AS WE grew up in Bay Shore we established who we are. Bay Shore has shaped us to be who we are today. Our town is so culturally diverse, that we all grew up doing very different things. Some of us are aspiring intellectuals, while others are amazing athletes, and some are both. Many students participate in the creative arts, while some love the welcoming social atmosphere. Despite our varied interests, we all come together to support each other as one big family, a Bay Shore family. As we leave the high school, we go our separate ways and pursue our passions, but we will always carry with us the memories and values of Bay Shore. To others, Bay Shore may have looked like any other high school, but in our view, our time in Bay Shore was our life we used to know.

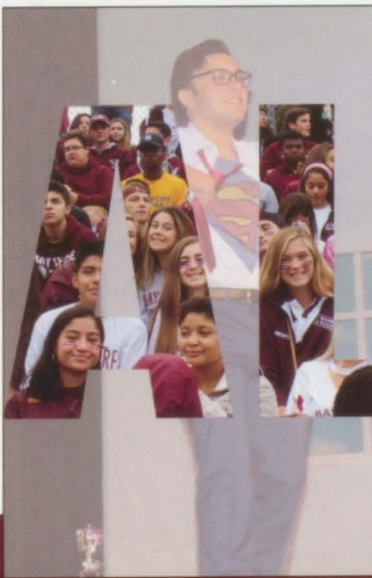

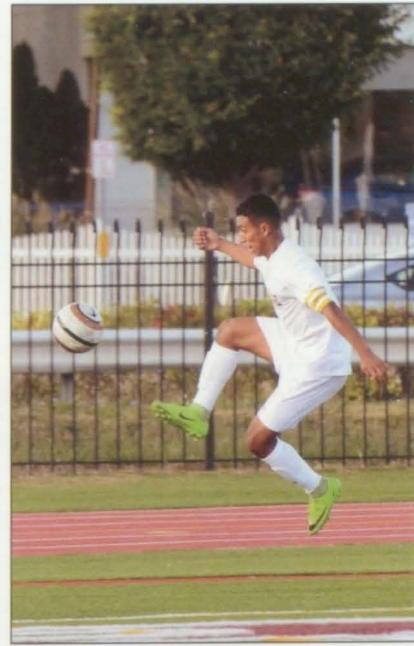

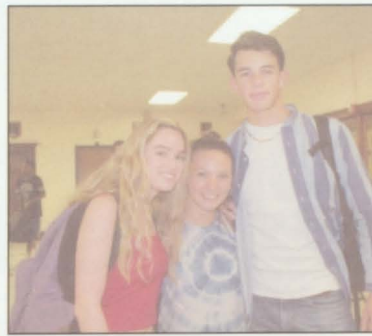

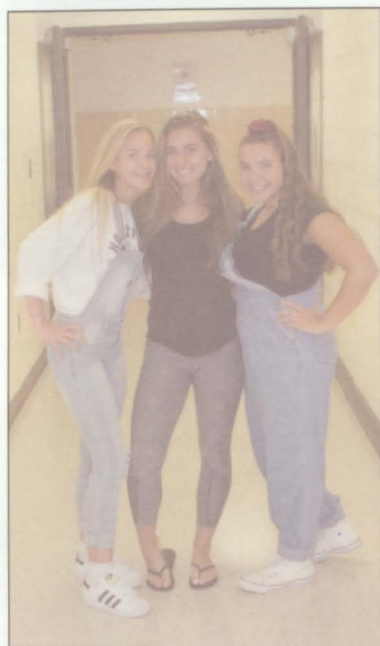

Tuesday: Decades Day. Shane Boone and Jack Buser, seniors, show off their throwback looks in science class.

Wednesday: Disney Day. Michelle Augenblick, senior, dresses up as Boo from Disney's Monsters Inc., to participate in the day's festivities.

Thursday: Superhero Day. Dileny Yglesia and Mark Vasquez, senior, pose together in their matching Superman outfits.

Friday: Bay Shore Pride Day. Valin Stewart, Shamare Gray, Aliyah Braxton, Gianna Geraci, and Carlos Espinal, seniors, smile for the camera during Bay Shore's annual Freshman Transition Day.

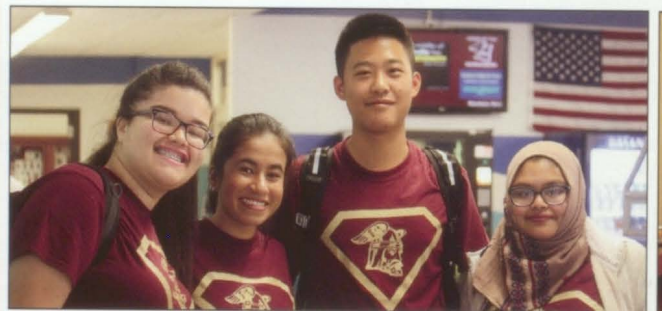

Jordan Zalewski, senior, dresses as Belle from Disney's Beauty and the Beast.

Seniors, Brianna Giovanniello and Payton Calloway, wear their Captain America shirts for Superhero Day.

Yearbook staff gets in the spirit for Decades Day in their totally tubular outfits. Decades Day was a huge hit for the students.

Alex Betz and Julianne Anderson, seniors dressed up as 80's trainers for Decades Day. Sarah Felix Nunes, Lamiya Mesbahuddin, Tongyu Guo, and Samiha Khan, seniors, represent Interact Club by wearing their Marauder superhero shirts during spirit week. Izzy Estevez, Quinny Shala, and Tabbie Gomez pose together for their last Superhero Day. Courtney Allen, Katie Unger, Neih Khalid, and Kaitlyn Elmendorf, sophomores, get in their school spirit by representing their sports teams.

Anna Jao, Olivia Bradley, and Alex Levy, seniors, show off their Bay Shore pride at Freshman Transition Day. These three seniors all helped facilitate this event.

Tatum Petrush, Yaa Owusu, seniors, dress from different decades. This ranged from the 60's to the 90's.

Casey Roan and Amy Hoeffner, seniors, both dressed in 80's clothing.

SPRINT AS WE SHOWED IT

Daniel O'Donovan, senior, runs in the county championships. O'Donovan helped to lead his team to be league champions. He has been a high team scorer for the last three years. Josh de Coteau, senior, sprints to end the race at Sunken Meadow. Sunken Meadow is a frequently used location for cross country races and includes the much-feared Cardiac Hill. Nolan Kata, sophomore, pushes himself to get ahead of his competitors. Kata's best time this season was 18:20. Zach Rohr, junior, runs ahead in the final race of the season. Rohr has been on varsity cross country since his freshman year. He is a vital part of the boys cross country team.

Highlights

"Winning leagues for the first time in 11 years was a big accomplishment for the boys cross country team. The team also won divisions this year by coming together as a team."
-Zach Rohr, 11

"quote me"

"We were able to win a bunch of league and county titles in the past. We have a very strong team and hope to continue it this year."

-Dan O'Donovan, 12

"It's a lot of dedication to be part of the team, so it helps your work ethic, especially in academics."

Highlights

"Our biggest accomplishment as a team was pulling it together in the last frame of the last match, which qualified us to compete in the counties." -Dallas Pigate, 12

"quote me"

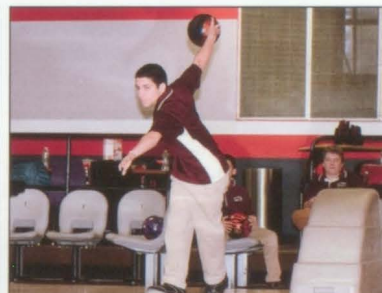

"All players on this year's team, whether it's their first year, or last, know how to get each other hyped up, on the lanes, in a huddle, or on the bus."

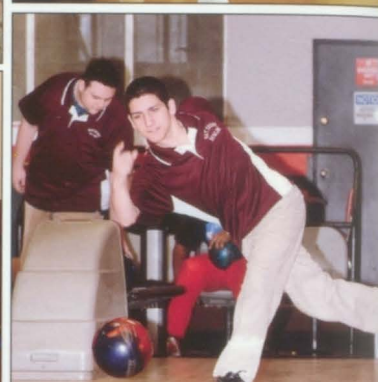

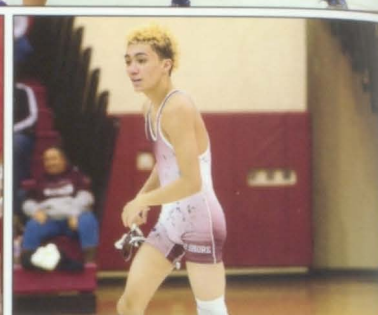

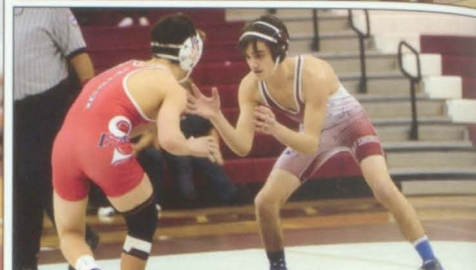

-Dallas Pigate, 12

"We have many talented people on the team and the kindness we share among each other helped us with our success."

-Michael DiMola, 9

Coach: Ms. Vallone

Sydney Tyler, sophomore, sprints down the runway while competing for the event, the triple jump. Amelia Ram, senior, shoots the ball for a lay up during game warmups, while Lanasia Drain, junior, watches on. Malachi Coleman, freshman, gets in the team spirit after his name is announced before the game. Jaden Fauvell, junior, gets in his ready position during his match. Jordan Norris, senior, looks to pass the ball to a teammate during his game. Joshua Barker, senior, is receiving the baton from Chadley Louis, senior, during the 4x200 meter relay. Elijah Rivera, sophomore, wins his match and gains points for the varsity team. The cheerleaders perform a stunt to root on the varsity basketball team. Jake Varone, sophomore, shows his follow through routine during his match. Zoe Feigel, freshman, opens her stride during her 3000m run. Cydney Wolff, senior, shows off her bowling techniques before she releases the ball. Mark Vasquez, Emmet Christie, and Gio Chapman, seniors, along with Nick Corsini and Jaden Fauvell, juniors, demonstrate sportsmanship after one of their home matches.

RETIREES

Bruce Cash

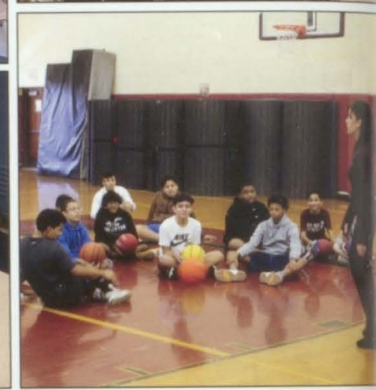

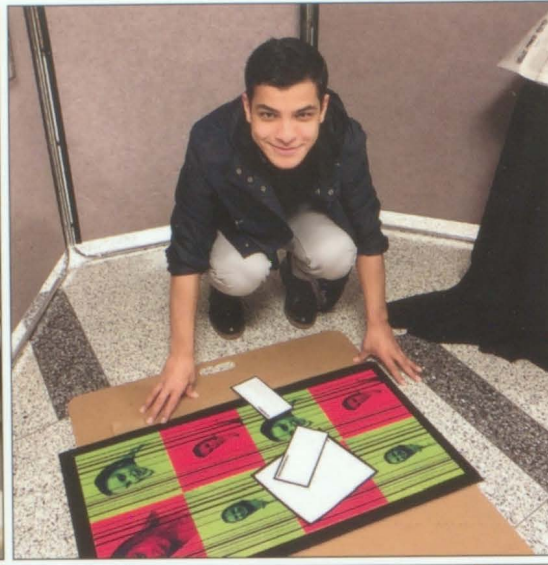

"I started working in Bay Shore in 1987. My favorite memory is the Yankee-Met rivalry within the Social Studies department. We would bet pizza on the subway series. The Yanks lost and we had to buy the Met fans pizza. We purchased a pie with nothing on it just dough and placed plastic dog poop on the pie! It looked real! The reaction of Joe Nardi and Kenny Jones will remain with me forever! The advice I would leave to students is there is too much conspicuous consumption in college education. Students worry too much about what school they are going to rather than doing well at their school. Work hard wherever you go to school and have a long term plan to succeed."

