

MAROON & WHITE

MAROON & WHITE 1967

Bay Shore High School

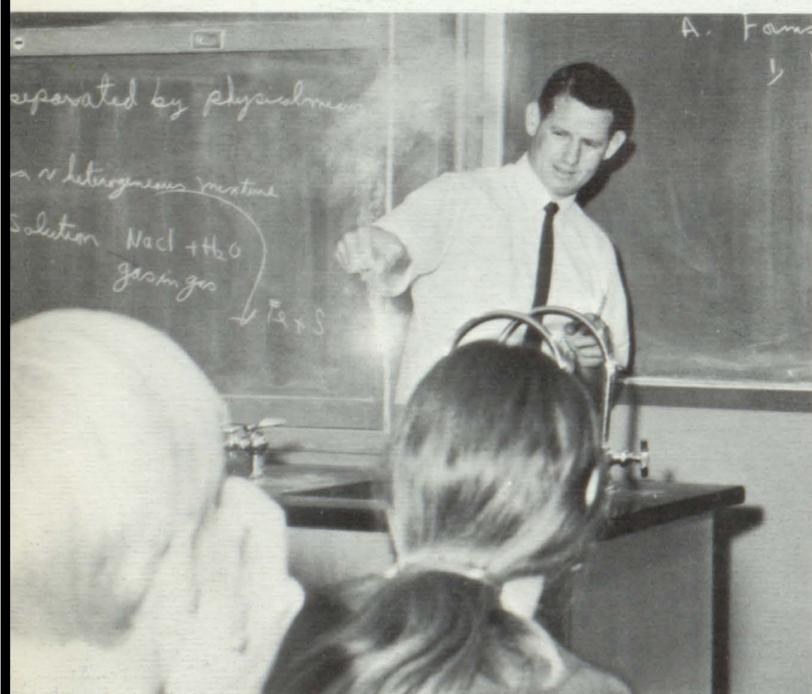

Bay Shore, New York

I won't grow up.

I don't want to go to school . . .

*Just to learn
to be a parrot,*

*and recite
a silly rule.*

If growing up means it would be beneath my dignity to climb a tree . . .

*then I'll never
grow up.*

*Never gonna grow
a moustache*

or a fraction of an inch.

I won't.

Anyone want to try and make me turn into a man?

Catch me if you can!

*I won't grow up.
Not a penny will I pinch.*

I don't wanna wear a tie

or a serious expression in the middle of July.

And if it means I must prepare to shoulder burdens with a worried air

*Then I'll never grow up,
never grow up . . .*

not me.

In Memoriam

John A. Lane is remembered as a devoted teacher and faithful friend. A valuable member of the Foreign Language Department, Mr. Lane taught in Bay Shore for eight years. He was respected among his colleagues and by his students for his linguistic abilities in Latin and French, as well as in Russian. The dedication in his name of the Middle School Language Laboratory will serve as a lasting and well-deserved honor.

John E. Morrison, Jr. gave unstintingly of himself for Bay Shore. In his six and a half years on the Board of Education, three as President, he was responsible for many improvements in our school system. He was a friendly and understanding face to look up to and admire. We remember Mr. Morrison as a friend of education.

Dedication

It has been said that the true teacher guides the eyes of his pupils from himself to the spirit that quickens him. Mr. Gebrian is just such a teacher.

Many a student of physics has been aided and encouraged by Mr. Gebrian's continuous insight and patience during the past eight years. For some the experience has proved to be the threshold to an exciting and fruitful career, yet all have learned, through his dedication and enthusiasm, to meet confidently the challenge of new and complex ideas.

The influence of a teacher affects all eternity and we, the Class of 1967, clearly recognizing this, sincerely express our appreciation as we dedicate this year's Maroon & White to Mr. Michael Gebrian.

Seated: Laurence E. Hoyt—President, Ernest J. Christie—Vice President Standing: William D. Steel, Jules P. Wegner, Sebastian A. Buemi.

G.O.

This year the G.O. has continued many activities initiated in previous years. The pep rally and dance before the first football game was one of the biggest successes. The second annual pancake breakfast was also a hit. There have been high school bowls, always popular, which sharpened the competitive wits of the classes. Exchange programs with local high schools broadened Bay Shore's knowledge of other schools and their student governments. An activity new to this year was the Battle of the Bands, a roaring success.

