Throughout our years of attending Bay Shore schools, we have been molded into the best people we can be.

Now, we have embarked on our last journey through Bay Shore High School and our vision has become more clear. We have been able to bond with our peers, find ourselves, and make friendships and memories that will last a lifetime. With the help of our teachers and our friends, we have been guided on this journey that gave us a firm grasp on what we want to become in our future.

We have been given Clarity.

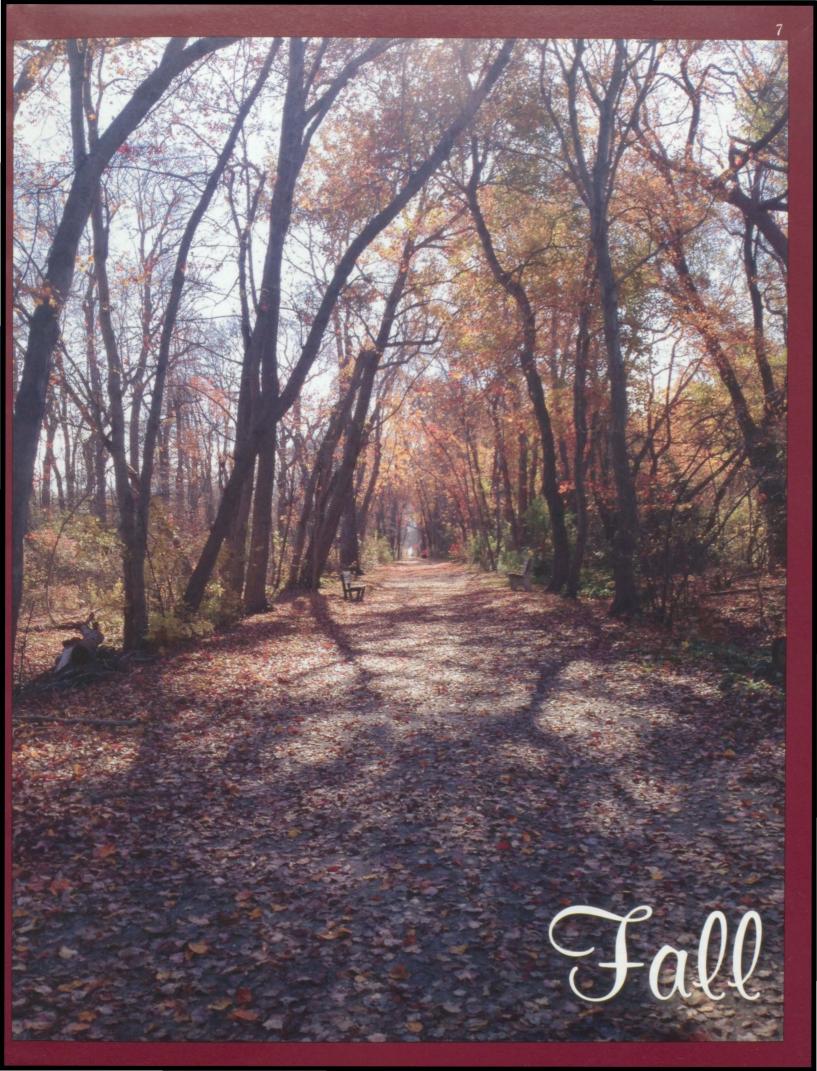

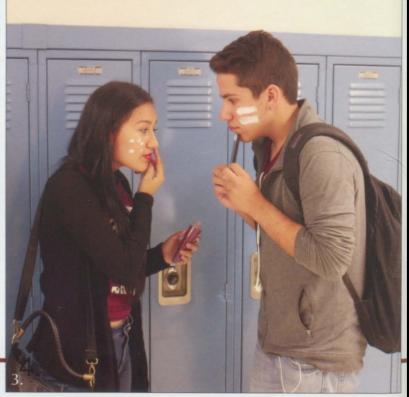

Rohdina Harriott and Chantel Bizzle, seniors, laugh together in the hallway before class on September 19th, Maroon and White Day. The two wore Track and Field attire and a basketball jersey to show their spirit. "I chose to participate Maroon & White day because I have a lot of Bay Shore pride and I love representing my school. I show my school spirit by taking part in almost all events and by wearing Bay Shore attire," said Harriott.

