All For One, [14] All

It goes without saying that Bay Shore High School and its greater [community] is like no other. Our sense of [family] is one that no one else will ever match or understand and it is what makes our [town] so unique. We know that no matter where we are, who we're with, or what we're doing, our Bay Shore [brothers] and [sisters] will be with us every step of our individual journeys. We are one; one town, one school, one unbreakable [bond] made strong by the dedication of many.

Falling [together]

As the leaves began to fall, the school year kicked off and memories were made, and some of the most memorable were captured in Bay Shore High School. Whether it was holding our breaths and hands as a [crowd] and waiting for the game-winning field goal at Homecoming, or rounding up [friends] to dress up on Halloween, or even [teams] erupting in a cheer for the spirit stick, these moments were some of the many that [tie] the school [together] as the year began. These few months gave all of us the first opportunities to cherish, laugh, and [gather] in our Bay Shore pride as we set the tone for many months and memories to come.

UNDERS

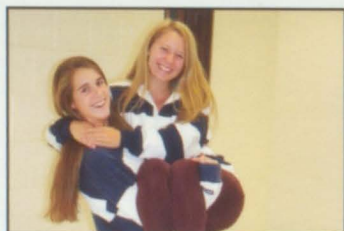

"I dressed up for Holiday Day and went with President's Day. I thought it was different and that no one else would do it."

Francesca Hilditch [12]

"I've dressed up every Spirit Day since freshman year. Spirit week gives people a chance to express who they are. It brings the school together."

Abby Dupont [12]

"Madi [Flotteron] and I dressed as twins because we're sisters at heart. Spirit Week is important because most of the school participates to show their Bay Shore pride."

Jessica Brewer [11]

1. Jennifer Tineo and Angelique Wilson, seniors, dress up for Decades Day with a throwback to the 80's. This year, many people participated in Decades Day flashing attire from the 50's through the 90's. 2. Omonikhefe Aghomon and Sodasia Thompson, seniors, dressed up in African attire on Around the World Day. The girls were happy to take part in this day before they graduate this year. 3. A group of friends, including Destiny Ayler, Breund Murphy, Dijon P-Lindor, Marquis Rolon, Braulio Sandoval, and Arkel Miller, seniors, show off their school spirit by wearing maroon and white sports jerseys and t-shirts. This prideful pack showed off their pride leading up to Pep Rally later in the week. 4. Cassandra Canas, Nicol Vargas Castro, Marc Magallanes, Dania Flores, Bria Key and Xena Colon, seniors, dress up in all pink to show the unity within the senior class on this year's Twins Day.

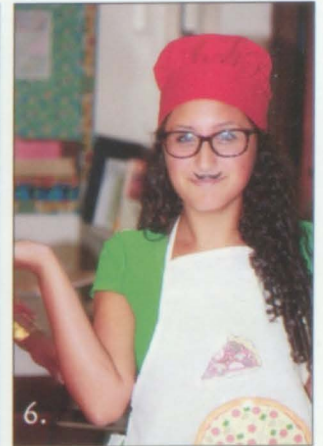

The Prideful [Pack]

Ariana Guillen and Danielle Flynn, seniors, dress up in Indian attire for Around the World day. They wore these beautiful Indian garments to show their interest in the culture.

5.

5. Emily Certain, senior, and Matt Caples, sophomore, dress up in matching penguin outfits for Twins Day. Certain and Caples have been best friends for a year and dressed as penguins together to stand out and be different from others. 6. Ana Borruto, senior, dresses as a cultural Italian on Around the World Day. She said this was her favorite day of the week because she was able to portray her family background. 7. Austin Funk, Christian Mazzie, Payaum Sanatkar, John Haberstroh, and Ryan Mazzie, seniors, assemble for a picture in their pink shirts. These seniors came together to create important memories that they could look back on this year. 8. Kyle Souhrada, senior, dresses in German lederhosen for Around the World Day. Souhrada dressed up every day this year for Spirit Week and wore lederhosen to make the day funny and exciting. 9. Bianca Egas, senior, wears a sombrero and poncho to show her Hispanic pride on Around the World Day.

"I was responsible for filming Pep Rally. I enjoyed everything from start to finish. I was able to witness so many special moments and capture them forever."

Imani Hite [12]

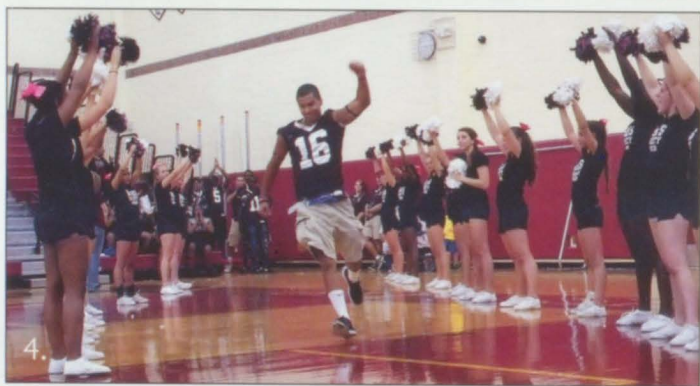

"Singing in front of the school was such a crazy feeling. My friends and teammates cheered me on. After I sang, I knew they were cheering the loudest."

Matthew Masin [12]

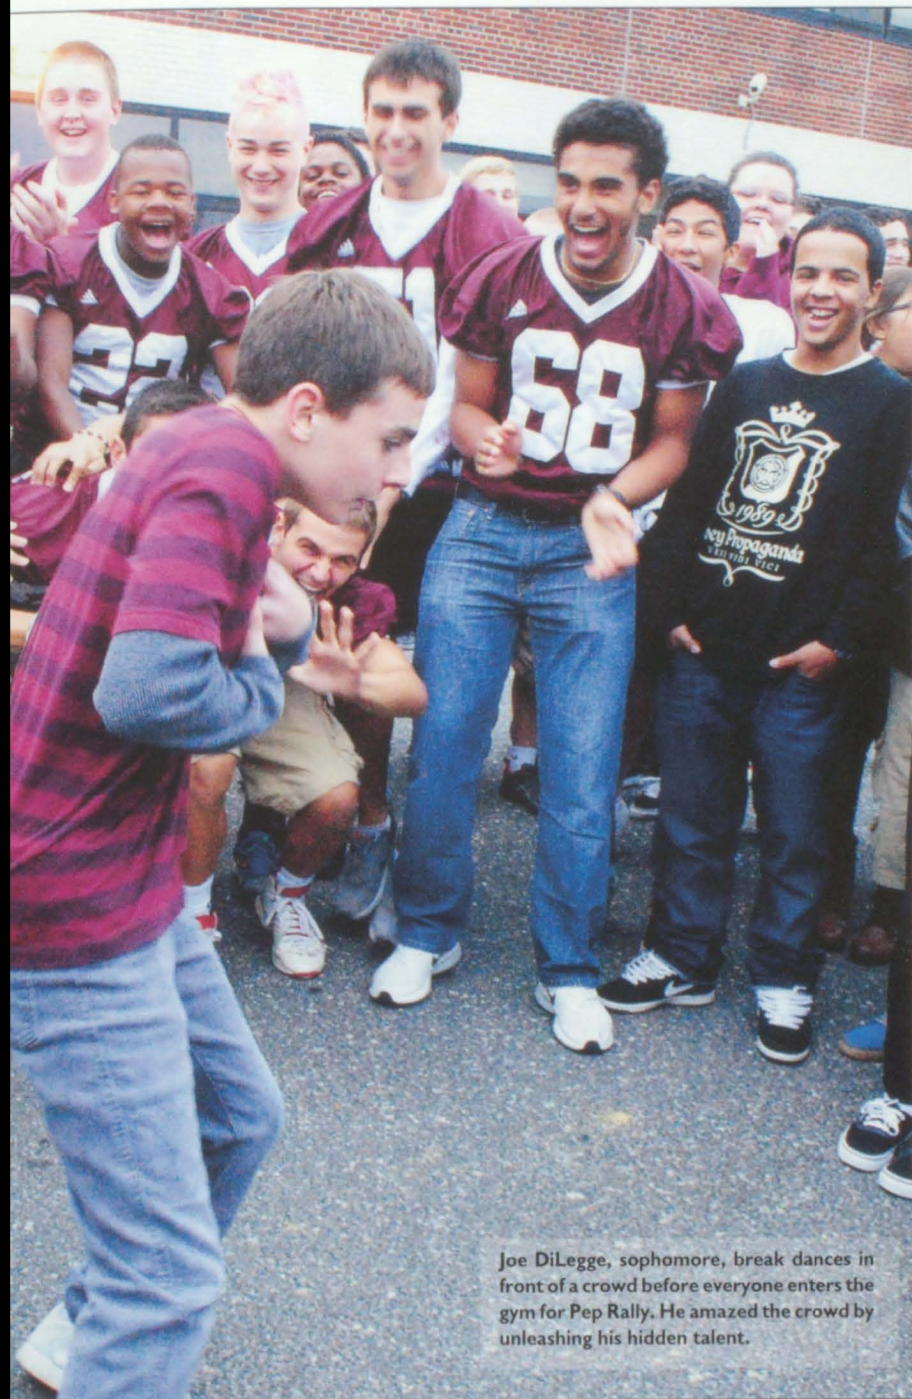

"I wasn't nervous dancing in the circle during Pep Rally. I was hyped to dance as I always am. My friends thought it was cool and enjoyed watching it."

Joseph DiLegge [10]

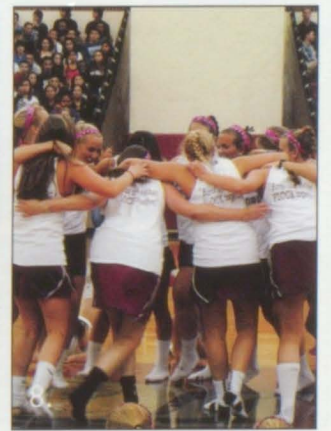

1. Shanice Mulraine, Tess George, and Mayte Camacho, seniors, cheer alongside the band before the students enter the gym for the Pep Rally. Students dance and cheer before the bonfire is lit every year. 2. The Boys Golf team makes an astonishing entrance coming in on a golf cart. The crowd went wild as the golf cart drove rapidly around the gym. 3. Cesia Andrade, senior, Nia McCaslin, junior, and Jamie Vasquez, freshman, use their energy to try and win the Spirit Stick for their team. The Spirit Stick is given to the team with the most enthusiasm at each year's Pep Rally. 4. Brandon Goedtel, senior, charges through the cheerleaders for an incredible entrance to the gym. Goedtel is a starting linebacker for Varsity Football.

Pep Rally [Pow-Wow]

Joe DiLegge, sophomore, break dances in front of a crowd before everyone enters the gym for Pep Rally. He amazed the crowd by unleashing his hidden talent.

5. The Varsity Football team poses for the camera to as students begin to enter the gym for Pep Rally. As always, the boys were very excited and enthusiastic in the stands this year. 6. Alexandra McNulty, senior, Annie Cosgrave and Kendra Cronin, juniors, dance in the middle of the gym representing Varsity Volleyball. These girls dance to a combination of songs including 'Tricky,' by Run DMC. 7. Walpole Jean-Philippe and Joseph Pastore, seniors, perform in a drumline while the students dance. The strong beat brought together all the students as everyone started to dance. 8. The seniors on the Girls Field Hockey team huddle up at the end of their last pep rally together. The field hockey team is known for its fun and unique dance routine each year.

"My motto is the Three C's: Class, Character, and Confidence. I think as a female, friend, daughter, mentor- everything I am- I really embody that. That's what it really entails to be a Homecoming Queen."

Omonikhefe Aghomon [12]

"For the homecoming parade I had to coordinate and communicate with all the floats, especially on timing of songs; and it lead to a great parade. It was very special that I was able to conduct for my senior homecoming."

Abigail Fudge [12]

"Winning Homecoming King was pretty cool because it was in my tradition since my brother was Prom King and sister was Prom Queen. It's not about being good to your school but about being fair and equal to all of your peers."

Marc Barreda [12]

1. Simeon Eato, senior, gains additional yards during a run in the final minutes of the game. This play contributed to the overall success of the team in their game against Hills West. 2. The Varsity Cheerleaders raise excitement in the crowd and support the Varsity Football team. The cheerleaders provided an atmosphere in the stands filled with enthusiasm during every game this season. 3. The football team walks off the field during half time while holding hands. The close relationship that the boys shared on and off the field helped lead to a very successful homecoming game.

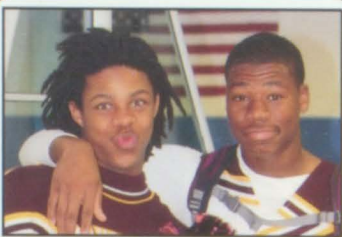

The Homecoming [Heap]

Luke Pacella and Payaum Sanatkar, seniors, along with many other fans, cheer on the Varsity Football team. They celebrated as Matthew Smith, senior, kicked a field goal to win the homecoming game.

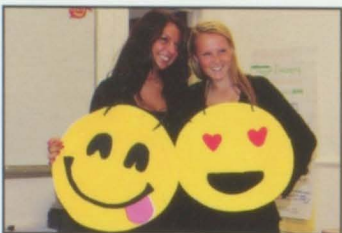

4. Matthew Smith, senior, kicked the game-winning field goal in the last eighteen seconds of the game. This was Smith's first year kicking for the team, but his kick led the team to take the lead in the homecoming game. 5. Full of excitement, the Homecoming Court waves to the fans at the game. This year's Homecoming Court consisted of Brianne Garrett, Christian Mazzie, Omonikhefe Aghomon, Deven Hurt, Daniela Quintyne, Carly Cox, Marc Barreda, Asia Stewart, and Austin Funk. Marc Barreda and Omonikhefe Aghomon were crowned Homecoming King and Queen, respectively, this year at the game.

"Throughout the years, my favorite part about the Bay Shore celebration of Halloween has been the participation from everyone."

DeVaughn Burton [12]

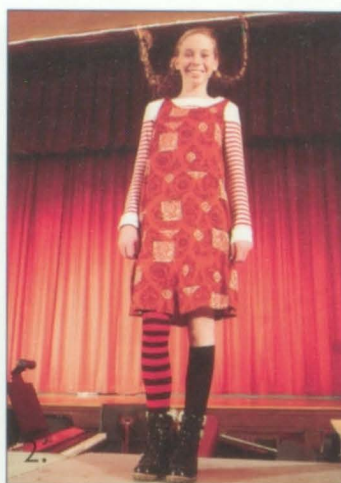

"I really enjoyed being emojis with my best friends. I think we all looked great and it was cool that everyone knew what we were trying to be. Shout out to Sydney [Leone] for making them!"

Rachel Winchester [12]

"My favorite aspect of Halloween is that you get the chance for a day to be something or someone that you're normally not."

Macarena Michelli [12]

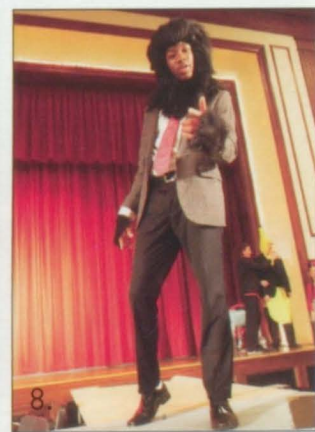

1. Yand Gil Rivera, sophomore, and Karol Pazmino-Lucero, senior, make the perfect Mickey and Minnie Mouse duo. 2. Lydia Taylor, senior, came to school this Halloween as the beloved movie character Pippi Longstocking. She used a bent hanger to keep her braids standing up all day. 3. Victoria Halpin and Alyssa Taylor, seniors, dress as the characters Marceline and Princess Bubblegum from the television series Adventure Time. 4. Elise Ambos, Carly Cox, Marc Barrera and Haleigh Rock, seniors, dress as different color Lego characters. These fun and creative costumes landed them a spot in the costume contest for Best Group Costume.

A [Collective] Freight!

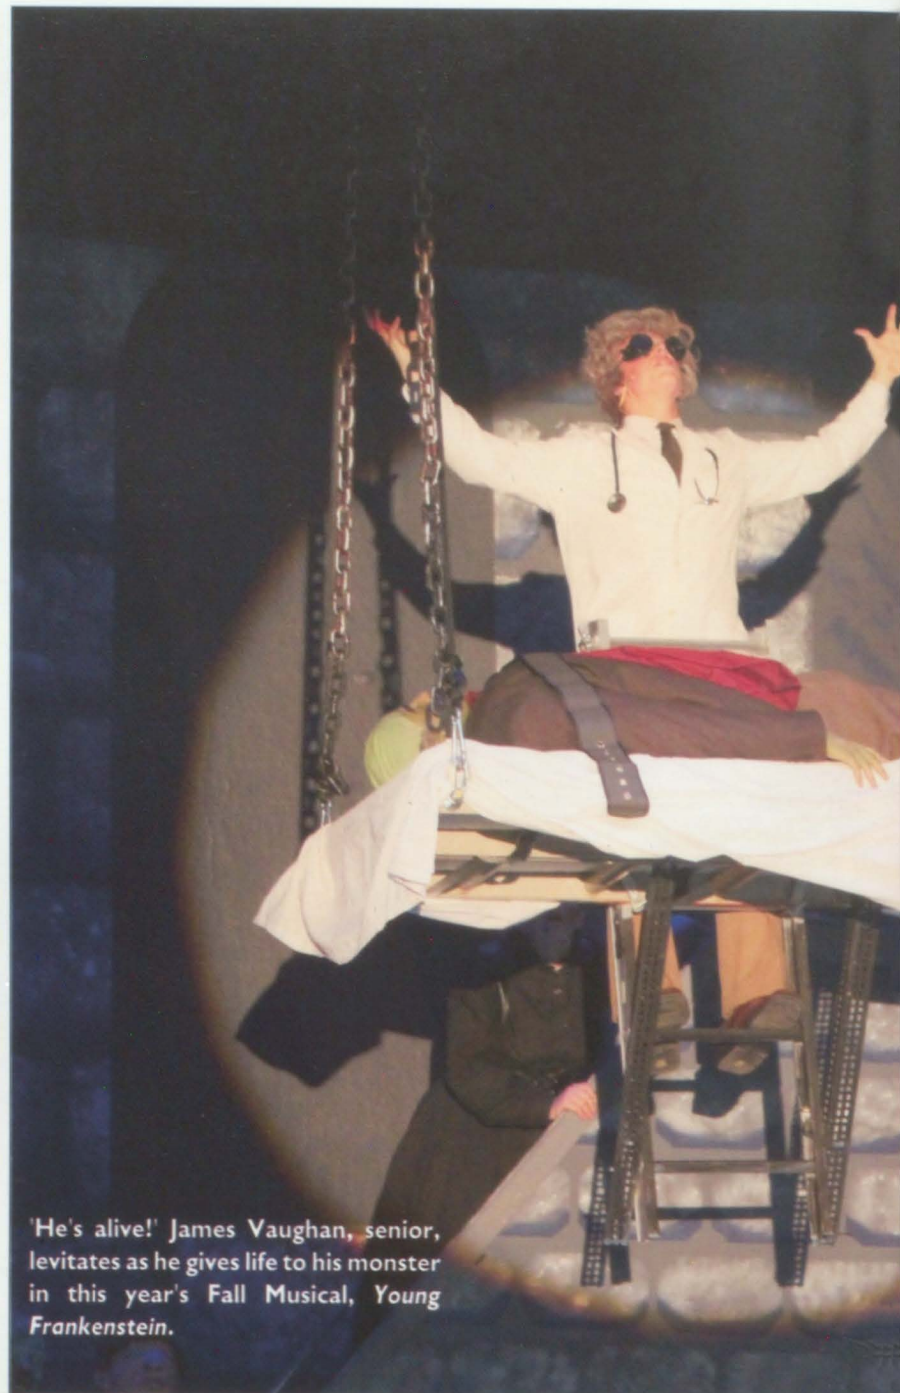

Macarena Michelli, senior, was the winner of 2013's scariest Costume Award. From the blood to the scary make up, it's no wonder why she turned out victorious.

5. Mikaela Brightman, Allie Dolder, Bianca Egas, Kaitlin Handley, Kyra Harney, Katarina Hendrickson, Sydney Leone, and Marilyn Mott, seniors, are full of emotions during Halloween. Dressed as emojis, they portray their favorite and were also nominated for Best Group Costume. 6. Sean Dieumegard, senior, dresses like the main character from the well known movie E.T. He is seen paired with Katie Kirk, senior, who is dressed as 50 Shades of Grey, accomplishing this look by wearing different shades of grey paint swatches. 7. Emily Certain, senior, is quite creative as seen here in the costume contest dressed as the Pixar logo complete with the glowing lamp head. 8. Kordell Hammond, junior, is dressed as The Original Teen Wolf. He is shown here strutting this fancy costume across the stage during the costume contest.

The Monstrous [Mob]

'He's alive!' James Vaughan, senior, levitates as he gives life to his monster in this year's Fall Musical, Young Frankenstein.

1. Remy DeJoseph, senior, starred as Igor, Dr. Frankenstein's assistant. DeJoseph was able to show off some smooth moves while playing this role. 2. Kordell Hammond, senior, played Officer Kemp. Hammond said he practiced 20 hours a week to perfect his role. 3. James Vaughan, senior, and Lindsay Tierney, junior, perform a scene where Dr. Frankenstein and Inga share a connection while serenading each other. Tierney practiced countless hours developing her Transylvanian accent for her role as Inga. 4. Isabella Danzi, junior, acts out her character Elizabeth. Danzi joined the drama program last year and plans on continuing it throughout her senior year.

5. Kyle Souhrada, senior, played the Monster. He had to wear many layers of clothes and platform shoes that made him over 7 feet. 6. Erin McArdle, sophomore, played the role of Frau Blucher. She's standing in front of the study, beautifully designed by the Backstage Crew. 7. The Pit Orchestra poses with Musical and Choir Directors, Mrs. Mendolia and Ms. Malpigli. 8. The ensemble surrounds James Vaughan as he faces the repercussions of creating a dangerous monster.

"The best part about Drama Club is getting to spend a lot of time with everyone and bonding with each other. I feel like since we spend countless hours together we remain a family even after the show." Lindsey Tierney [11]

"The most essential thing in Drama Club is teamwork. We need a balance with the crew, cast and pit. If this balance isn't at an equilibrium, then the drama production as a whole would not be where it is today." Remy DeJoseph [12]

"Working together and feeding off of each other, especially during the actual performances, just made the show so much funnier." Kyle Souhrada [12]

Bay Shore [Brotherhood]

1. Aaron Lewis, senior, leads the team out of the tunnel to get the boys ready for a great start to the game. Lewis has been playing football for many years, and was an important asset to the team's defense this season. 2. Steven Button, junior, avoids a defenseman as he runs the ball in pursuit of a first down. Button stepped up and held down the fort for senior quarterback, Ryan Mazzie, whenever needed this season. 3. Bradley Pierre, junior, carries the ball upfield. Pierre will continue to be an important member of the team next year.