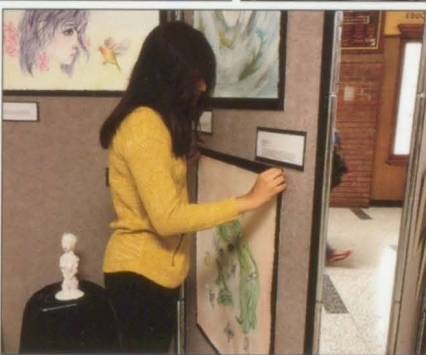

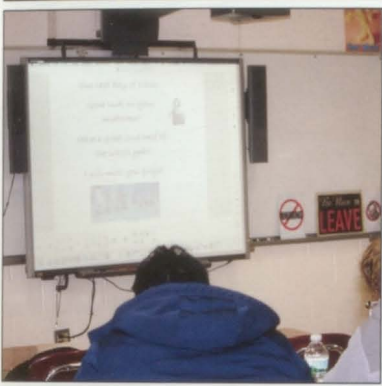

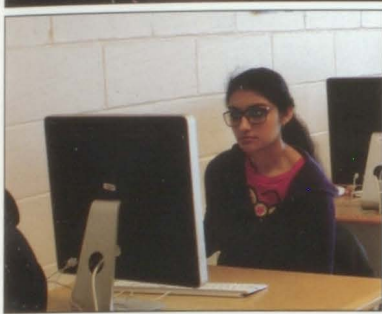

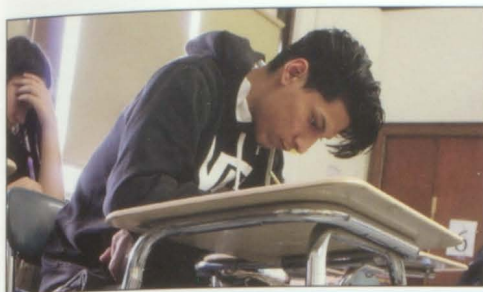

James Caputo

"I started teaching in Bay Shore in 1992. Before that, I taught in Lindenhurst high school and North Babylon high school. For many years I organized a canoe trip on which we'd take about 50 students and paddle the Nissequogue River. Despite the fact that most of those on the trip had never been in a canoe before, it was a lot of fun and a great bonding experience for both students and staff. It's also been my privilege to work with exceptional people, many of whom have become life-long friends. There's an expression that's been around for a while: "Be the change you want to see in the world." Today's students are living on the cusp of a new era of social revolution. The events of the first few months of 2018 demonstrate that people really do have the power to make those words ring true. So my advice is be engaged. March in the streets, shout from the rooftops, find your passion and leave this world a better place than you found it."

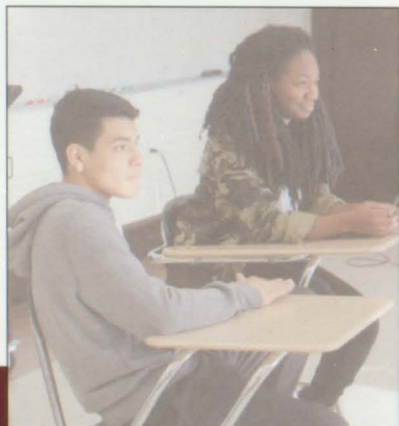

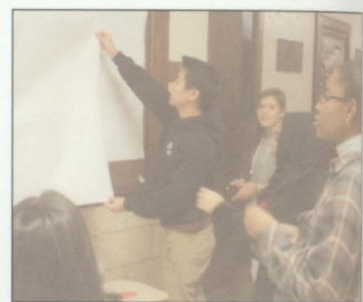

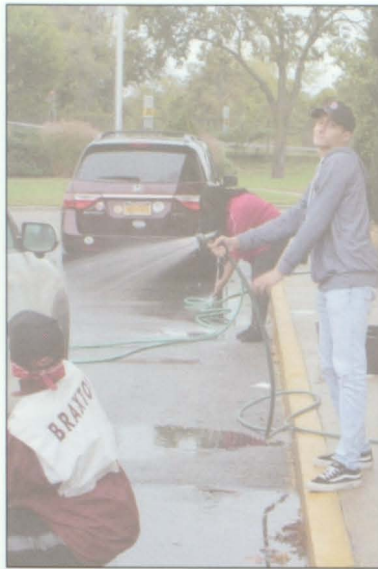

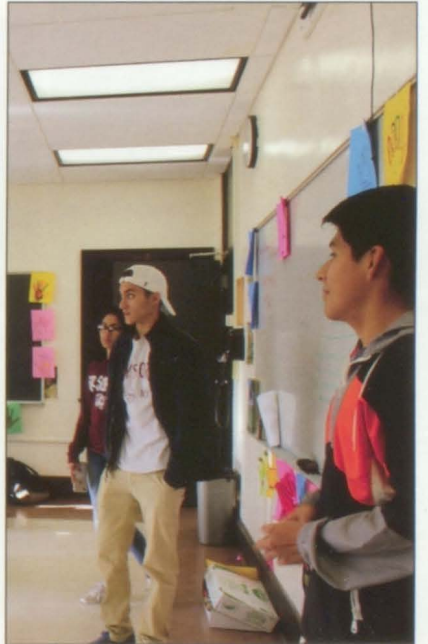

Asia Gray, senior, reads to the class her part as Barbantio in Shakspeare's Othello. Eric Fuentes, senior, puts together his IB Visual Art presentation for the whole school to see his hardwork. Sydney Tyler and Jasmine Boneparte, sophomores, are in excitement as they begin to dissect a frog for class. Ava Coppola, Will Button, Caitlin Kennedy, Maggie Hickey, and Lauren Hendricks, juniors, partner up in their AP Language class as they discuss books they have read this year to prepare for the AP exam in May. Husbaan Sheikh and Dakota Whitaker and other seniors study for their AP U.S. Government exam by using their textbooks to work on classwork. Erin Giuliani, junior, raises her hand to actively participate in her Chinese class. Students listen to math teacher Ms. Bosley as she goes over the homework. Tom Caligiuri, senior, demonstrates the concept of torque in the senior AP Physics class. A freshman Team Sports gym class listens to Mrs. Debonis as she explains the basketball lesson to her students. Grace Albergo, junior, smiles as she won her tennis match in the lifetime sports gym class. Toushis Azad, senior, and physics teacher, Mr. Kennedy, demonstrate the concept of rotational momentum. Julianne Anderson, Colleen Duddy, Joey Lovegrove, seniors, zone into their lesson on the U.S. Government and the Constitution of the U.S.

Kelvin Saula-Bueno, senior, is reading his book with extreme focus and concentration for his english class. Ashleigh Parsons, Katie Heller, Shannon Dieumegard, Gabby Troise, Alex Betz, Chelsea Lovgren, and Hailey Niles, seniors, sit together as they discuss their IB classes and eat at the IB breakfast. Kate Robbins, senior, smiles from ear to ear as she shows off her wonderful art pieces to other students. Alex Gartland, senior, and other students work to improve their Microsoft skills as they want to be Microsoft Word Certified. Akiash Ashfaq, senior, works on the computer for her web design class, learning how to create new websites. Bay Shore students, exercise while having fun playing basketball in the team sports gym class. Olivia Courtney, Jack Buser, Alex Levy, seniors, are dedicated in their roles as Venetians in Shakespeare's Othello. Students prepare for their math midterm exam with practice and review sheets. Gianna Greco and Husbaan Sheikh, seniors, focus as they draw in their drawing & painting class. Camryn Garrett and Sarah Felix, seniors, work diligently on homework for their classes. Muqsiteen Aleema, senior, hands up her artwork in her mini gallery for the IB Visual Arts showcase. Josh Vargas and Brian Keach, seniors, express their creativity as they paint and draw in art class.

Emily Kubik, junior, and her group act out a skit of a sportsmanship scenario to the class. This is a new activity that AHA has decided to incorporate this year to get the kids more involved and to get a better understanding of the importance of sportsmanship. The AHA members stand in front of the middle schoolers while Mrs. Drago introduces them. Shaelan Dougherty, junior, engages with the kids in a game of octopus tag. This is Dougherty's first year in AHA.

Grace Pirkel, senior, shares her sportsmanship story with her group. Pirkel is a returning member to AHA this year. The objective of the club is to teach younger students about personal health and the health of others through lessons and fun physical activities.

"One of my favorite things about AHA has been getting involved with the special education classes. Through AHA, I have been able to spend their gym period with them every day for two years."

-Bryn Schlusser, 12

"quote me"

"AHA has given me the confidence to speak in front of groups of people, while also allowing me to help out with younger students that have yet to enter high school."

-Bryn Schlusser, 12

"AHA has showed me the importance of making sure that our youth stays on the right track in life to become their true selves."

-Joe Corrado, 12

"AHA acts as your conscience. The 'AHA Conscience' makes us think before we act and it helps us athletes succeed."

-Emily Fogarty, 12

ART CREATED IT

Mr. Scinto demonstrates different ways of drawing and blending to his students, while Halei Acevedo, senior, tries to absorb the presentation in effort to apply it to her art. The members of Art Club gather around the table and watch while others continue their artwork. All members are free to make their own art without assignments, so these are all unique works. Art club is a unique way for students to express their thoughts and spend time with their friends. Elora Camacho, sophomore, diligently works on her art project to express her creativity. Camacho uses a variety of supplies such as crayons, pencils, and paint to complete her work. Gianna Geraci, senior, works hard on her project. This is Geraci's first year as a member of the art club.

"In art club, you are able to use clay, paint, pastels, and other supplies that could help you."
-Emily Martin, 12

"quote me"

"Art club is a casual place to meet, rather than an art class. We have no set project, so you are free to make the art you would like to make at your own pace."

-Emily Martin, 12

"Being a member of the art club is like being a part of a family. We help each other grow as artists."

-Natalia Fiore, 12

"I like to draw."

