A TIME FOR WAR, AND A TIME FOR PEACE.

"Hi, Mr. Nash!"
"Morning, Joe."
"Hi, Mr. Nash."
"How are you, Mary?"
"Hey! Mr. Nash."
"Hi, Bob."

He know everyone's name and everyone knows his. His captivating boyish grin and slashing eyes are as famous as his name.

Honest, generous, frank, intelligent, uninhibited, youthful; these adjectives are at best a pallid description of so fully animated a personality as Mr. Nash. He is all these and indeed much more.

Mr. Nash treats his students as equals and is considered with respect and admiration in return. He is the kind of person one feels compelled to do his best for. As Maroon Echo advisor, Mr. Nash, or J. T. as he is known by the members of the press, has been guiding and encouraging —never dictating. Bay Shore is indebted to Mr. Nash for his unselfish spirit and unfailing efforts in building the Maroon Echo to the outstanding paper it is today.

Great teacher, great advisor, and the greatest of friends, the Senior Class of 1969 is indeed fortunate and proud to dedicate its yearbook to Mr. Nash.

"Victorious" is the word which precedes the Bay Shore Marauders. The team clinched the League II title for the third consecutive year with a fantastic victory over Half Hollow Hills, a grand finale to a wonderful season. Even more exciting was the Marauder's breaking of the 200 wins mark!

This year's team had excellent depth; however, several players stood out as a result of their exceptional playing. Gordon Griffiths, Chris Skirbe, Charlie Jones, Craig Erickson, and Bob Cox won positions on the All-League Team. In addition, Gordon and Charlie were chosen outstanding lineman and back, respectively. Gordon Griffiths, Chris Skirbe, and Barry Estler tri-captained the 1968 squad.

FALL,
THE SEASON FOR SOCCER

VARSITY

The soccer team was slow starting ... and slow finishing. The varsity squad won five, lost six, and tied three. However the record is deceptive. It deserved to do much better. The team was dominated by seniors and juniors with little or no varsity experience. Despite this handicap, the Boosters played some exceptional ball games and lost several by a single point. Coach Boyd is looking forward to a more representative record next year, with the majority of the squad returning.

Several players made outstanding contributions and deserve special note. Among them are Dave Askinas and Al Schmalacher (the co-captains) and John Reagan who made the All-League Team.

"The long-distance runner seems to race against others, but he is really only running against himself, and if at the end of the race he has nothing left he has won even though he has finished last."

So it has been said of the loser. But it must be even more true of a winner. And our Cross Country squad, coached by Mr. Mohr and Mr. Hunter, was a winner. It finished the season with a record of seven wins and two losses and placed second in both the League and the County.

Captain Tom Cummings placed fourth in the League and County meets and ran in the winning sectional at the states. Joe Darini won alternate position at the states.

AND GIRLS' TENNIS

Like pep week or the prom, another tradition appears to be establishing itself as an inseparable part of Bay Shore school life—that of a terrific girls' tennis honor team. The basis for this may be found in the team's having completed its fourth undefeated season this year in match play against other Long Island schools. The team also made an exceptional showing in its first tournament held at Suffolk County Community College, in which first singles player Diane Green took the first place trophy, and Susan Entenmann and Carol Young took second place in the doubles event.

"No one ever scored against us."

THE CARD PARTY AND FASHION SHOW DISPLAYS FALL FASHIONS

"College Night" was the theme, Bob Stanton and Nadine DeJoseph the co-chairmen, as the Senior Class spotlighted the fashions of America's best-dressed collegians for the annual Card Party and Fashion Show. The decoration, the fashions, and all the work put into its completion produced a very fine show.

THE MAROON ECHO BEGINS ITS YEAR

The Maroon Echo, under the leadership of its editor-in-chief, Terence Digny, has become the intellectual leader of the school. The new study hall system, the Biafra campaign, and the reporting on nation, as well as school, affairs, are all in the paper's program, and the year still has much to look forward to from this potent branch of school organization.