"Although we may have wished to accomplish more in terms of standings or ranks, nothing compares to the joy and pride I've had playing football with these outstanding people. I had the best season for any sport in my life, and that's due to the genuine happiness I had just playing my favorite sport with my friends."

Anthony Edwards [12]

"It felt great to be a senior on the team. It was awesome to be honored on Senior Day and at Pep Rally, but what really was great about being a senior was how Coach G put a lot of responsibility on all of us. We really take pride in calling ourselves a family and we act like one in everything we do."

Matt Masin [12]

"The best thing about being a part of the team is that it's a brotherhood, like a second family. We are one; it's just like having a second family because you have so much love for that and if one gets hurt, we all are hurt. I am a part of a family. It's something I love to do. I have been doing it since I was four years old and hopefully I will continue doing it for a long time."

Jaquan Moore [12]

"It was a huge honor to be a captain of the football team because I was the first one named. It's such a good feeling knowing that the coaches see me as the type of person to help lead our team. I'm really going to miss playing ball with these boys."

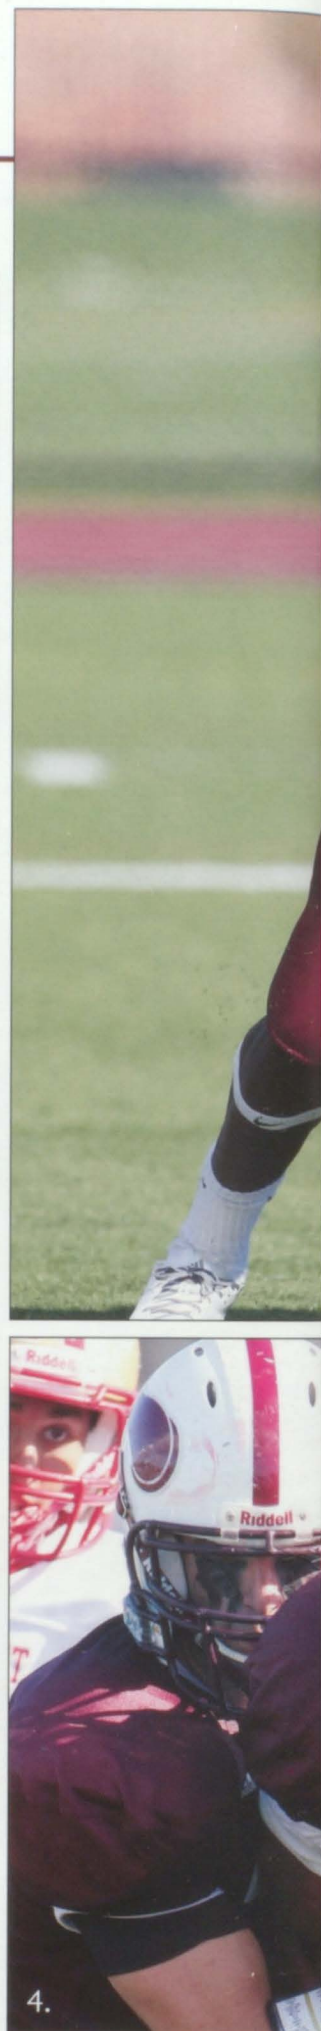

Simeon Eato [12]

4. Anthony Edwards, senior, blocks for wide receiver, Jaquan Moore, senior, as opponents approach. Edwards had many tackles this season as he held down the defensive line.

Running like a [flock] of geese

1. Katarina Hendrickson, senior and strong defender, prevents the opposing team from gaining possession of the ball. Hendrickson has played on varsity for two years. 2. Sam Flood, senior and captain, pushes the ball up the field to help the team get a goal. Flood was an All-Conference representative this season. 3. Katie Kennedy, senior, steals the ball from the opponent to pass it up to her team on offense. Kennedy was nominated All-County Honorable Mention.

"I think the best part about the field hockey team is that we are truly sisters. Our close friendships off the field translate into incredible teamwork on the field, which leads us to a very successful season."

Catherine Darcy [12]

"Our team stays united because we keep a positive attitude and our team bonding gives us better chemistry on the field. There really isn't a single memory that sticks out because the whole season is one great memory. We always have a good time as a team, but when it is game time, we are serious."

Sam Flood [12]

"The field hockey team is different than any other team in that we're always there for each other no matter what it is. We always know that we have twenty sisters we can go to for anything and they will support us on and off the field."

Haleigh Rock [12]

"The best part about being on the team is the relationships that come with it. Even when we're not in season, we all still act as a family. The friendships and memories I have with these girls are irreplaceable and I know I will never forget them."

Katarina Hendrickson [12]

4. Haleigh Rock, senior, drives the ball up the field to her offensive players. Rock has been an important element of the team's defense for the past three years and received All-County this season.

1. Braulio Sandoval, senior and captain, dribbles the ball through the midfield. Sandoval is a two-time All-County representative and was selected for the Suffolk County All-Star team this season. 2. Brendan Quirk, senior, sprints for the ball up the field. Quirk has been a dedicated member of the varsity team for two years. 3. Anthony Sblendorio, sophomore and goalie, dives for a save. Sblendorio recorded three shutouts this season.

"It's been such a pleasure to play a sport I love with such a great group of boys. This team is like a second family to me, between team dinners and pre-game pump up speeches. As a senior captain, this season has been an awesome experience."

Matthew Smith [12]

"We don't like to bring any of our teammates down; building up each other's confidence is something that I find really important as a senior co-captain. I'll really miss playing with this group of guys."

Michael Bernardo [12]

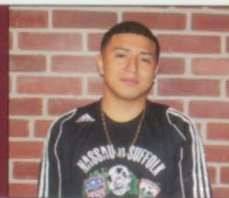

"In order to keep the team united, we push the younger, less experienced players to work harder and to not overthink the game. The best part about this team was being able to play with the younger players and your friends."

Khalil Scott [12]

"As a captain, my position was to be a motivator and a leader on the team. Being able to play with new people this year, along with winning those tight games that took everyone's effort to win, were experiences that I will not forget."

Braulio Sandoval [12]

4. Alejandro Juarez, junior, battles for possession of the ball. Juarez positively impacted the team this year and was rewarded All-League.

The Soccer [Society]

1. Genevieve Casey, junior and captain, dribbles the ball towards the goal. Casey was named captain after only one year on the team and kept the team focused throughout the season. 2. Andrea Yugcha, senior and goalie, prepares to clear the ball to a teammate. Yugcha had a total of seventy-six saves this season. 3. Fatou Barry, freshman, chest bumps the ball before dribbling it down to the offensive end. Barry was one of seven freshmen on the team this year.

"The best part about being on the team is connecting with the girls on a different level. It's almost like they have become my sisters and no matter what, good or bad, they will always be standing right next to me with love."

Gabrielle Attanasio [12]

"I was a leader to the younger girls by showing them that no matter what happens, you never give up and you keep pushing yourself. Playing with the different girls and interacting with them was the best part of being on the team."

Stefani Baires [12]

"To stay positive before the games we tell each other that we need to stick together no matter what happens. We always have a talk before the games to pump ourselves up. We are a huge family so we always come together."

Casey Imbasciani [11]

"My greatest memory of this team will be playing with all of my teammates and getting to know each and every one of their personalities and what makes them unique as a person and a soccer player."

5.

"As a captain, I like to keep the team united by going out to get breakfast after morning practices or just hanging out outside of practice. Bonding off the court really helps with the chemistry on the court."

Marc Barreda [12]

"The team camaraderie is really good. There are no cliques on the team and we all mesh really well together. We are all friends outside of volleyball, so having fun on the court is a lot easier."

Blake Hogan [11]

"We are all so close on this team so playing together is so much fun. My favorite memory from this season would probably be beating Half Hollow Hills, because they were ranked ahead of us and we really came together as a team and came out with the win."

Mark Jensen [11]

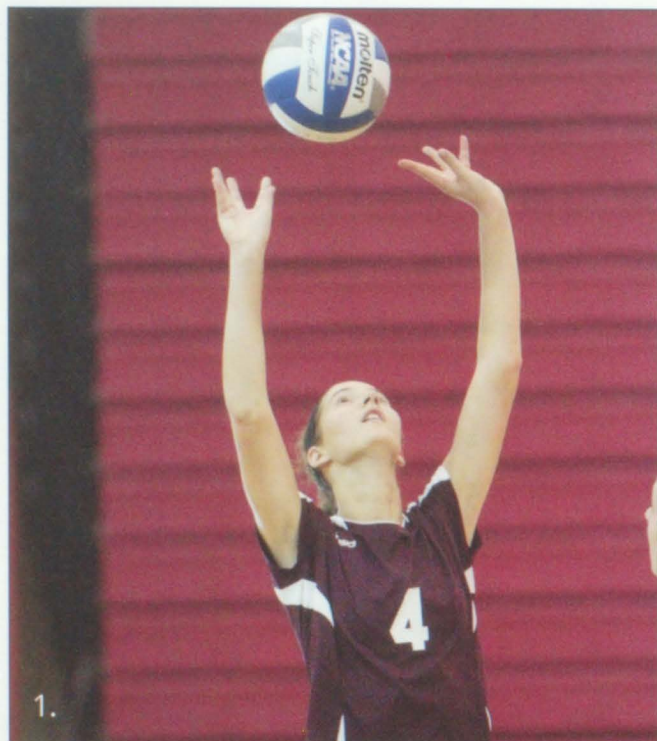

"My favorite part about being on the volleyball team is being able to play every day with my friends. We are all so close which made it such a great experience."

Brian Weissert [10]

3. Mark Jensen, junior, passes a perfect ball to target in order to set up an offensive play. Jensen was one of Long Island's top outside hitters this year and received All-County and All-Tournament honors.

The Spiking [Squad]

1. Miranda Hogan, junior and captain, sets the ball up for a spike by one of her other teammates. Hogan was awarded All-County this year as a junior. 2. Carly Cox, senior and captain, digs the ball to start the next offensive play. This was Cox's third year on varsity and she was awarded All-Classification in her league.

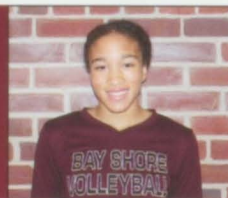

"I try to push everyone and make the team the best that they can be. I make sure that everyone is having fun at practice as well because if you're not having fun, you aren't going to play well. Giving the team pep talks really helps motivate them to come out with a win."

Carly Cox [12]

"Our team this year has grown to become a large family that I am so lucky to be a member of. No matter what has happened during the day, I can always look forward to practice with all of these girls."

Asia Stewart [12]

"A lot of our traditions are talking about everything on bus rides and getting pumped up at pasta parties. Overall, the best part about being on the team is that everyone is there for each other and everyone loves one another."

Mary Posillico [12]

"A tradition that I hope to uphold next year as a senior captain is just the feeling that everyone is part of the team and no one is better than anybody else. Also, the fact that we all can go someone at any point in time whenever we need help."

Miranda Hogan [11]

3. Kendra Cronin, junior, dives to save the ball. Cronin was an important asset to the team's defensive success by contributing seven digs per game on average.

Asia Stewart, senior and co-captain, sets up to gain a kill for the Lady Marauders. Stewart was named News 12 Scholar Athlete of the Month this season.

The Balancing [Bunch]

1. Hayden Davidson, freshman, performs a back handspring in her floor routine. As a freshman, Davidson qualified for the All-State Team due to such a successful season. 2. Sarah Trupp, sophomore, kips into a cast handstand on the bars. Trupp has competed for the Lady Maraunders for three seasons, and has advanced to individual counties this year. 3. Kammie Christie, sophomore, executes a scorpion on the floor in the Bay Shore Middle School Gym. Her strong leadership skills led her to being named one of the two captains this season.

Lydia Taylor, senior and captain, preforms her beam routine. Taylor has been on the team for five years and led the Lady Maraunders to counties this season.

"Since we're such a small team, we all get to perform at every meet. Everyone is a huge part of the team's outcome and we're never dependent on one person. We all have to work together no matter who the opponent is."

Sarah Trupp [10]

"I'm the only senior on the team, but I still act like everyone's equal. Nobody has any authority over another. Our team is a family, we tell each other everything and always make sure we are working together."

"The purpose of the assembly is to acknowledge the month in the way it's not being acknowledged in school. It's to let people see successful black people and to be inspired by what accomplished."

Darrell Douglas [12]

"Being chosen to introduce Ahsan Watts was a huge honor. Black History Month is truly important because it reminds people of the contributions that blacks have made to lead us to where we are now."

Quentin Thompson [10]

"The assembly was in memoriam of Corey Swinson. He played a huge part in my life and the lives of many others in the school. He believed strongly in educating people on black history."

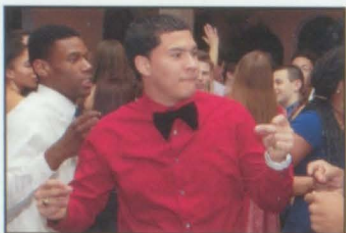

Chantel Bizzle [11]

5. Diallo Shabazz, author and philanthropist, delivered a motivation speech. 4. Victoria Pearce, freshman, drives past her defender to the basket. Pearce received All-League honors this season and led the team in points with 273. 5. Keonjah Nugent, freshman, and Carly Cox, senior, double-team their opponent, hoping to force a turnover. 6. Jami Cardenas, freshman, swiftly dribbles the ball up court. She was one of the four freshmen on the team.

"I think communication is really important. You need to listen to coach, learn from your mistakes, stay focused and help your teammates out during the game. But overall, it's important to just really want the win."

Chelsey Blanchfield [12]

"We bond well. Like any other family, we have our disagreements, but they last two seconds and we get over it. We are one family and you can definitely see it on and off the court."

Nye'Dia Harris [11]

"This is my first year playing basketball in high school. I joined because I wanted to be a part of something before I graduated. I love everyone on my team, through the good and the bad. I'm very supportive and I'm my team's biggest fan."

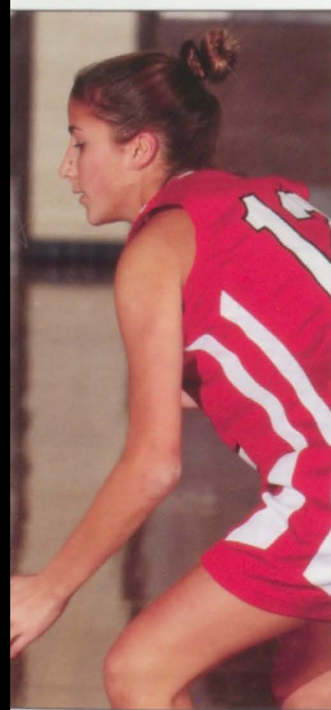

Bria Mulraine [12]

"I think this season will be one of my favorite parts of senior year. I think we did a great job this year of showing not only our school, but our league that we were a different team compared to years past. Making playoffs was such a great feeling, especially because we haven't done that in about ten years. I couldn't be more proud of the girls on the team this year and I'm excited to see what they accomplish in years to come."

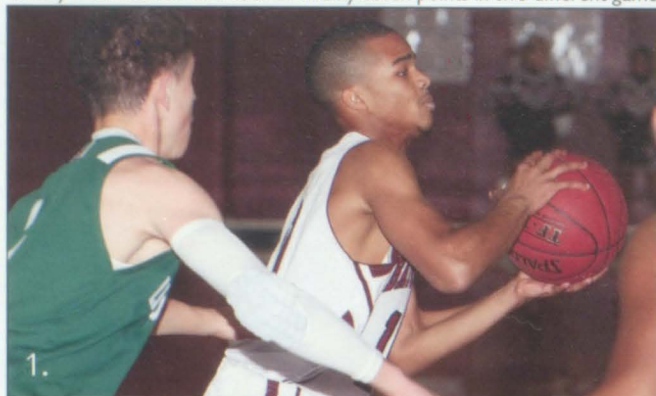

Carly Cox [12]

3. Stephanie Vargas, junior, dribbles the ball up the court. As a third year varsity player, she was a key player in the team's defensive success this season.

Dribble [Division]

1. Tyson Morton, senior and captain, finds an open teammate and passes the ball. Morton had a total of twenty seven 2-point shots for the season. 2. Coach Gary Williams gives team members Chris Adames and Kevin Hilton a pep talk before they get on the court. Coach motivates his team with the goal of "being better than the day before." 3. Chris Adames, junior, goes to dunk the ball and helps the team get close to a victory. Adames scored a total of twenty seven points in two different games during this season.

"It is a lot of pressure to be captain this year. It's my job to keep everyone motivated when the chips are down. I've built bonds with the whole team and it's different to step out of my comfort zone and to lead the team instead of following."

Tyson Morton [12]

"The best part of being on this team is playing with the same boys that I've been playing with since freshman year. We just have that special bond and mutual respect for each other so everyone gets along really well, and as captain, it's a good thing to see that."

Marquise Rolon [12]

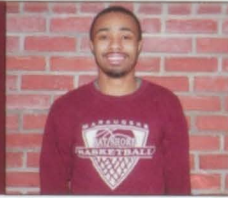

"It is such an honor to be on the Bay Shore Varsity Boys Basketball team. We have a bond that is so hard to break and such good sportsmanship that we show each other. Along with the amazing teamwork we have, it leads us to winning games. I will gladly continue this legacy next year, hopefully as a captain."

Christopher Adames [11]

"Playing basketball is such a big part of my life. It is my passion. The brotherhood we maintain plays a big part of our team and it is unbreakable. What our team has learned is that it is not about losing, it is about trying your hardest; communication is key."

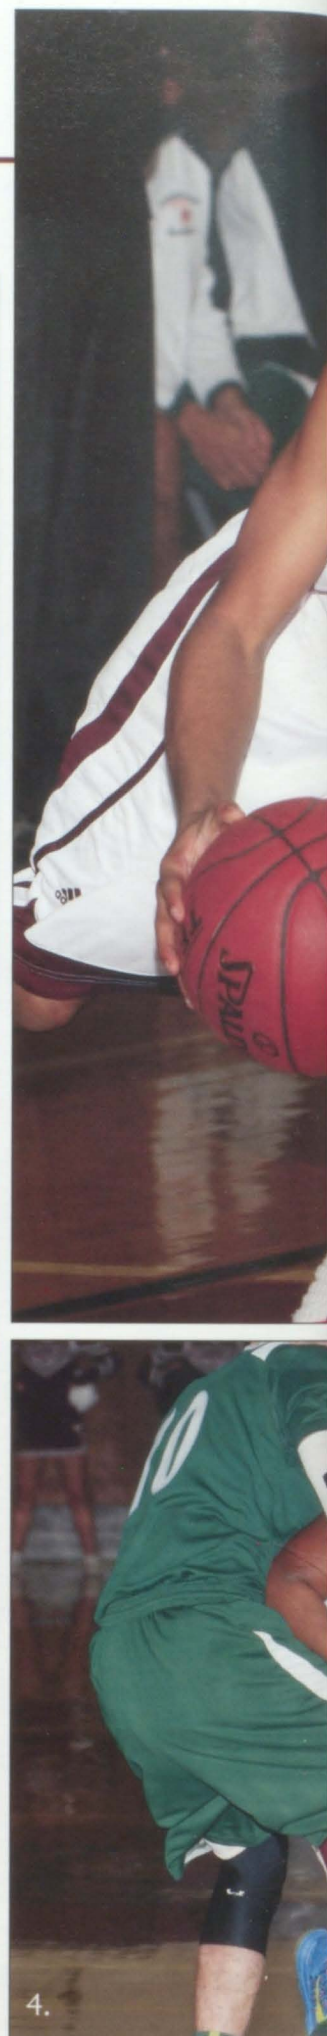

Nigel Gilbert [11]

4. Marquis Doctor, junior, dodges past an opponent and keeps the ball in Bay Shore's possession. Doctor is a new student this year and is excited to continue on the team in the future.

Winter

Tyson Morton, senior, swiftly dribbles the ball past his opponents. Morton scored a total of eighty-eight points over the entire season.

This is Camacho's fifth year on varsity and she helped lead the team to Nationals.

"It's not like any other sport where there's that one star or one good player that scores all the goals. Cheerleading is all teamwork. If one person messes up, it affects the entire routine and the entire team."

Daniela Quintyne [12]

"Originally cheerleading only consisted of supporting the football and basketball teams, but it's evolved into so much more than just standing on the sidelines for another team. When we perform at competitions, it's one of the best feelings."

Tess George [12]

"We are very misunderstood and we are constantly working hard to prove to people that cheerleading is a sport and that we, as cheerleaders, do much more than our stereotype portrays."

Taryn Sanwald [12]

"Our time at Nationals was one of the best experiences I've ever had. I cherished every moment of the routine, knowing it would be my last. My final year of cheering was a bitter-sweet kind of experience, but ending it down in Florida was truly incredible."