1. Barbara Armuelles, senior, starts off spirit week strong by showing her red, white and blue accessories . Armuelles, along with many other seniors, showed their unity by participating in the funny outfits leading up to pep rally. 2. Amanda and Alexandra Ehrhart, sophomores, question Twin Day seeing as though they are twins in real life. "Twin Day was pretty cool, although every day is twin day for me," said Amanda Ehrhart. 3. Veronica Rodas and Facundo Tano, seniors, apply face paint between classes for Maroon and White Day.

That's The Spirit

7. Luis Gomez, MaiLin Han, and Nachela Thornton, seniors, share a laugh in the hallway after class on the Monday of Spirit week, Red, White & Blue Day. The trio started the week strong and continued to display their support of the school. "To show my school spirit I wear Bay Shore apparel and support our sports teams in all ways possible," said MaiLin Han.

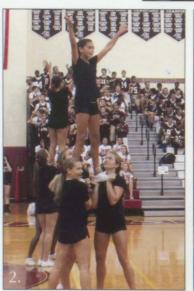

4. Sisters, Alexis Nieves, senior, and Natalie Nieves, sophomore, smile and giggle in their matching attire. "I chose to be twins with my sister because we have similar styles and already had matching outfits," said Alexis Nieves. 5. Justin Allen, sophomore, sports an extremely mixed-matched outfit to show his school spirit. 6. Fabio Espinal, junior, poses as "Rocky" for Movie Character Day. Espinal was filled with school spirit and participated every day in an effort to support both his school and his peers.

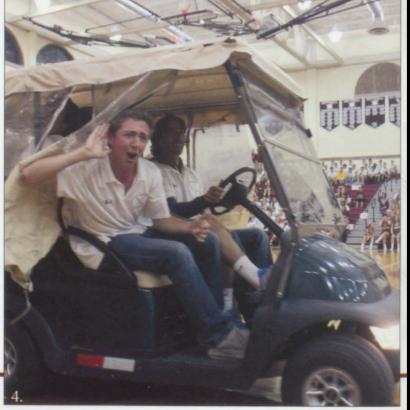

1. The Girls Volleyball team was rewarded with the Spiritstick for showing their Bay Shore pride. They quickly grabbed it before any of the other teams could get to it. "I felt on top of the world, like all of our hard work paid off," said Annie Cosgrave, senior, after helping her team catch the tube for the first time in many years. The crowd always goes wild when the cheerleaders bring out the Spiritstick. Parker-Lynn Jackson, senior, said, "I felt nervous at first, but after we handed the stick out I felt really good. We were all just shocked at how involved the crowd was with our whole routine."

2. Middle schooler Greta Neuberger stunts while Sammy Palulis and Holly Schoberl, juniors, and Parker Jackson, senior, support her and keep her up. 3. Tommy Sanders and Jason Vasquez, seniors, strike a pose as they play "Jungle Beat" for the excited students. The drummers have been part of the line since sophomore year and make the Bay Shore parades as special as they truly are. 4. Ian Maerki, senior, encourages the crowd to cheer while getting driven into the gym in the trusty security guard golf cart.

Put Some Pep in Your Step

8. The Girls Varsity swim team dances along as they watch the Boys Cross Country team perform their impressive routine. Alana Kenda, senior, describes Pep Rally as "a room full of maroon, black and white where everyone is cheering for the sports that take center stage" and says her favorite part of it is "watching all the teams put on awesome performances that has you out of your seat cheering like crazy!"