The officers, including the newly established post of historian, have led us through a year of long hair, short skirts, and hand-holding in the halls.— And the G.O. represented us through another year.

German Club

Guten Tag und willkommen Sie! Einmal der Monat kommen diese Schüler zusammen, um mehr über Deutschland und seine Leute zu lernen. Dieser Klub das heisst, der Gemütlichkeitsverein, besteht aus Schülern, die wenigstens ein Semester Deutsch studiert haben.

Dieses Jahr hat die Gruppe schon einmal einen Ausflug in die Stadt New York gemacht, ein Oktoberfest-Picknick gefeiert, ein paar Filme über Deutschland gesehen und ein "Theaterstück" aufgeführt. Und wir freuen uns sehr auf unser Abschlussessen am Ende des Schuljahrs.

Maroon Echo

The Maroon Echo rallied this year under the guidance of Mr. Nash and the introduction of a new staff structure. Also, many members of last year's staff returned, bringing with them important newspaper experience. These veterans were joined by several new and talented young journalists, and together this solid group worked diligently to make the Maroon Echo the quality paper it was this year. As an "extra," for funds to attend the newspaper convention at Columbia University and as a service to the student body, the Echo sponsored the much appreciated after-school snack bar.

The year 1966-67 was full of firsts: the first year the paper was financially self supporting; the first year so many money making projects were so successful; and the first year the paper has produced ten issues. The staff is confident it will bring Bay Shore High an even bigger and better Maroon Echo next year.

So-o-o You're ready Peggy!!

Encore! Encore!

Sock it to me Baby!

Miss Ough and Mr. O'Neill—Who said it couldn't be done?