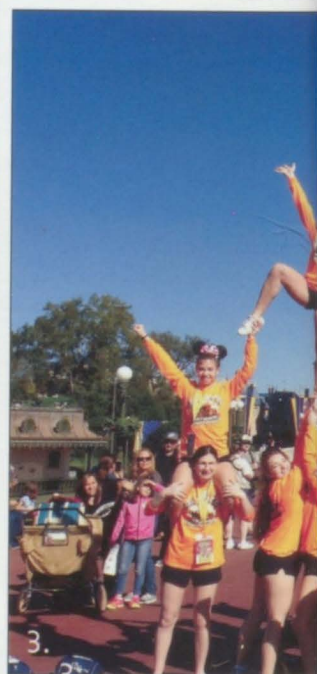

Mayte Comacho [12]

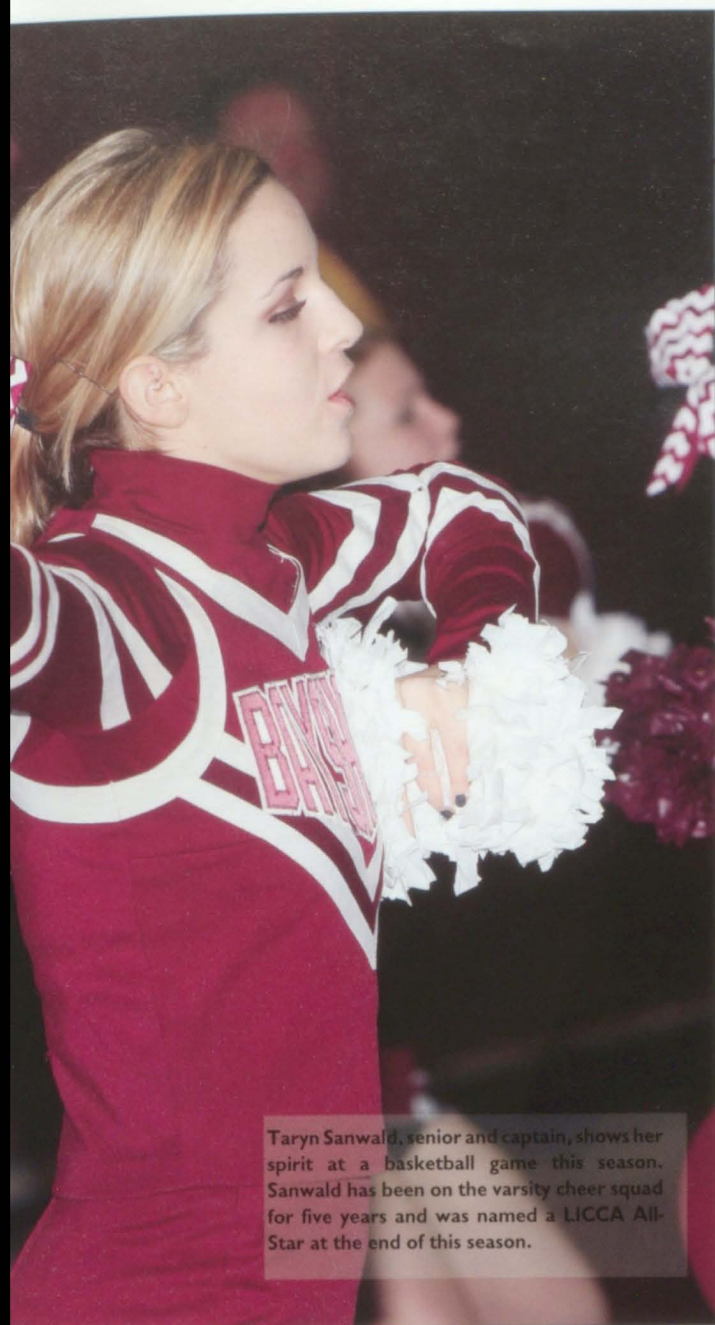

3. During their trip at Nationals, the cheerleaders take a break to stunt in front of Cinderella's Castle at the Magic Kingdom. This is Bay Shore High School's first time ever competing at Nationals, which is held in Orlando, Florida at the ESPN World-Wide of Sports Complex in Walt Disney World.

Evan Wolff, junior captain, escapes from his opponent in his match. Wolff finished this season with a 25-6 record.

"Getting close with all the guys is very different than any other sport ever because we have a bigger family bond than anyone else. I am very proud of the many accomplishments we had this season."

Joe Reilly [10]

"Every weekend we have a tournament that lasts about eight to nine hours out of the day, which gives us plenty of time to build a bond. Everyone enjoys the sport, which helps the tournaments more enjoyable for everyone."

Evan Wolff [11]

"I love the sport and the people on the team make it even better. I look forward to it everyday. It is a lot more of a team sport than it may appear because we motivate each other like brothers."

Girls Bowling

Pins in a [Pod]

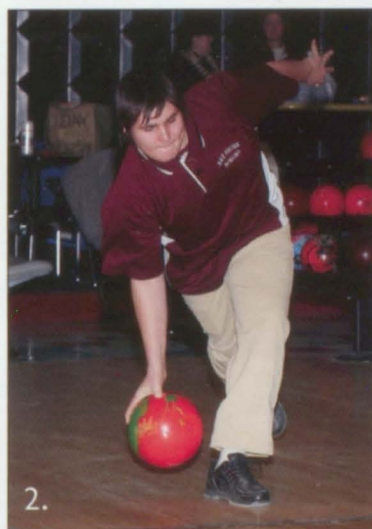

1. Brandon Guerin, sophomore, pinpoints where he will throw to ball to get a strike. Guerin rolled a 225 in match two of a 619 series. 2. Eric Bzdyk, sophomore, rolls the ball down the lane. Bzdyk shot a 223 at his first match of the season. 3. John Holz, senior, releases the ball straight down the lane to hit the one pin. Holz has been on the team since his freshman year and had many strikes this season.

Adrian Pastolero, freshman, follows through as he whips the ball to the left. His form is impeccable and he helped the team to beat the undefeated Lindenhurst.

3.

"The greatest memory of the team is when we beat the undefeated Lindenhurst. That made us realize that we have the capability of being the best team in our division."

Won Han [9]

"I was so happy I made the bowling team. This season I made so many strikes. I'm going to miss all my teammates."

Brandon Goedtel, senior, prepares to put the shot in hopes that he'll score points for his team.

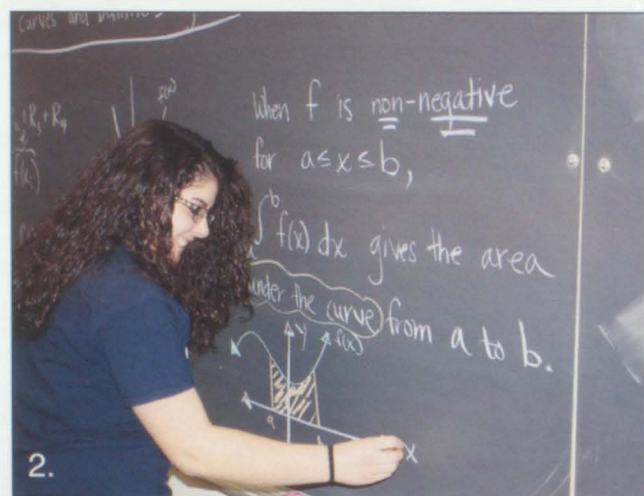

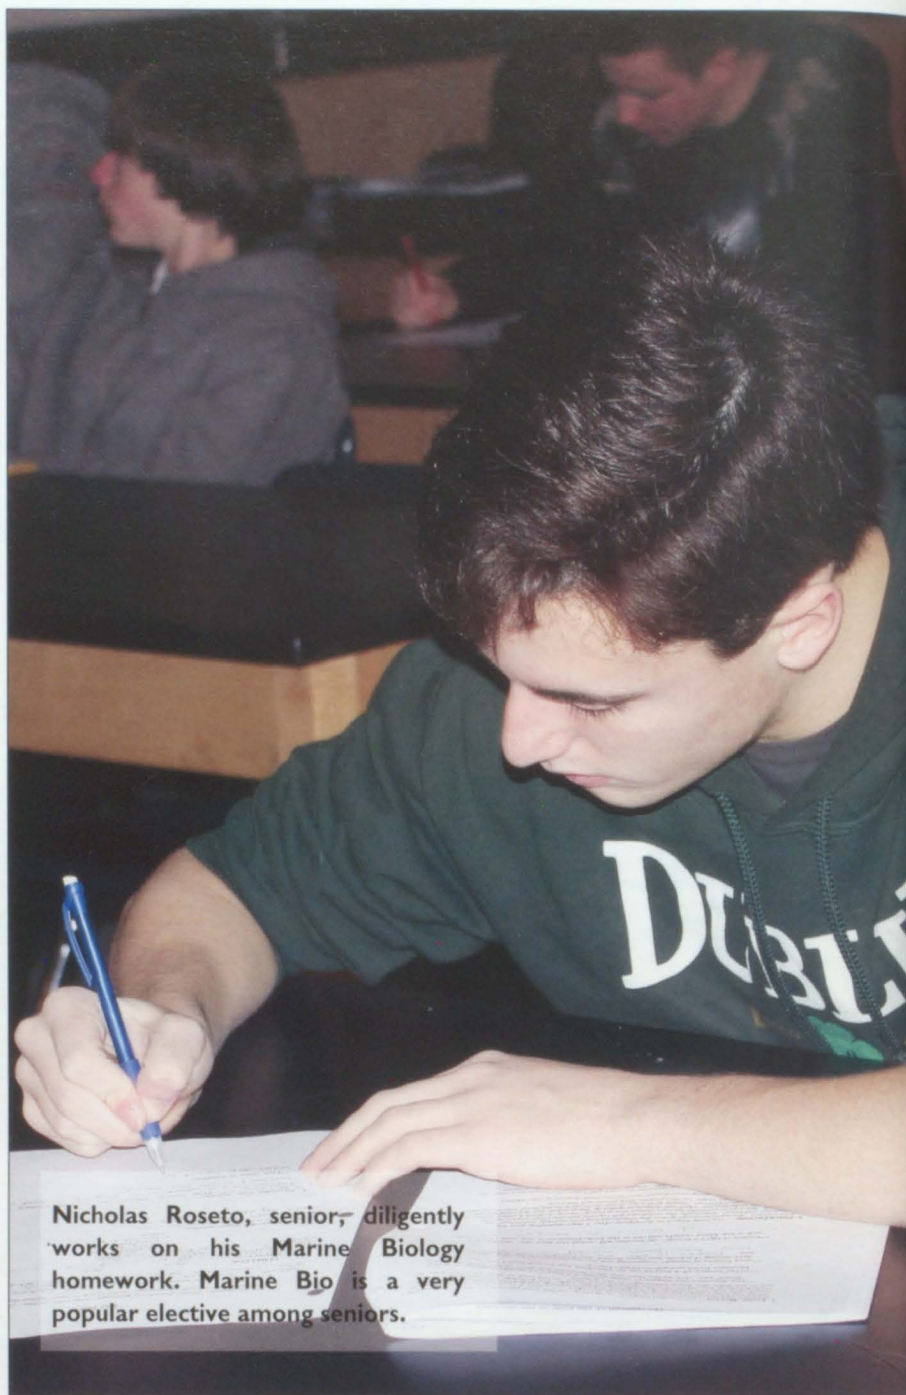

Discovering [together]

Our school and [community] is continually known for all of the amazing extra-curriculars that are offered to us: from clubs to sports. However, the one true reason we are here is because of the one-of-a-kind education available to us. We often take for granted what we have been exposed to for up to twelve years [together] in the Bay Shore school system. This unique opportunity is [formed] by a balance of our [union] of students, teachers, and classes available in Bay Shore that provides us with one of the most well-rounded and [complete] learning experiences. Dedication by all of the staff of Bay Shore is second-to-none and has allowed us to have yet another successful year of learning in all of the major subject stations: from Math and English to Art and Music.

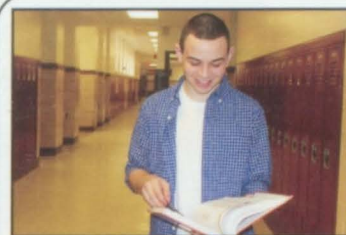

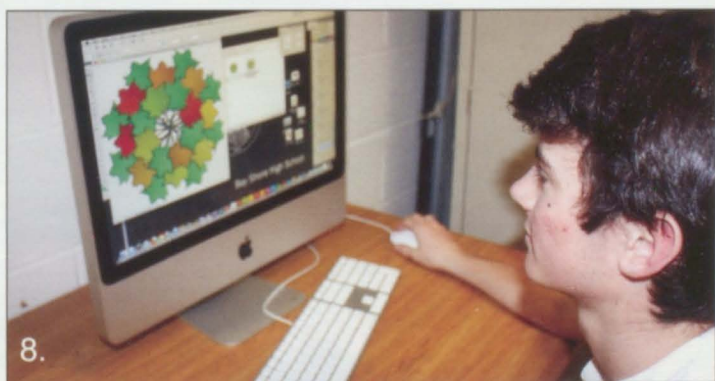

The Student's [Movement]

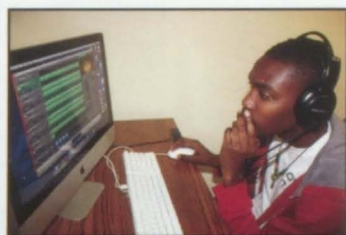

Nicholas Roseto, senior, diligently works on his Marine Biology homework. Marine Bio is a very popular elective among seniors.

1. Samantha Soto, Jennifer Tineo, and Kayla O'Brien, seniors, dance to the musical style of ballet. They have preformed in Bay Shore Dances for the past two years. 2. Ali Morales, junior, graphs a line on the coordinate grid in IB SL Math. 3. Kaila Bardoo, senior, twirls her flag to practice for the St. Patrick's Day Parade. Bardoo has been on color guard for her entire marching band career. 4. Max Chabra, senior, carefully examines a paramecium in a microscope for his Advanced Placement Biology lab.

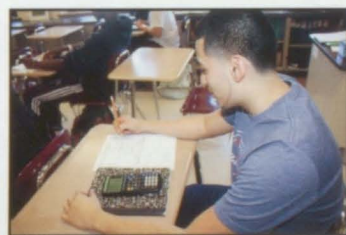

"If I had to take one class again, it would be Photography because it's really fun and interactive."

Jared Normandin, [12]

"My favorite class is Music Theory because I get to make my own music."

Arkel Miller, [12]

"I take Algebra 2 and Trigonometry and it's challenging but not impossible. Math comes fairly easy to me."

Mario Martin, [12]

5. Kevin Guevara, senior, files down the wood for his new project to. Guevara is hoping to create a truck out of wood. 6. Danielle Flynn, senior, holds Lucky the guinea pig. Lucky is the class pet for AP Biology. 7. Cole Fandale, junior, plays the cello in the orchestra room. Fandale has been playing for more than 5 years. 8. Sean Linden, freshman, works on an intricate project in graphic design. Linden really enjoys art and plans to continue to take different art classes throughout his high school career.

Mrs. Allison Pfeffer

Position: Physical Education Teacher

"I had so many awesome times in the gymnasium and out on the field. I definitely chose the right career as a physical education teacher. However, it's time for a new chapter in my life. Beyond the success of the Girls Lacrosse Program, the special relationships with my players, their families, and the journey will remain with me forever. I will miss all of you and will hold on dearly to the many fond memories of our Bay Shore Family, students, and staff."

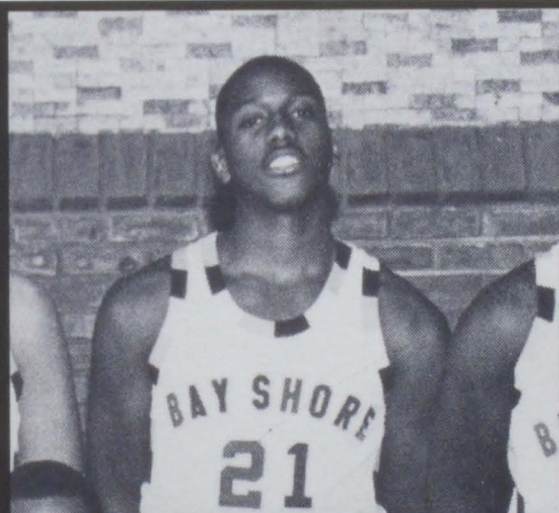

Mrs. Kathy Lombardo

Position: Director of Special Education

"Working in Bay Shore has been an unbelievable experience for me. The positive relationship between our schools and community that has evolved has been rewarding to be a part of during the past thirty-five years. I have worked with hundreds of students, mentored struggling ones, and developed wonderful relationships. I think what I will miss the most is seeing everyone I have worked closely with each day, meeting with students, visiting classrooms and, in general, just being a daily part of Bay Shore Schools."

In loving Memory

Mr. Corey Swinson

Corey was a Bay Shore High School graduate who returned to Bay Shore after playing professional football. He was the ten-year Director of Security, a role in which he continued to touch the lives of many students in a powerful, positive way. We honor Corey by striving to follow his example; aspiring to always be better today than yesterday. This photo of Corey comes from the 1987 Marauder Yearbook.

Ms. Jaynemarie Fagan

Jaynemarie cared for her students in a way that only a mother can, and her efforts to help those in need went way beyond the call of duty. She was a fixture among the Time Out Room staff and students. She found love for every student she ever encountered and embraced every story she was ever told. Her smile will be missed and the lessons she taught will never be forgotten. This photo was taken at one of the many Awareness Weekends that she attended.

Achieving [together]

Bay Shore's [network] of clubs is a key factor in forming the bonds and relationships that make our student body and high school community so strong. From Peer Support's [system] of helping hands that reach to all ends of this school, to the unwavering dedication of the Robotics club that takes hours upon hours to build robots, to the close-knit [members] of each of our musical [organizations] that work relentlessly to create impeccable harmonies, our clubs do truly amazing work. These individual [families] of students create the basis for the magic that forms from all of our long-stretching arms of friendship and [togetherness] across borders of grades, classes, and cliques to create the greater [cohesive] nature as a whole school.

The Academic [Army]

1. Jocelyn Godoy, junior, runs the meeting and goes over the different events the club will help with throughout the month. Godoy is one of the leaders of National Honor Society.
2. Members of National Honor Society raise their hands to volunteer for one of the many events the club has. Students are nominated for the National Honor Society when their GPA meets standards and they are approved following an application process. Membership prepares students to become leaders in the life of service learning and success.

Miranda Hogan, junior, reads over the different events National Honor Society will help with. Hogan meets the requirements to be a part of NHS, such as leadership and good character.

"I really love being in National Honor Society because it unites the school and community. It feels really great to be a part of this club because it shows how the hard work I did during high school paid off."

Allie McNulty [12]

"My favorite thing that we do is help students in third, fourth, and fifth grade with their homework. This club is really great to be a part of because we get to help the community as well as students in the high school."

Emily Fischer [11]

Helping out the [Community]

1. Anil Persaud, senior, and Daniella Nieves, sophomore, listen to directions so they can get started on the day's project. Both members joined the club so that they could give back to our community. 2. Aleeza Shakeel, sophomore, describes the objects that are going into the Occupational Health and Safety Kit.

Seniors: Kaila Bardoo, Kenny Bastien, Madison Beckman, Emily Certain, Jesly Cordero Villa, Ryan Dalo, Sean Dieumegard, Abby Dupont, Peri Eckhoff, Dania Flores, Julia Flores, Austin Funk, Jane Gabriel Alexis Gallardo, Ashley Galvin, Jessica Gomez, Zamerrah Green, Adriana Herrera-Yanci, Jonathan Hodge, Deven Hurt, Brianna Key, Justin Leguillow, Vanessa Lema, Qian Lovett, Nicholas Mamatos, Shani MARS, Macarena Michelli, Matthew Miller, Marilyn Mott, Emily Napear, Anil Persaud, Haleigh Rock, Guiseppe Vargas, Nicole Vargas, Samantha Vasquez, Ellie Virgilio, Treson Wallace, Zala, Ashley Zambrano

"Our club stays united because we see each other at events and at each event there are different people, so you get to know so many people."

Matthew Miller [12]

"Personally, the best part about Interact is being able to work with my peers and at the same time, contribute to my community and school. Also, you indirectly develop friendships with the members."

Jocelyn Godoy [11]

The Artistic [Alliance]

1. National Art Honor Society gives back by selling their ornament creations in order to raise money for various charities. The club's favorite composition is the memory project. The students create portraits of children who may not have anything to call their own. 2. Esme Forbes and Lauren Ten Hoopen, juniors, are selling hot chocolate as a part of their holiday fundraiser. This is one of the many creative events the club does to contribute to our community.

Jordyn Pellman and Christa Thompson, sophomores, are displaying Pellman's Miley Cyrus Wrecking Ball ornament. With this great display of creative humor, it was sold within minutes.

"I wanted to give back to my community, but I also wanted a creative way to do so. This was the club that allowed me to express my creativity. To be able to see the reactions of various people is truly what makes this a great experience."

Craig Irby [12]

"This club is a great way to spread ideas. It allows us to give back to our community, but we get to be creative at the same time. I would recommend this club to anyone interested in art and community service."

Cristina Villon [11]

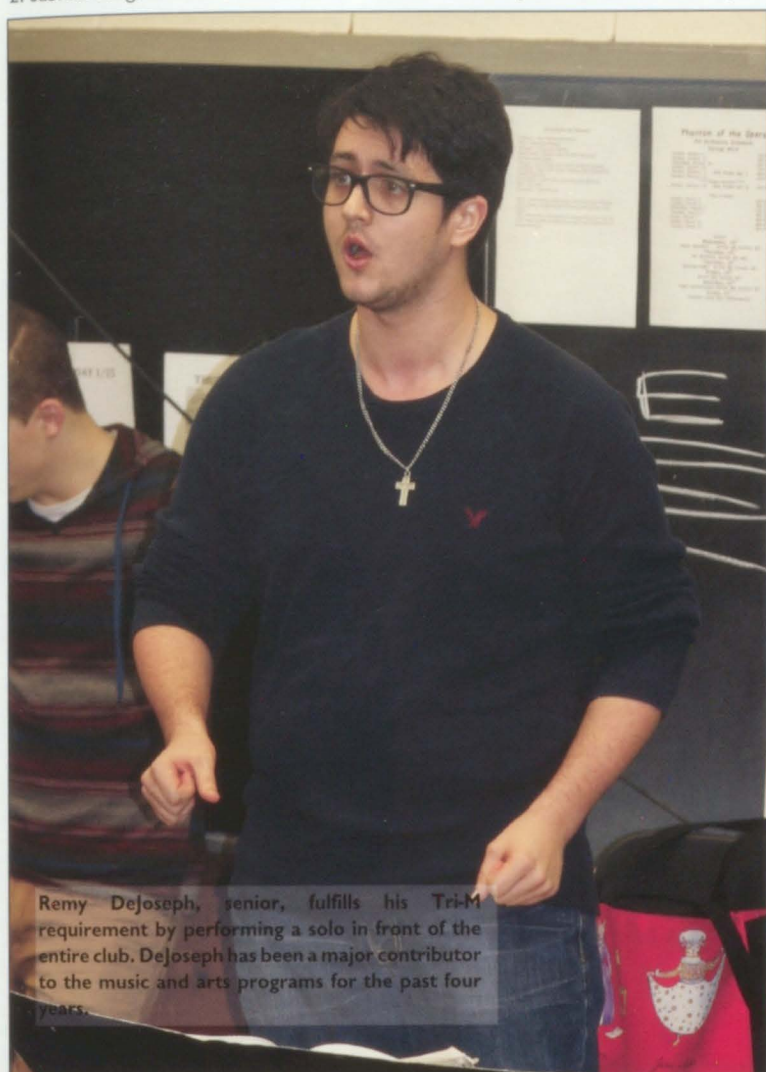

Seniors: Emily Certain, Austin Funk, Emily Howitz, Craig Irby, Walpole Jean-Philippe, Emma Pallotta, Alyssa Taylor, Cordelia Trupin

National Art Honor Society

Miraculous [Ensemble]

1. Francesca Hilditch, senior, shows her support to her fellow Tri-M member James Vaughan, senior, by applauding after his performance. Hilditch was president of the Tri-M this year.
2. Sabrina Song, freshman, serenades the audience with her performance of a country song.

Seniors: Remy DeJoseph, Austin Funk, Francesca Hilditch, Emily Howitz, Derek Jenkins, Michael Keach, Macarena Michelli Vincent Reyes, Kyle Souhrada, James Vaughan, Ashley Zambrano

"Tri-M is a very important club, not just for me, but for the entire music department. It's a way to spread my love for music and help the community through different service projects."