5.The Boys Volleyball team tries to prove themselves most deserving of the spirit stick and win it for the second year in the row. 6. Joe DiLegge, junior, shows off his moves in the middle of a circle before Pep Rally. DiLegge always wows the crowd with his energetic and impressive dancing 7. Jenny Stickney, junior, starts Pep Rally off right with her awesome baton twirling skills. After 13 years of hard and dedicated twirling, Stickney has earned seven individual national titles and a bronze medal in worlds.

Oliver Hendricks, sophomore, Alana Kenda, Amber Ayala and Julia Hutchinson, seniors, cheer with excitement when Bay Shore scores a touchdown against the number one team in the state, Longwood. Ayala said, "Our team played really well and I thought we maybe had a chance at winning." 2. Sam Verity and Amber Farooq, seniors, walk around with signs to encourage students and the rest of the community to donate to Stuff-A-Bus. This year Bay Shore was able to service around 40 families thanks to the donations of students and community members.

3. The school's mascot, the Marauder, and Jenny Stickney, junior, dance together in between plays to get the crowd excited. 4. Tarlin Urbano, Briana Gonzalez, Alexis Cofield, Nicolas Ramirez, and Veronica Rodas, seniors, show off the homecoming parade banner made by the senior class. Rodas said "It was a nice experience; I wish more people could experience it."

Coming Home

8. Kordell Hammond and Amy Paulino, seniors, pose together after being crowned Homecoming King and Queen. Paulino said, "I was so shocked because I was up against so many lovely ladies, but all the same, I am so honored to have been named Homecoming Queen of my class." The duo also sang the National Anthem together before the Homecoming football game began.

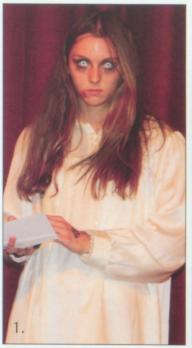

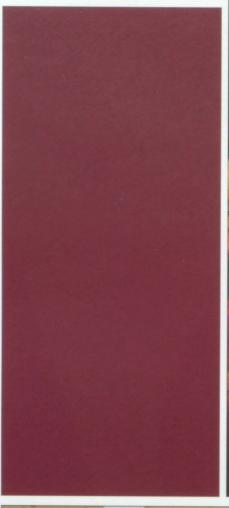

5. Anthony Sblendorio, Will Fleischer and Owen Pacifico, juniors, go wild when our team scores a touchdown within the first few minutes of the game. 6. Gabriella Guevara and Emily Albergo, sophomores, sort out the food brought by students and residents for "Stuff-a-Bus". 7. Pat Anzalone, junior, followed by other juniors, works with determination to try to beat the senior class in a tug-a-war contest. Anzalone said, "the tug of war between juniors and seniors was competitive, but it was a fun and an exhilarating experience." Ultimately, the seniors were victorious.

It's Spooktacular

1. Taylor Barbour, sophomore, terrorized the halls of Bay Shore High School as the possessed girl from the Exorcist. Barbour took home the trophy for scariest costume. She snickered, "it was really funny to scare some of the students!" She even made Mrs. Debonis scream. 2. Cole Fandale, senior, poses with his inspiration for his costume, Mrs. Rooney. Fandale spent the whole school day imitating the way Mrs. Rooney walked, talked and taught. "I wanted to dress as Mrs. Rooney because most students can realize the comedy in it and they all got a kick out of it. My favorite part was imitating her voice," Fandale shared.