-Ariana Castro, 12

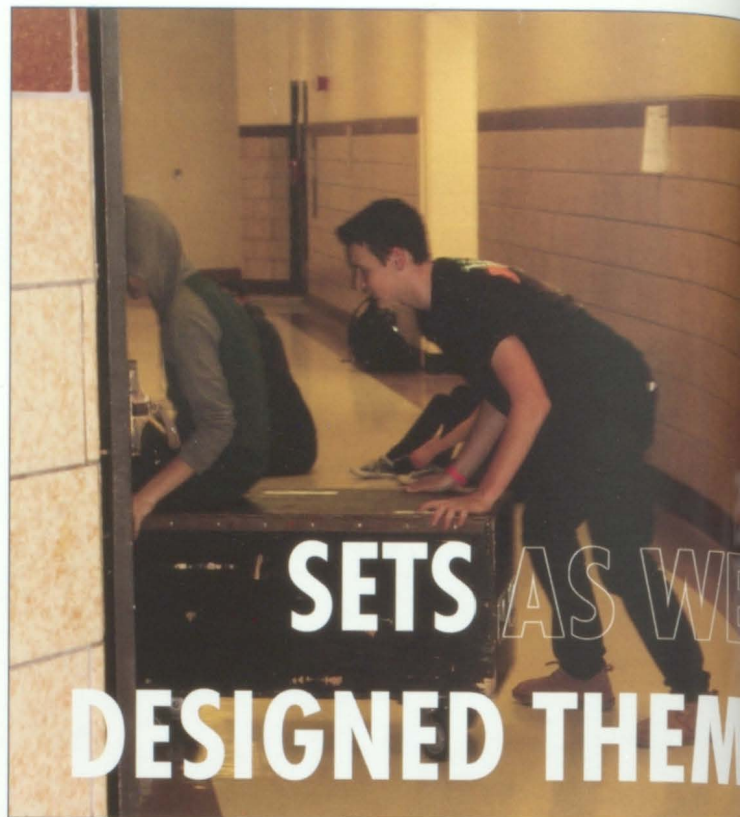

Seniors: Steven Argueta, Ariana Castro, Natalia Fiore, Gianna Geraci, Bazja King, Emily Martin, Abigail Pizarro

Dennison DeNatalie, sophomore, moves equipment onto the stage in order to get the sound kit in its place. Hayley Thompson, junior, shares a laugh backstage with a crew member in between moving sets. Thompson has been a member of backstage crew since her freshman year. In her three years as a member of backstage crew, Thompson has been involved in six shows. Backstage crew members arrange furniture for the play in position so the cast can begin to practice their lines. The crew organizes the set for the fall production of Flowers for Algernon. Jordan Zalewski and Conor Farkas, seniors, rearrange the stage to change the setting for the upcoming scene for the fall play.

"All of us are so different, yet we all came together to build the set. Being in backstage helped me realize that there's a place for everyone."
-Mina Suarez, 12

"quote me"

"Crew has changed me by showing how people of so many different talents are able to come together and make something great. It showed me that it's okay to be yourself in your own creative way."

-Jordan Zalewski, 12

"My favorite part of crew was growing up with this giant family and seeing everyone grow up and become extremely creative and talented in every way."

-Sabrina Heron, 12

"Because of crew, I know how to work with others and still get a great result. Being crew chief, I learned how to handle a leadership role. Everyone is special in their own way and being in crew helped me realize that."

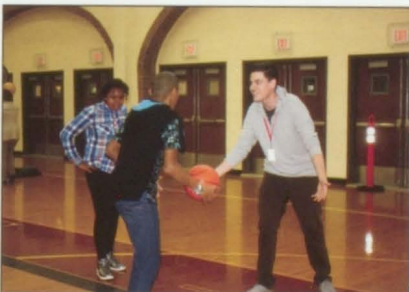

-Mina Suarez, 12

Seniors: Natalia Fiore, Gabriella Morales, Mina Suarez, Jordan Zalewski, Patrick Funk, Conor Farkas

Leah Healy, junior, and David Espinosa, sophomore, pass a ball back and forth during a best buddies meeting. Leah and David are one of the club's buddy pairs and have grown to have an amazing friendship this past year. Bryn Schlusser, senior, speaks to the best buddies members about upcoming events. Bryn is the Best Buddies club's first chapter president. Naseem Langhorne, senior, shoots some hoops with his fellow members. Langhorne enjoys playing basketball in the gym. Brianna Duncan, junior, Jack Antonucci, freshman, Nyrie Holmes, junior, Bryn Schlusser, senior, and Denikel Lawrence, junior, pose for a photo after playing basketball together.

"My favorite part of best buddies this year was watching the growth of comfort and friendships between our buddies pairs."
-Amelia Ram, 12

"quote me"

"Best Buddies has led me to success because it has taught me the importance of acceptance."

-Bryn Schlusser, 12

"Best Buddies not only allows me to create genuine connections with different people, but also allows me to encourage other kids to build new friendships."

-Amelia Ram, 12

"Best Buddies had definitely made me a more open-minded and positive person, which has opened more opportunities for me."

-Denikel Lawrence, 11

Officers: Bryn Schlusser, Denikel Lawrence, Amelia Ram, and Tania Cortes Alonso
General Members: Jack Antonucci, Clifton Brevard, Trinity Burton, Maevie Christie, Karen Cifaente, Nick Corsini, Brianna Duncan, David Espinosa, Liam Fawcett, Leah Healy, Nyrie Holmes, Sha'Kayla Johnson, Naseem Langhorne, Lizzie Mattfield, Lamiya Mesbahuddin, Daniel Michalski, Natalie Montoya, Gregory Peck, Theodore Ram, Dunia Rojas, Roshni Singh, Catie Surian, Steve Voltaire

Chase Klein, senior, thinks about fundraising ideas to earn money for recent tragedies in the world. Eric Fuentes and Jazlyn Harris, seniors, write down and choose which ideas they want to pursue in the Brothers and Sisters Organization. Sarah Felix, senior, shares her opinion about creating a day and night theme for paint night. Paint night is a night where young kids come to the high school to paint with their families. Karen Alvarez, junior, Keire Pacheco, Zakiya Mars, and Mikayla Smith, seniors, discuss the fundraising ideas the group brainstormed and decide which suggestion will work the best.

"Being an officer gives me the opportunity to lead and always be in charge of what I want to do."
-Asar John, 12

"quote me"

"BSO has given me and my peers an opportunity to have our voices heard."

-Asar John, 12

"People who were reluctant to even express their feelings now have the opportunity to do so."

-Jazlyn Harris, 12

"BSO has allowed me to spread awareness and help individuals after worldwide tragedies."

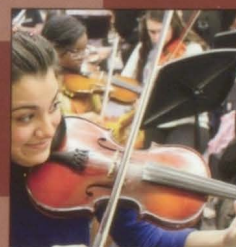

-Ketsia Olsen, 12

Seniors: Karen Alvarez, Michael Ampato, Falan Boyd, Lillian Chimelis, Aliyah Codner, Kingsley Felix, Sarah Felix, Rajah Fernal, Sophia Flores, Ny'Ahjah Fuentes, Brandon Gonzalez, Taylia Hinds, Bazja King, Keiry Lajan, Zakiya Mars, Erica Martinez, Liliana Molina, Ketsia Olsen, Keire Pacheco, Nia Singer, Mikayla Smith, Akliah Thompson, Sara Tello Vivanco, Jonathan Vasquez

MUSIC AS WE PERFORMED IT

Chamber students perfect their musical talents every Wednesday night in the orchestra room. Faith de Coteau, sophomore, plays her string instrument to practice for the upcoming concert. Chris Tucciarone, junior, William Logan, freshman, and Dean Malina, senior, bass players, deliver sweet, low pitches to enhance the group's piece. Tannya Singh, senior, and Daniela Diaz, junior, practice playing their violins as advanced level players.

"I enjoy playing with talented players of the school and I am also glad to have played professional music that adult ensembles have played."
-Billy Haggerty, 12

"quote me"

"Chamber has led me to my success because it really helped me recognize the amount of effort and strength that it takes to be part of a small musical group."

-Sofia Flores, 12

"Chamber has made me learn how to work together with others and has allowed me to learn how to take on a challenge."

-Tannya Singh, 12

-Tannya Singh, 12

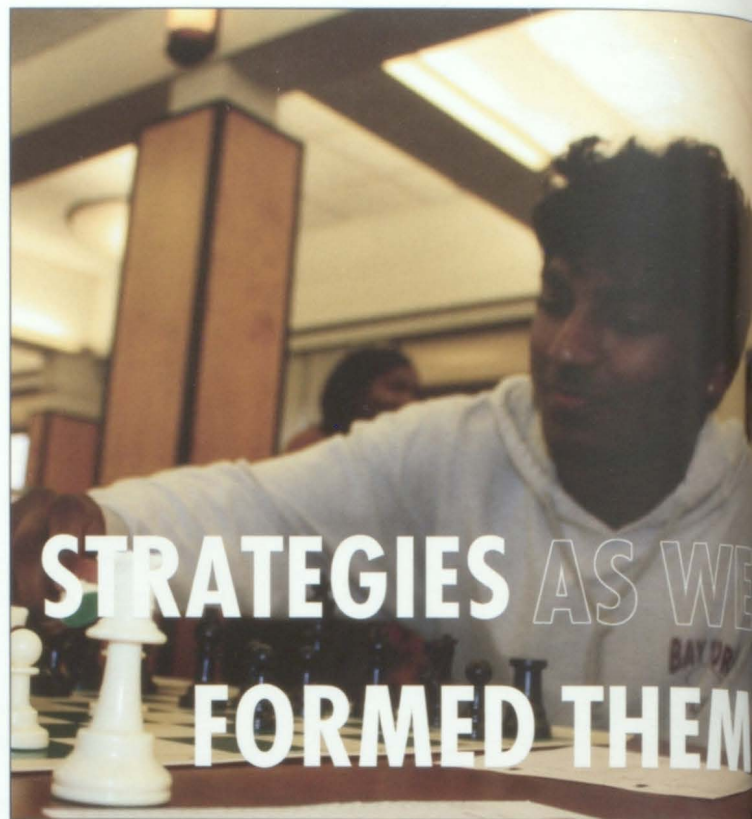

"Chamber has led to my success through it's ability to inspire my adventurous and courageous side to come out. The music has been challenging, but nonetheless has allowed me to push further."

-Akilah Thompson, 12

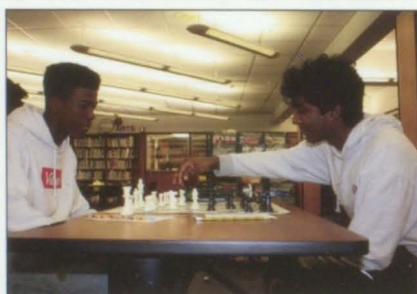

Seniors: Akilah Thompson, Alexa Santos, Robert Marsanico, Sofia Flores, Tannya Singh, Billy Haggerty

Bryan Ramsaran, senior, looks for the next move he can make to win his match. Ramsaran has had an outstanding season this year with a record of 4-1, a very impressive chess club career. Taylor Mason, freshman, observes his opponent before moving his piece. Mason has been an important asset to the team throughout their matches. Chadley Louis and Bryan Ramsaran, seniors, face each other in a warmup match before one of their tournaments. Louis finishes his chess club career by placing fourth out of five teams in the county chess tournament this year. Husnain Ijaz, senior, uses his techniques to outplay his opponent and get a win for the team. Ijaz was a huge contributor to the team this year.

"Our biggest success this season was the final tournament, where five of us went to go play against other teams, ultimately taking home third place."