James Vaughan[12]

"As president, I have tried to get as many music students to be a part of Tri-M as possible. We represent the music program in the community. I will miss being with all the best music students in the school and working with them to show the community how great our music program is."

Francesca Hilditch[12]

Order in the [Court]

1. Jessy Certain, freshman, practices her questioning at mock trial practice while Mr. Selzer, the mock trial advisor, gives her constructive criticism. This is Certain's first year on the team.
2. The Mock Trial team meets before a competition to gather last minute thoughts and give each other pep talks. The mock trial team ended the season with a successful record of 3-1.

"We work together for about six months out of the year and we meet everyday. Seeing each other so much and having to work together to prepare for the meets gives us a chance to become really close."

Deven Hurt [12]

"Mock trial is unique because it combines the rigorous academics seen in higher level classes with the spirit of competition seen in athletics."

Payaum Sanatkar [12]

Payaum Sanatkar and Deven Hurt, seniors, rehearse before their first home competition. This is Hurt's fourth year on the team and Sanatkar's third year. Both are important attributes to the success of Mock Trial.

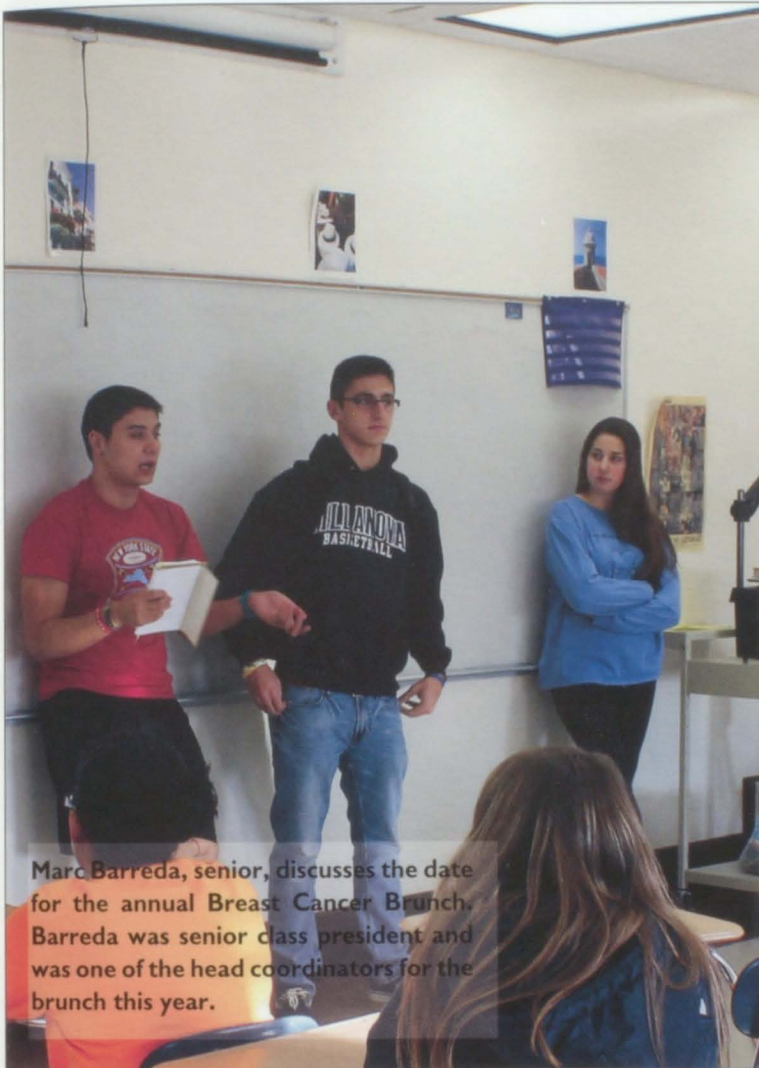

Seniors: Nandini Bissoon, Darrell Douglas, Mehrab Hoque, Deven Hurt, Payaum Sanatkar

Underclassmen: Justin Allen, Katie Barba, Gen Bryant, Shannon Butler, Santino Casola, Jessy Certain, Abby Cervera, Diego Colonna, Nicole Kennedy, Chris Luna, Elizabeth McCabe, Kelly Naar, Emma Pallotta, Andrea Paredes, Eric Ramsay, Sarah Rosner

Student [Council]

1. Members of Student Council discuss ideas for upcoming events. Student Council has been an essential part of the community, organizing events such as the Breast Cancer Brunch, Homecoming, Stuff a Bus and both Junior and Senior Prom. 2. Emily Napear, senior, and Asia Stewart, senior, talk about the significance of Adopt-a-Family. Napear was the president of Student Council this year, after holding other positions in previous years. Asia was a first time officer, dedicating herself to the position of vice president.

Marc Barreda, senior, discusses the date for the annual Breast Cancer Brunch. Barreda was senior class president and was one of the head coordinators for the brunch this year.

Student Council Officers:
President: Emily Napear
Vice President: Asia Stewart
Secretary: Christian Mazzie
Treasurer: Omonikhefe Aghomon

Senior Class Officers:
President: Marc Barreda
Vice President: Haleigh Rock
Secretary: Ashley Galvin
Treasurer: Ryan Mazzie

"Student council is one of the very few clubs in our school where we can incorporate every grade's idea into one major event. I joined student council because I wanted to be apart of the events that make Bay Shore so unique."

Haleigh Rock [12]

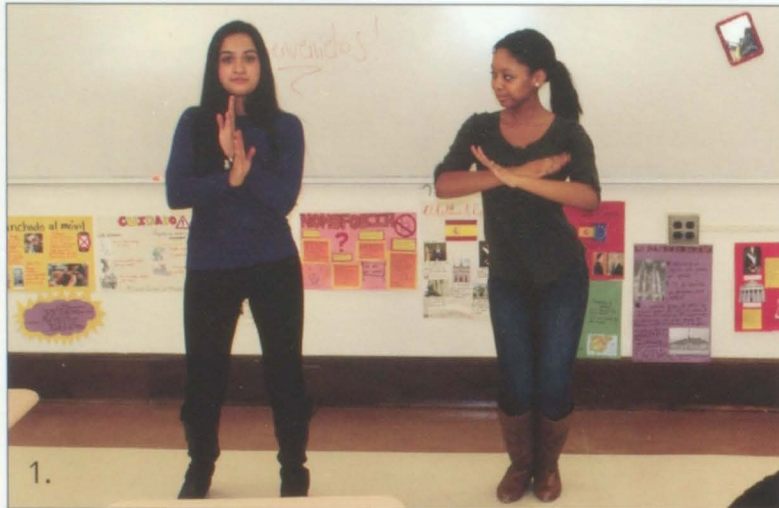

"I joined Student Council because I wanted to make a change in our school. As one person you can't do much, but as a whole group of people you have a huge say in what goes on in the school and the community. This club unites the student body because we all come together to get things done."

Marc Barreda [12]

Estamos [Juntos]

1. Brianne Garrett, senior, and Sharon Ahmed, junior, demonstrate a Spanish-style dance in the front of the class while the other club members sit and enjoy. They both performed a dance for Multi-Cultural week at the end of March. 2. Kathy Aquino and Adriana Gomez Merlos, seniors, and Daisy Blanco Aquino, freshman, perform a dance for the students attending spanish club. These girls practiced so they would be prepared for multi-cultural week.

"Spanish club has increased my knowledge and interest in the spanish language and culture. It has also improved my speaking skills."

Nandini Bissoon [12]

"I've been apart of Spanish club since I was a junior. We have had so many fun memories shared together. The best part is expanding my knowledge and vocabulary."

Monica Embleton [12]

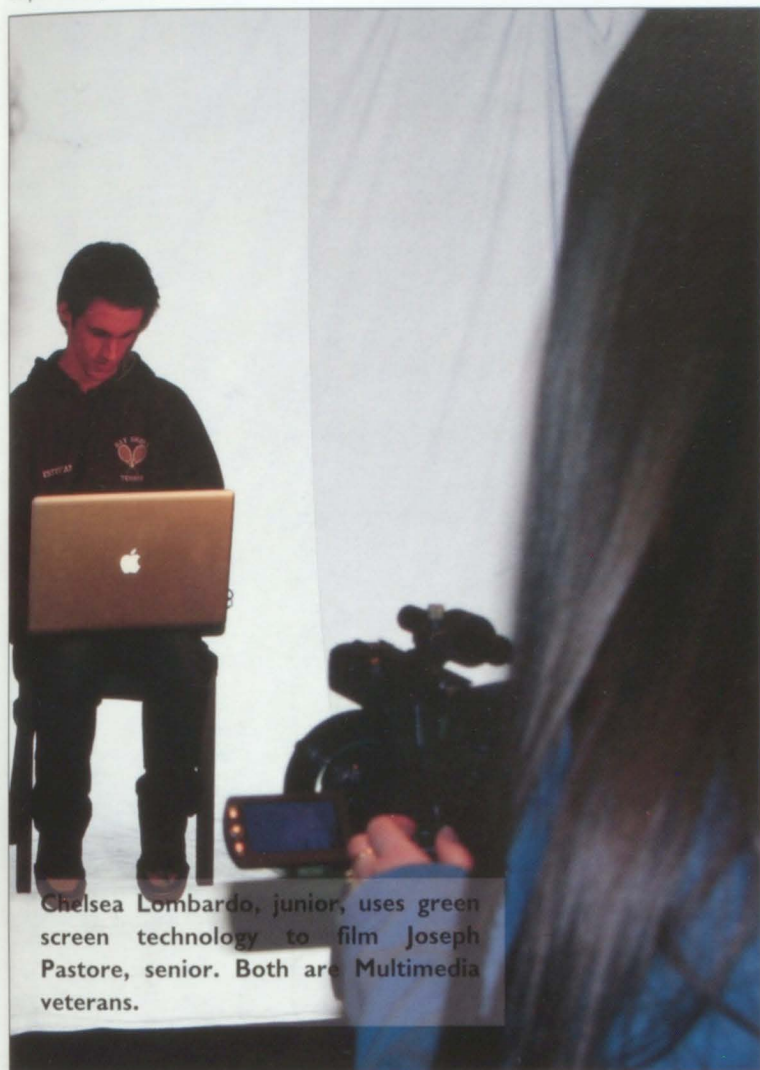

Nandini Bissoon, Monica Embleton, Brianne Garrett, Michael O'Donnell, Kathy Aquino, Valentina Flores, Sharon Ahmed, Kevin Lopez, Tiffany Garcia, Daisy Blanco Aquino

The Film [Crew]

1. William Carney, junior, and Sodasia Thompson, senior, take a break from editing to pose for a photo. Along with filming, members of multimedia club edit, animate and compose.
2. Imani Hite, senior, edits a video for the annual summit. Multimedia is responsible for filming and editing videos for various events throughout the school year, including pep-rally and important sporting events.

Senior: Imani Hite, Joseph Pastore, Sodasia Thompson
Underclassmen: William Carney, Jacob Eifert, Chelsea Lombardo, Estefan Perez

"Trying to get everything done in a 40 minute period is hard, but it's really fun. I enjoy being creative and expressing myself among people who share the same interest as me."

Chelsea Lombardo [11]

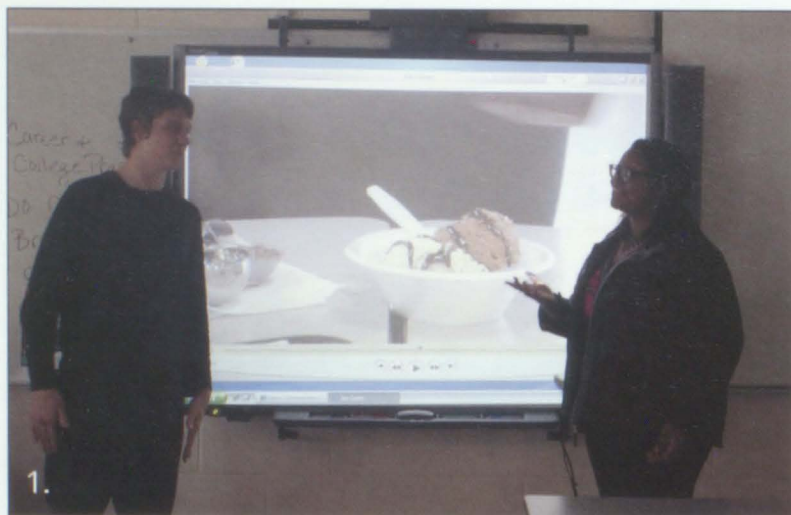

"Being in Multimedia has provided many different opportunities for me. Not only as an outlet for self expression, but also as a way to network and branch out into different things."

Imani Hite [12]

[Corporation] Leaders

1. Matthew Galke and Imani Hite, seniors, present a commercial and share some fundraising tactics. This presentation was given to market one FBLA's fundraising initiatives: selling ice cream after school weekly. 2. Eromosare Aghomon, junior, and Jamie Vasquez, freshman, scoop out vanilla ice cream for the FBLA fundraiser. These club members work hard scooping every week so they can fund scholarships for students.

"Participating in FBLA gave me the opportunity to not only acquire business and life skills, but also to interact with hard-working, positive people. I think about finance and being a part of a team more than I ever did before."

Bianca Egas [12]

"My role as vice president is to help with event coordination and communicate with other members and officers. My favorite part of senior year so far was running for VP."

Matt Galke [12]

Omo Aghomon, senior and president, speaks to the members about organizing upcoming events at a weekly meeting. Aghomon was voted president due to her strong leadership and organization skills.

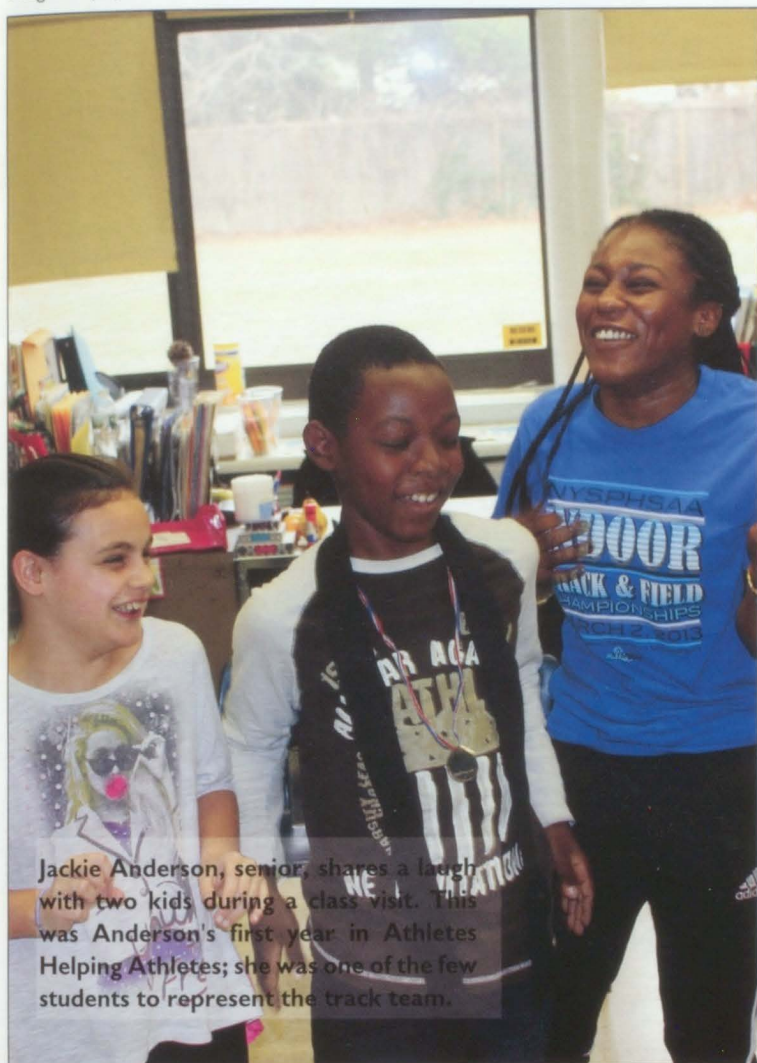

Seniors: Omo Aghomon, Teddy Carroll, Emily Dunn, Bianca Egas, Matt Galke, Zamerrah Green, Imani Hite, John Holz, Nicholas Mamatos, Amanda Murray
Underclassmen: Eromosare Aghomon, Geoffrey Casper, Anna Correa, Ariyana Felician, Devine Obasa, Jamie Vasquez

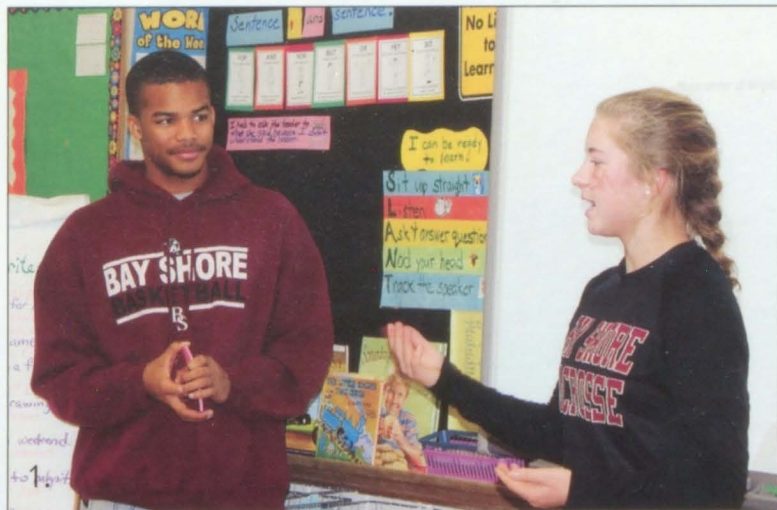

[Huddle] of Helpers

1. Tyson Morton, senior, and Lizzy Volavka, junior, inform young students on the importance of sportsmanship and making good life choices. High school students are nominated into the program for their outstanding athletic achievements on and off the court and the field. 2. Abigail Fudge, senior, helps a young girl with an activity promoting drug-free choices. Fudge has played field hockey and softball throughout her high school career.

Jackie Anderson, senior, shares a laugh with two kids during a class visit. This was Anderson's first year in Athletes Helping Athletes; she was one of the few students to represent the track team.

Seniors: Elise Ambos, Jackie Anderson, Marc Barreda, Kristen Brigagliano, Carly Cox, Catherine Darcy, Allie Dolder, Abigail Fudge, Erin Ilchuk, Katie Kennedy, Sydney Leone, Matt Masin, Chris Mazzie, Ryan Mazzie, Tyson Morton, Luke Pacella, Haleigh Rock, Corinne Schmidt, Matt Smith

"We want students to feel comfortable when they enter the middle school, so we cover sportsmanship, bullying, peer pressure, and drug and alcohol abuse. We also talk about being student athletes and hope to inspire the kids to join a sport or club."

Katie Kennedy [12]

"The trips we take to the elementary schools are very important because the kids really do listen. I did it last year, and this year the kids still remember me, and when I see them around they tell me about what they learned so it's very beneficial."

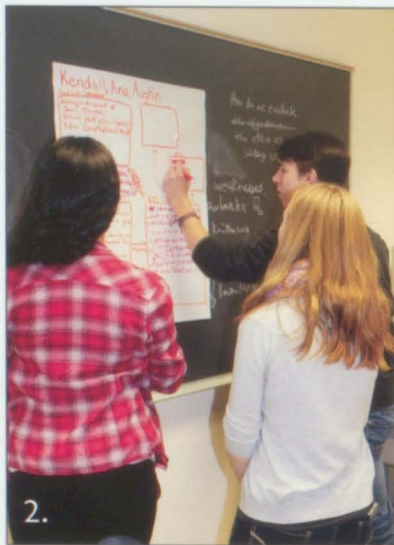

Luke Pacella [12]

[Universal] Learning

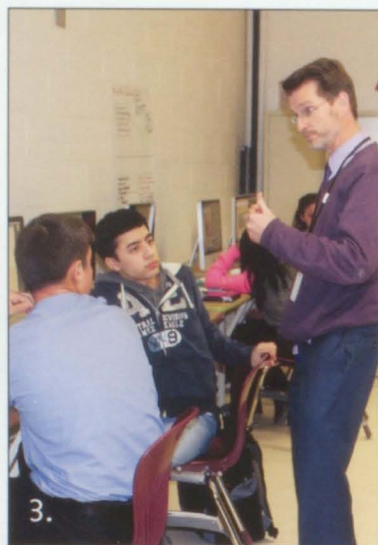

1. IB diploma and certificate students stand and smile at the beach on a field trip with their Danish exchange students. Both diploma and certificate students hosted students from Denmark for a week. The students attended school and various activities to get a better look at the learning experience in the United States. 2. Ana Borruto, Kendall Downs and Austin Funk, seniors, work together on a group project in their Theory of Knowledge class. Theory of Knowledge is a class required for all diploma students. 3. Mr. Nelson, IB Coordinator, guides Taha Hafeez and Chris Mazzie, seniors, while they work on a powerpoint presentation in class.

3.

Brian Lyudmer, senior and IB diploma candidate, works on a poster for his Theory of Knowledge class. Lyudmer worked hard to juggle all the responsibilities of the IB program.

"After two hard years filled with many ups and downs, I have come out of the IB program with skills I know will help me in the future. Ultimately, the IB program has led me to the place I want to be and the college I want to attend."

Mary Posillico [12]

"My favorite IB memory would have to be the exchange program with the Danish students. The program allowed me to make new friends, learn about another part of the world, and have a lot of fun doing it."