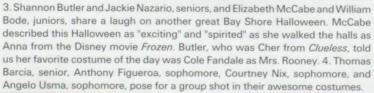

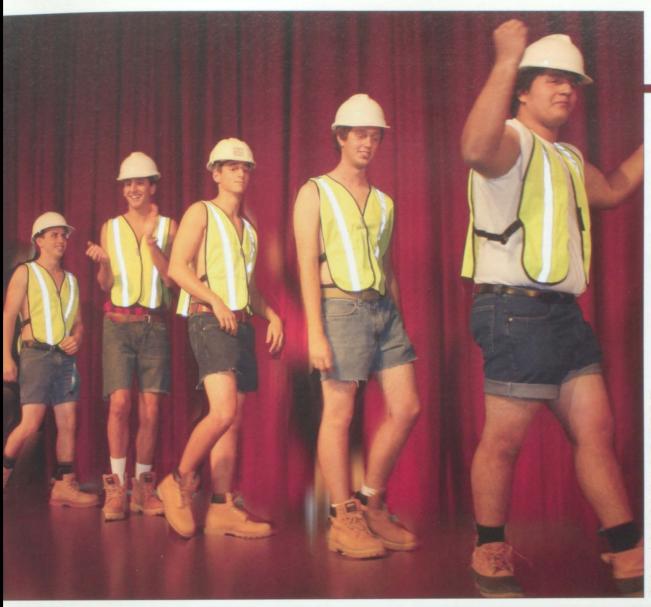

Daniel Smith, Will Fallon, Eric Ramsay, Antonio Leone, Ryan Moore, Thomas Glynn, Steven Button and Chris O'Connor, seniors, strut their stuff on the auditorium stage to present their construction worker costumes. Ramsay states, "just being with my friends and doing something funny for our last Halloween was really important to us." The boys were talked about all day and definitely made this Halloween a memorable one.

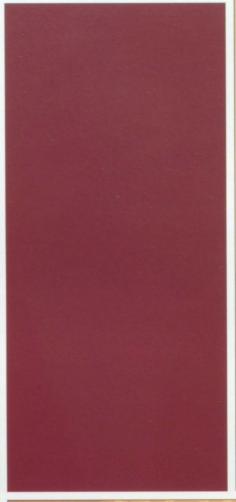

5. Matt Caples, junior, stares down his next prey while presenting his last victim. Caples's frightful make up was the artwork of his mom at five that morning. "I got the idea when I found my bow tie in my room. I wanted to be something outside of the box, "Caples said. 6. Lindsay Robinson, Autumn Beane and Emily Hoffman, seniors, have a bash in their piñata costumes. "We had to play the part, so we gave out candy to other students during the day; it was hilarious," the girls exclaimed.

Thanks for the Opera-tunity

1. Kordell Hammond, senior, stars in this year's drama production as Max. Hammond said, "as this a play only called for eight actors, it made rehearsals laid back. I think that is what I will miss most about the Fall show." Hammond has been in nine shows at Bay Shore High School. Alongside Hammond, Sabrina Song, sophomore, takes on the role of Maggie, the slightly-spoiled daughter of Saunders. Here, Max graciously accepts a rose from Maggie.

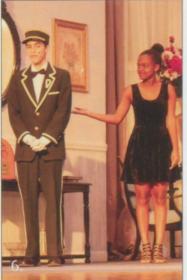

2. Michaela DeJoseph, sophomore, plays the role of Julia, the president of the opera. Alongside her is Zander Pacella, junior, playing the part of Tito, who is a world class tenor. 3. Erin McArdle, junior, performs in this year's play as Maria, a hot-tempered Italian that is quite moody as well. 4. Diego Beas, senior, transformed into Mr. Saunders, the head of the opera company.

Christian Negron, sophomore, embraced his role as the Bellhop. He brilliantly conveyed the essence of his character through his wise-guy remarks and knowledge of all the gossip in the hotel. Zander Pacella and McArdle, Erin juniors, express both astonishment as well as disgust Negron towards after he revealed of his some knowledge about the people in the hotel.

5. Lindsay Tierney, senior, starred as Diana the rich and flirtatious opera singer. Tierney said, "it was a bit difficult to pull off Diana due to the fact that she completely contrasts my everyday personality." 6. Alexis Cofield, senior, presents Christian Negron, sophomore, to the audience members. 7. An extremely well dressed Zander Pacella, junior, struts around the stage, truly capturing the over-indulgent personality of Tito.

"It's sad that this will be my last year playing Marauder football. Being a part of this team has made me realize how important family is. I've gained so many brothers and I'm so glad I've experienced it with these guys."

