Shore with fond memories of the many years they dedicated to the youth of our community.

LOUISE MINNIS

CHRISTINE McDONALD

MYRTLE SIMPSON

This June will commemorate not only the graduation of the Class of 1963 but also the retirement of Miss Myrtle Simpson.

It is almost impossible to designate all the accomplishments of Miss Simpson, who has done so much for so many people. During her thirty-two years at Bay Shore, Miss Simpson has been one of our most dedicated teachers; she organized and is still advising the Backstage Club, and she has lent her artistic flair many, many times to numerous activities of the classes and clubs.

And so Miss Simpson, to you, artist, teacher of art, lady of quiet nature and bright smile, we say thank-you: thank-you for your guidance, service, and friendship.

MRS. BALDING
Cafeteria Manager

The director of our cafeteria, Mrs. Frances Balding, has decided to retire from her duties in the Bay Shore School District. Mrs. Balding came to Bay Shore in 1939 when the new high school building was opened. It was she who began the school lunch program in the high school. During her first few years in Bay Shore, Mrs. Balding, who is both a teacher and a licensed dietician, taught several home economics classes in addition to her regular duties as cafeteria manager, a job which now involves planning the menus for not only the senior high school but also the junior high and four elementary schools.

We, both students and teachers, thank you, Mrs. Balding, for your tireless efforts on our behalf.

AUTUMN

Summer's over
Face our doom
Ten long months
Before us loom

Buy new clothes
A pair of shoes
But nothing cures
Those school day blues

The fateful day
Here too quick
The night before
We all take sick

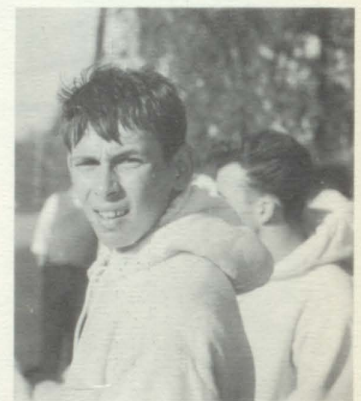

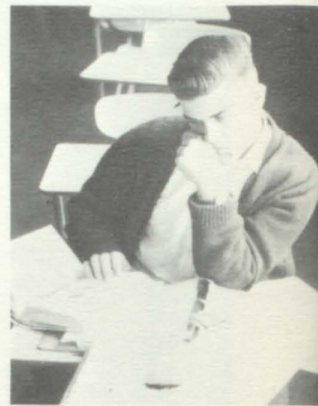

Compare our schedules
With "the kids"
If not the same
We flip our lids

While in school
We act so sad
But we all know
It's not so bad

Classes start
We settle down
Stop our moaning
And look around

Join a club
Make a friend
Pleasures of school
Never end

VARSITY FOOTBALL

This year's team was basically a hard playing club and definitely better than its record states, but the loss of a game always takes something out of the players.

The overwhelming defeat by C. I. seemed to literally drain Bay Shore of its confidence and ability to win. Thus, after four straight wins the Bay Shore morale suffered a severe blow from which it didn't recover.

The Marauders failed to cross the goal line in the next three games, but finally managed to score in the last game of the season at West Babylon. All in all, the fine spirit of the team must be commended, for they worked well as a unit despite the fact that they played under the handicap of having all games away.

The outstanding play of Rocco Damoto won him a place on the All-League team, while Wally Haug and Tom Brummerloh received honorable mention.

VARSITY SOCCER

After starting in last place due to the loss of the first three league games, Bay Shore won nine out of the last eleven to gain third place in the league. The team won seven in a row at one point including victories over the two top teams. The slow start was due to a very weak defense which was overcome by switching players around and by the development of Richard Brown as an aggressive goalie.

The leading scorers were Ed Okotie with 14 points and George Wicks with 10. Ten different players scored one or more points during the season which was considered a very successful one by the coach.