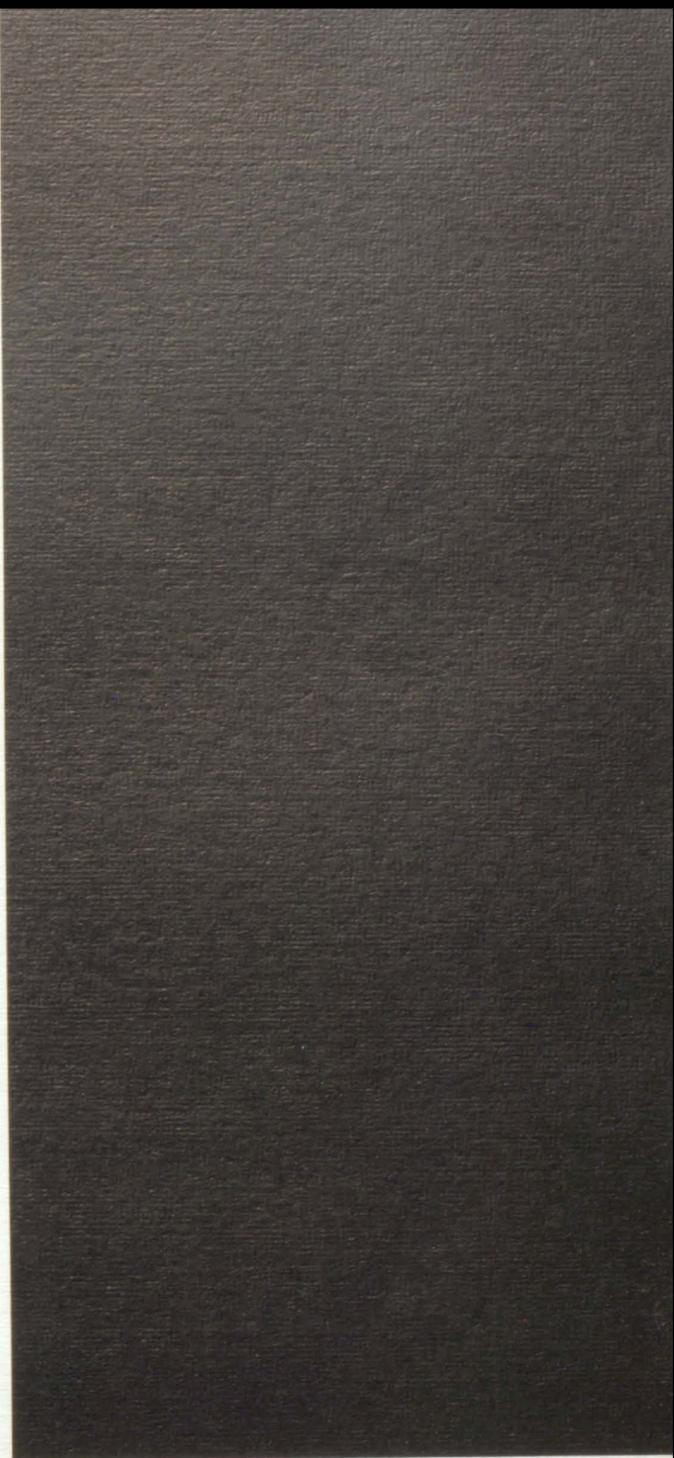

Mr. O'Neill's unparalleled production of "Bye Bye Birdie" brought to Bay Shore High much of what it had been previously lacking: an extension of cultural endeavors, a display of the worthy talent of the students, a large-scale inter-class activity, and a tremendous amount of spirit. The musical was entirely successful and a pleasure to see. The large cast and crew worked together to present three well-acted, well-danced, well-sung and well appreciated performances.

"Bye Bye Birdie" has undoubtedly set a precedent for annual school-wide productions.

League, Great II Great Champs Great The Greatest

We're number one! For the first time since 1951 the Marauders, coached by Joe Erickson and Dick Strine, won the League II title.

Wayne Huff, an explosive Junior, ground out over 1000 yards to become Suffolk County's high scorer. M.V.P.'s were Bil Johnson, Joe Kirkup, and team co-captain Roy Sandstrom. The other co-captain was Rich Wells. Outstanding players included Ray Accetella, Mike Lynch, John Pfoh, and Gil Schaeffer. What about next year? Just Wait!

The 1966 season was both a disappointment and a success. The boys were disappointed at not having finished better than fifth place. At the same time they were happy to have a winning season (7-5) going for them for the second year in a row.

Den Dare and Dave Driscoll were among the fastest runners in the county. Other important team members were Chuck Somers and Sal Lentini.

Coach Mohr looks toward a better season next year with two-thirds of his squad returning.

Potential + injuries = disappointment.

Plagued by injuries throughout the season the Varsity soccer squad managed to place second in the League. The year came to a climax when the Maroon played Patchogue for a berth in the counties. They lost that game 3-2.

The year's outstanding players included Richie Robbertaccio, Mike Giannanoto, Gary Nulton, and Candito Soto.

Coach John Boyd expects half the team back next year and looks forward to another successful season.

Varsity Basketball

Although this year's team had fine potential and could have repeated last year's feat of winning the League II championship, they had several unfortunate upsets by inferior teams. As a result, they fell to third place behind Port Jefferson and Smithtown. A 77-69 loss to Newfield in a heartbreakingly close contest was clincher which put the Maroon and White out of contention for a berth in the county playoffs.

The true potential of the team was not seen until the night they handed Port Jefferson (then 12-0 and League II champions) a smashing defeat. The final score in that game was 60-46 with Bay Shore maintaining a large lead throughout the game. The team's most important players were Ed Fields, Bil Johnson, Mike Gianninoto, Buddy McCahill, and Gil Schaeffer. With Ed Fields and many other fine players returning next year, Coach Beckel hopes to maintain the team's high standards.

This year the wrestling team doubled its total number of wins, finishing with a record of 10-3. Coached by Mr. Gobetz, the team came in tied for second in the Leagues and in the tournament came in second.

The reason for the vast improvement in the won-lost column was due to the Marauder's greater experience, depth and ability. The most consistent winners this year were Den Dare, Al Mitchell, and Al Blair. All the boys made the counties and Larry Bentsen finished third.

The team did not score any major upsets, losing to first-place Newfield, but they also were not beaten by any of the weaker League II teams. Although he is losing many members of the team, Coach Gobetz hopes that next year's team will be able to continue to post fine wrestling records.