- Justice Troy Thomas, 12

"All we can do is take it one game at a time. Our team chemistry is better this year than in the past and we work together, making it easier to get things done on the field. Win or lose, it should be a great season."

- Steven Button, 12

"After playing for five years, I have really learned how to be dedicated and really fight through things. Every play, I go harder and, regardless of how the season ends, I will always appreciate the time I have spent being a Marauder."

Give Me My Quarterback

1. Steven Button, senior and quarterback carries the ball and breaks through Central Islip's defensive line. No matter the score, he stayed positive as a teammate and a captain. 2. Vaughn Napolitano, senior and lineman, stops Central Islip's lineman dead in his tracks. Napolitano was a major asset to the defensive line. 3. Matt Ilchuk, sophomore, tackles Central Islip's wide receiver, keeping them out of the end zone. His interceptions throughout the season were a major help to the team. 4. Evan Wolff and Archie Ulysses, seniors, and Justin Ortega, junior, run off the field proudly after the win over Central Islip.

Meet The Fhockers

1. Kayla Corsini, junior, push passes the ball down the field. Corsini finished her second season on the varsity squad with one goal. 2. Chelsea Lombardo, senior, clears the ball down the field to one of her teammates. Lombardo finished her fourth season on varsity with 142 saves and earned the title of All-State. 3. Scarlett Leone, junior, anxiously awaits a pass from a teammate. The midfielder gets the pass and dribbles the ball down the field to the opponent's goal. This is Leone's first season on varsity.

4. Haille Griswold, sophomore, dribbles the ball down the field and passes it to a teammate. This is Griswold's first season on varsity, and she proved that she is a vital defender. 5. Grace Hickey, junior, is getting a pep talk from Coach Mary. Hickey finished the season with a total of 4 goals and with the honor of being All-Division.

"The season so far has been a challenge, but we do have a lot of potential on the team. We always try to keep a positive attitude no matter what the score is and we always try to play with our whole hearts until the last whistle blows."

-Chelsea Lombardo, 12

"I tell my team we just have to keep pushing and fighting through because the game isn't over until the clock runs out. I always try to highlight the good that we are doing and encourage us to work harder as a unit so we can have the best outcome."

- Lindsay Dieumegard, 12

SHORE

"My team and I get focused before our games by yelling out the goals that we would like to achieve. By each player yelling their goals, it allows other players to hear what they are looking to achieve by pushing each other to achieve their goals."

Heading to the Top

3. Chris O'Connor, senior, attempts to prevent a steal from his opponent. This was his first season on the varsity team. O'Connor was a leading defender and won the Bay Shore Soccer Sportsmanship award. 4. Douglas Castro, senior, strikes the ball in order to clear the ball up to a teammate. Castro was a crucial midfielder, contributing many assists to the team. 5. Nick Kelly and Alejandro Juarez, seniors and team captains, work together as Juarez leaps to head the ball. Juarez was awarded All-Conference in his last season as a Marauder.

Kickin' It

1. The players gather around to boost each other up before a big game. The girls are always there to encourage each other and continue to give 110%. 2. Sofia Leone, junior, chases after the ball as an opponent tries to drill it past the midfield line. Leone ended the season with 3 assists and 1 goal. 3. Genevieve Casey, senior, smoothly jukes out her opponent before driving the ball down the field. She finished the season with 1 goal and 1 assist.

4. Corinne Costello, senior, blocks a shot in its path as it rockets towards her goal. She finished the season with a total of 155 saves.

You Just Got Served!

1. Annie Cosgrave and Elisabeth Yack, seniors and co-captains, are shown in a huddle making a strategy for their next point. As captains, they set an example for the underclassmen during the games. Cosgrave was All-County this season and won the Coach's Award. 2. Jamie Soldinger, junior, tips the ball for Bay Shore. Soldinger was the team leader with 23 aces and was All-Conference this season. 3. Ruth Philip, junior, bumps the ball and passes it to another teammate. Philip had 163 digs this season and was All-League.