Edwin Okotie and Tibor Panto were selected for the all-league team while William Danchuk and Richard Brown received honorable mention.

CROSS COUNTRY

This year the cross country squad enjoyed its most successful season in a number of years. The Bay Shore Harriers won their first triangular meet in several years and finished in a tie for second place during the regular dual season. In the league cross country, Bay Shore finished fourth, and in the county meet the squad finished sixth.

The number one man on the team, Gene Cummings, was awarded the outstanding runner trophy. Mike Jordan and Richie McAdam together filled the number two spot, and the fourth man on the team was Jerry Cunningham.

This year has certainly been the best in many years for the cross country squad, and Coach Mohr is hoping to continue and even better the record next year.

Clubs Put Xmas Spirit Into Action

Many of the clubs at Bay Shore celebrate the holiday season with some traditional event besides providing the usual entertainment. Most are motivated by the "good will towards men" spirit proper to the season.

Haug, Leyrer to Plan Class Day

From now until May 24, all expect to see a harried group of people dashing in and out of room 320. Head of this busy group will be Joanne Leyrer and Walter Haug, the recently elected co-chairman of the Class Day Committee.

Although Class Day is scheduled earlier than usual because of Memorial Day week-end, there is ample time to expand the many excellent plans now being presented for consideration. Since the work has merely been started, there is still opportunity for all interested people to contribute their ideas.

All feel safe in predicting a fun and representative program, and expect that it will be held in the auditorium once again.

Bay Shore again this year will demonstrate their appreciation of this by donating toys to the children at Saint Charles' Hospital. Toys of course are appreciated; but F.T.A. members are giving of themselves, for they intend to present a Christmas Entertainment Program. Chris

Student Musicians Open Season Offering Professional Program

This year, as has been the tradition at Bay Shore High School, the band, orchestra, and choir will combine their efforts at the annual Winter Concert on December 19th at 8:00 P.M. This year Bay Shore is especially honored to have a very distinguished, modern composer and guest conductor in its midst. This man, with whom many students are now acquainted, is Mr. Richard Wernick, composer of such famous pieces as "Quadrignomes" and "Hexograms". These pieces were recently played by the orchestra in Kiammesha Lake at the Concord Hotel for a National Music Educators Convention. On December 19th the orchestra will again play these contemporary numbers, counter-balanced by the classical sounds of "Vivaldi's Concerto in D Minor". The audience will then listen to a selection by a young composer from our own town, Barbara Benary, a violin solo entitled "Nocturne", to be followed by the moving melody of "Greensleeves" by Vaughn Williams.

From there the choir, under the able baton of Miss Marguerite Ough will begin a series of festive songs. The Phoenix Choir will lead off with a Chilean cradle song, "Dormi Jesu"; then on to a fourteenth century piece entitled "Susani", with soloist Linda Beaman; and finish off with a Tyrolean carol called, "Falan Tidings". The mixed chorus will follow the Phoenix choir with a hymn by Bortiansky entitled, "Glory to God"; then they will sing two numbers from a collection of carols by Benjamin Britten, "There is No Rose" and "This Little choir will next perform an Israeli folksong named, "Song of Galilee", and a Christmas spiritual "Go Tell It To the Mountain". To end, the choir will sing "Bye Bye Blues" by Harry Simeone.

To complete this evening of music, the band will open its segment of the program with "Concert Overture" by Richard Wernick; then,

9 Attend All-State

Nine Bay Shore music students: June Frank, Maribeth Connelly, Robert Dickenson, Frank Darmiento, Jay Camp, Michael Roberts, Nancy Bayha, Marcia Wells, and Barbara Benary, attended on December 2-5 the New York State School Music Association or NYSSMA which holds an annual convention of music teachers of New York State. This convention represents the highpoint of high school music, for it is here that the best student musicians, who were chosen beforehand on the basis of individual solos, participate in the All-State Band, Orchestra, and Choir. The reputation of Bay Shore is well established in music excellence for it is at this convention that a disproportionately large representation from Bay Shore High is found. Bay Shore was especially honored when Frank Darmiento and Jay Camp became the first choir or lead players in their own respective band sections.