-Bryan Ramsaran, 12

"quote me"

"My strategy is to sit back until my opponent makes a mistake, then capitalize off of it to win the game."

-Michael Levi, 12

"We have exceeded our expectations as us being our first year as an official club and just learning the rules of our league."

-Chadley Louis, 12

"As we continue to play each match we learn more and more the importance of knowing the consequences of your actions before you choose to do so."

-Bryan Ramsaran, 12

Seniors: Sean Cajigas, Adam Klopsis, Michael Levi, Chadley Louis, and Bryan Ramsaran

COMPUTERS AS WE EXPLORED THEM

Mark Littmann, junior, looks for a computer to start playing online games. Nate Polk, sophomore, and Skylar Lampel, sophomore, are expanding their knowledge of computers by logging in on a computer and exploring all they have to offer. Club members join in conversation about how they can improve their personal skills and their teams skills. The ultimate goal for E-sport players is to win their game. Ryan Champlin, sophomore, works hard at polishing up his skills at the games he loves to play.

"Everyone from different walks of life has come together and bonded over their favorite games. People who would never meet and be friends now play together all time as best friends."

-Ryan Champlin, 11

"quote me"

"Without computer club, we wouldn't have an E-sports team. Computer club has allowed the E-sports team to exist and grow."

-Ryan Champlin, 11

"My goal in joining the computer club was to play video games at a higher level."

-Jayson Tingue, 10

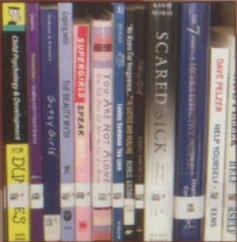

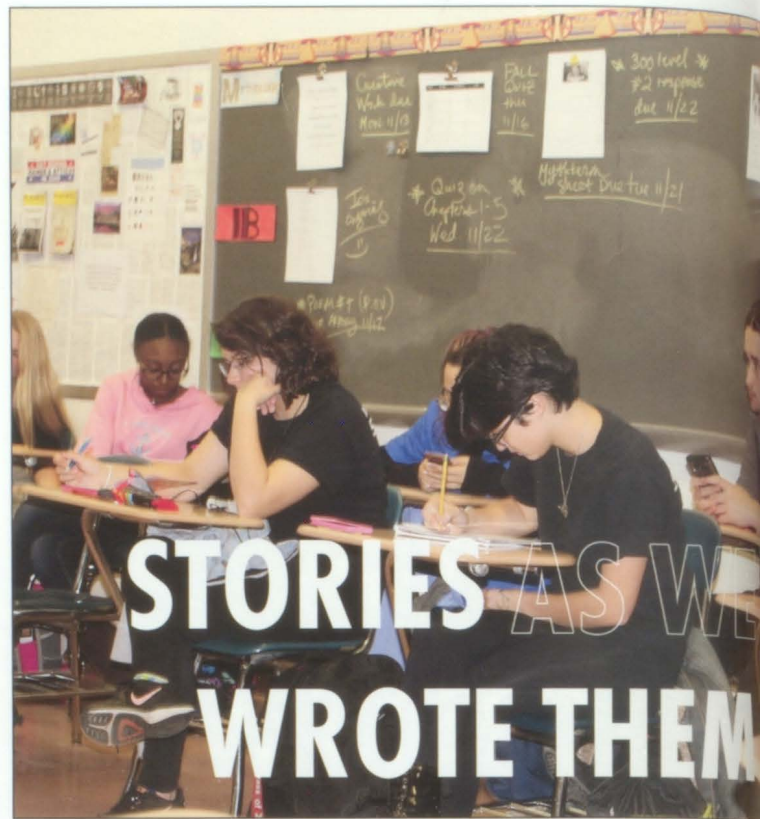

"The club has allowed me to meet new people, bring everyone together, and communicate better as a team."

-Auyon Haque, 11

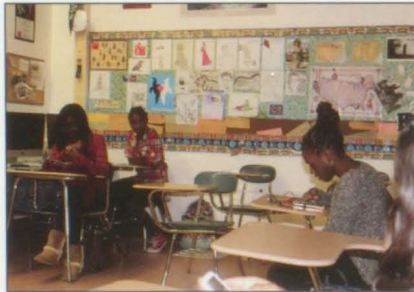

Underclassmen: Ryan Champlin, Kyle Champlin, Skylar Lampel, Aidan Zicoella, Tommy Naslonski, Matthew Evans, Ian Sarlo, Michael DiMola, Hasnain Sayed, Nate Plak, Caden Hall, Noah Lika, Dom Bostick, Henry Delgado, Mohammad Khan, Dimetrius Bostick, Jacob Hood, Shane Lemay, and Anthony Tano.

Natalia Fiore and Gabriella Morales, seniors, express their ideas through their writing. Creative writing club creates a positive atmosphere that allows all members to be comfortable when sharing their writing. Natalia Fiore and Conor Farkas, seniors, listen to Mr. Pasca's advice on important writing skills. The club continues to strengthen its members as quality writers. Shakira Thompson, sophomore, continues her personal creative writing piece. Conor Farkas and Natalia Fiore, seniors, Elora Camacho and Adriana Idemudia, sophomores, give their full attention as a fellow club member reads her most recent work.

"Success has been made from the family-like atmosphere that makes everyone, whoever you are, feel extremely comfortable to be themselves."
-Akilah Thompson, 12

"quote me"

"This club strengthens you as a writer while also letting you explore things about yourself you never knew."

-Akilah Thompson, 12

"It's a breath of fresh air, a break after a long week. It's laid back, fun, and thought-provoking."

-Natalia Fiore, 12

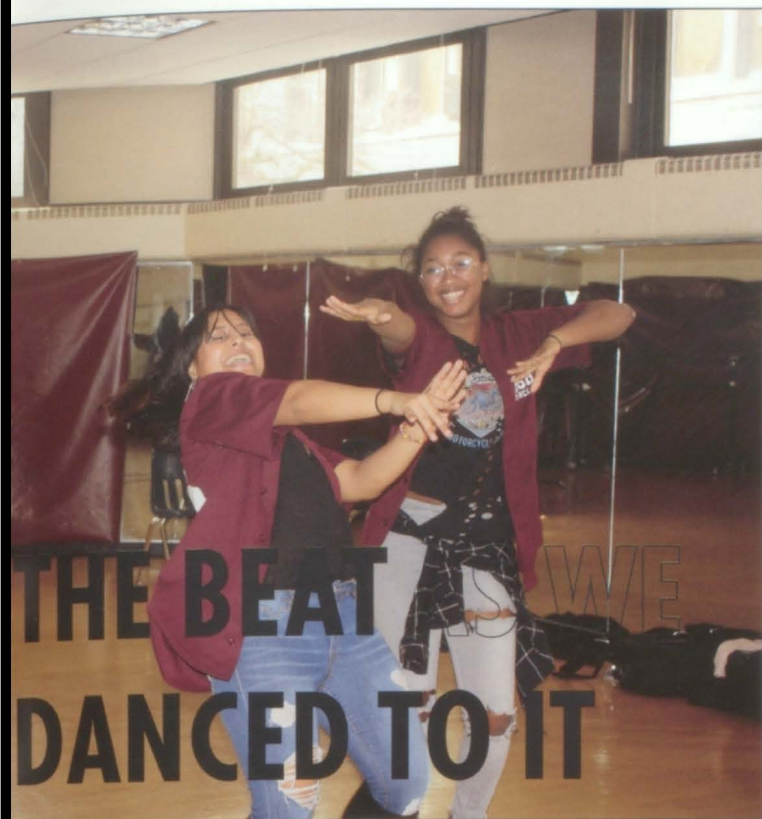

"I finally have a chance to use my voice."

-Mia DeSimone, 9

Seniors: Gabriella Morales, Natalia Fiore, Conor Farkas, Akilah Thompson

Samira Yancha and Autumn Greenwich, juniors, express their dance creativity through a special hip-hop routine. Greenwich has been on the dance team for two years and Yancha for three years. The team finishes its dance in a muscle man pose that creates a defined look. Isabella Surpris and Kayli Maldonado, juniors, warm up by going through their dance routine. In their dance, the team gets into an arrow formation. Surpris and Adaiba Chukwuma, juniors, stand up and move their arms side to side together in sync. The girls must be in sync to form the right formation.

BSHS
DANCE TEAM

"I believe the highlight of our season is being able to work with Joy Norris, Class of 2016 Alumni, for our final dance for the season."
-Autumn Greenidge, 11

"quote me"

"Our teamwork and the determination we have as a team and as friends definitely kept us strong and lead us to success each and every game."

-Autumn Greenidge, 11

"I've been doing dance residencies since sophomore year and I loved every second of it and it pushed me to work harder as a dancer."

-Jomaira Potter, 12

"We have not gone to competitions yet. We have successfully become closer together, work together, and we understand one another."

-Samira Yancha, 11

Seniors: Jomaira Potter. Underclassman: Autumn Greenidge, Isabella Surpris, Adaiba Chukwuma, Keyly Barrios Morales, Kayli Maldonado, Samira Yancha, and Jasmine Flores Garcia

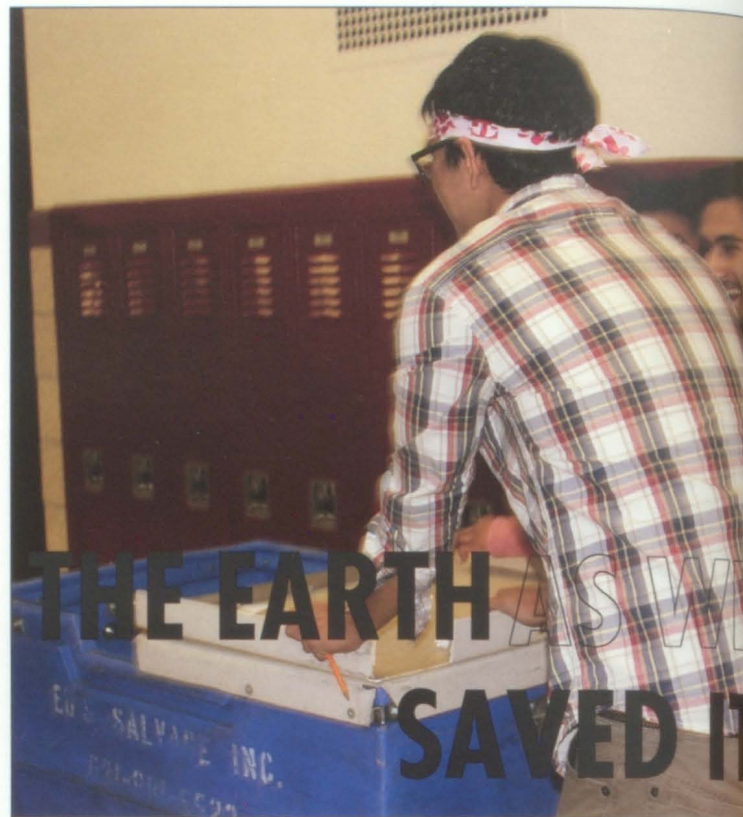

Toushis Azad, senior, rolls the recycle bin and collects the materials that are being recycled.