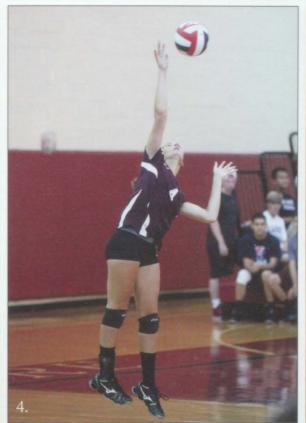

4. Miranda Hogan, senior and co-captain, prepares to serve the ball over the net. Hogan broke the school record with 405 assists. Hogan was part of the Suffolk County Elite Eight, was awarded All-County, and All-County Tournament Team, and she was this season's MVP. 5. Elisabeth Yack, senior and co-captain, spikes the ball, scoring a point against Walt Whitman. Yack had 128 digs this season and was named All-League.

May the Course Be With You

1. Luciano Fiore, senior, finishes off the race strong. This season, Fiore was All County, All Division, and All League. Fiore also qualified for the New York State High School Athletic Assoc. Championships in Canton, NY. 2. Jeffrey Reyes, junior, has a big kick finishing the race. Reyes had a goal to be named All County. In order to do this, he had to run under 17:15 for a 5K, which he accomplished with room spare (17:13), accomplishing his goal. Reyes was also All-County, All-Division, and All-League.

"The Bay Shore cross country team is a family. Running can be physically and mentally draining, but, even if we don't want to admit it, we love to run. We work well together and we always keep our teammates' spirits up. It's important that we always have each other's backs and get through the season together."

-Luciano Fiore, 12

"Before every race, we all have to mentally focus and prepare for the race. We do a light run and come up with strategies the day before. Also, for some meets, we get together and have pasta parties. The team is doing really well this season. I've really enjoyed my four years on the team and I will definitely miss it."

Get Swingy With 9t

1. Stefani Shepard, senior, hits the ball cross court to her opponent. Shepard underwent surgery at the end of the season, but was still able to contribute to the team through her endless support. 2. Megan Beauchamp, senior, returns a volley back over the net in attempt to win a match point. As a senior, Beauchamp helped unite the team and create a positive team atmosphere for her final year.

3. Emily Hoffman, senior, bounces the ball and prepares to serve an ace. Hoffman contributed to Bay Shore's wins in both matches against West Islip and went All-Division during her fourth varsity season. 4. Lindsay Robinson, senior, slams the ball to her opponent's side of the court in attempt to win her match against West Islip. Robinson received the All-Division title for her performance in her senior season.

"My team's atmosphere is always positive. We are constantly laughing and having a good time doing something we all love. The overall atmosphere when we all come together is incredibly comforting. I'm so lucky to have had the opportunity to be a part of such a determined and skilled group of girls."

- Lauren Ten Hoopen, 12

"Our team consisted of so many talented and unique players and every single player brought something different to the table. Quentin Thompson, junior, introduced the first guest, nineteen-year-old Laurent and accompanist Julian Reed, who are members of the rock-soul group Quantum Split. "I very much enjoyed Quantum Split's performance," said Jard Lerebours, senior. "I thought that there was an air of solidarity and love .... It was an honor to hear from such a distinguished judge who rather than focusing on himself, taught us about our history and Etan Thomas's words of encouragement sent an optimistic echo through the crowd."

1. Former NBA Player Etan Thomas, born in Harlem and raised in Tulsa, Oklahoma, speaks of how current events affect athletes and how it is important for them to advocate for what they believe is just. Though he couldn't be there in person, Thomas still moved the crowd with his inspiring words. 2. Mr. Johnson shows the official document, renaming the Fifth Avenue overpass in Corey Swinson's memory. Ford, was not only Corey Swinson's brother-in-law, but has ties to the community. He is from Brentwood and was the first black judge from the town of Islip. He explains that you don't grow up thinking that you are going to do something of that magnitude. He believes that young people, because of their bravery, are the catalysts for change.