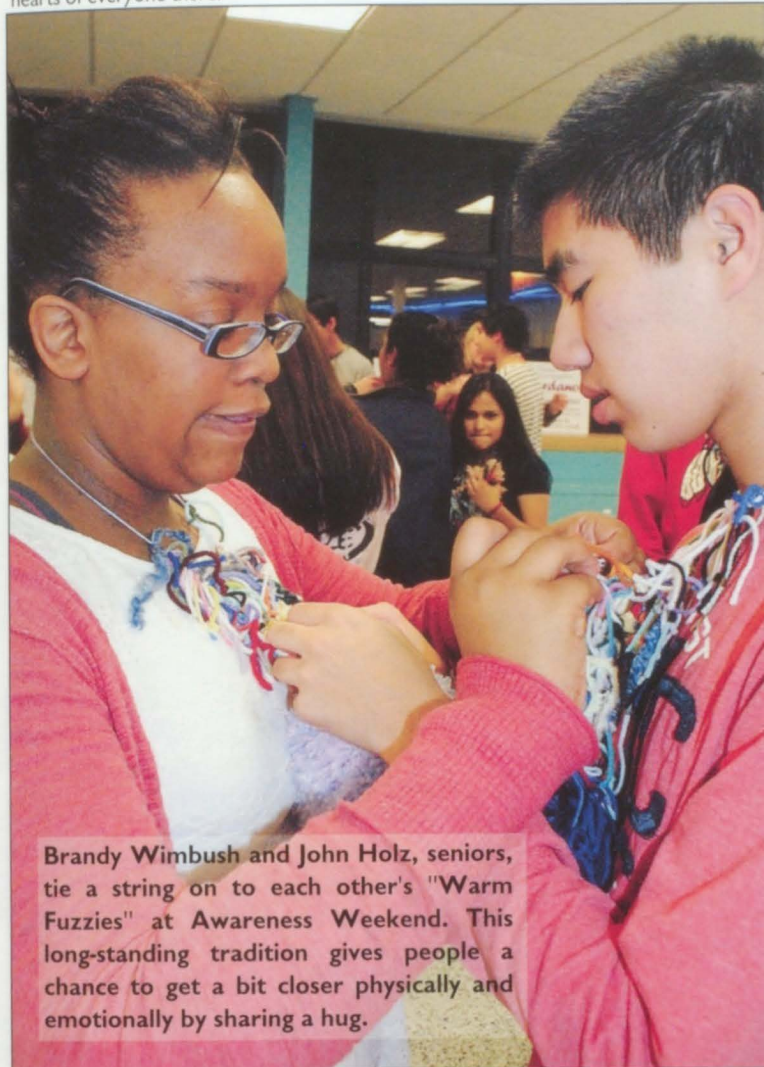

Ryan Mazzie [12]

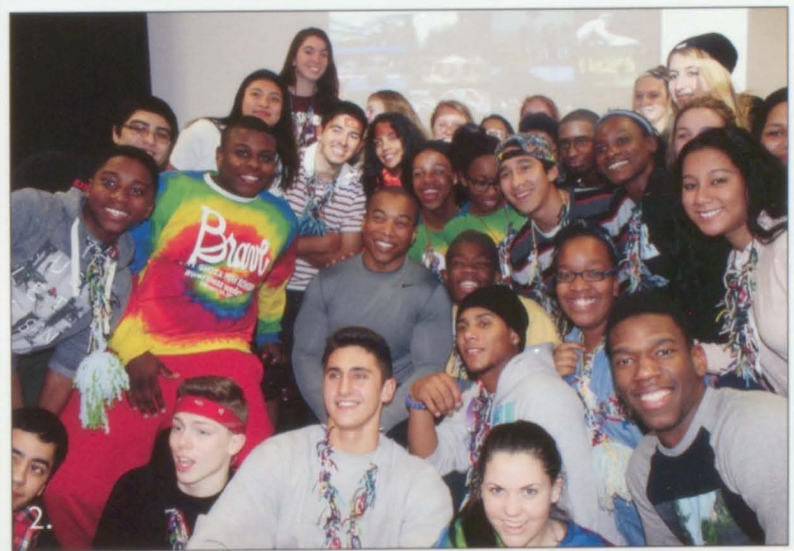

Seniors: Omonikhefe Aghomon, Ana Borruto, Geraldine Chapey, Matthew Culkin, Catherine Darcy, Kendall Downs, Austin Funk, Brianna Garrett, John Haberstroh, Taha Hafeez, Victoria Halpin, Walpole Jean-Phillipe, Katie Kennedy, Luke Linden, Brian Lyudmer, Matt Masin, Christian Mazzie, Ryan Mazzie, Tyson Morton, Luke Pacella, Mary Posillico, Melvin Romero, Payaum Sanatkar, Kyle Souhrada, Asia Stewart, Yamilex Yglesia

The Brave [Brood]

1. A group of Awareness Weekenders join together in the cafeteria to dance to the Wobble. After Saturday's lunch, it is a tradition to go out and bust some moves. 2. A group of students and Rohan Murphy, a guest speaker at Awareness Weekend, pose together. This wasn't Murphy's first time speaking at Awareness Weekend, but he never fails to touch the hearts of everyone there.

Brandy Wimbush and John Holz, seniors, tie a string on to each other's "Warm Fuzzies" at Awareness Weekend. This long-standing tradition gives people a chance to get a bit closer physically and emotionally by sharing a hug.

"Joining Peer Support has truly been one of the best decisions I've made throughout high school. I've been able to help so many people and I've learned so much about myself and others. I loved having the opportunity to break down walls and build bridges between my peers and myself."

Emily Napear [12]

"I have had the chance to help a number of students both from Bay Shore and outside of our school. Throughout my years I have been involved with teen mentoring, Anti-Bias Task Force, role playing, and many other activities to help others. I believe that Peer Support has changed my life through helping others."

Sean Dieumegard [12]

Seniors: Elise Ambos, Genny Baratta, Marc Barreda, Christiana Burch, Erin Camp, Emily Certain, Maggie Colbert, Carly Cox, Kaitlyn Deutsch, Sean Dieumegard, Brianne Garrett, Tess George, Zamerrah Green, Ariana Guillen, Imani Hite, John Holz, Erin Ilchuk, Katie Kennedy, Matthew Miller, Emily Napear, Ray Nogueras, Haleigh Rock, Payaum Sanatkar, Corinne Schmidt, Victoria Solimo, Asia Stewart, Brandy Wimbush

Peer Support

Saving the World [Collectively]

1. Anthony Saint-Vil and Anthony Arrigo, juniors, collect used paper and put it into the recycling bin to be processed. 2. Recycling bins that the club utilizes to hold the paper during the week. They are placed inside of each classroom and by the end of the week they are often overflowing. The club's goal is to reduce the paper waste in Bay Shore High School. This year, the Environmental Club sold reused pencils and reusable water bottles, which have the Bay Shore logo placed on the front.

"Some kids are content to just let the world around them fall apart. When I see that there are problems in society, I try to fix them and effectively take a role in improving my community."

Tim Bryant [12]

"We are in the process of making water bottles to sell around the school with the Bay Shore logo on it. This will reduce the waste of plastic bottles that are thrown out each day."

Brad Chabra [12]

Seniors: Tim Bryant, Simeon Eato, Brad Chabra, Max Chabra, Katherine Kennedy, John Holz, Mehrab Hoque, Jack Hubbard, Riley Corcoran.

Positive Reinforcement in [Unison]

1. Qian Lovett, Samantha Vasquez, Jane Gabriel, and Abigail Dupont, seniors, attend Islip's Safe Driving Conference in order to spread awareness on the importance of safe driving. This was the first conference that Bay Shore SADD members have attended and they aspire to attend more in the forthcoming years. 2. Martha Sprouse Volquez, Qian Lovett, Samantha Vasquez, and Macarena Michelli, seniors, gather around a table in the gym lobby, distributing stickers with messages that promote positive body image and encouraging every Bay Shore High School student to feel beautiful.

James Vaughan, senior, dresses up as the Grim Reaper. Grim Reaper Day is a day when every 45 minutes a SADD member is taken out of a class by the "Grim Reaper" to emulate the statistic that every 45 minutes someone is killed from drunk driving.

Seniors: Omonikhefe Aghomon, Genny Baratta, Kaila Bardoo, Kenney Bastien, Remy DeJoseph, Abby Dupont, Jane Gabriel, Imani Hite, Qian Lovett, Macarena Michelli, Aleeza Shake, Samantha Vasquez, James Vaughan, Angelique Wilson

"At SADD we encourage healthy living and aspire to prevent people from making poor decisions. Together we learn more about ourselves, and life in general.

Kenney Bastien [12]

"My favorite event for SADD is the 'Positive Body Image Week' because many people participate in spreading the word on the importance of loving yourself and being confident in who you are."

Qian Lovett [12]

Jazz [Jamboree]

1. The Tuesday Night Hip Katz prepare for a big band sound with Bob McChesney and Calbria Foti, two artists from California who aided the Bay Shore students with their music. 2. The club members listen to an improvisation from a guitarist during rehearsal of their song Don't Get Sassy. The Tuesday Night Hip Katz have been directed by Mr. Scalzo for 36 years and they are known for exploring and re-creating America's music. A key component to the group is learning to improvise the music as they play.

"My role in this club is playing as the first trombonist, but the number doesn't really mean anything. Everyone's position is just as important as the person sitting next to them."

Brad Tuller [12]

"I truly enjoy working with Mr. Scalzo since I have learned so much from him. My favorite event was having the opportunity to perform with Bob McChesney and Calbria Foti."

Chris Keach [10]

Bob McChesney and Calbria Foti, two famous jazz musicians from the West coast, inspire the Bay Shore Hip Katz.

Seniors: Devin Barone, Anthony Edwards, Abigail Fudge, Austin Funk, John Haberstroh, Francesca Hilditch, Paul Mangels, Joe Pastore, Anil Persaud, Kyle Talin, Sodasia Thompson, Brad Tuller
Underclassmen: George Bateman, Cole Fandale, Emily Fudge, Alex Jean-Phillipe, Chris Keach, Brian Paonessa, Kwaku Owusu

Biblical [Bunch]

1. Carolynn Arroyo, senior, reads and explains her verse to new member Shane Rychlik, senior. Arroyo helped motivate Rychlik to come to his first Bible Club meeting. 2. Samantha Moyse, junior, hands out a bible to Rychlik to start off the meeting. Moyse is the head leader of Bible Club, under the advisement of Ms. Allison Pfeffer.

Dayana Diaz, sophomore, reads a biblical passage and explains to her peers the meaning behind it. This is Diaz's second year in Bible Club and she is an avid follower of her religion.

Seniors: Kathy Aquino, Carolynn Arroyo, Kevin Bonilla, Hector Cepeda, Alejandra Garcia, Adriana Gomez, Kevin Lopez, Carrie Murray, Julio Ramirez, Vincent Reyes, Natanael Robles, Shane Rychlik, Maurice Stanford

"I was chosen to be one of the leaders for bible club. As a leader, I try to invite new friends and try to find new ways to make our meeting fun. It is so cool interacting with people who believe in the same things." Samantha Moyse [11]

"Bible Club has always been a place where I truly feel comfortable. I love how we have so much in common, all due to the love for our religion. Bible Club in general will always be something I remember when I graduate from Bay Shore." Carolynn Arroyo [12]

[Mass] of Motivators

1. Julio Ramirez, senior, helps create Renaissance cards. The members of Renaissance tied these cards onto lockers to recognize the students in the school with a GPA higher than a 90 for the second marking period. 2. Elizabeth Salzman, junior, makes alterations to the Renaissance bulletin board. This board lists upcoming events and features the students and teachers of the month.

"Renaissance is a club that tries to motivate students to do better in school, no matter what their grades are. If they have good grades already, we encourage them to keep doing well."

Kathy Aquino [12]

"I chose to join Renaissance because I love helping people and the club gives me the opportunity to motivate and encourage my peers to do well in school."

Rafael Ventura [10]

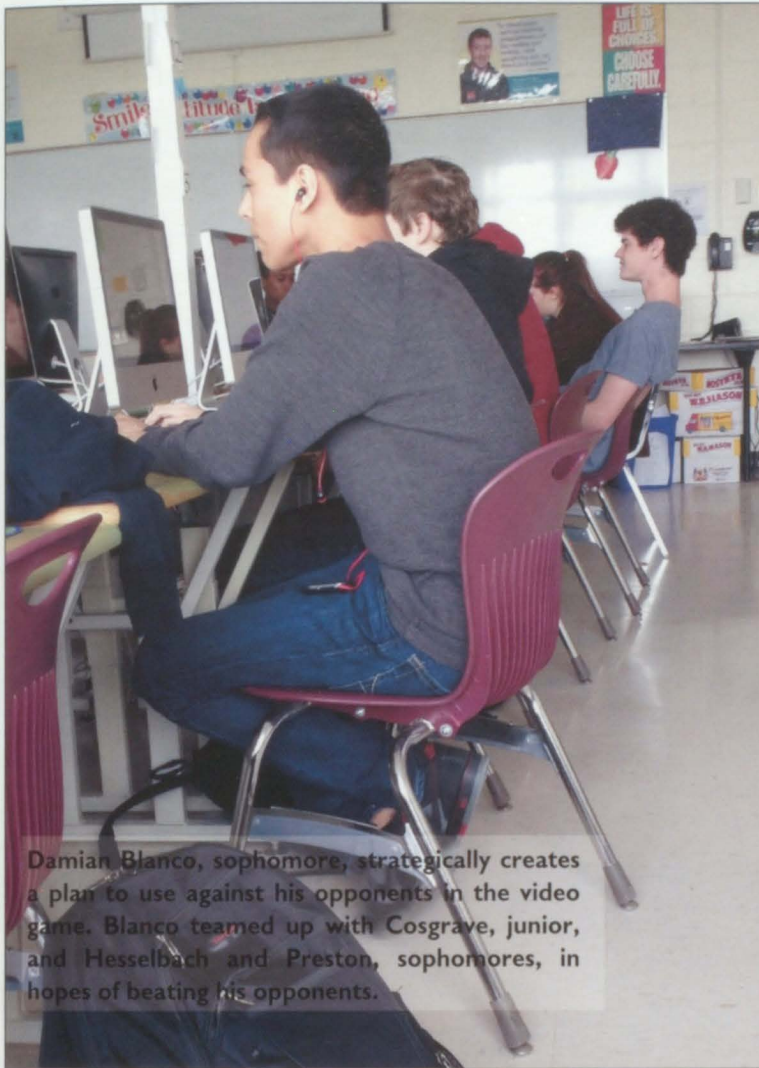

Seniors: Kathy Aquino, Julio Ramirez
Underclassmen: Daisy Blanco, Enid Cuevas, Valentina Flores, Lesley Guaraca, Elizabeth McCabe, Kwaku Owusu, Keyla Redondo, Elizabeth Salzman, Niara Thompson, Quentin Thompson, Rafael Ventura

[Members] & Microchips

1. Alex Jean-Philippe and Diego Gomez Merlos, sophomores, communicate with each other so that they can beat the other team. Brian Hesselbach, sophomore, and his teammates strategize to beat their opposing team. 2. Liam Cosgrave, junior, and Samuel Preston, sophomore, and Heselbach, show each other new ideas and strategies to get the victory in the video game. Teaching each other strategies and working together increases the chances of the team coming out of the game victorious.

Damian Blanco, sophomore, strategically creates a plan to use against his opponents in the video game. Blanco teamed up with Cosgrave, junior, and Hesselbach and Preston, sophomores, in hopes of beating his opponents.

Underclassmen: Brianna Acevedo, Damian Blanco, Duncan Camacho, Muaz Chaudary, Liam Cosgrave, Sean Courtney, Diego Gomez Merlos, Brian Hesselbach, Kevin Imperato, Kyle Imperato, Alex Jean-Philippe, Justin Kehati, Shatique Lewis, Alexander Martinelli, Lucas Martinelli, Erik Martinez, Harley Ness, Daniel Pimentel, Sam Preston, Joseph Simone, Zaniah Skinner

"In Computer Club we teach each other how the game works and we teach each other different strategies to use against each other and see how we both cooperate."

Alex Jean-Philippe [10]

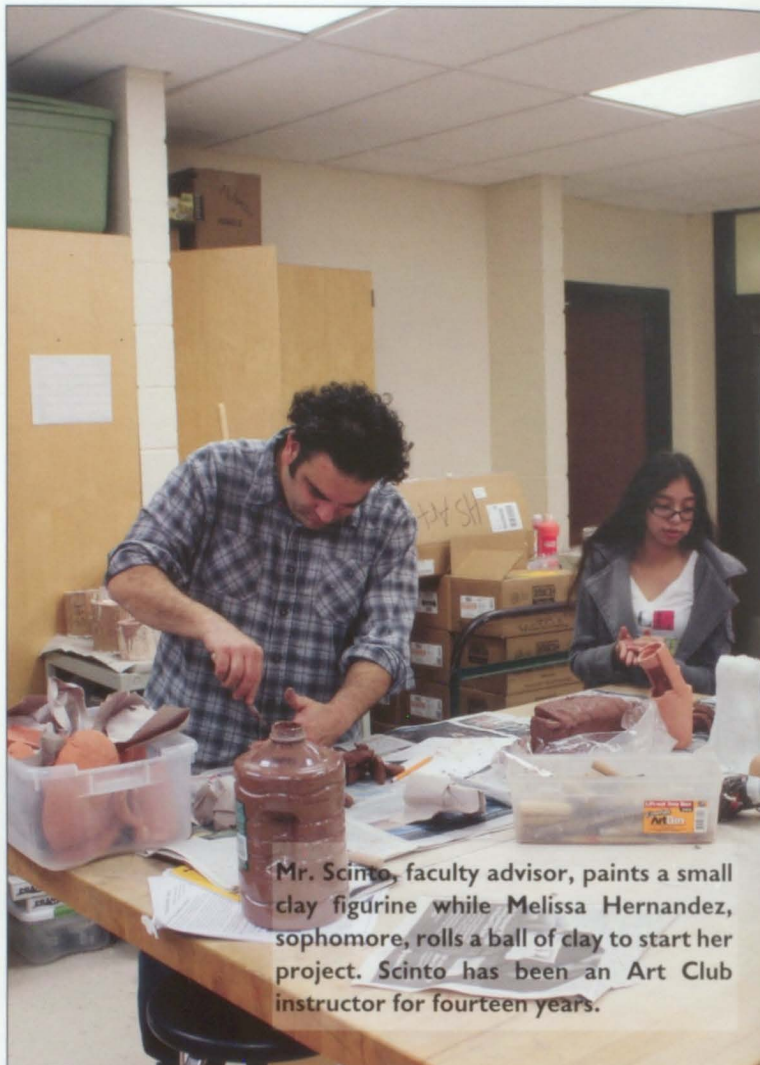

"We're usually in teams together because we play video games and we sit on opposite sides of the room so the other team can't hear us and we have to coordinate very well with our team."

Liam Cosgrave [11]

The Sculpting [Tandem]

1. Jordie Pellman, sophomore, sculpts a bowl out of clay. Pellman joined the club because it sounded fun and she decided to try it out. 2. Asima Moughal and Arubah Moughal, sophomores, paint henna designs on each other's hands and arms. Both girls always look forward to Art Club each week; it is a way for them to let loose and have fun.

Mr. Scinto, faculty advisor, paints a small clay figurine while Melissa Hernandez, sophomore, rolls a ball of clay to start her project. Scinto has been an Art Club instructor for fourteen years.

"Art club is very fun and a good way of expressing myself through drawing and sculpting. I would recommend this club to a lot of people."

Melissa Hernandez [10]

"I have fun with drawing and being myself with all of my friends. I wish we would be able to go on field trips; it would be even more fun."

Arubah Moughal [10]

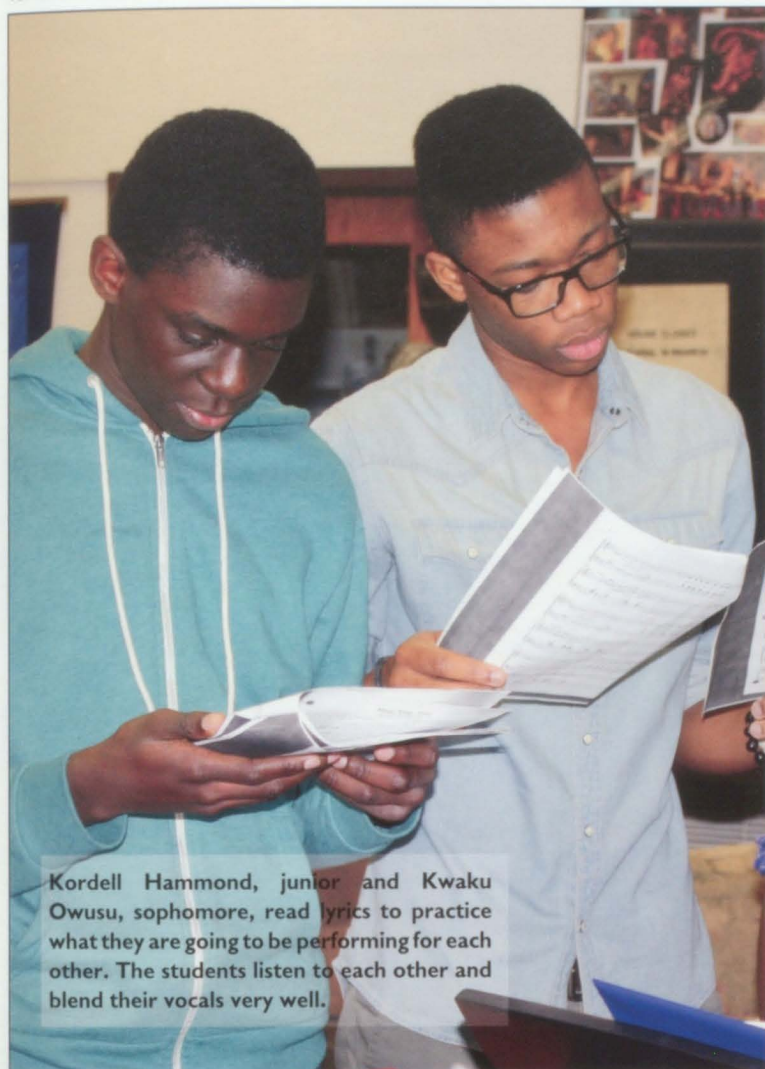

Senior: Shatique Lewis

Underclassmen: Asima Moughal, Will Bode, Steven Dionicio, Madison Greenfield, Melissa Hernandez, Alia Moughal, Arubah Moughal, Jordie Pellman, Christa Thompson, Aaron Valentine

Perfect [Harmony]

1. Instructor Mr. Billela plays a chord on the piano to let each singer know what note they should be singing. Each singer admires him for the amount of time he spends prepping them for shows and concerts. 2. The group of Harmonaires practiced Sing, Sing, Sing during their practice. Their songs always consist of four groups the tenors, basses, sopranos, and altos.

Kordell Hammond, junior and Kwaku Owusu, sophomore, read lyrics to practice what they are going to be performing for each other. The students listen to each other and blend their vocals very well.

Seniors: Remy DeJoseph, Victoria Halpin, Francesca Hilditch, Asia Stewart, James Vaughan
Underclassmen: Alexis Cofield, Isabella Danzi, Michaela DeJoseph, Marchael Giles, Kordell Hammond, Kwaku Owusu, Zander Pacella, Sabrina Song, Lindsay Tierney

"Everyone enjoys the opportunity to sing challenging selections of music in a small ensemble. This year in particular, we have focused on jazz pieces, which are difficult, but so much fun to perform."