Azad has been an avid member of the environmental club for four years. Joey Lovegrove, senior, leads the group collecting paper from each classroom. The environmental club can be found in the halls on Fridays after school, collecting recycling materials. Students separate paper, ensuring no other materials are in the bin. Nora Sacco, Emily Blakely, Lexi Berlin, Sarah LaForce, sophomores, and Anna Jao, senior, work together to ensure that all recyclable materials are placed in the proper area. Paper collection has a positive impact on the environment.

"The environmental club makes one realize how much everyone throws away, and how so much more could be recycled in the community."

-Peter Fleischer, 12

"quote me"

"Environmental club has impacted my life in a positive way. I've learned how the smallest things can cause a colossal change in our environment."

-Molly Kumar, 11

"Being an officer in environmental club is really great and rewarding. It's fun to work with everyone in the club and work together to make the environment better."

-Anna Jao, 12

"I think a big part of the environmental club's success comes from motivation from our club members and how we strive to do better."

-Kate Robbins, 12

LEADERS AS WE CREATE THEM

Kayla Dixon, senior and president of FBLA, and Victoria Obasa, senior, converse during a meeting as they discuss the agenda for the day. Dixon has been a member of FBLA for four years and it is her first year with a leadership position in this club. Gionny Yglesia, junior, reads over his questionnaire before he submits it to the club advisor, Ms. Taylor. This is Yglesia's first year in FBLA. Malaika Aman, freshman, and Gul Rukh, junior, diligently work on their interview questionnaire. Daniela Valdez Vargas, junior and head of public relations, completes an interview questionnaire, a task that will be necessary in many jobs in the future. Valdez Vargas has been a devoted member of FBLA for three years.

"We went to many conferences throughout the year in business attire with other FBLA students from different schools to speak and learn about what it takes to run a business."
-Kayla Dixon, 12

"quote me"

"FBLA has given me the tools to public speak, and engage with the audience. Teaching me to work hard for what I want because nothing will be handed to you in the businesses world."

-Kayla Dixon, 12

"As we interact as a club, we are able to develop great ideas that we can use outside of school. We learn from each other and grow as leaders."

-Jordan Norris, 12

"FBLA has shown me how to be a true business person. It has helped me learn how to shape my future. I've learned what and what not to do when applying for a position I want."

-Honyah Dutt, 11

Seniors: Akiash Ashfaq, Kayla Dixon, Dale Lillibridge, Timothy Mackey, Jordan Norris, James Reilly

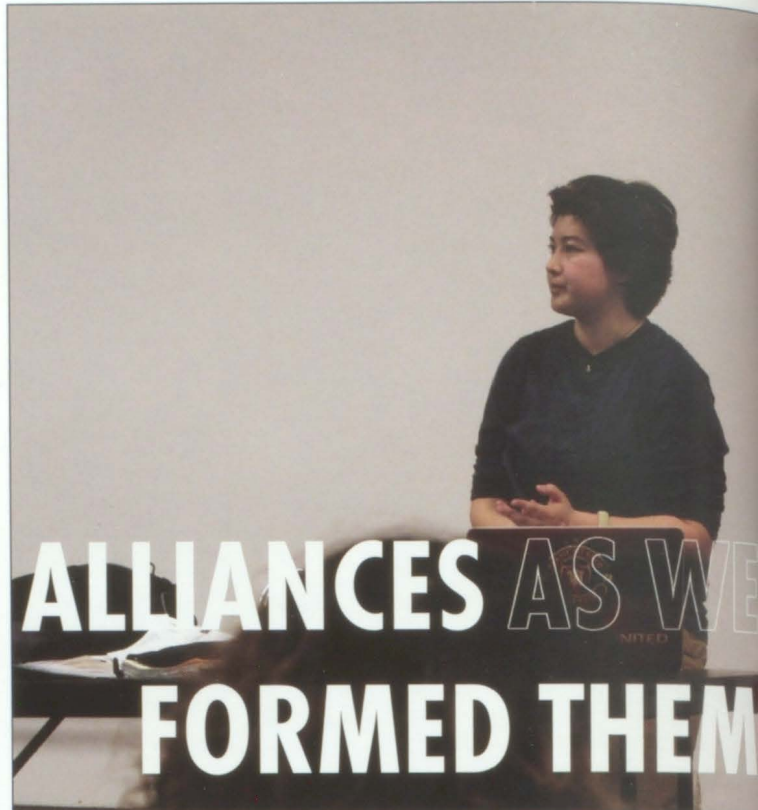

Chase Klein, senior, leads a conversation regarding the Gay-Straight Alliance's upcoming projects. Club advisors Dr. Kelly and Mr.

Niedzwiecki add their input to the conversation. GSA promotes building connections and promoting acceptance of individuals. Catherine Ortiz, junior, contemplates on ideas that could add to the club and their cause. Members direct their attention to Chase Klein as she discusses the club's attempts to create a more welcoming and inclusive environment for students of the LGBTQ + community.

"I feel like we're giving a voice and safe space for those who don't feel that."

-Chase Klein, 12

"quote me"

"It's really rewarding because I feel like I can provide a safe space to a lot of kids. Creating it for the school means a lot to me and it does to other students too."

-Chase Klein, 12

"My favorite part is being able to go to a place to talk to people that are going through things just like me."

-Kiana Ramos, 11

"I became more informed about the LGBT community and more aware of how words and actions can impact the way someone feels about themselves."

-Yarold Bautista-Martinez, 11

Seniors: Chase Klein, Yarold Bautista-Martinez, Kiana Ramos, Crisyeimi Reyes Brens, Christopher Tucciarone, John Gartland, Pamela Abreu

MELODIES AS WE SANG THEM

Jeffrey Turner, sophomore, leads the group in a warm up before they start rehearsal. The Harmonaires group stands around the piano and rehearses for the Ethnic Pen assembly; they want to make sure all of their pieces are close to perfect. The club members decide on what pieces to sing for their concert. They can not wait to get new pieces of music to start singing. Sam Murdock, senior, helps Logan Dowd, junior, through a section of the piece she had some trouble on, while others continue to look over their parts. Dowd wants to make sure she is singing up to par.

"The highlight of Harmonaires is the ability to perform very high level music and have fun doing so. Even though it's hard, we really enjoy what we do and our bonds are really strong, which makes it so fun."
-Sam Murdock, 12

"quote me"

"Harmonaires is like a family because we've all been friends through the years through drama club and other music ensembles, so being together in a smaller group has allowed us all to become so much closer."

-Yaa Owusu, 12

"Harmonaires has lead me to success a lot more than I thought it would because it has taught me how to sight read/sing music much better, which really helped in my auditions for college."

-Robert Marsanico, 12

"My favorite part of Harmonaires is working with experienced singers who want to sing more difficult pieces."

-Reece DeGraff, 12

Seniors: Salvatore Cusano, Reece DeGraff, Lily Erb, Robert Marsanico, Samuel Murdock, Yaa Owusu

Ryan Brewer, sophomore, and Elyssa Levitt, junior, harmonize on the saxophone during rehearsal. Chris Tucciarone, junior, strums his bass guitar as he listens to trombone player Peter Roy, senior, in order to maintain the tempo of the piece. Roy has been an active member of Hip Katz and several other clubs throughout his high school career. Jordan Zalewski, senior, sets up the music and keyboard for the Hip Katz Thursday night rehearsal. Zalewski puts time and effort into making her last year a part of this club her most memorable. Percussionist Jeremy Burd, sophomore, sets the tempo for one of the Hip Katz many pieces. Burd enjoys expanding his knowledge of music in Hip Katz club.

"The highlight of this year was our first concert. We played fun songs and even had Sam Murdock sing along to one of our songs."
-Anna Jao, 12

"quote me"

"I'm looking to broaden my music abilities and broaden the styles of music I am able to play."

-Mary Keach, 12

"It has pushed me to play new music that I normally don't play."

-Anna Jao, 12

"Hip Katz got me prepared for a more professional music environment."

-Peter Roy, 12

Seniors: Grant Dollmann, Patrick Funk, Anna Jao, Mary Keach, Samuel Murdock, Yaa Owusu, Dallas Pigate, Peter Roy, Kenneth Rubio, and Jordan Zalewski

SERVICE AS WE PROVIDED IT

Lucas LaGiglia, sophomore, works on decorating wreaths to hang up on main street during the holiday season. The Interact club holds the wreath decorating event every year. Abby Baker, sophomore, and friends help each other in assembling the wreaths into an organized manner. Baker continues to work hard at every Interact event she attends. Leah Healy and Kailey Meyer, juniors, sit down and work on making sure the christmas wreaths look their best before being displayed. Demario Hill, junior, puts on his gloves to carry the holiday wreaths. Hill frequently participates in interact club and helping out his community.

"My favorite part about being in Interact was being able to get to know new people while volunteering together."
-Lamiya Mesbahuddin, 12

"quote me"

"Interact has led me to success by allowing me to learn a lot of skills, such as leadership, communication, public speaking, and teamwork."

-Kesi Rose Sobtejou 12

"I feel as if other members who are underclassmen look up to the seniors as role models and guides who can help them through each step of Interact."

-Rameema Rahman, 12

"After being in Interact for four years of high school, I've come to realize how fulfilling it is to be in a community service club."

-Sarah Hickey, 12

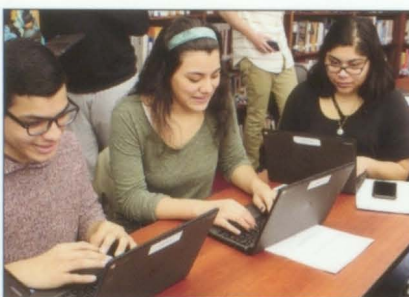

Seniors: Justin Cajamarca, Karen Garcia, Asia Gray-Edwards, Sarah Hickey, Sharika Hoque, Lamiya Mesbahuddin, Rahman Rameema, Kesi Rose Sobtejou

"One of my favorite moments of IB was being able to go to Denmark where I got to meet new people and experience a different culture and see a whole new style of learning."
-Judy Burkle, 12

Eric Fuentes, Muqsiteen Aleema, and Jenny Tran, seniors, enjoy the great food spread at the IB Alumni breakfast. The IB breakfast is an exciting annual event for the present and past IB members. Sofia Flores, Eric Fuentes, and Gabriela Rivera, seniors, sit in the library to submit their extended essays. IB extended essays will be published and placed in the school library for future students to read. The junior IB diploma candidates work on the character worksheet given by Mr. Nelson. The worksheet was used to get the students' views on what true character is. Mr. Nelson speaks to the graduating class of IB diploma students about what will happen once they turn in their extended essays. This is one of the big steps in becoming an IB diploma graduate.

"quote me"

"IB has prepared me to write college length papers and establish cooperative relationships with my teachers and to create better time management skills."

-Judy Burkle, 12

"IB is a great way to introduce the idea of other cultures and perspectives to young students like us, as it will greatly benefit us in our adult lives."

-Dan Hassel, 12

"Being in the IB diploma program has led me to success because I am now able to become more open minded on every single opinion that someone makes."