5. Quantum Split's songs capture the audience by telling stories of peace and freedom in America and letting her own experience of being bullied speak to them. She performs a song about how it's important to have confidence and not be afraid of being your own person. By incorporating events and experiences that affect practically everyone at some point in their lives, she inspired the audience. 6. Bay Shore alumni, Denzel Laborde, and Mr.Johnson pose after a motivating workshop. Laborde worked against the odds and became an EMT for the FDNY. He spoke about his family struggles as an adolescent and how he worked hard to overcome them. This served as inspiration to for those who feel like the odds are stacked against them.

SEN10R5

1. Wesley Robinson takes on the middle of the dance floor as a circle of seniors gather around him. All of the seniors are full of smiles after seeing some crazy moves. Wesley said, "It was a good night and everyone got along. I really will miss it all after graduating, I took four years for granted and I wish I had more time to just be with my friends and get more memories."

The senior class gathers together on the dance floor for the Senior Banquet. The event was filled with great food, good music, and the company of Bay Shore High School's Class of 2015. The buffet line wrapped around the room, but someone passed on a plate which started a chain reaction. Soon enough, everyone was handing off plates to the people behind them. It's the little and simple things like this that make this class truly one to remember. Nachela, Thornton reminisced about the night saying, "I honestly enjoyed dancing with classmates and having that sense of community in a different setting. I also enjoyed taking another class picture all together."

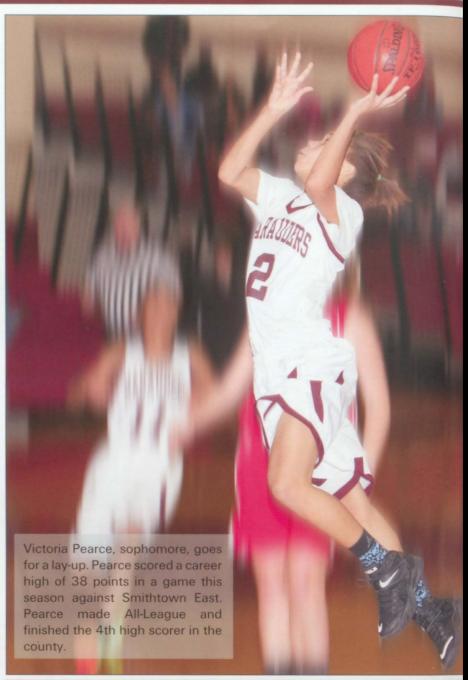

4. Cara O'Meally, Lindsay Dieumegard, Rachel Cossio, Elisabeth Yack, and Emily Fischer get photobombed by Cole Fandale, Will Fallon and Blake Hogan, while posing for a group photo. 5. Anthony Caligure and Enacy Peña, seniors, dance along to the popular music with the rest of the senior class. Peña said, "It was everything I was hoping it would be. I had a good time sharing the night with my friends."

Shooting Stars

1. Aliyah Braxton, freshman, concentrates on snatching the rebound before the Miller Place defender. Braxton has played high school basketball since middle school, however this is her first year on varsity. 2. Nye'Dia Harris, senior, successfully shoots a three pointer right past the opponents. This season Harris averaged 9 points and 13 rebounds per game, and scored a total of 162 points for the season, and was named All-League.

3. Jami Cardenas, sophomore, jumps as she shoots an open three. This was Cardenas's first year and she demonstrated that she has a lot to contribute to the team. 4. Keonjah Nugent, sophomore, looks for an open teammate as she dribbles the ball up the court. This season Nugent racked up a total of 88 points averaging 5.9 points per game.

"I came into the season with an injury, which was bittersweet. Initially I was scared to play again, but I set personal goals for myself that included regaining my confidence and chemistry on the court."

- Kaly Alzate, 11

"Being a senior on the team makes me feel like I'm leaving a piece of me behind since I've grown up through Bay Shore's basketball program. Every game I am determined to leave my heart on the floor and give Bay Shore something to remember."