Columbia Clinic Hears B.S. Band's Repertoire

On Saturday, November 3, 1962, the Bay Shore High School Band, accompanied by their director, Wayne H. Camp, went to Columbia University in New York City to play in a band clinic. Under the direction of Colonel William F. Santelmann, the Bay Shore High Band gave a demonstration rehearsal. The numbers played were "Die Nacht" by Richard Strauss, "The Fairest of the Fair" by John Philip Sousa, and "Toccata" by Friscobaldi. Fol-

Dancing to the music of Eddie Cornelius and viewing the sports decor, which, aided by special lighting gave a night club atmosphere, were high lights of the Varsity Club Dance given Saturday, November 10. Amid the crepe paper and baseballs, footballs, and basketballs designed expertly by club members and helpful artists, flashed bright pinks, peaches, yellows, reds, and greens as the young ladies were swirled about the dance floor. There was a quick flowing current of chatter and laughter as all present completely enjoyed themselves. Mr. Ford, Varsity Club advisor,

WINTER

Now our spirit
Starts to lag
Time has come
For mid-year drag
Christmas vacation
Comes and goes
We sit in class
And pray it snows
College acceptances
Arrive every day
Seniors replace
Work with play
Four feet of snow
Drifts twice as tall
That darn school bus
Gets through it all
School radiators
Getting old
All they do is Radiate cold
Our new parking lot
Sure is nice
A mile away
And full of ice
Icicles melt
Thoughts turn to June
Spring makes her entrance
None too soon

VARSITY BASKETBALL

This year's Varsity basketball squad was unusual in that there was only one senior on the team — Richie Singer. Nine juniors and two sophomores formed the nucleus of the Maroon squad. In spite of being young and inexperienced, the spirited team gave some stiff competition to the leading teams in League AA-2. The Marauders overcame Sachem twice and knocked Central Islip out of a first place tie with Patchogue for the major upset of the season. Though the team failed to break even, it gathered enough steam toward the end of the season to post a three-game winning streak with victories over Copiague, Sachem, and Central Islip. Outstanding on the team were high-scoring Dave Farrell, versatile Joe Malchuski, defensive ace Ed Parker, backcourt man Bob Montgomery and two talented sophomores, Fornd Farmer and Ben Mahler. With eleven lettermen returning, Coach Darson can expect an exceptionally good season next year.

VARSITY WRESTLING

At the beginning of the winter sports season, it seemed that the Bay Shore matmen would enjoy only a mildly successful season. However, these early predictions were proven false when the Marauders went on to become co-champions of the league with Sachem. In addition, Bay Shore won the team championship at the League Tournament with five men winning individual titles. Ron Grasso, John Rosener, Ed Holland, Mike Schall, and Doug Samuelson were league champs in their respective weight classes. In the Suffolk County Tournament, Bay Shore came in third in the team scoring and Ron Grasso was crowned county champ in the 115 pound class. John Rosener and team captain Ed Holland finished second in their weight classes. Ron Grasso was state champion in the 115 pound class. All in all, Bay Shore finished with a very successful season.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Bay Shore High School has seen many spirited Sophomore classes in its history, but few of these classes could equal the spirit and loyalty which mark the members of the class of '65.

During the school year '62-'63, Bay Shore High saw its first sophomore G. O. officer, who had obviously been elected by the strong, enthusiastic backing of his class. Bay Shore High School also saw a book cover sale and a candy drive which filled the sophomore treasury with a sum never equaled by a previous sophomore class.

The class of '65 has the makings of greatness, which has been and will continue to be shown in its future endeavors and achievements.

JUNIOR CLASS

The Class of '64 made up of many hard-working students who have given tremendous support to all class projects.