The first six weeks of this school year were uncertain ones for the senior class. Without the guidance of an experienced advisor, long or short range plans were mere guess-work. But all ended very well when Mr. Thomas Murray was chosen class advisor. Since then, he has been a rich source of imagination, guidance, and encouragement to all who have worked with him.

Nineteen Sixty Nine's class officers are Richard Clair, president; Hugh Goodman, vice-president; Marc Geller, treasurer; Ingrid Dyrland, recording secretary; Nadine De-Joseph, corresponding secretary; Kathy Toole, historian; and Rita Wellens, G.O. representative.

THE F.T.A. IS ACTIVE

Under the continued direction of advisor, Mr. Michael Friedman, and this year's president, Ronnie Becker, the F.T.A. has had one of its most active and profitable years. Among the many programs in which the group took part were student teaching, a Christmas toy drive for the Maryhaven School for Exceptional Children, tutoring at both the Middle School and the High School, and a visit to the Cleary School for the blind. Additional activities included a theatre party and a dinner at the end of the year.

THE VOLLEYBALL TEAMS ENJOY A SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Congratulations are in order to our girls' volleyball teams. The varsity team won four of their six matches. They placed third in our league, thanks to Miss Stall's coaching and captain Laurel Middleton's (Most Valuable Player) help in coordinating team skills. The J.V. enjoyed five wins, suffered only one loss, and the freshman team was completely victorious.

This year's varsity wrestling squad won 7 and lost 6 meets, placing fourth in the League standings. It also achieved fourth place in the League tournament.

However, the squad's record isn't indicative of the first-rate wrestling of some of its members. Barry Estler and Jim Somers each placed first in the League tournament. Dennis Cavagnaro and Frank Costello won second honors, while Bill Brown and Kevin Knapp both won fourth position in their classes. Dave Maxwell had an outstanding season, which ended abruptly with a fractured ankle.

THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY SPONSORS ENJOYMENT

In addition to sustaining the annual tradition of the Christmas tea, which was well planned and enjoyed by all who attended, this year's National Honor Society undertook a new activity. To raise money for "Reflections," the Society sponsored an amusing contest entitled "Valentines of Yesterday," which involved matching faculty members with their respective baby pictures. It was a unique idea, and it has been an active year for the Society.

Coach

The Bowling Team tied for second in the League with a 20 1/2-15 1/2 record. Unfortunately, they lost in the playoffs for second position.

Dan Davis, who placed third in the League, was named to the 1st team All-Stars. Jeff Dengler and Al Britton won third place in the County. Coach John Morrison is optimistic about next year's season. Since his top five bowlers will be returning, he is counting on top position in the League.

This year's senior Spaghetti Dinner, with over 900 people attending, was the most successful ever. Hugh Goodman and Janet Ball, the co-chairmen for the dinner, had only one complaint. There were too many people to serve. However, thanks to the patience of the waiters and waitresses, everyone was finally served.

The 1968 Track Team won every League meet and the League Championship. This year's team looks as if it will do it again. Despite weakness in the pole vault and field events, both coaches, Mr. Carl Campbell and Mr. George Agardi, agree this year's squad has the breadth and depth to compete well in nearly every event.

Coach Komoroski's Baseball team is co-captained by Dennis Lynch and Frank Boulton. In addition to smart playing by his co-captains, Coach Komoroski is counting on a good performance from his other veteran players, Tony Falbo, George Hafely, and pitcher Jim Krotz. The coach is also confident of strong support from last year's J.V. and Freshman teams.

LACROSSE

1969 is the first year the Bay Shore athletic agenda will include Lacrosse. Lacrosse is an exciting and strenuous sport which, in the words of Coach David Jones, requires "both skill and brains" and can be played as well by both the "small and big" athlete alike. Although this year's team will play on an intramural level, next year's team will compete with Freshman and Junior Varsity Squads. The following year, 1971, Bay Shore will have a Varsity LaCrosse Team, if this year's turnout is indicative of the future, the 1971 squad promises to be very successful.