Asia Stewart [12]

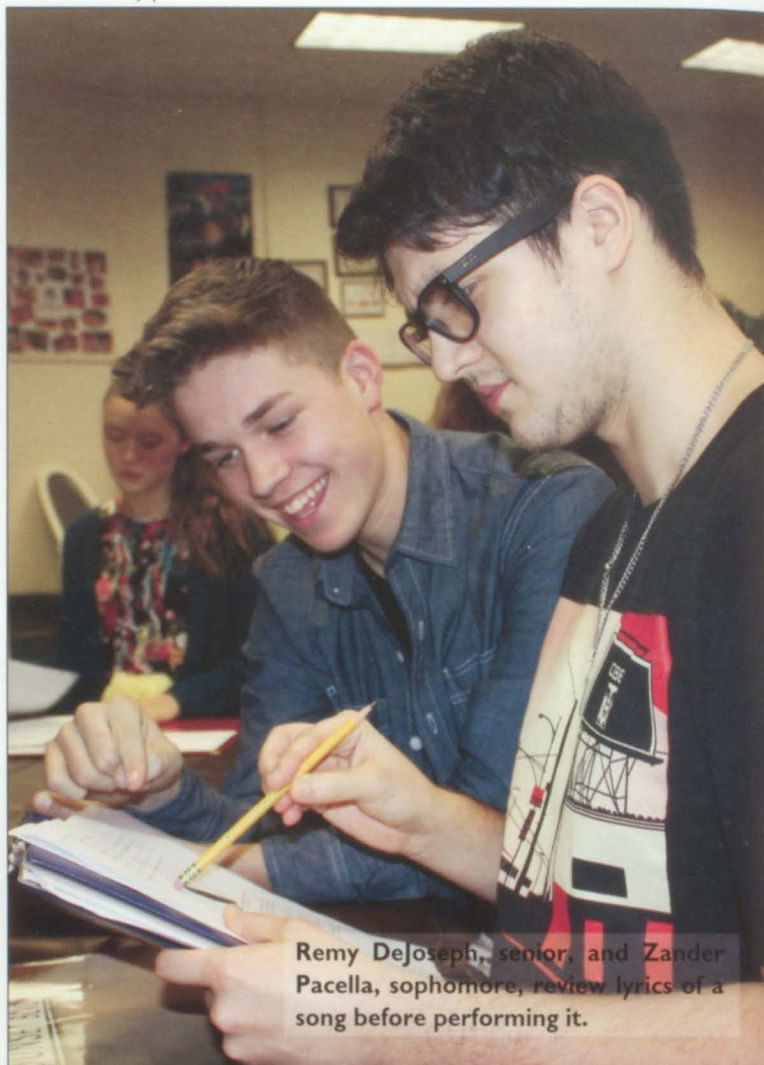

"The best part about Harmonaires is that we are Ambassadors and represent our school. My greatest memory has to be when we sang at Union Train in Washington D.C. because I took a solo that everyone enjoyed."

Remy DeJoseph [12]

[Choir] of Crooners

1. Francesca Hilditch, senior, accompanies the group on the piano. Francesca has played piano for the school's choral groups since middle school. 2. This group of talented students surround the piano and warm up their vocal chords. All the students look forward to the events where they perform and show their melodic skills.

Remy DeJoseph, senior, and Zander Pacella, sophomore, review lyrics of a song before performing it.

"I have the most amazing group of people to work with. We are always laughing and having such good time."

Emily Howitz [12]

"We're all there for the same reason: to express our love for art through singing and dancing."

Kordell Hammond [11]

Seniors: Remy DeJoseph, Victoria Halpin, Emily Howitz, Derek Jenkins, Vincent Reyes, Kyle Souhrada, Asia Stewart, James Vaughan, Underclassman: Diego Beas, Alexis Cofield, Isabella Danzi, Michaela DeJoseph, Marchael Giles, Dejah Faulkner, Kordell Hammond, Erin McArdle, Christian Negron, Kwaku Owusu, Sabrina Song, Emily Swain, Lindsay Tierney

Hear [All] About it!

1. Brianne Garrett, senior, and Mr. Walter Fishon, advisor of the Maroon Echo, sit down to discuss the page layout for the next newspaper. Garrett is the Executive Editor and this was her fourth year on the Maroon Echo staff. 2. Sharon Ahmed and Aurelio Trampe, juniors, read over interviews, making sure students were interviewed properly and answered questions appropriately.

Amy Paulino, junior, and Ana Borruto, senior, look over page designs to put into the next published edition of the Maroon Echo. Borruto was the News Editor this year and this was Paulino's first year on the staff.

Seniors: James Alba, Elise Ambos, Tracy Ambos, Nandini Bissoon, Ana Borruto, Maggie Colbert, Nicolas Colonna, Ryan Dalo, Simeon Eato, Danielle Flynn, Jane Gabriel, Alexis Gallardo, Brianne Garrett, Ryan Mazzie, Corinne Schmidt, Victoria Solimo, Anisa Toppin, Brandy Wimbush

"Choosing to join this class was one of the best choices I could have made during my high school career. We achieved so much as a whole, and getting to introduce a broadcast component this year was really exciting. Being able to see everyone blossom and create such a well-made finished product is just awesome."

Maggie Colbert [12]

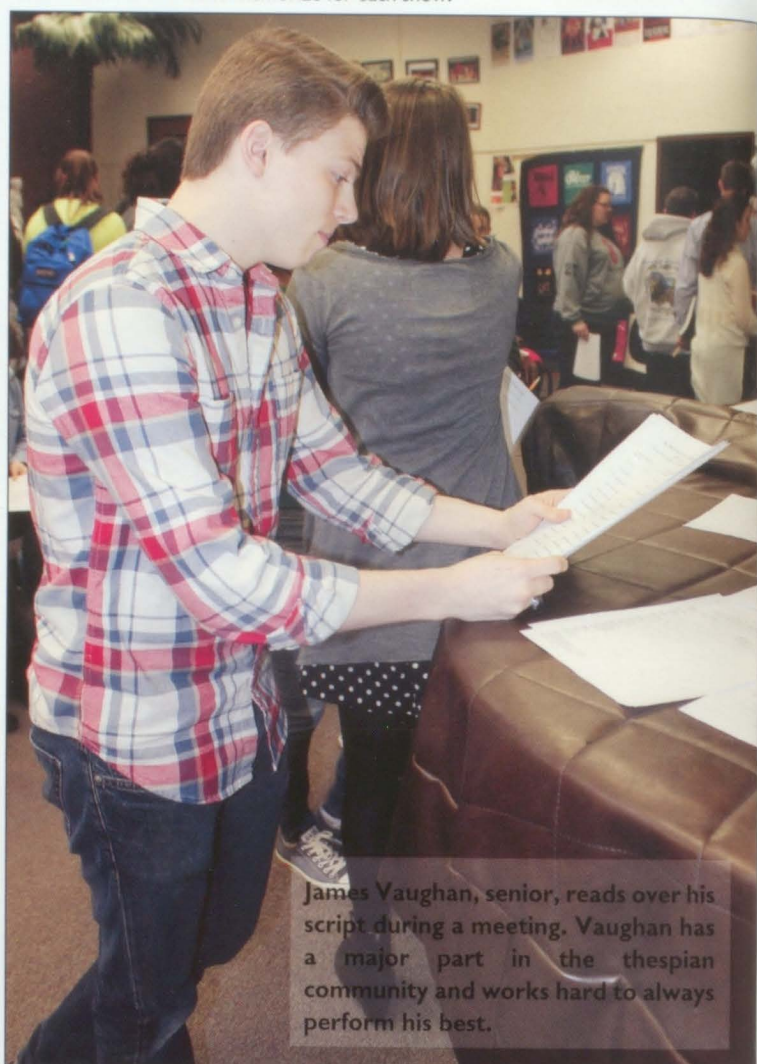

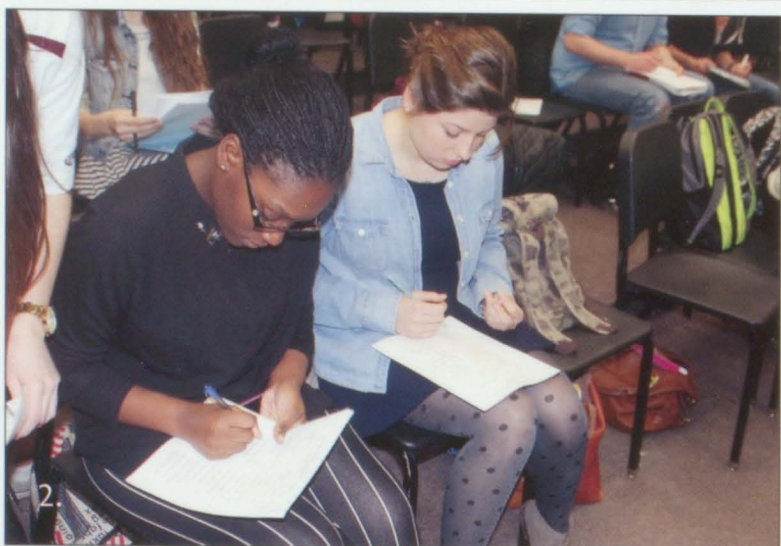

"I really thought it was something different than all the other courses our school offers. It's cool how you can get something in the paper and have a product to show your work in class. My favorite part is seeing the stories progress as the year goes by."

Elise Ambos [12]

An [Array] of Actors

1. Emily Certain and Asia Stewart seniors, and Gen Casey and Diego Beas, juniors, stand around with ears open listening to what they will be performing at rehearsal. 2. Megan Beauchamp and Isabella Danzi, juniors, underline their lines for the play. Some of the actors have hundreds of lines to memorize for each show.

James Vaughan, senior, reads over his script during a meeting. Vaughan has a major part in the thespian community and works hard to always perform his best.

"Sweeney Todd was my favorite part to play. I actually got to act something completely different than who I am.

James Vaughan [12]

"I've met most of my friends, and although it's really stressful, it is not the same stress from school and it's a fun break."

Francesca Hilditch [12]

Seniors: Genny Baratta, Emily Certain, Monica Embleton, Victoria Halpin, Francesca Hilditch, Emily Howitz, Derek Jenkins, Vincent Reyes, Ashley Salanitri, Jaime Sblendorio, Asia Stewart, James Vaughan
Underclassmen: Diego Beas, Megan Beauchamp, Genevieve Casey, Alexis Cofield, Nalia Colas, Deijah Faulkner, Marchael Giles, Kordell Hammond, Erin McArdle, Kwaku G. Owusu, Zander Pacella, Lindsay Tierney, Ian Walker

Thespian Society

[Collective] Knowledge

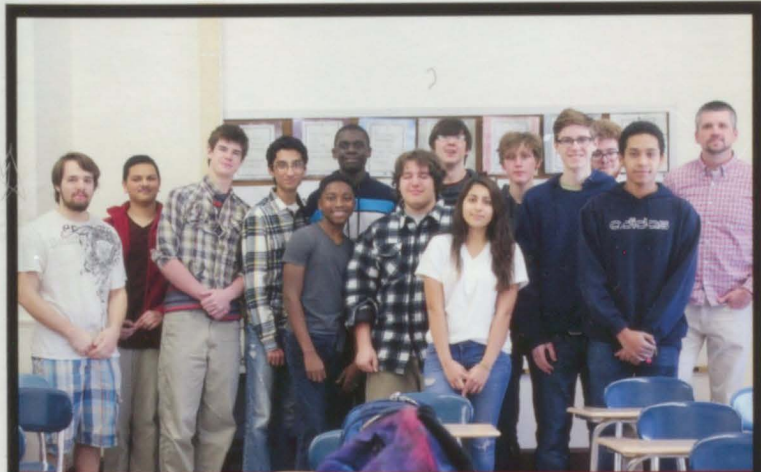

1. The group of Trivia Team members break off into teams of four to quiz each other during a weekly practice. The weekly meetings allowed the team to help all members with different specialized topics and strategies to prepare them for competitions against other schools. 2. Mr. Dan Sullivan, advisor, divides the group and quizzes each team to reenact the competition environment. This season, the team made it to playoffs held at Half Hollow Hills West.

Brian Hesselbach, Joe Simone, and Quentin Thomas, sophomores, share a laugh at Trivia Team practice before a competition. The boys demonstrated a skill set ranging across many different subjects that they are quizzed on in Trivia Team.

Seniors: Tim Bryant, Francesca Hilditch, Melvin Romero Lazo
Underclassmen: Duncan Camacho, Muaz Chaudary, Liam Cosgrave, Patrick Foehr, Angie Grijalva, Brian Hesselbach, Kyle Imperato, Alex Jean-Philippe, Krish Kamdar, Justin Kehati, Kwaku Owusu, Joseph Simone, Matthew Taylor, Fausto Taveras, Quentin Thomson

"The best part about Trivia Team is the relaxed nature of the club. It's a place where I can come after school, unload, not worry, and learn new cool facts."

Melvin Romero Lazo [12]

"I joined Trivia Team because it's inspiring and I can learn so many new things in a short period of time. It's a fun environment and the people are really great."

Angie Grijalva [11]

Trivia Team

The Constructive [Crew]

1. Emily Certain, senior, uses her artistic talent to paint the Phantom of the Opera sign. Emily was the right stage crew chief for both the fall and spring shows this year. 2. Walpole Jean-Philippe, senior, and Kevin Vela, a returning graduate, carry a prop to place out on stage. Instead of starting from scratch, these students reused stairs from the previous plays.

1.

"I love the atmosphere! The paint, the people, the power tools! Everything is just right. We have a lot of fun messing around with each other, but most importantly, we got the job done."

Emily Certain [12]

"Well, this year I'm crew chief, and that was little more stressful than I expected. It was fun and now I'm looking forward to doing it again, for my last summer, Lynn Clark show."

Walpole Jean-Philippe [12]

Nina Bersani, sophomore, grabs a board of wood to help create a set for the Phantom of the Opera. This board was used for the balcony in the opera scene.

Seniors: Christiana Burch, Emily Certain, Walpole Jean-Philippe, Underclassmen: Emily Albergo, Julia Becker, Richard Borruto, Matthew Caples, Corinne Costello, Ariyana Felician, Isabel Karabulut, Autumn Kitchens, Jacqueline Nazario, Joshua Pacella, Alicia Palma, Chloe Saccardo, Guillermo Silvestre, Alexa Simeon, Matthew Taylor, Julian Young

[Parade] of Programmers

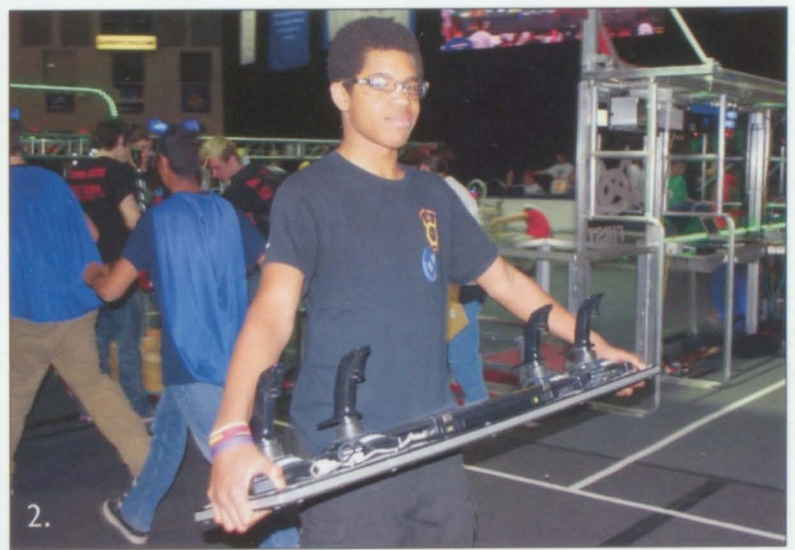

1. Myles Singer, junior, leads the Robotics team's biggest fans to cheer together as the robot begins to go to work out on the floor. All of the team's hard work comes down to the wire during the few minutes they are given to compete on the floor. 2. Alex Jean-Philippe, sophomore, carries a control board to the engineers at their Regional competition. This was Alex's second year on the team and he looks forward to continue contributing in his next two years.

Robert Kelley, senior, and Dan Smith, junior, work with one of the advisors, Mr. Claiborne, to program a robot using a laptop. Weeks of programming and engineering go into making the robot's expected performance possible.

Seniors: Barachel Barnes, Alex Epifanio, Robert Kelley, Paul Mangels, Daniel Schlesier, Joseph White

"To me, the team is home. We can all be really nerdy and it's totally the norm, and it's nice to know that there is a massive community out there that shares the same passion as us."

Paul Mangels [12]

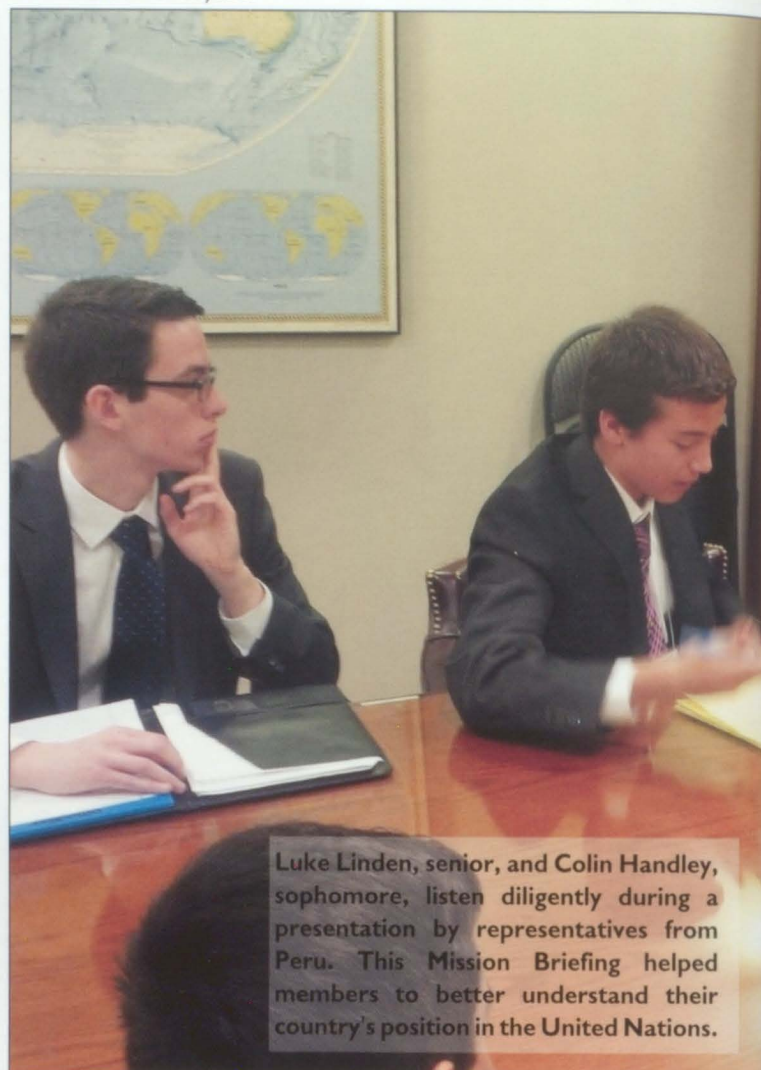

"We are able to not only put our heads together in order to build the robot, but we also find creative ways to fundraise and grow together as a team."

Alex Jean-Philippe [10]

Nation [Congregation]

1. The model UN Nationals team crowds around their newly won plaque, a running tradition at their national competition. This year the team was honored with the Award of Merit at their national conference in New York City. 2. Payaum Sanatkar, Maggie Colbert, Luke Linden, Deven Hurt, Asia Stewart, Brianne Garrett, and Nandini Bissoon, seniors, proudly stand with their country's plaque and Award of Merit. These seniors have been involved with Model UN for three years.

Luke Linden, senior, and Colin Handley, sophomore, listen diligently during a presentation by representatives from Peru. This Mission Briefing helped members to better understand their country's position in the United Nations.

"I love that I have the opportunity to build my communication skills and public speaking all while learning more about pressing international issues. I also love the fact that I can take the skills and use them beyond conferences and in real life situations."

Brianne Garrett [12]

"Model United Nations allows students to learn about different cultures and strive to solve international issues."

Asia Stewart [12]

Nationals Team Seniors: Nandini Bissoon, Margaret Colbert, Brianne Garrett, Deven Hurt, Luke Linden, Payaum Sanatkar, Asia Stewart
Underclassmen: Abigail Cervera, Diego Colonna, Angie Grijalva, Colin Handley, Grace Hickey, Christopher Luna, Elizabeth McCabe, Kwaku Owusu, JT Surlis

[Chamber] of strings

1. Gabrielle Negron, junior, rehearses alongside Amy Paulino, junior, as they practice for the spring concert. The two practiced together after school every week to further their skills and perform at a higher level. 2. Jonathan Friely, senior, Cole Fandale, junior, and Estefan Perez, sophomore, practice their cellos together, rehearsing their songs. At their spring performance, they performed Overture for Strings, Rondo, Andante, and Fugue.

Sabrina Song, freshman, and Ashley Anchirayco, junior, warm up their instruments together before rehearsal. These students performed beautifully together in this year's shows and greatly impacted the sound of the orchestra.

"My favorite part about Chamber is getting to perform with talented people and rehearse at a higher level. We all work well together and are practically family."

Jonathan Friely [12]

"It is fun because we play harder music and it's challenging. We enjoy working together in our small group of musicians."

Kendall Downs [12]

Seniors: Kendall Downs, Jonathan Friely, Mehrab Hoque, Deven Hurt, Michael Keach, Ryan Keyes, Erika Pimentel, Kyle Souhrada

Chamber Orchestra

[All] that Jazz

1. Tess George, senior, and Joe Reilly, sophomore, practice various jazz songs on their trumpets. George has been in the club for four years and this was Reilly's second year; they became good friends after being stand partners. 2. Ethan Warner, junior, and Matt Hobbes, sophomore, play their trombones to practice for their upcoming concert. Being underclassmen, both hope to advance in their band career.

Cassidy Sollazzo, Matteo Gravina, Nicole Chimienti, and Claire Green, freshmen, play their instruments at an evening rehearsal. This specialized group prepared weekly to wow audiences during their seasonal concert.

"I would really encourage all students in band to participate in jazz band. It's such a great program and it has really influenced my high school experience in a positive way. It's a great form of personal expression."

Vincent Reyes [12]

"My favorite part of Thursday Night Jazz Band is playing the jazz music. The music is so much more enjoyable than regular band music because of the different beats and the way it challenges me."