The sale of programs and donuts at the basketball games has added revenue to the class treasury. This year the stationery sale has surpassed all records set by previous classes. The biggest and most important project of the year is the Junior Prom. From all indications the prom of the Class of '64 will rank among the best, for the people who worked on it have certainly given it their best efforts. The Class of '64 moves with vitality and eager anticipation of its coming senior year.

SPRING

Spring vacation
Here at last
Just too bad
It goes so fast

Work like crazy
Raise your Mark
Make sixty-five
Or face the dark

Regents Week
Getting Near Cocky apathy
Turns to fear

Classroom lectures
Teachers review
What they teach
Sounds quite new

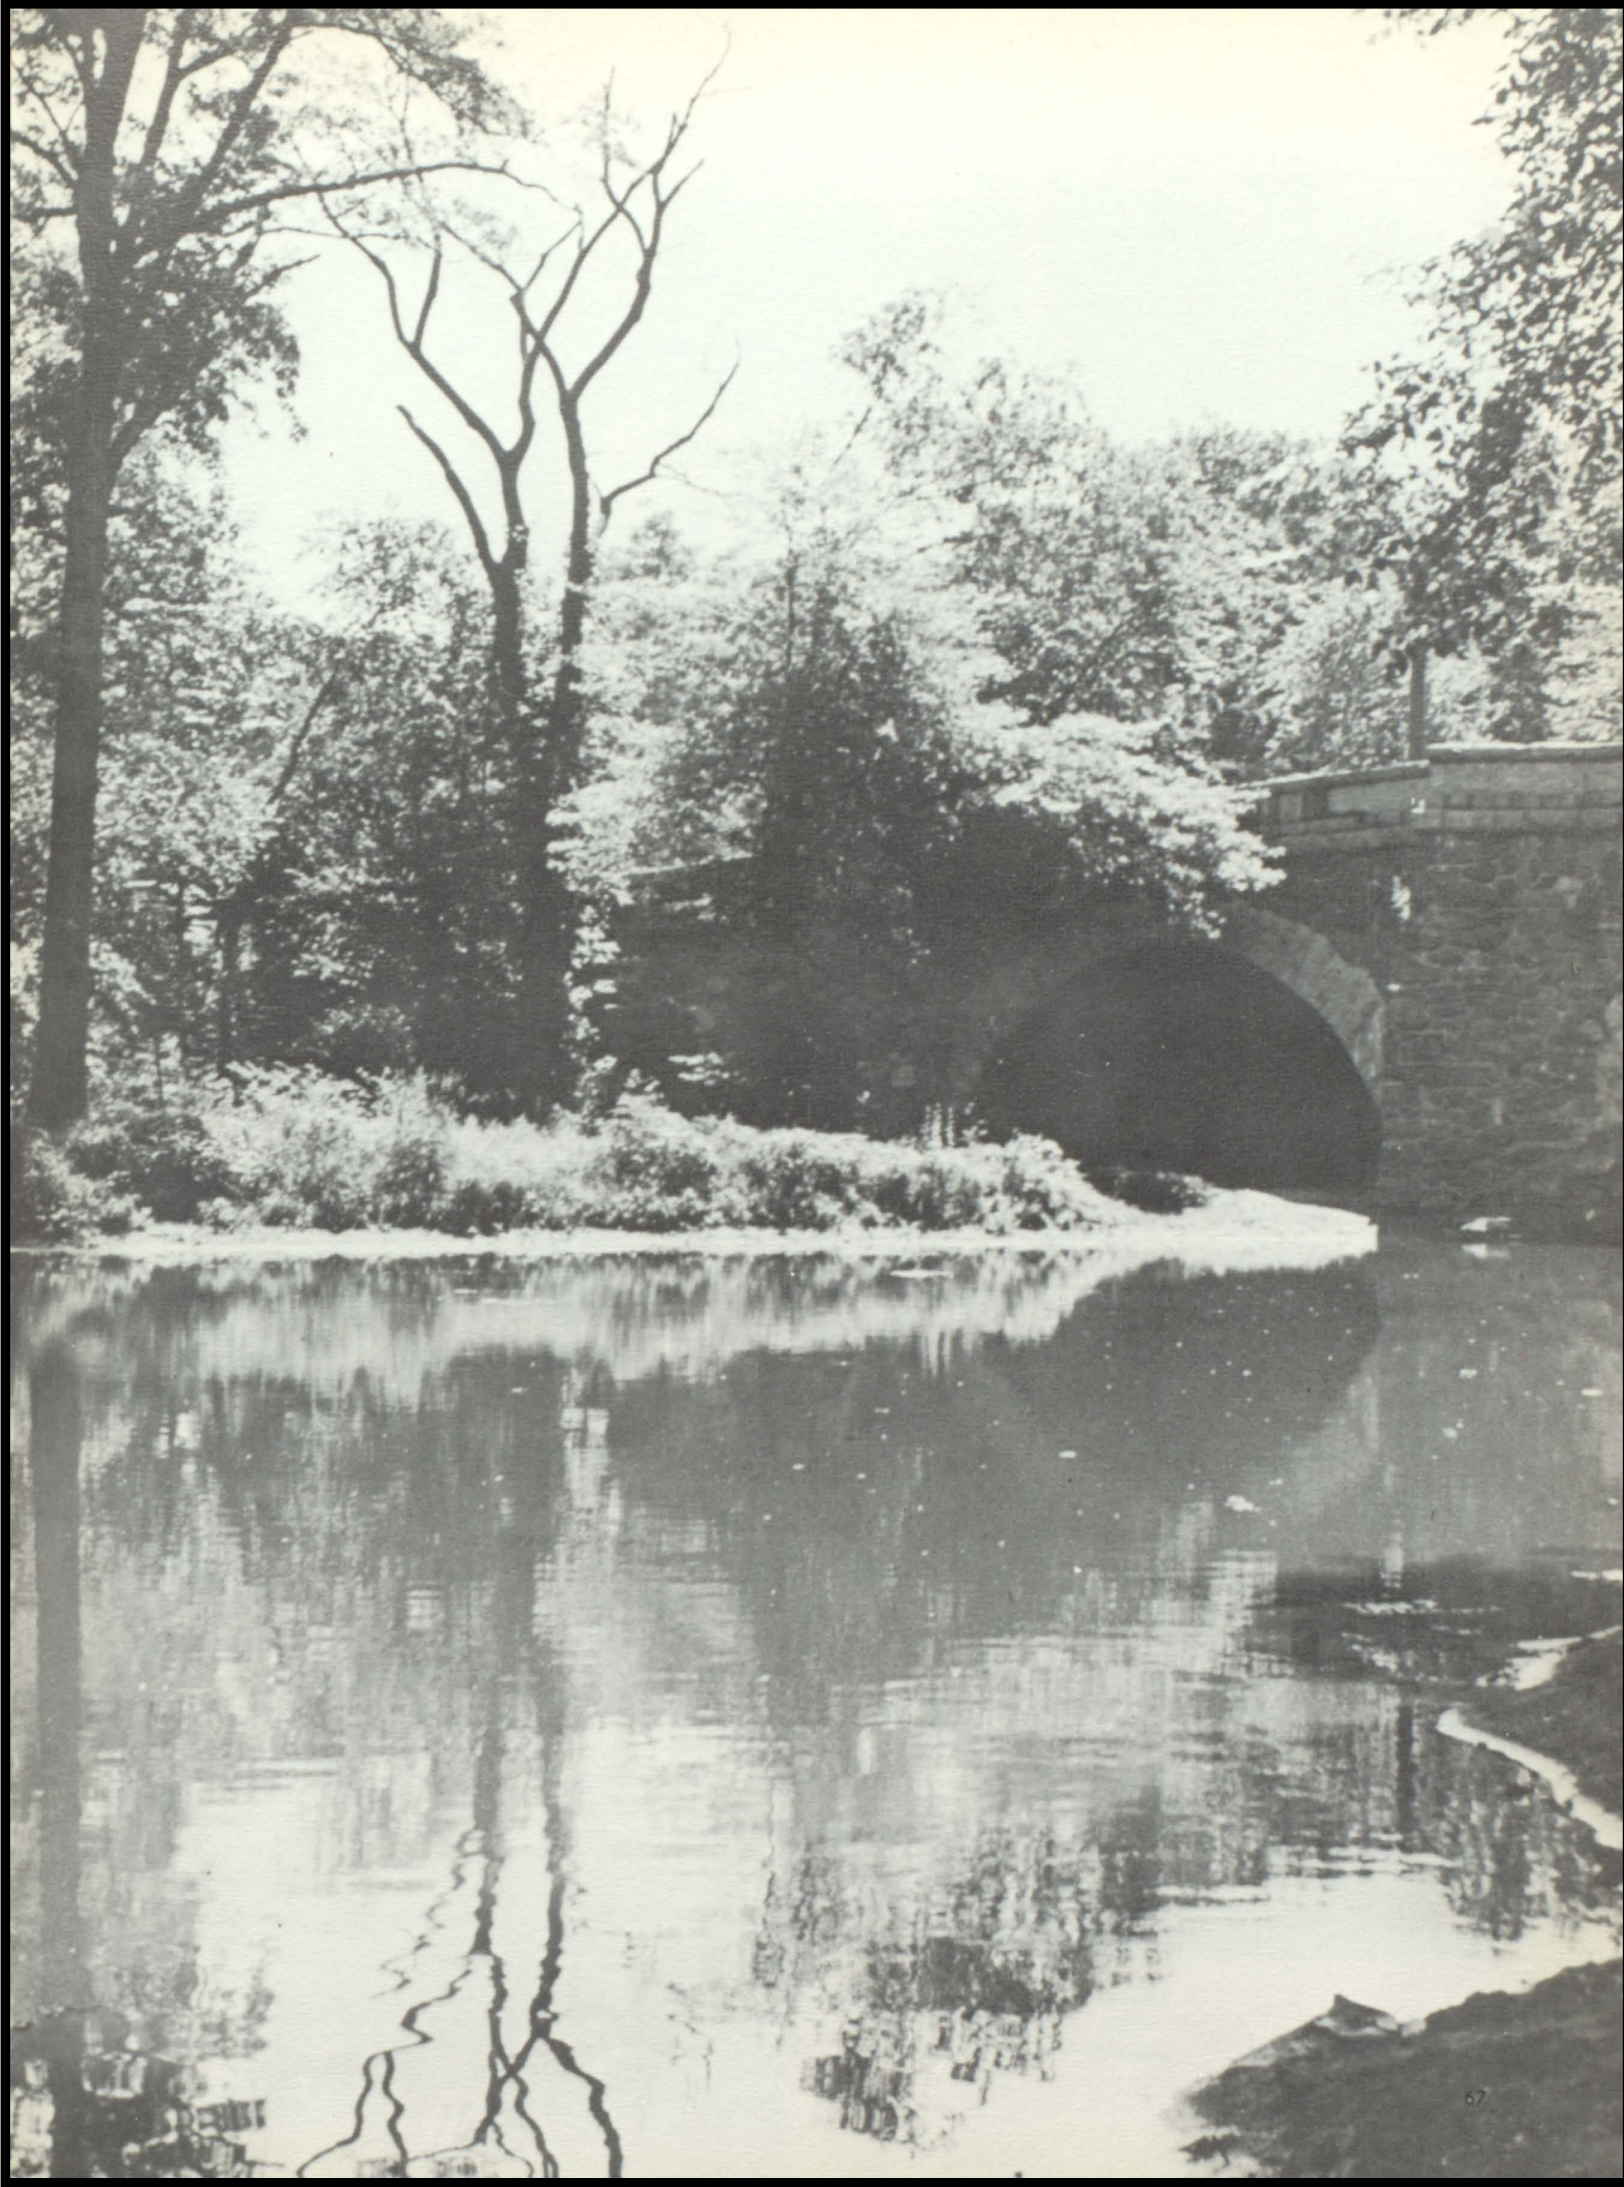

Zero hour
Regents Week
Oh! If only