-Jenny Tran, 12

IB Diploma Seniors: Imo Aghomon, Muqsiteen Aleema, Lorenzo Aris, Paola Benitez, Alex Betz, Derek Brown, Veronika Bryson, Judy Burkle, Rudy Caligore, Joe Canale, Shannon Dieumegard, Lily Erb, Sophia Flores, Stephen Foutz, Eric Fuentes, Patrick Funk, Daniel Hassel, Katie Heller, Asif Khan, Juliette Kimmins, Mike Klopsis

Molly Roy and Jessica Puleo, freshmen, both play the bass clarinet in jazz band. Roy and Puleo are also in symphonic band with Ms. Malpigli. Max Mayott, sophomore, Jayden Shepard, junior, and Jacob Sperling, sophomore, play while conducted by Ms. Malpigli during Monday night practice. Mayott, Shepard, and Sperling enjoy playing an instrument which is why they participate in jazz band Monday nights. Hayley Thompson, junior, reads the music and concentrates during rehearsal. The Jazz band has a strong flute section led by Hayley Thompson, junior. Spencer Asotsky, freshman, plays the drum kit and holds a steady beat throughout the song. Asotsky is a talented drummer and a great asset to the group.

"I enjoyed playing great jazz music with some of my friends."
-Matt Bobby, 11

"quote me"

"It's really fun and a good group of people to be around and I enjoy going."

-Sydney Furno, 11

"I hope to take all the lessons I've learned in Jazz Band like dedication and persistence and apply it to my career as well as my life."

-Corelis Abreu, 11

"It got me more out of my shell. I went from being the support in the band to playing solos every now and then, and even improvising them."

-Carl Mompremier, 12

Seniors: Michael Ampofo, Carl Mompremier, Isaac Sosa, Dan Taylor

Kevin Bonilla Reyes, sophomore, talks to John Chin Ramirez, junior, about some of the similarities and differences between their beliefs. Bonilla Reyes talks to his peers about what they are reading. Rayhanna De Jesus Alvarez, sophomore, asks Bonilla Reyes a question about the scripture. Nilton Castaneda Vigo, sophomore, John Chin Ramirez, junior, and Rayhanna De Jesus Alvarez, sophomore, vote on what they are going to do during their meeting. The group decided to read a few scriptures from their online bibles.

"The highlight of journey for me is that I found kind of a family in the group, in which I can share my beliefs and increase my faith."
-Rayhanna De Jesus Alvarez, 10

"quote me"

"My favorite part about journey is how we can all learn something new about another's beliefs."

-Kevin Bonilla Reyes, 10

"I like going to journey because I can be myself."

-Nilton Castaneda Vigo, 10

"We depend on one another and we know that everything we say and do for one another is to build each other up for success."

-Alferado Gonzalez, 10

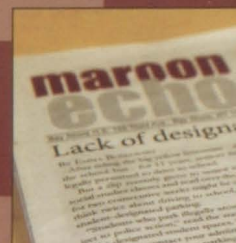

Underclassmen: John Chin Ramirez, Kevin Bonilla Reyes, Nilton Castaneda Vigo, Rayhanna De Jesus Alvarez, Alferado Gonzalez

ARTICLES AS WE WROTE THEM

Diana Reyes, junior, shows Dan O'Donovan, senior, and Miranda Askey, sophomore, how to cover the history of the movie Black Panther in a news video. Reyes explained what clips should be used and how to create a movie. Camryn Garrett, senior, works with Asar John, senior, and Rafena Khan, sophomore, on video clips for their news segment. Ava Coppola, junior, interviews Leslie Lojan, sophomore, for their news coverage about the new movie Black Panther. Elodia Castillo Gonzalez, senior, types up an article. Gonzalez diligently works every day first period.

"The Maroon Echo has won best paper for ten years in a row. Mr. Fishon has won best journalism teacher for nine years in a row."
-Ava Coppola, 11

"quote me"

"Being part of the paper has changed my experience because I had a place to share my ideas and have other people read my work."

-Camryn Garret, 12

"A lot of hard work and never giving up is what led to my 'success'. I've won multiple awards at Hofstra University due to trying hard."

-Diana Reyes, 11

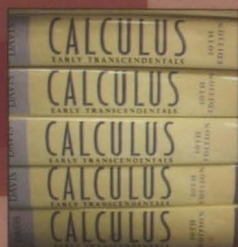

"After joining I soon realized, that journalism is an eye opening experience that I was fortunate to have."

-Kaitli Morocho, 11

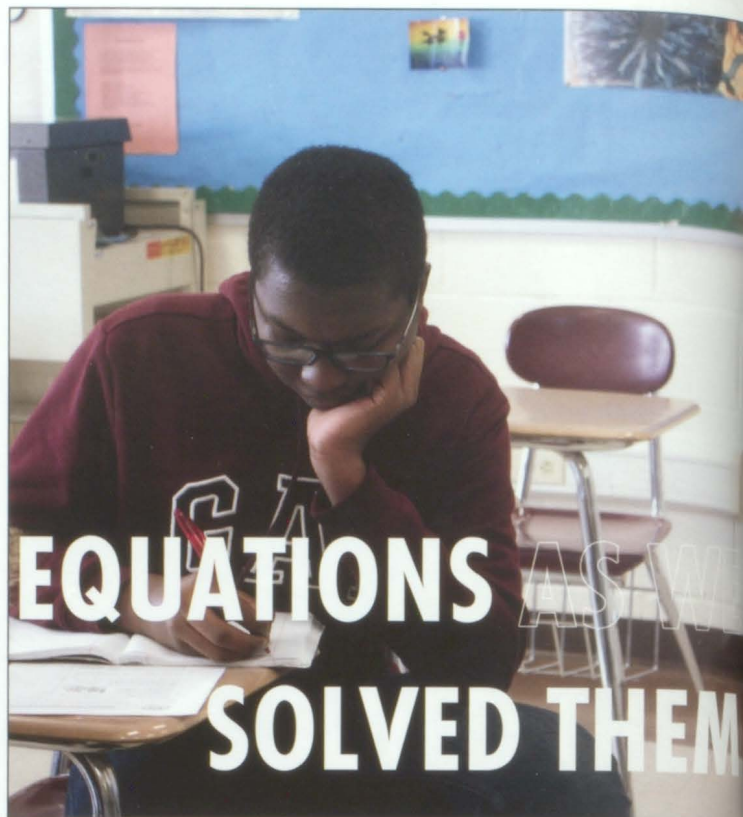

Seniors: Elodia Castillo Gonzalez, Anthony James, Daniel O'Donovan, Matthew Mirabito, Asar John, Camryn Garrett, John Buser

"The math team uses everyone's strengths to eliminate any weakness that a person could have. In the end, this makes everyone closer and stronger."

-Joe Canale, 12

Demario Hill, junior, diligently works on a problem to prepare for a meet. Hill is an avid member of the math team. Tongyu Guo and Sam Murdock, seniors, work together to practice problems for an upcoming competition. Guo is the captain of the math team this year. Yaa Owusu, senior, receives help from team advisor, Mrs. Bosley, on a difficult problem. Sahail Jaffary, senior, and D'Aliyah Hill, junior, collaborate in an effort to practice their skills with team work. At the first meet, the math team received the highest score in the competition.

"quote me"

"Being a part of the math team has its challenges, but overall working with everyone to accomplish even the hardest problems has been a great reward."

-Tongyu Guo, 12

"This club requires fast critical thinking as well as being able to interpret math problems and perform math well."

-Joe Canale, 12

"Our team has been led to success by our teachers. Mrs. Bosley and Mrs. Mauri, as well as the whole math faculty at the high school, are great teachers who make sure we are prepared for competitions."

-Kevin Shourada, 11

Seniors: Tongyu Guo, Toushis Azad, Samuel Murdock, Andrew Chen, Sahail Jaffary, Vineet Malhotra, Jesse Cruz, Joe Canale, Grant Dollmann, Peter Brown, Yaa Owusu

CASES AS WE WON THEM

Aimee Quinlan, senior, Kya Primm and Tania Cortes Alfonso, juniors, work together on their court case. They are ranked first overall in Suffolk county, along side having an undefeated season from last year. Gianna Greco, senior, plays the role of the witness to practice for a case, providing key evidence that will help the team win their case. Jaden Calderon, freshman, takes role as the judge, ultimately making the grand decision whether the team will win their case. Juan Torres, junior, takes role in interrogation on the witness.

"The mock trial team's success could only be attributed to the way that the team works together. Our consistent efforts allowed the team to lead an undefeated season, ranking first in Suffolk county."
- Kya Primm, 11

"quote me"

"We meet every day for 3 hours and the bonding that takes place in the court room is unparalleled."

-Kya Primm, 11

"We were able to advance to the playoffs despite all of the obstacles that stood in our way."

-Juan Torres, 11

"It taught me a lot about team work and deadlines and organization, which are all things I think a person should learn."

-Gianna Greco, 12

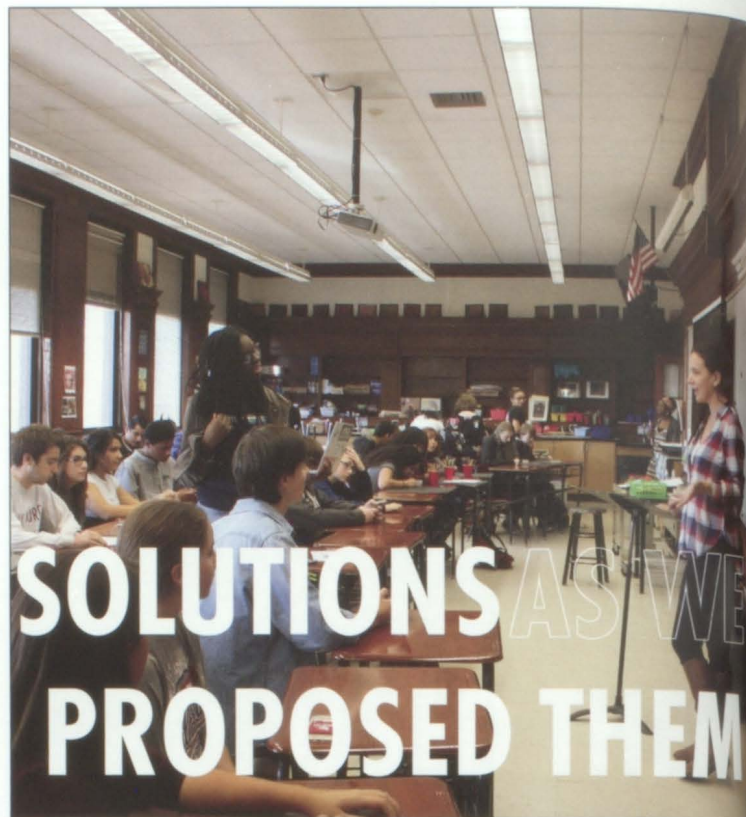

Seniors: Aimee Quinlan, Michael Klopsis, Juliette Kimmins, Gianna Greco, Husbaan Sheikh

"The highlight of being in this club was improving my public speaking skills greatly and being more confident talking to people overall."
-Gianna Greco, 12

Yaa Owusu, senior, inputs ideas and advice to the team to lead them to victory in an upcoming conference. The Model UN team smiles as they had a successful conference. Jayden Shepard, junior, practices his public speaking so he is prepared for the conference. Gianna Greco, senior, excitedly raises her hand to get first pick on what country she would like to represent at the city conference. Each student is in charge of doing their own research and analysis to know exactly what issues and policies their countries have.