Katie Kirk [12]

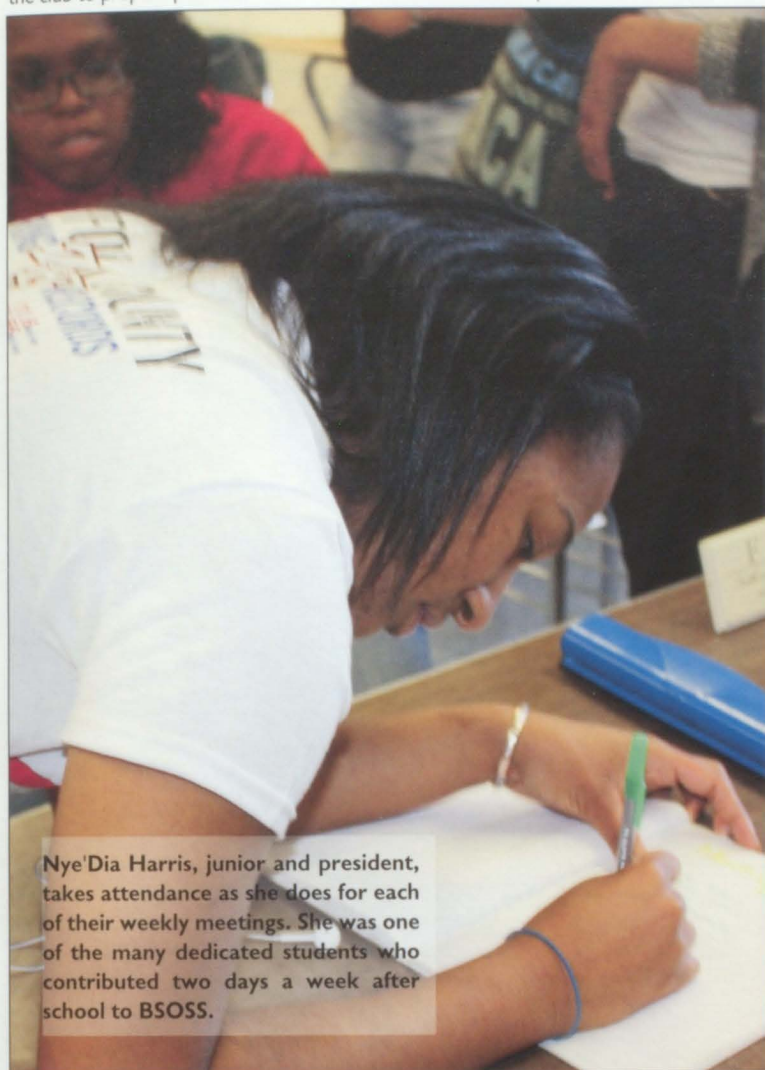

Seniors: Tess George, Katie Kirk, Vincent Reyes
Underclassmen: Justin Allen, Ruby Arredondo, Delia Berka, Matt Boyd, Matt Bross, Kyle Bzdyk, Alechia Cacace, Will Carney, Nicole Chimienti, Jonathan Danzi, Ethan Day, Erika Dollmann, Megan Farnan, Matteo Gravina, Claire Green, Matt Hobbes, Justin Kehati, Thomas Laferrera, Caled Lika, Sean Linden, Scott Lyudmer, Emma Mangels, Peter Mathews, Brent Moynahan, James Naslonski, Brandon Oracewski, Kevin Patrick, Joe Reilly, Cassidy Sollazzo, Brennan Souhrada, Archibald Ulysses, Thomas Wig, Ethan Warner, Joyce Young

A [Feast] for Fundraising

1. Ashley Oluwa, Chantel Bizzle, and Nye'Dia Harris, juniors, serve pizza to other students in order to raise money for student scholarships. All of these girls joined to give back to the school. 2. Jayson Parrish, sophomore, and Ashley Oluwa, junior, listen as club leaders give instructions on the upcoming events and fundraisers. These weekly meetings allowed the club to prepare plans for fundraisers for student scholarships.

Nye'Dia Harris, junior and president, takes attendance as she does for each of their weekly meetings. She was one of the many dedicated students who contributed two days a week after school to BSOSS.

Underclassmen: Jenica Alexis, Chantel Bizzle, Jami Cardenas, Deja Carter, Imecca Cohen, Dejiana Es, Theresa Humphrey, Asia Johnson, Brianna Martin, Arkel Miller, Ashley Oluwa, Monee Payton, Dannielle Stephen, Savard Voltaire, Krystal Williams

"We hope to raise money for student scholarships and earn community service hours."

Nye'Dia Harris [11]

"We give back to our school in so many more ways than people know. My sister was previously in the club and loved it so much."

Jenica Alexis [11]

Follow the [Fleet]

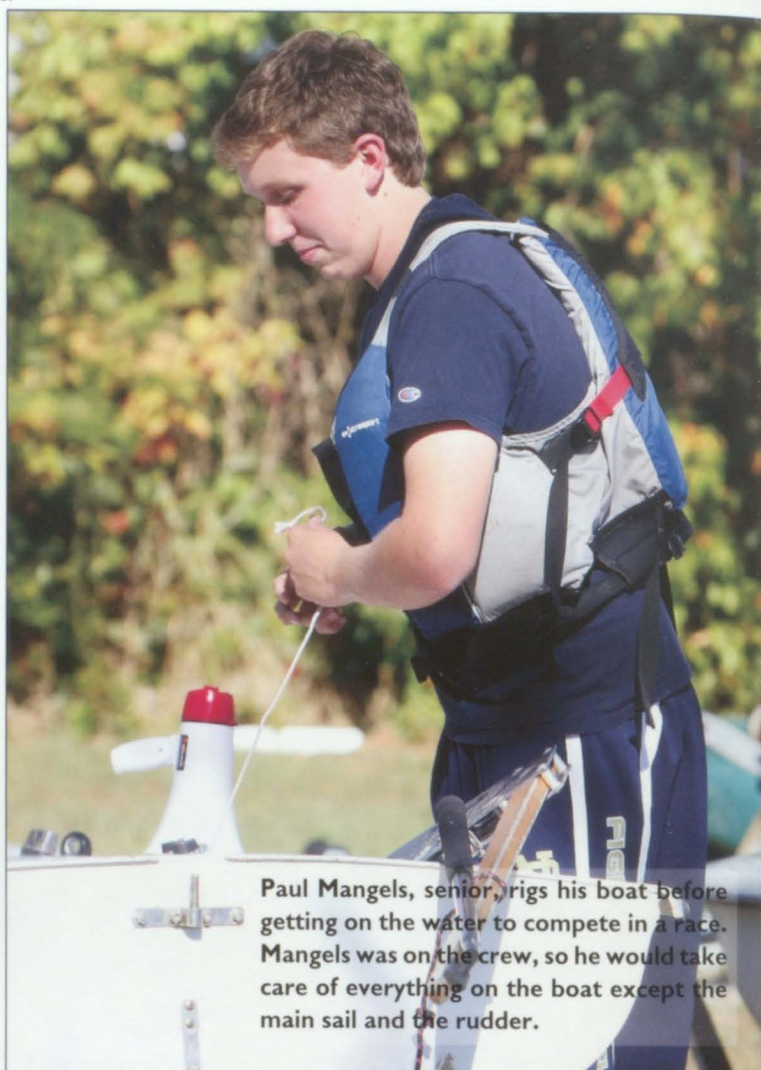

1. Victoria Wojcik, junior, and Sean Linden, freshman, work together on a 420 to win a race. Wojcik and Linden competed in regattas against sailors from all over Long Island during the fall season. 2. Robert Mayo, Julia Becker, and Emma Franza, juniors, laugh together on a JY while waiting for the next race to start. During practice the team likes to play tennis ball tag to help improve cooperation among sailors, boat handling, and communication skills.

Paul Mangels, senior, rigs his boat before getting on the water to compete in a race. Mangels was on the crew, so he would take care of everything on the boat except the main sail and the rudder.

"Being able to go out on the water all the time and do what I love to do is the best part. I help out by keeping the squad together and making sure everyone is okay."

Nick Felt [12]

"I help teach the less experienced sailors about rigging and sailing tactics. This season has just been phenomenal and better than most. We have a great group and we have a lot of fun together."

Paul Mangels [12]

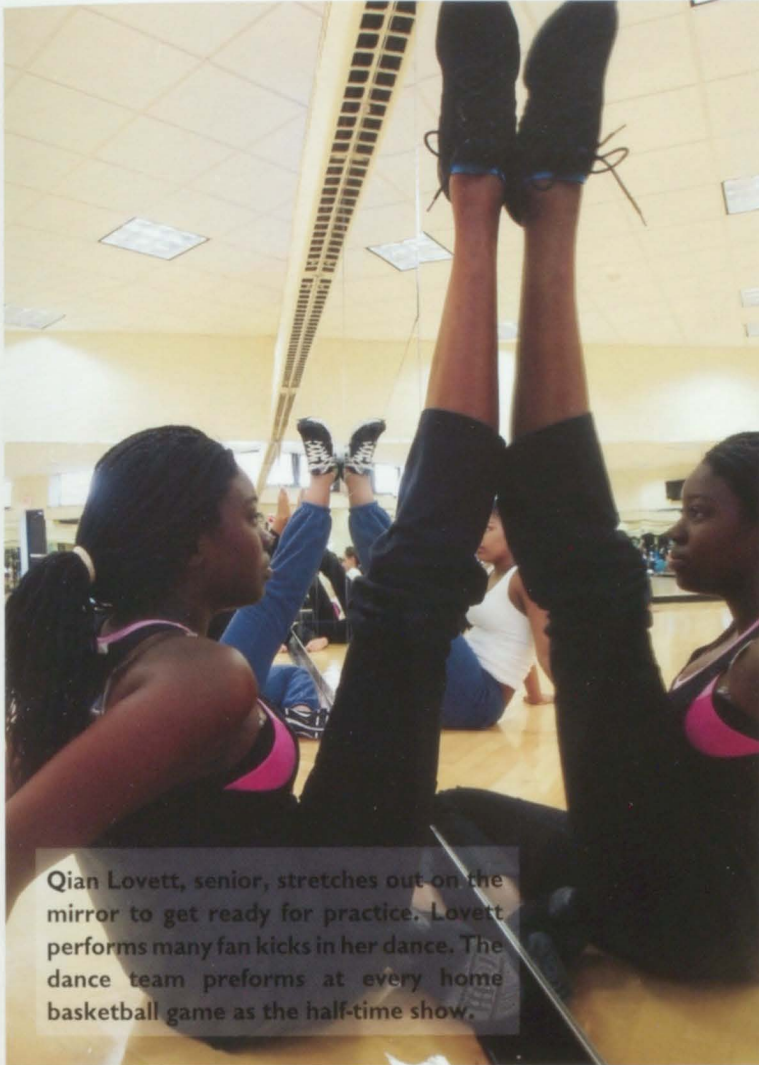

Seniors: Paul Mangels, Nick Felt

Underclassmen: Justin Allen, Julia Becker, Ethan Day, Emma Franza, Emmet Healy, Sean Linden, Robert Mayo, Chris O'Connor, Elizabeth Salzman, Olivia Salzman, Matt Taylor, Victoria Wojcik

Dance [Junction]

1. Autumn Wilson, junior, and Amariana Carter, freshman, break down the dance routine piece by piece. These dancers learn a whole routine in three practices before performing it before audiences. 2. Kayla Hamilton, Miriam Joseph, and Krystal Vitti, juniors, practice their balancing technique for a pose in the dance. This dance involved multiple difficulty levels and was performed at the basketball games.

Qian Lovett, senior, stretches out on the mirror to get ready for practice. Lovett performs many fan kicks in her dance. The dance team preforms at every home basketball game as the half-time show.

Seniors: Jane Gabriel, Qian Lovett
Underclassmen: Imecca Cohen, Kayla Hamilton, Miriam Joseph, Joy Norris, Nicole Perez-Beltre, Krystal Vitti, Autumn Wilson

"The music brings us together. When the music comes on, all of our conflicts and differences diminish. We dance our troubles away."

Jane Gabriel [12]

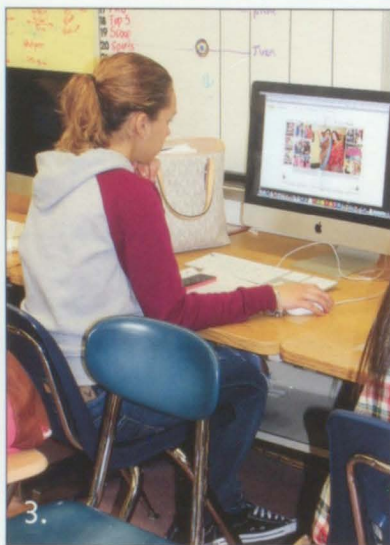

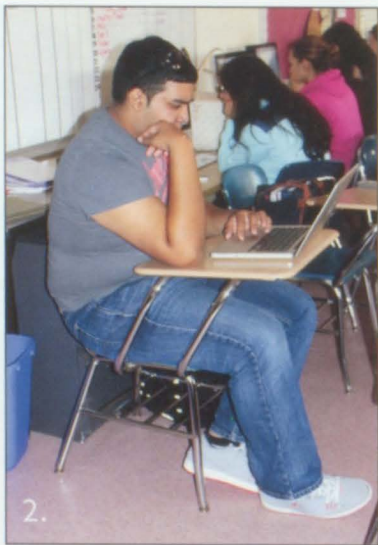

"The fact that we all share the same passion and we were always a close-knit team brings us together. Dancing is our passion and we use it to express who we are."

Qian Lovett [12]

[Yerds:] Yearbook Nerds

1. Emily Napear, senior, reviews the Top 10 spread. As the Business Manager this year, she was responsible for organizing marketing strategies for both book sales and advertisements.
2. Anil Persaud, senior, browses through possible pictures to upload onto his assigned club pages. Thousands of photos are taken, but only the best make it into the yearbook.
3. Nija Diaz, senior, reviews the Spirit Week spread. Diaz was an important asset to the class this year.

Katarina Hendrickson and Sydney Leone, seniors and Co-Editors-in-Chief, edit on a spread of the yearbook. The girls, under the advisement of Mr. Michael Hochman, are responsible for keeping all staff on task as well as reviewing all material before it is submitted.

"The Yearbook is something that students will hold on to forever, and I am so happy that I was able to help create this memory for the seniors of 2014. I hope that everyone enjoys the book as much as we enjoyed publishing it. I just want to say thank you to Mr. Hochman and the staff for having to put up with my voice second period everyday! Yearbook is Forever!"

Sydney Leone [12]

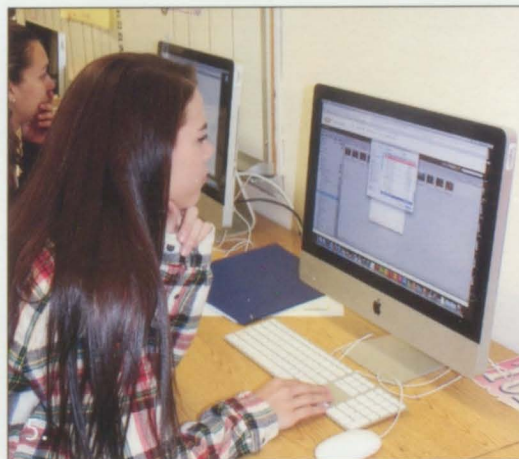

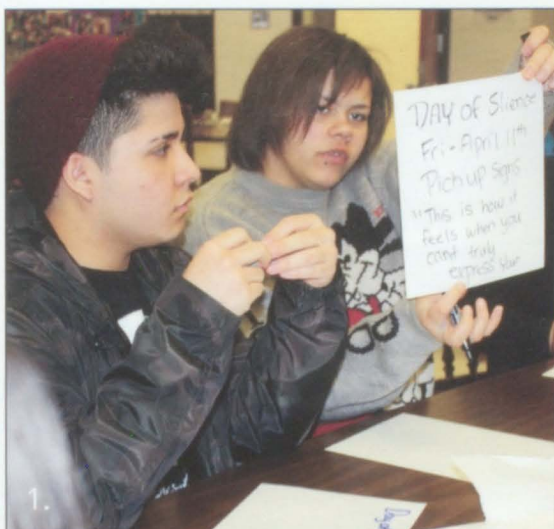

"I'm so happy that I was able to spend my time capturing and preserving the most important moments of this school year. It's extremely rewarding to create something that the seniors will hold on to for many years to come. This job has been a lot of responsibility and hard work, but at the end of the year, I know it will be worth it to see the smiles on the faces of my peers. Shout outs to my yerds: we did it!"

Katarina Hendrickson [12]

Seniors: Marc Barreda, Maggie Colbert, Carly Cox, Nija Diaz, Abby Dupont, Sam Flood, Kyra Harney, Katarina Hendrickson, Imani Hite, Sydney Leone, Emily Napear, Anil Persaud, Haleigh Rock, Erica Silhan, Rachel Winchester
Underclassmen: Autumn Beane, Sarah Giuliani, Emily Hoffman, Lindsay Robinson, Emma Sims, Marlena Sinnott, Liz Yack