"The Royal Hunt of the Sun," co-chairmaned by Janette Jensen and John Softye, with decorations co-ordinated by Robin Esman and Robert Stanton, was a royal success. Ronald Ovetsky and Susan Leyrer were crowned king and queen before the ancient temple. The majestic affair was co-ordinated by Mr. Alex Cestra.

TENNIS

J.V.

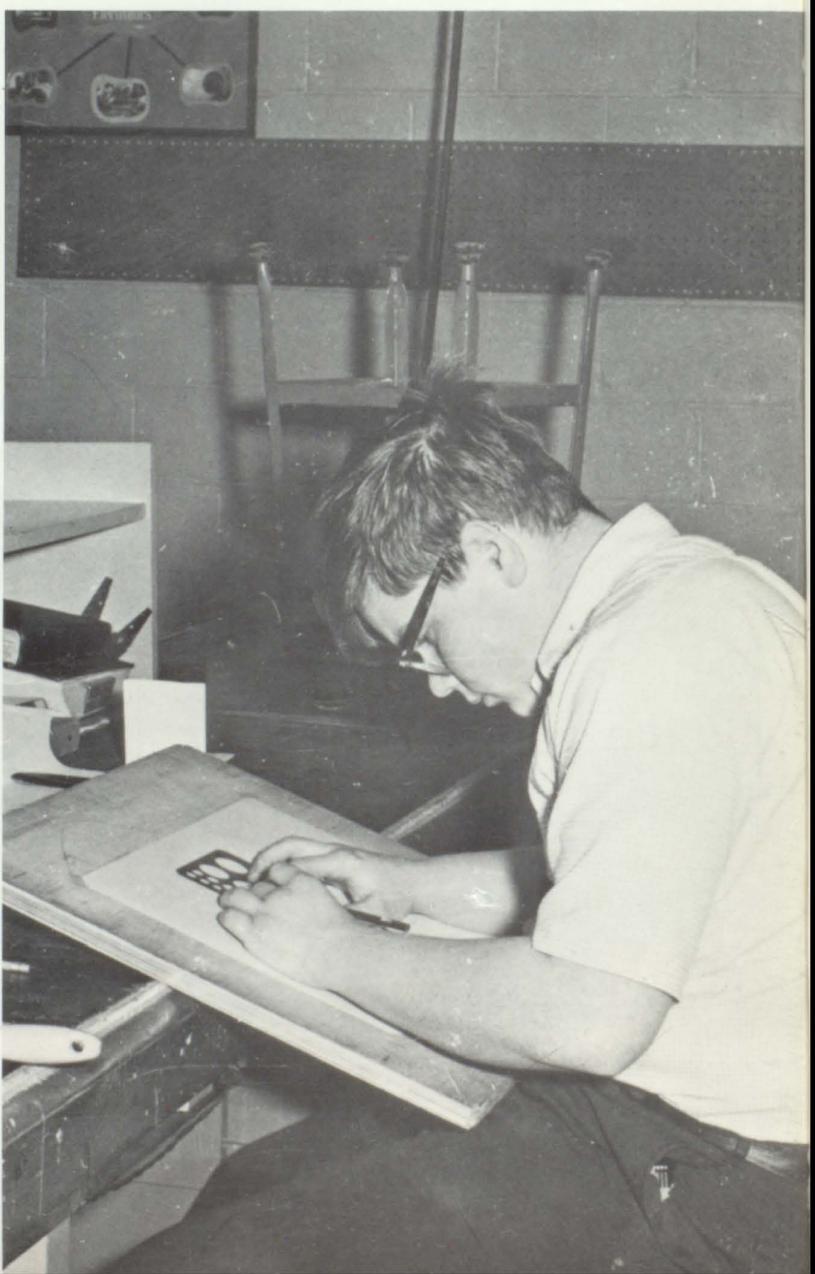

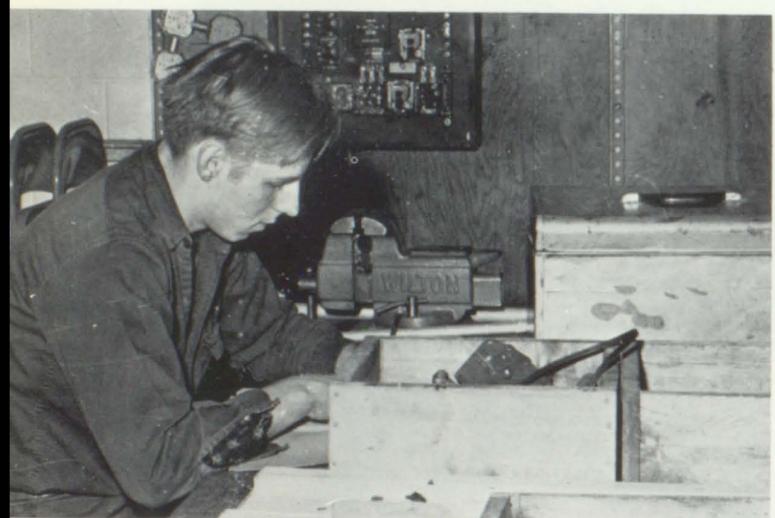

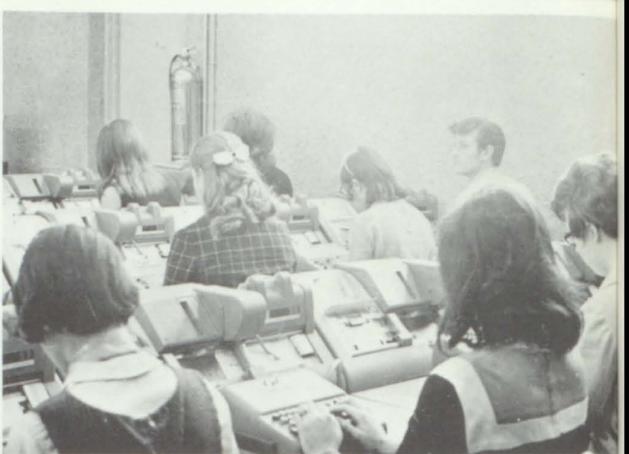

Mr. Allen Van Nostrand expressed the reluctance of every coach to foretell the performance of his team. The varsity tennis squad was first in the league last season, but unfortunately, only three of the seven 1968 varsity players returned this year. However, Coach Van Nostrand is optimistic and foresees a good season, provided his players suffer no major injuries.

OUR ANNUAL MUSICAL PRODUCTION

BRIGADOON

Sylvia Aday, English
Dept., House Manager
for Brigadoon

The light-hearted spirit of the Scottish highlands settled briefly in Bay Shore on March 21st and 22nd, and it came to us via the Bay Shore High School Drama Group's presentation of Lerner and Loew's first great musical achievement, Brigadoon.

It is an enchanting fantasy involving a sleepy Scottish village that comes to life only once a century, and the adventures of the two young Americans who happen upon it accidentally. The memorable score includes such classic songs as "Almost Like Being in Love" and "The Heather on the Hill," all of which were professionally delivered by a most competent cast under the prime direction of Mr. O'Neill.

THE YEARBOOK STAFF

MARAUDER 1969

Marauder 1969. The name is different, as is most everything else, as this year's staff tried to produce a unique yearbook. Peter Crescenti and Sybille Kupitz were the co-editors, and the staff, though small, was a diligent one. Marauder 1969 was an experiment, and, though it met with opposition, it was a successful one.