Varsity Track

This year's track team will attempt to duplicate their undefeated League II season and championship. Two other strong teams, Patchogue and Port Jefferson, will attempt to stop the Marauders, which should provide a close contest for first place.

Although many of the members of last year's team have graduated, coaches Campbell and Agardi are confident that the gaps can be filled by this year's team. The key men for another championship are Den Dare, Bil Johnson, Bill Bellins, Joe Kirkup, Scott Berry and Glynn Tooker. Regardless of the lineup, the Marauders are sure to have another fine year.

Although last year's baseball team finished the year with a dismal record, both the team and coach Komoroski are hopeful for a strong comeback this year. Aside from the usual assortment of bad breaks that plague a team, Bay Shore was also faced with the predicament of losing about half of its varsity team at one time, which necessitated filling the gaps with players fresh from the J.V.

This year the hopes for a comeback lay in the hands of Richie Wells and Frank Romeo, two returning varsity pitchers, and a hitting attack led by the bats of Joe Raimondo, Gary Nulton, Buddy McCahill, Mike Lynch and Mike Gianninoto. Whatever the lineup, Bay Shore is assured of having a much improved team.

Bay Shore's tennis team closed last season with a very successful record, finishing with an undefeated season of 18 wins. An important reason for this record was that the team had depth instead of just one strong player. As a result, all three singles positions were strong as were the two doubles teams.

This year coach Alan VanNostrand is hopeful of another League II championship with four of last year's varsity players returning. The key players this year will be Bill Christ, Tom Christ, Charles Parker, John Royce and Bruce Vana, who all hope to add to the teams record of consecutive victories.

With last year's team winning the League II championship, Mr. Ford's golf team will be hard put to manage a repeat performance. With many of the top members of last year's team graduating, and with poor weather conditions causing problems with practices, obstacles have been put in the team's way to another title. The team will host opposing teams on the tough Southward Ho course. This year's competition, especially Newfield, should be sharp. The team led by Mike Mulach, Garry Brown, John Honey and a very promising freshman, Brian Quackenbush are sure to strive for a winning season.

The Bay Shore Gymnastics team, which is opening its first season this year, hopes to do well in their debut. With the stronger and more experienced teams of East Islip and Central Islip in the spring league, the team will gain experience if not victories. The main events during the competition will be still rings, parallel bars, high bar, sidehorse, long-horse, free-exercise and tumbling.

Coached by Mr. Vogel, the team will put on several exhibitions and will perform with the Southern Connecticut University Gymnastics team.

Important members of the team are Chris Shaut, Ted Minski, Gary Sullivan, Gordon MacConnachie, and Charlie Jones.

Regardless of the outcome this season, Gymnastics is sure to be one of the most popular new sports.

Junior Class

The Junior Class began the year with the usual sale of hot coffee and delicious donuts at each home football game.