We could peek

Marks come out
Heave a sigh
By some grace
We squeaked by

Graduation
Ends the year
Jubilation
And a tear

VARSITY TRACK

The track team, sparked by the expert coaching of Mr. Agardi and Mr. Isacksen, has gotten off to a fine start this year defeating the first three teams it faced: Sayville (80-56) Brentwood (72-64) and Newfield (70-66). Team effort, rather than individual achievement, has sparked the team's accomplishments. For the first time in many seasons, a combination of confidence and work has given the team a better than even chance of being the league champion.

SUMMER

We were afraid
It wouldn't arrive
But Summer's here
We come alive

Notebooks thrown
In a unused drawer
Grab your suit
Invade the shore

The boys' ambition
To get a tan
The girls just want
To get their man

Have a small party
Invite just a few
How many come?
One hundred and two

Teenage couples
Lie on the sand
Or splash in the waves
Hand in hand

Warm summer nights
Wish on a star
A moment to think
How lucky we are

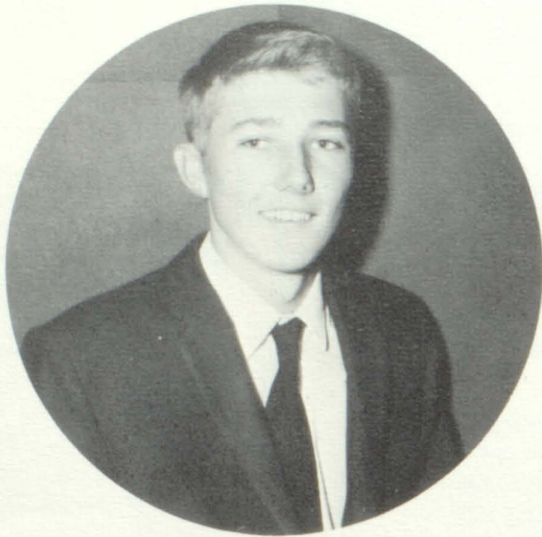

Too soon it's over
The fun's at an end
But that's all right
It'll come again

SENIOR COUNCIL

Through all the four seasons, we worked hard to put this book together, and we are finally finished.

Last SUMMER we worked on the senior captions and theme plan

In the FALL we took pictures, pictures, and more pictures . . .

The WINTER saw us slaving over writeups and layout plans

The advent of SPRING finally brought with it the feeling that we only had a little bit more to do. We did it, and we sent the whole book into the publisher with a sigh of relief

We hope you appreciate this-the product of our long, hard labors. We certainly feel that the work we put into this book is worth what we will get out of it in the years to come.

A DAY IN THE LIFE

Slavery is backbreaking, particularly if you have a big stomach that gets in the way.

"Yikes! I don't think I can afford even thirty-five cents today."

The Kid and The Man hold up the walls of Bay Shore High.

Slave day was nice for the owners.

"Myra, did you taste that?"

"Gee, I wonder if this stuff will explode."

BAY SHORE HIGH SCHOOL

ALMA MATER

Oh, Bay Shore, we thy students greet thee,
And pay a tribute here today;
For you have well-earned our devotion
That time can never take away.
And though tomorrow we may leave thee,
Our hearts will lead us evermore
To memories of the golden school days
We spent at dear Bay Shore.