"quote me"

"Model UN has led me to success because it has improved my public speaking, confidence, and my ability to work well with others."

-Yaa Owusu, 12

"Model UN has influenced me in my life because it has forced me to look at different viewpoints and to learn about them instead of making assumptions."

-Aimee Quinlan, 12

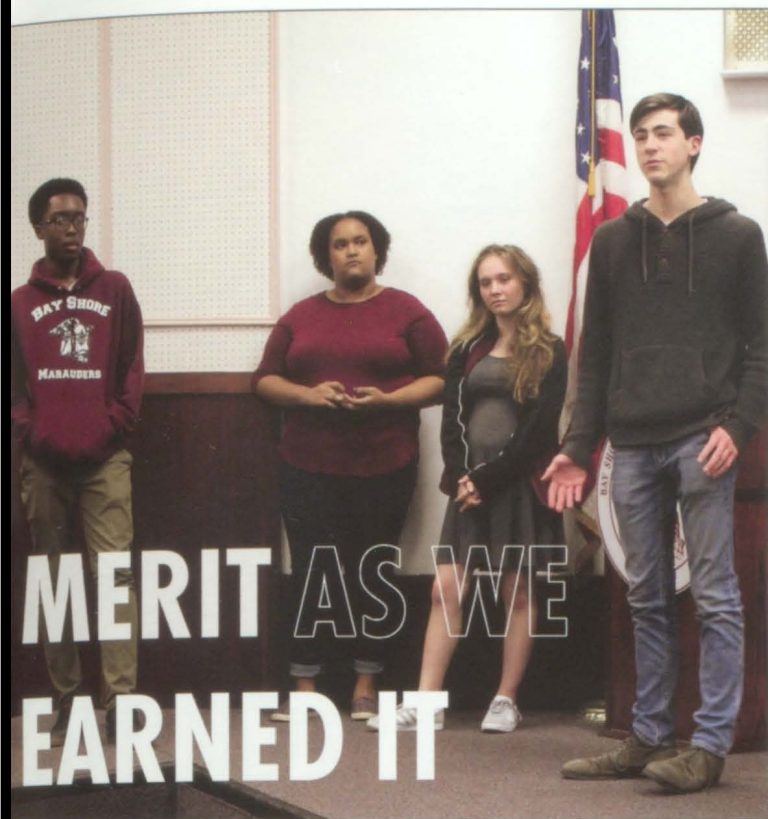

"Model UN has definitely improved my organization, leadership, and public speaking skills. I've been able to apply these skills in almost every area."

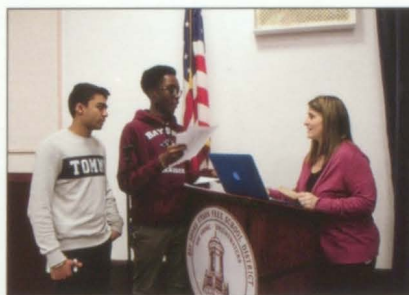

-Juliette Kimmins, 12

Seniors: Gianna Greco, Juliette Kimmins, Michael Klopsis, Sam Murdock, Yaa Owusu, Aimee Quinlan

Michael Ampofo, Veronika Bryson, Aimee Quinlan, and Sam Murdock, seniors, lead the National Honor Society monthly meeting as they inform members of the causes the club will be supporting in the upcoming months. Vineet Malhotra and Michael Ampofo, seniors, discuss with advisor Ms. Plett ways to involve the club with causes that are important to the school. Murdock, Bryson, Quinlan, and Ampofo, senior officers, discuss ways to evolve and improve the club. Elyssa Levitt, junior, and Lamiya Mesbahuddin, senior, create posters to hang up around the school for Autism Awareness month.

"My favorite part of National Honor Society was being able to help other students by tutoring them."
-Karen Garcia, 12

"quote me"

"I ran for President of NHS because I saw needs in our school and community that could be aided by the Honor Society."

-Sam Murdock, 12

"NHS has led to my success by allowing me to be part of a community of students who are focused on their work and future."

-Lamiya Mesbahuddin, 12

"As the vice President, I'm learning how to work in a group as well as how to speak to a large group of people when we have our meetings."

-Veronika Bryson, 12

Seniors: Michael Ampofo, Alyssa Barrezeueta, Peter Brown, Veronika Bryson, Andrew Chen, Francesca Caramella, Klan Dixon, Eric Fuentes, Ny'Ajah Fuentes, Karen Garcia, Asia Grey, Sahail Jaffary, Ana Jao, Juliette Kimmins, Samiha Khan, Alex Levy, Tim Mackey, Lamiya Mesbahuddin, Sam Murdock, Victoria Obasa, Aimee Quinlan, Tannya Singh, Akilah Thompson

Dr. Kelly, advisor, introduces herself at the first after school meeting for peer support. Members of the club listen on as she explains what the club is and how the meetings are run. Alfredo Chapman and Justin Cajamarca, seniors, participate in the annual Peer Support Car Wash at Fifth Avenue school. The proceeds raised from this event are used to fund other events throughout the year such as: Awareness Weekend, the Leadership Retreat, and Freshman Transition Day. Members of peer support gather in the main lobby to participate in a group activity. They are practicing in real-life scenarios they would face as members of the club. Peer Supporters listen attentively to the announcements of upcoming events. Peer supporters volunteer in various kinds of community service in and outside of school.

"Peer Support allows you to easily meet new people. It's a place where you're pushed out of your comfort zone and, as Dr. Kelly says, "find your voice."
-Chelsea Vigil, 12

"quote me"

"Peer Support has led me to success by helping me establish better communication skills, being more outgoing, and being able to help those in need of guidance."

-Justin Cajamarca, 12

"In meetings we have discussions about current events, important topics/epidemics, as well as things going on in our school and our community."

-Emily Fogarty, 12

"Peer Support has changed the way I view myself and others, making me more comfortable helping others. It's gratifying to know that I have an impact on someone's life and this club has given me this opportunity."

-Francesca Ciaramella, 12

Seniors: Chelsea Vigil, Gabby Traise, Hailey Niles, Jazmine Fraser, James Lessing, Chase Klein, Emily Fogarty, Sade Atewogboye, Natalie Montoya, Mary Claire Keach, Victoria Obasa, Gianna Geraci, Stephen Foutz, Cydney Wolff, Francesca Ciaramella, Julianne Anderson, Izzy Knapp, Justin Cajamarca, Alfredo Chapman, Gio Chapman, Carlos Espinal, Joe Corrado, Dean Mallin, Richie Fouvell, Amelia Ram, Alyssa Simeon, Ashleigh Parsons, Kesi Sobiejou, Asia Gray, Colleen Duddy, Izzy Estevez, Jordan Norris, Kesi Rose, Sarah Felix, Sarah Gray, Sharika Hoque, Stephen Foutz, Alex Betz, Yaa Owusu, Maggie Barbiero

MUSIC AS WE PERFORMED IT

Kyle Walker, sophomore, tunes his french horn before the last night dress rehearsal. Walker is a dedicated pit member. Dean Malina, senior, and Spencer Asofsky, freshman, concentrate on their parts to practice for the show. Malina and Asofsky make up a big part of the rhythm section and help keep the pit on tempo. Alexa Santos and Robert Marsanico, seniors, practice their rhythms to perfect them for the show. Santos and Marsanico enjoy pit tremendously and have been doing it since freshman year. Ian Luquer, junior, looks over his parts in the music before rehearsal. The string instruments play a vital role in the music for the show Evita this year.

"My favorite part of pit was being around all my friends and playing great sounding music for the show"
-Dean Malina, 12

"quote me"

"My favorite part of pit has to be the first time we run the music and the last show to see how far we've come as a group."

Robert Marsanico, 12

"Pit has been most helpful in my people skills. I made so many friends and got out of my comfort zone, making it easier to take these skills in other parts of my life."

Patrick Funk, 12

"I lead the underclassmen by helping them out with the music if they have any questions."

Yaa Owusu, 12

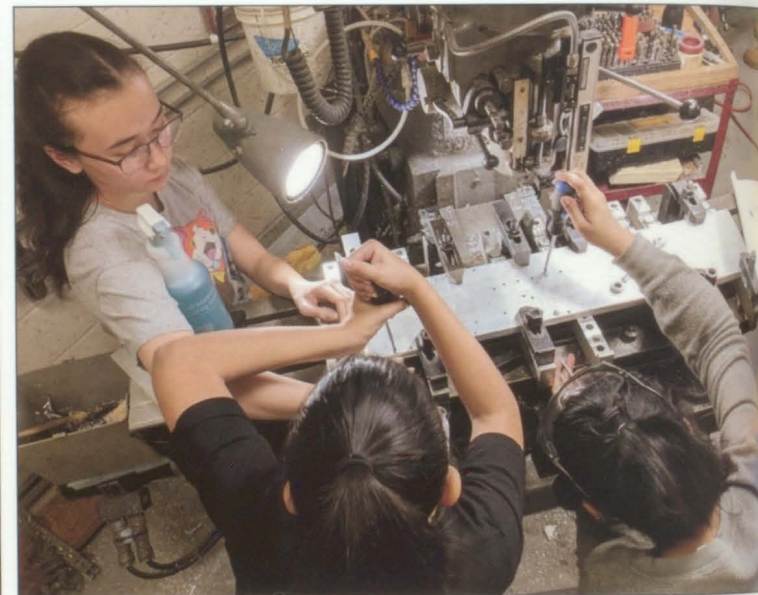

Seniors: Payton Calloway, Patrick Funk, Chase Klein, Dean Malina, Robert Marsanico, Yaa Owusu, Dallas Pigate, Peter Roy, Alexa Santos

"The main focus is to encourage and inspire our students to pursue an interest in the Math, Science, and Technology of the world."
-Bay Shore Marauders Robotics Team

Diana Reyes, junior and team captain, finishes final touches on the team's robot. Reyes continues to show her team how to fix the robot for future competitions. This is an important step for the team; teaching all participants how to build is a factor as to why the team wins and works so well. The team gathers up for a lesson on how to build and use the proper machinery. Reyes helps instruct teammates on how to build. The team's goal was not only to grow and win, but they also do community work including: clothing drive, monitoring younger schools, and volunteering at soup kitchens.

"quote me"

"What's led our team to success has been us not giving up; we have a ton of issues every single year and we've learned to sit back and face our problems, think of solutions, and work together."

-Diana Reyes, 11

"Teaching the new members what machinery we use and how to build something in particular is important to us, and that's why we succeed."