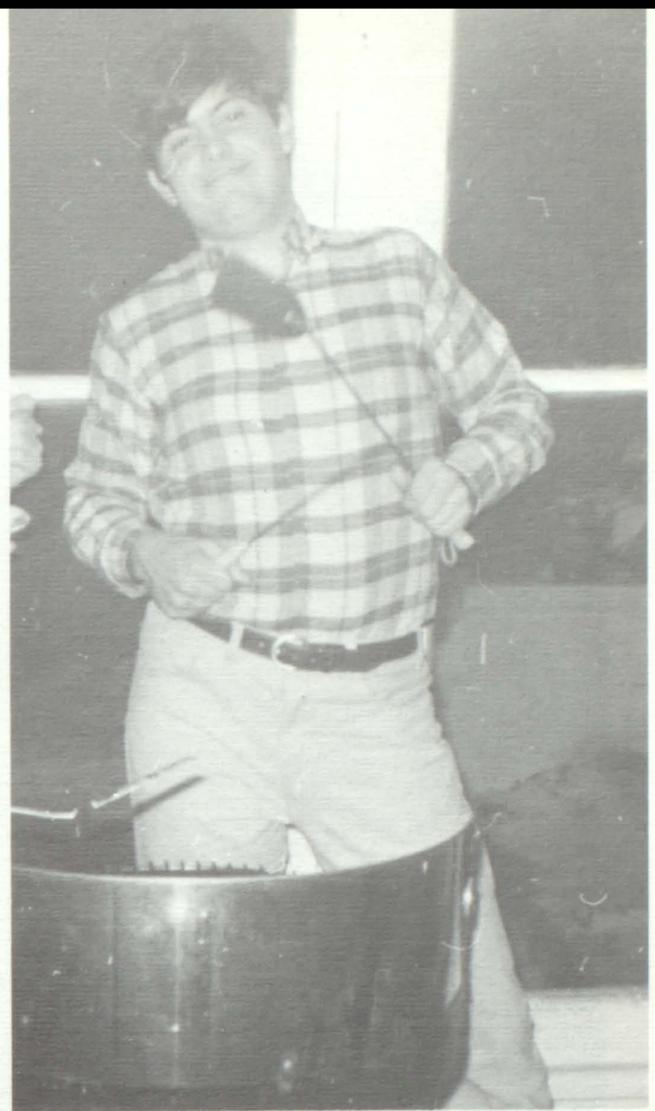

At the end of the season the officers and Reps decided to hold a dance for the purpose of providing the school with a Junior Class sponsored activity which would be a little different. The result was the Slop-Hop, where everyone could come wearing pretty much what he pleased.

On December 8, the Class of '68 held the second smorgasbord. With the help of many juniors and their dedicated mothers (who provided the food) the class was able to have an event which is becoming a junior class tradition.

The big thing for the juniors now is the Prom. We are striving to give a prom equal to or even better than proms of previous years.

Sophomore Class

We've been working hard to fill our treasury,
 And we haven't been working at it leisurely.
 We've been plugging in the homerooms, at the games, and in our classes, and
 we've sold some dandy

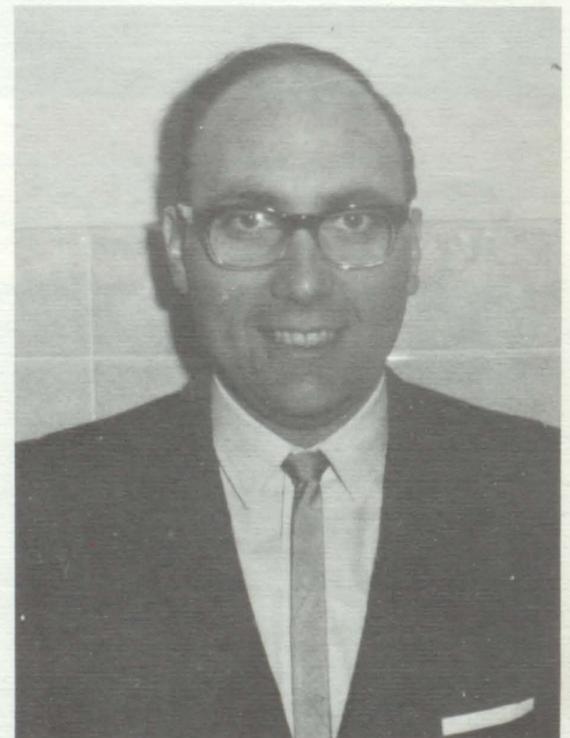

Candy

We've been building a tradition with the freshmen
 (For we certainly don't think them any less men).
 We held a dance with an out-of-school band,
 which was a smash and we called it (since we had one last year too)

Winter Wipeout Number Two

At the games all the sophomores have been cheering
 (That's the noise you've probably been hearing)
 For we've brought our class together with a FIGHT, TEAM, FIGHT! and a WIN, TEAM, WIN!
 so let's hear it

Spirit!

Freshmen Class

Even the lowly frosh are something special at Bay Shore High. We've got a great class and a good adviser, Mr. Harbeck.

Getting off to a terrific start, we held the "Winter Wipeout II" in conjunction with the Sophomores. Our money boosters for this year included the sale of placemats at Christmas and candy during the spring.

The class of '70 has many plans for future years but only one main goal: to be the best class Bay Shore High has even seen.