"I have been working here for 30 years, believe it or not, and what I will miss the most is the great interaction I have with the kids everyday, because working with young people helps me stay young. Looking back, I really have to say when I was able to help students or teachers get through some difficult times or over some difficult hurdles, that is really the most satisfying experience you can have as a professional."

James Sagl Physical Education Teacher

"I will miss the students most of all. Every day I come in and have a great time interacting with the students when I'm teaching. In my 17 years at Bay Shore, every day was a great day, never dull. I never had a problem coming to school; I looked forward to it. It was always a great day and not too many people can say that about going to work."

For us, our journey at Bay Shore High School has now come to an end. We take away with us the countless memories that will last a lifetime. Bay Shore is a unique school, but what really makes it special is the people that walk through the halls and make a difference every day. Each of us have impacted one another in indescribable ways. We admire our teachers who have became our role models and who have inspired us to become whatever it is that we want to be. No matter where we go in life, Bay Shore High School will forever be with us. We now venture into our new lives and see things with a matured sense of

Colophon

The 2015 Marauder Yearbook was published by Jostens and produced entirely by a staff of 18 students, led by Co-Editors-in-Chief Emily Hoffman and Linday Robinson, and under the supervision of Mr. Michael Hochman. 375 printed copies of the 92nd volume of the Marauder were planned. This edition is comprised of 208 full-color, 100# matte pages, with a planned distribution of May, 2015. A "Spring Supplement" was planned for distribution in July of 2015.

Computers: The staff used Apple iMac and Apple MacBook computers, exclusively.

Fonts: Quotes are 'Palladio' size 8/10; Captions are 'Urbano' size 8; Headlines are 'Mellele' size 44. In addition, Opus was used for additional text (including this page).

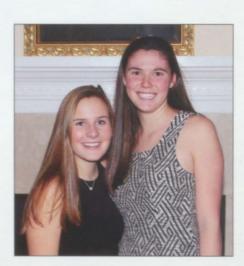

Senior Superlatives: Ballot sheets were distributed to all seniors. Only sheets that were turned in were counted, and we received over 200 of the superlative forms.

The 2015 Marauder staff wishes to extend the following thank yous:

- -The Jostens staff, especially Mr. Matt Stucchio and Ms. Crystal Gault. When we stop to think of the help the two of you provided us, going all the way back to July, it is clear that this yearbook is as much your product as it is ours. You are part of our staff and we are so happy (and lucky) to have you both on board. Thanks so much for your ongoing support.
- -Legacy Studios
- -Laura Giordano, for her beautiful photo of the school, which can be seen on page 1 of this book.
- -The high school and district administrators; thank you for your continued support in helping us achieve our vision.
- -To the secretaries: Laura Giordano and Laura Stiles from the Main Office, thank you for endlessly paging people to us. Mary Anne Bisogno and Theresa Polina, from the Principal's office, thank you for answering questions, supplying forms, mailing stuff, and so much more. Thanks to Christina Nardone for all your help with class lists. You are all incredible people. And to all of the other secretaries from various departments and offices: thank you for any help you provided throughout the year.
- -Thank you to the IT staff, especially Dawn and Mark for always providing help when we needed it.
- -To the custodians, thank you for lugging cartons large and small, and everything else you have done for us. You guys are the best.
- -Thank you to all teachers and parents for any pictures you helped provide.
- -Thank you to all students who submitted photos through replayit.com.

Emily Hoffman and Linsday Robinson Co-Editors-in-Chief

Dear Emily and Lindsay,

I am writing this to you the first week of April, and it's amazing to me to think that exactly one year ago we first started brain-storming for this edition of the Marauder. It's an incredible process to go from those first meetings to this final page, and yet you both handled the work and the pressure like true pros. I am so proud of the commitment and effort that you both put in to provide this special book for your classmates and community. You both were so much fun to work with, and I enjoyed the experience tremendously. Thank you for making my job so easy this year. I will miss working with each of you. I hope that over the years you will enjoy looking at this yearbook proudly and with a smile. Best of luck,

Mr. Michael Hochman, Adviser