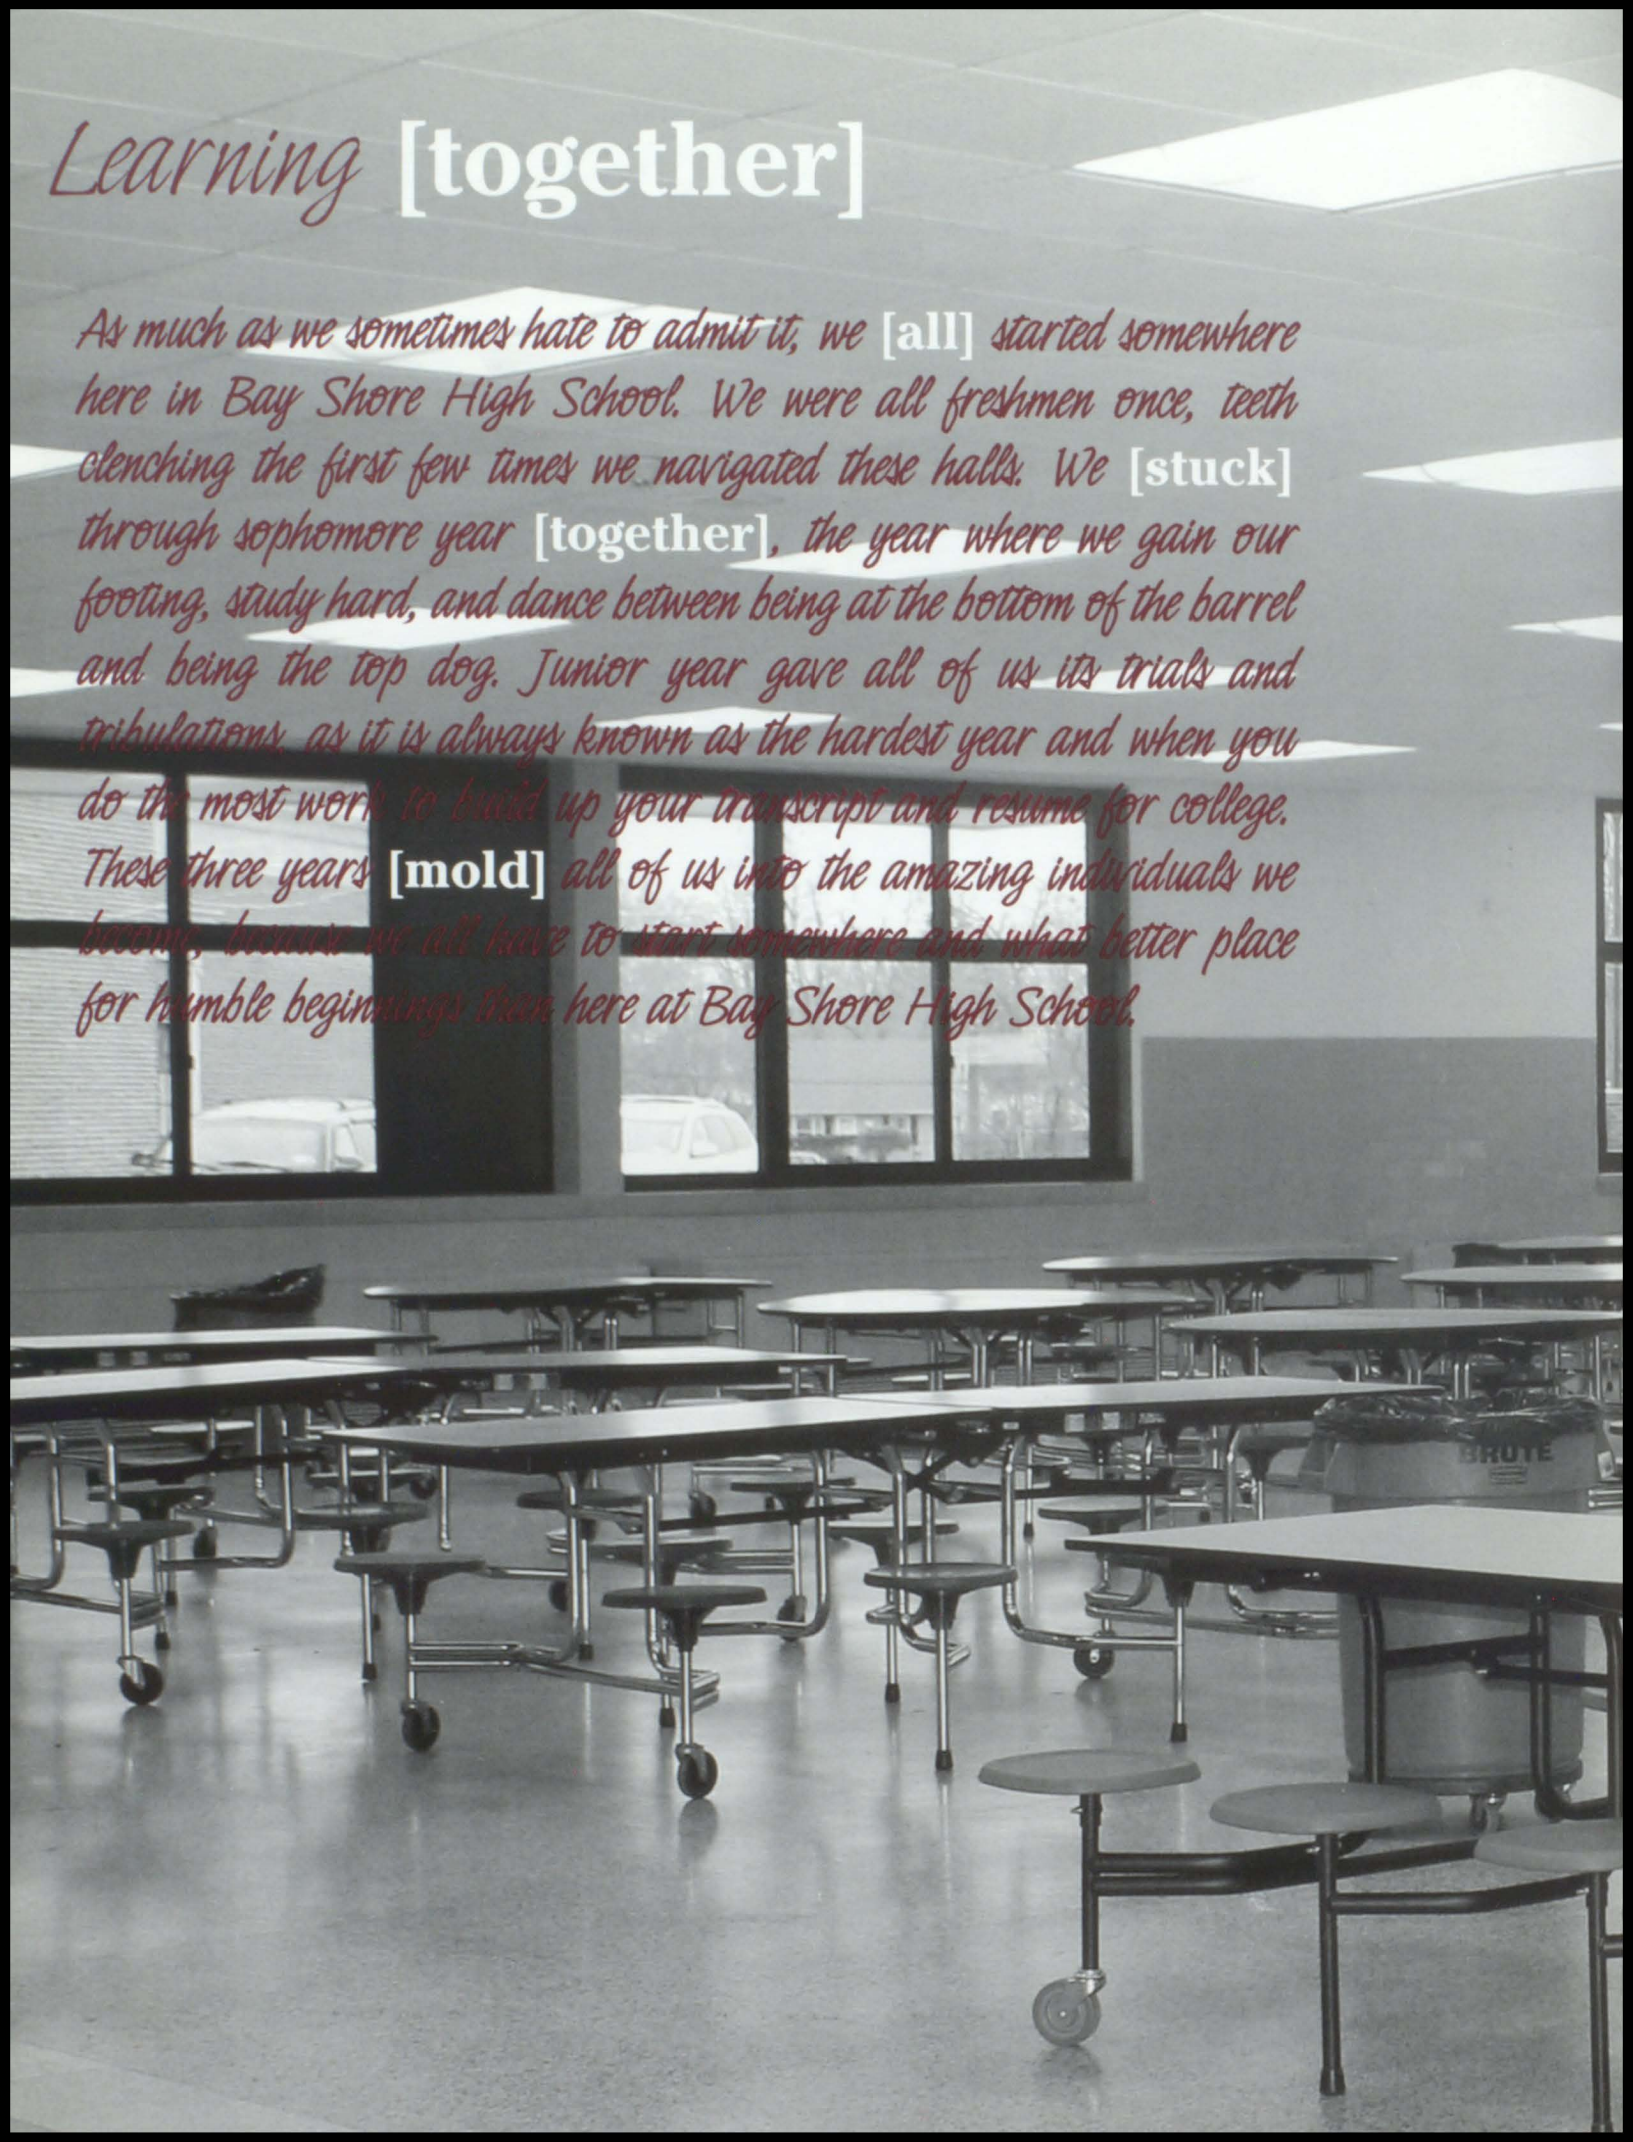

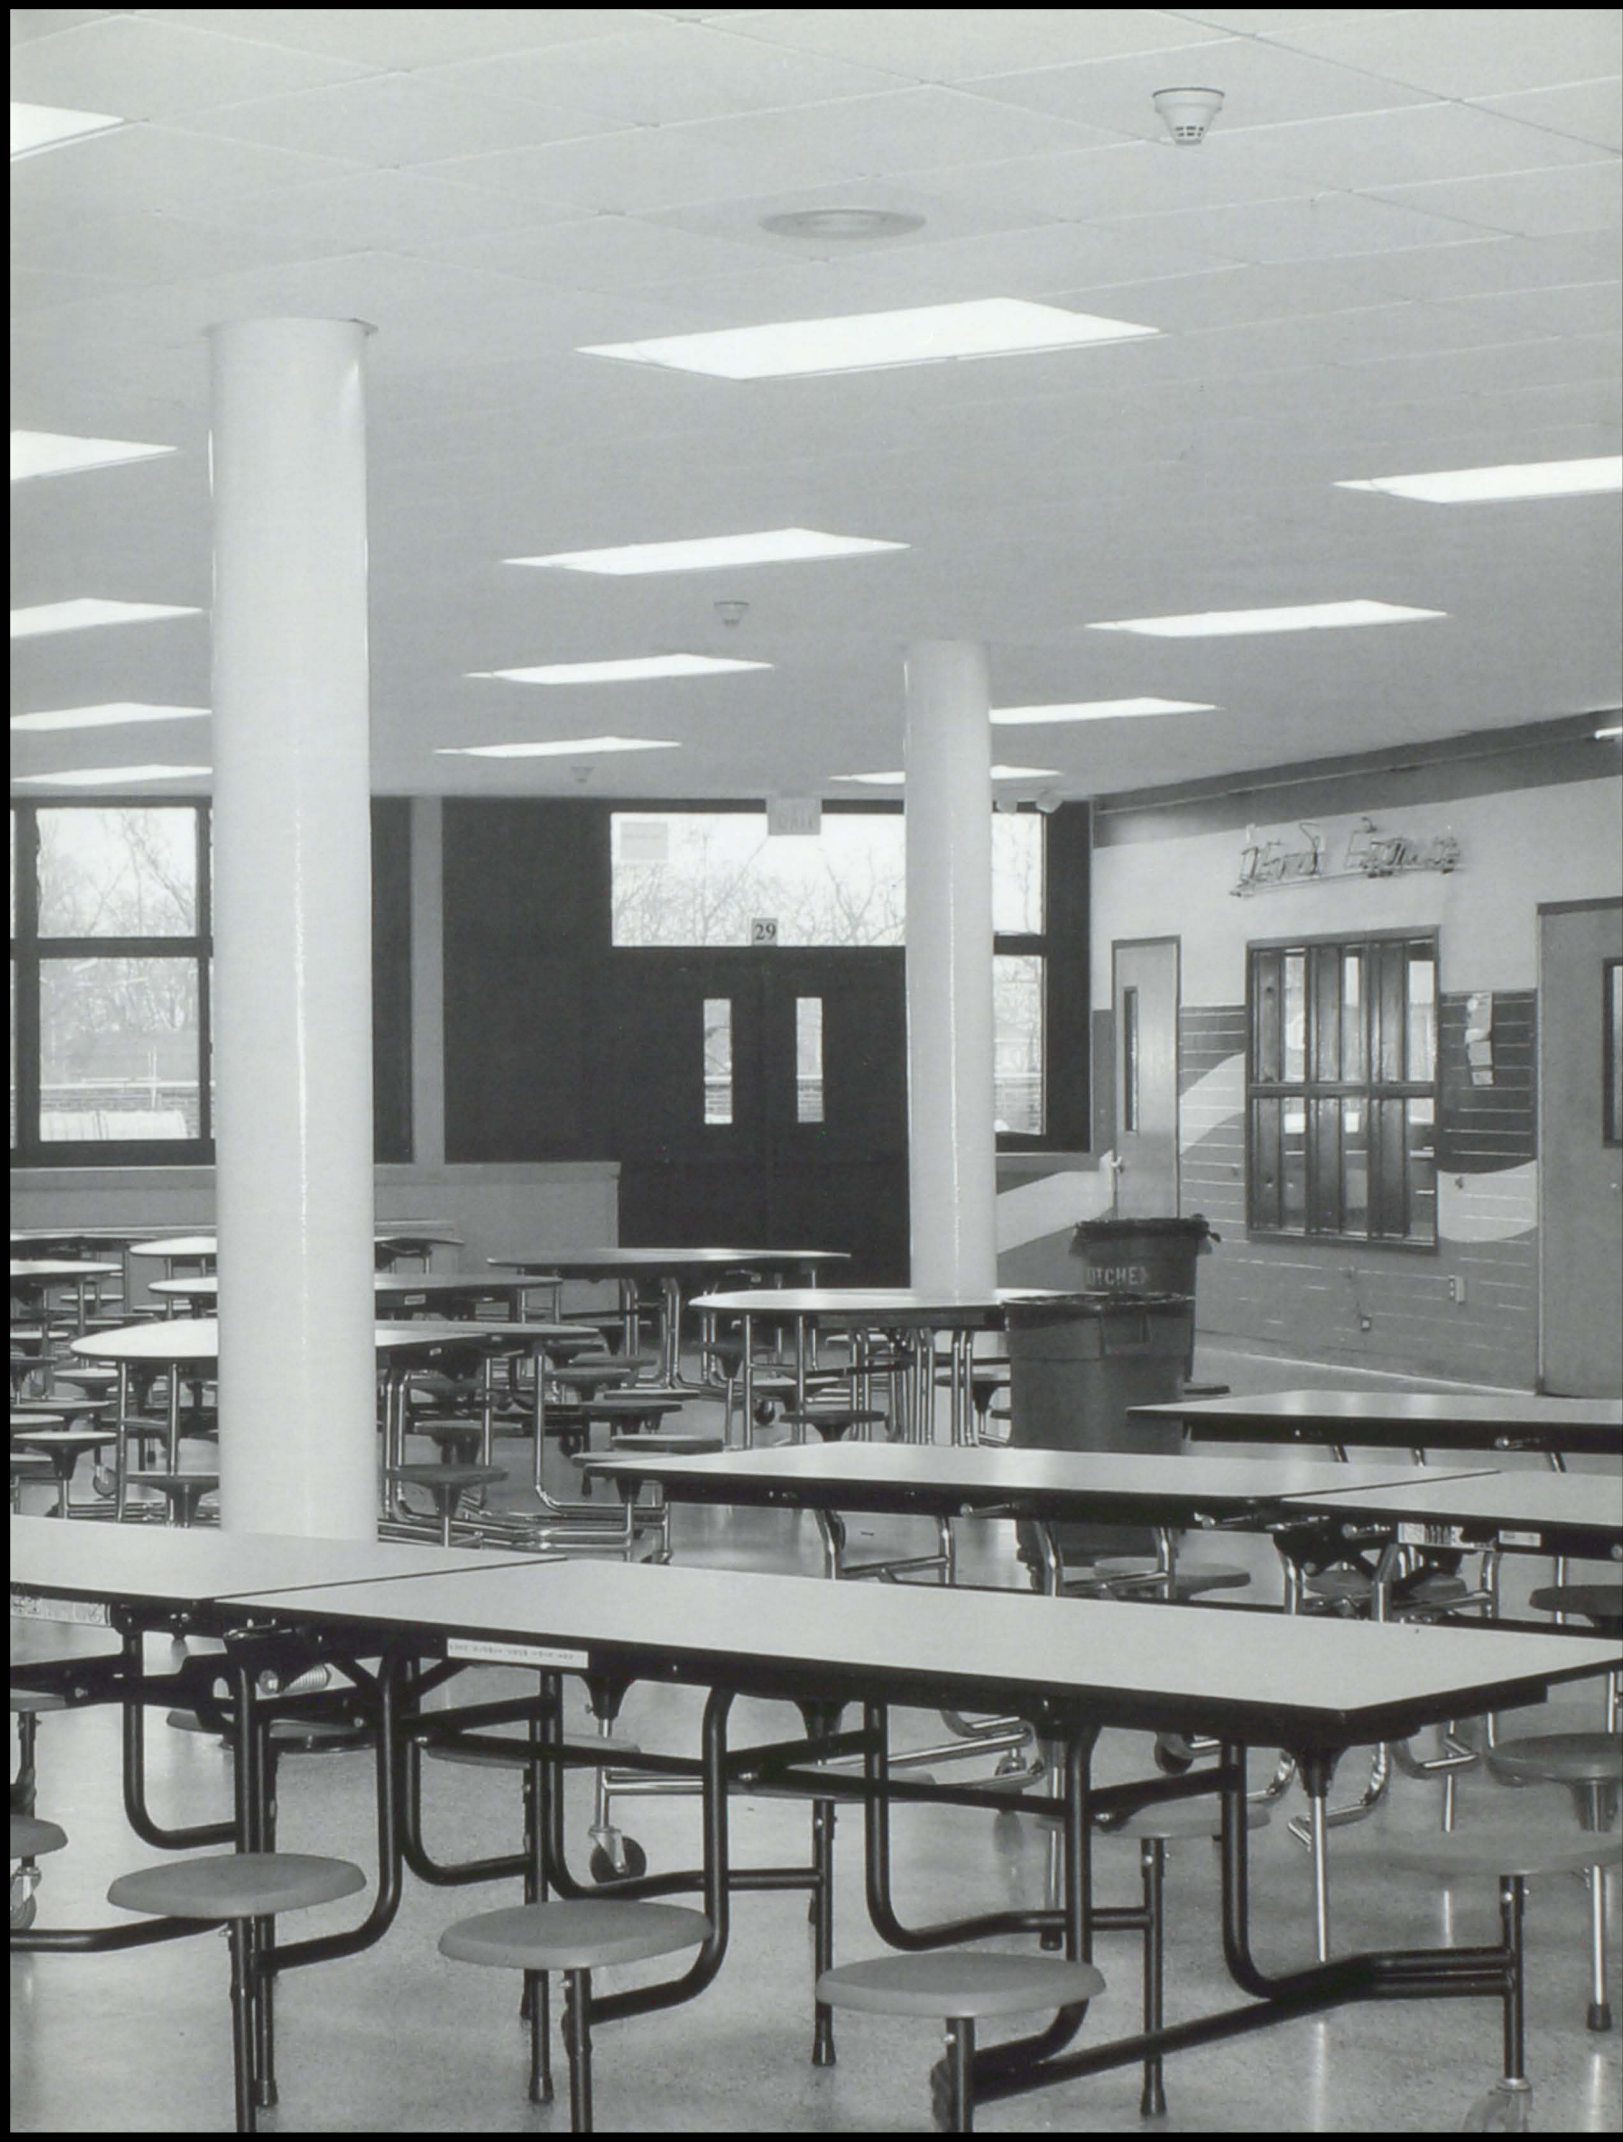

1. Aliyah Johnson and Fidias Benitez, sophomores, make posters for the Day of Silence so that they can support their LGBTQ peers and experience what it's like to not be able to express themselves. 2. Joe DeNatalie and Myles Singer, juniors, proudly represent the Mechanical Marauders at a Robotics tournament. 3. Nye'Dia Harris and Chantel Bizzle, juniors, serve pizza to fundraise for BSOSS. 4. Victoria Wojcik, junior, and Sean Linden, sophomore, sail together across the bay during practice. 5. Erica Silhan, senior, uploads pictures to put in the yearbook.

Learning [together]

As much as we sometimes hate to admit it, we [all] started somewhere here in Bay Shore High School. We were all freshmen once, teeth clenching the first few times we navigated these halls. We [stuck] through sophomore year [together], the year where we gain our footing, study hard, and dance between being at the bottom of the barrel and being the top dog. Junior year gave all of us its trials and tribulations, as it is always known as the hardest year and when you do the most work to build up your transcript and resume for college. These three years [mold] all of us into the amazing individuals we become, because we all have to start somewhere and what better place for humble beginnings than here at Bay Shore High School.

Q: Were you excited for junior year? Why or why not?

"Yes, I was because we get to go to junior prom this year."
[Maria Villon]

"Yes, a little because I would be an upperclassman. But, there is a lot of work."
[Andrew Darcy]

"Yes, because there is much more freedom, like going out to lunch."

Forever [together]

As this year comes to an end, Bay Shore High School's [class] of [2014] will remain [united]. Even after we hang up our caps and gowns and get ready to take on the world, there is one thing that will always [connect] us: our roots. This connection is what will never fail to tie us to each other and our [community], keeping us grounded even as we move forward. As seniors and throughout our years [together], we have created [friendships], but more importantly, memories that we will remain in our hearts forever. No matter where life may take us, we will always call Bay Shore home.

Congratulations Jill!
We're so proud of you!
You deserve all the success of your hard work.

Love you lots-
Nana, Papa & Johnny

Jillian Oross

"Your time is limited, so don't waste it living someone else's life. Don't let the noise of others' opinions drown out your own inner voice. And most important, have the courage to follow your heart and intuition. They somehow already know what you truly want to become. Everything else is secondary." -Steve Jobs

It seems as though this was written with you in mind. Jilly, you are so strong & brave. You never cease to amaze us.
Thank you for making us
smile every day!
Love,
Mom & Dad

Geraldine Chapey

Congratulations to Geraldine and the Bay Shore Class of 2014

"May today there be a peace within. May you trust that you are exactly where you are meant to be. May you not forget the infinite possibilities that are born of faith in yourself and others. May you use the gifts that you have received, and pass on the love that has been given to you. May you be content with yourself just the way you are. Let this knowledge settle into your bones, and allow your soul the freedom to sing, dance, praise and love. It is there for each and every one of us."

- Mother Theresa

So proud of you Ger!
Love you more,
Mom, Dad, Owen and Claire
xo

Exiting [together]

*Lockers were closed, tight goodbye hugs were disbanded, books were returned, and tassles were moved. The culmination of this amazing year is bittersweet; we are now given the chance to take what we've learned and move on to greater things. However, we will no longer have the safety [net] of each other's [company] around us at all times. We will continue to go along with many different careers, in many different places, with many different people, but there is one thing that can never change: our alma mater. No matter what, we will always have [each other], our memories, and the Bay Shore [community] in our hearts and minds. No matter what, we will always be [Marauders]

Colophon

The 2014 Marauder Yearbook was published by Jostens and produced entirely by a staff of 22 students, led by Co-Editors-in-Chief Katarina Hendrickson and Sydney Leone, and under the supervision of Mr. Michael Hochman. 375 printed copies of the 91st volume of the Marauder were planned. This edition is comprised of 208 full-color, 100# matte pages, with a planned distribution of May, 2014. A "Spring Supplement" was planned for distribution in July of 2014.

Computers: The staff used Apple iMac and Apple MacBook computers, exclusively.

Photography: All candid photos, club photos, teacher portraits, and special section photos were taken by the Marauder staff using Canon Rebel cameras. All student portrait pictures and sports photos were taken by Legacy Studios and are used with their permission.

Fonts: Quotes are 'English Serif' size 10; Captions are 'Chantilly' size 10; Headlines are 'Chelsea' size 40, except the [together] word, which is 'Cheltenham' size 40.

Senior Superlatives: Ballot sheets were distributed to all seniors. Only those received were counted and we received over 200 of the superlative forms to count. On the superlative pages, the runners up are shown in the smaller, inset pictures.

The 2014 Marauder staff wishes to extend the following thank yous:

-The Jostens staff, especially Mr. Matt Stucchio and Ms. Crystal Gault. Another great year with the two best yearbook people around. We can't imagine making this book without the two of you involved. You continue to support and inspire us and we are extremely appreciative. Matt, you are the Macgyver of yearbooks; there is none better than you in primetime.

-Legacy Studios

-The high school and district administrators; thank you for your continued support in helping us achieve our vision.

-To the secretaries: Laura Giordano and Laura Stiles from the Main Office, thank you for endlessly paging people to us. Mary Anne Bisogno and Theresa Polina, from the Principal's office, thank you for answering questions, supplying forms, mailing stuff, and so much more. Thanks to Christina Nardone for all your help with class lists. You are all incredible people.

-IT staff: Dawn, Mark, Phil, and Joe. Thanks for always being so fast to help us.

-To the custodians, thank you for lugging cartons large and small. You guys are the best.

-The following teachers helped to supply photos: Ted Scalzo and Chris Bilella.

-Thank you to all students who submitted photos through replayit.com.

Katarina Hendrickson and Sydney Leone
Co-Editors-in-Chief

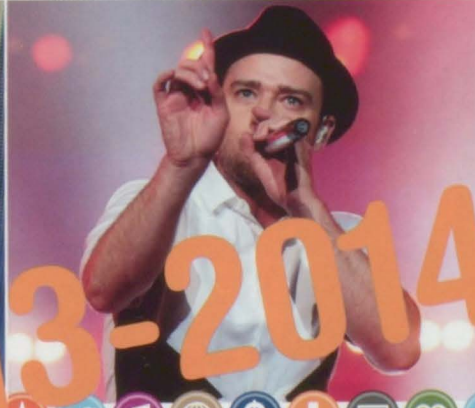

"This was another exciting year for me. I enjoy so much the process of brainstorming the book in April of the previous year and working with you for a full year, helping you to see your vision become a reality. This has been an absolutely incredible staff to work with, and I am so proud of the book you produced. I would especially like to acknowledge Kat and Syd for their tremendous effort throughout the year. We spent a tremendous amount of time together this year, but I enjoyed every minute of it. You were a power-duo and, together, you got the job done- and done well. You should be so proud of what you have accomplished. I hope that every time you take this book out to enjoy your memories, you feel a sense of pride for what you did. All the best for ever and ever."

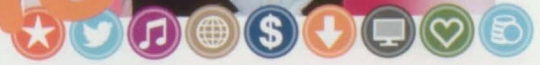

Mr. Michael Hochman [Adviser]