Senior Class

The hard work and fond memories of the Class of '67 are perhaps best reflected here—in our edition of the Maroon and White. We have finished our stay at Bay Shore a little wiser and, it is hoped, with a deeper appreciation and understanding of scholarship, sportsmanship, and companionship.

This year, under the leadership of capable officers and Mr. Barbieri, our personable and resourceful adviser, we have worked together to make activities such as the Card Party and Fashion Show, the Senior Play, and the Spaghetti Dinner fun-filled evenings as well as financial successes.

We extend our thanks to the Administration and all the others who helped and guided us through our high school days. Our sincerest wish is that future seniors too may enjoy the satisfaction and happy recollections which we have shared.

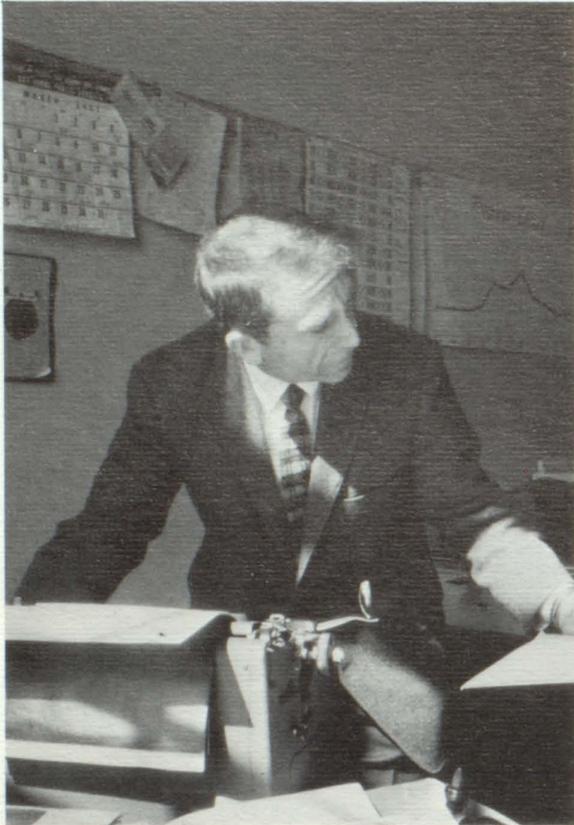

Mr. Barbieri, Senior Class Adviser

Each yearbook staff wants its yearbook to be different. Perhaps this is a natural in our constantly changing world. Whatever its cause, we wanted the 1967 Maroon and White to be different, and we hope you agree with us that it is.

We have de-emphasized formality photos; we have emphasized informality.

We have no senior captions; we have pictures of seniors at work and play.

We have no theme written down in words; we have a story of Bay Shore set down in pictures, introduced, incidentally, by the first pictorial essay and the first full color photographs Bay Shore has ever used.

We hope you agree that the result is a candid, true book that moves and breathes with the life and vitality that we have known in four years at Bay Shore High School.

Cast of Seniors Present Spellbinder!

Bay Shore, Nov. 19—A near capacity audience watched in awe and anticipation as the Class of '67 presented a murder mystery here tonight. Talented members of the senior class, under the direction of the superb veteran director, Carl Harbeck, did fine justice to John Kirkpatrick's cleverly confusing play, "The Woman at Dead Oak."

The smartly deceiving calm of the first scene with Sharon Cantor and Stancie Sheehan was well acted and wonderfully contrasted with various eerie settings which followed. Beth Troy's difficult yet excellent portrayal of an undoubtedly extraordinary young girl moving to the strange music of the "Danse Macabre" lent a feeling of unrest. The entire whodunit atmosphere was weird.

Liz Ohlert, Micki Tschumperlin, Bert Lawther, and Dennis Mahoney all put in convincing performances as the principal characters. Kathy Sutcliffe was unparalleled in her role. Chuck Thorschmidt was well cast and fit right in with the fine acting. The perfect private eye was Brian Molloy. And to good sport Elaine Reinold, the omission of whose name was necessitated by the nature of her role, praise and thanks are due.

The drab set, appropriate lighting, and unique sound effects completed the production of an undeniably different sort of mystery. A challenging play well done!