-Jorge Maita, 10

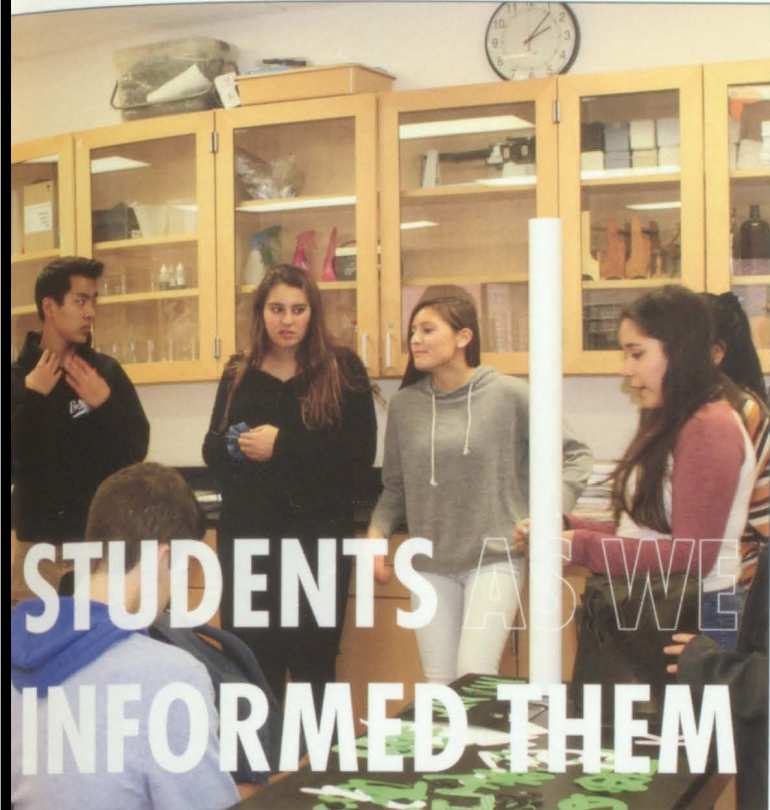

"Personally I have become a better machinist. Now I do not have to have someone watching over me, I can make something by myself."

-Joe Darcy, 10

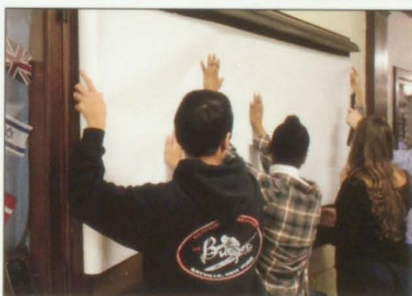

Captains: Diana Reyes, Jorge Maita, Joe Darcy

STUDENTS AS WE INFORMED THEM

James Lessing, Alex Levy, seniors, and Gabrielle Levy, junior, brainstorm ideas to create a game to raise money for charities. Joseph Lovegrove and Gina Veliz, seniors, organize letters to make a poster for one of their upcoming projects. Asia Gray-Edwards and Jay Lessing, seniors, and Gabrielle Levy, junior, hang up a poster for National Prevention Month to make other students aware of drinking and driving. Jonathan Vasquez, Gina Veliz, and Liliana Molina, seniors, work on separating letters to create the billboard for National Prevention Month.

"I know now the consequences of the decisions I will make and SADD makes me want to work harder to let more people know about how drinking and driving, drugs, and other issues can affect someone's life."
-Samiha Khan, 12

"quote me"

"Being in SADD impacted my life because it gave me an opportunity to have a voice to be able to talk about very serious problems we face in this country."

-Joseph Lovegrove, 12

"SADD impacts what I do in my life as it affects how I make decisions in my life."

-Samiha Khan, 12

"SADD helped me be more aware of the damages and made me more concerned about people's lives at risk due to driving under the influence"

-Jonathan Vasquez, 12

Seniors: Gina Veliz Calderon, Dalton Cozzetti, Jazmine Fraser, Karen Garcia, Juliette Kimmins, Bazja King, James Lessing, Alexandra Levy, Lamiya Mesbahuddin, Liliana Molina, Timothy Roberts, Joshua Sanchez
Underclassmen: Kimberly Moracho, Michael Winiawski

Derek Brown, senior team captain, works diligently so he can excel at his specific event in the competition. Brown has received second place in the category parasitology at one of his competitions. Jenny Tran, senior team captain, talks to her teammates and motivates them to do well in their events. Tran won 10th place in the event Microbe Mission in her meets. The other events Tran also participated in were ecology, and mission possible. At the end of the season, the seniors show off the t-shirts the underclass members give to them as a gift. Perry Balsamo, sophomore captain, converses with his teammates and motivates them to excel in their events. Balsamo participated in the events, forensics, hover, and chemistry lab and placed fourth place in his forensics event this season.

"The highlight of Science Olympiads is learning new things and becoming closer with others on the team."
-Toushis Azad, 12

"quote me"

"Everyone on the team relies on each other, and with all of the cooperation and teamwork that everyone has shown towards each other, I feel that the whole team has worked together really well towards the goals as a whole."

- Jenny Tran, 12

"I think Science Olympiads has helped me develop independent research and organizational skills. While we meet after school, to succeed you also have to put in the time at home."

-Derek Brown, 12

"Science Olympiads was such a positive working environment. We never worked against each other, we always worked with each other. With that mind set and attitude, people can accomplish a lot of things."

-Gianna Greco, 12

Seniors: Toushis Azad, Derek Brown, Peter Brown, Veronika Bryson, Andrew Chen, Conor Farkas, Gianna Greco, Sahail Jaffary, Juliette Kimmins, Vineet Malhotra, Abigail Pizarro, Aimee Quinlan, Tannya Singh, Jenny Tran, Dakota Whitaker

SONGS AS WE PERFORMED THEM

Reece DeGraff, senior, leads the group with his powerful vocals into a great harmony during rehearsal. All members gather around the piano to begin vocal warm ups before they start rehearsal. Showstoppers warm up for ten minutes in the beginning of rehearsal making sure they can hit all the high notes. Kareem Hyman and Kyanie Louis, juniors, practice the partner dance portion for one of their performance numbers. Logan Dowd, junior, Robert Marsanico and Kathryn Elmendorf, seniors, are in formation for one of their dance numbers for their winter performance.

"The highlight of this year was singing Christmas carols at Brightwaters's tree lighting."
Yaa Owusu, 12

"quote me"

"As we learned how to work with others... showstopper has led me to success."
Robert Marsanico, 12

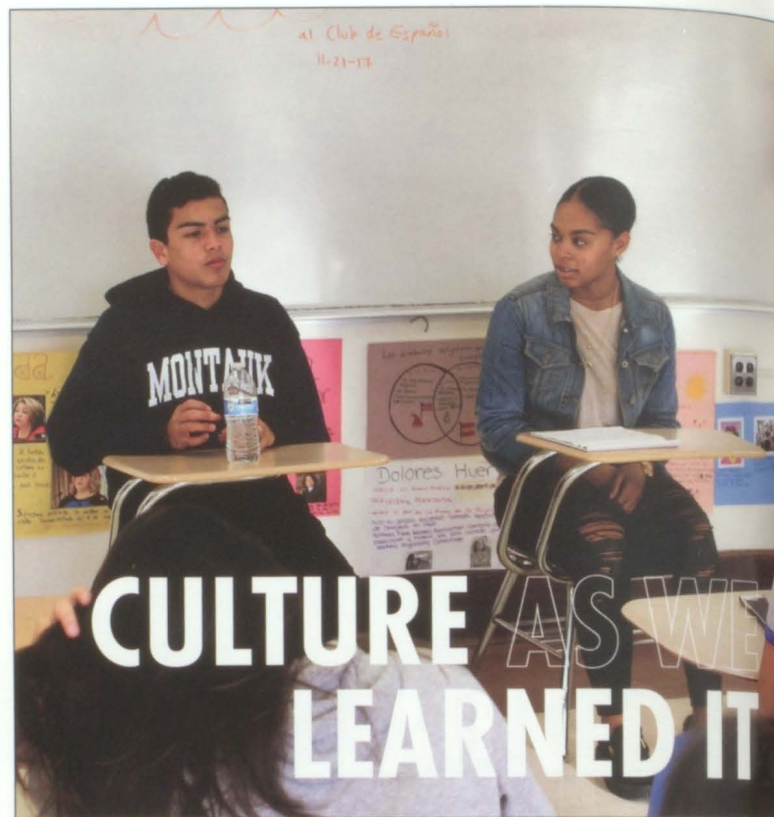

"From being a part of this group, I hope to do musical theater in college."
-Reese Degraff, 12

"I am looking to take away a greater appreciation and understanding of music."
-Yaa Owusu, 12

Seniors: Reece DeGraff, Lily Erb, Aida Gonzalez, Sabrina Heron, Mary Keach, Robert Marsanico, Samuel Murdock, Yaa Owusu

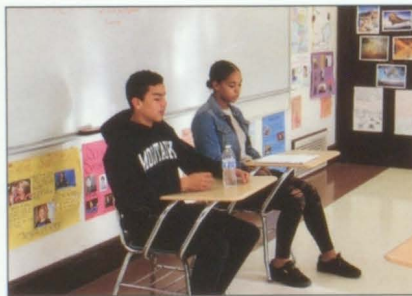

CULTURE AS WE LEARNED IT

Anthony Morales, sophomore, and Daniela Diaz, junior, teach the club different cultures in many spanish-speaking countries. Anthony Morales, sophomore, informs the members about upcoming events for the club. Merelyn Mercedes Caro and Naomi Davis, sophomores, talk about misconceptions of stereotypes in hispanic countries. Students get into groups to discuss and learn more about hispanic countries.

"The Spanish Club helps me become aware of the other Hispanic cultures that are different or very similar to mine."
-Daniela Diaz, 11

"quote me"

"The Spanish club has helped me learn more about different Hispanic countries than I never knew before. It has also made me aware of how unique each country is and how we should respect other cultures."

- John Duran, 12

"This club has helped me improve my Spanish, both in school and at my house."

- Gina Veliz, 12

"This club is a very innovative way to practice Spanish and to share cultural aspects."

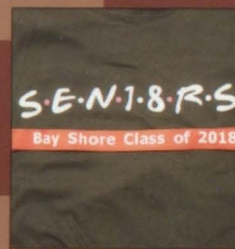

- Daniela Diaz, 11

Underclassmen: Rayhanna De Jesus Alvarez, Paola Benitez, Gina Veliz Calderon, Merelyn Mercedes Caro, Daniela Diaz, Katerin Argueta Diaz, Naomi Davis, John Duran, Ny'Ahjah Fuentes, Aurieliz Hernandez, Sarah Klueber, Lesly Marquez, Anthony Morales, Carlos Bravo Pastrano, Cassandra Perla, Gabriela Rivera, Odalis Toledo Ruiz, Gabriela Rivera, Daniel Matute Tuba, Michelle Matute Tuba

STUDENTS AS WE COUNSELED IT

Students engage themselves in the conversation about important school activities including: homecoming, pep rally, and school fundraisers. Derek Brown, Jordan Norris, Victoria Obasa and Jack Pirkel, senior class officers, oversee the conversation about senior events such as banquet and prom. With the assistance of class advisor Ms. Side, they manage all the details to ensure the senior class has successful events. Club members direct their attention to class advisors as they offer suggestions and advice toward bettering the students' organization and execution of plans. Alfredo Chapman, Justin Cajamarca, and Sharika Hoque, student council officers, lead the discussion of upcoming student activities. As officers, they hold the responsibility to oversee the progress and tasks of each grade to make the student body work overall.

"Being in Student Council taught me how to be a leader and a role model."
- Sharika Hoque, 12

"quote me"

"My favorite part of Student Council is knowing I have a voice in what happens in our school. The teachers and principal allow us to be a part in the activities we participate in and make decisions for our class."

- Hailey Niles, 12

"I love the sense of community it adds to our student body as we come together and create floats or plan events. Seeing the things we work so hard for work out and have people enjoy prom and banquet is so fulfilling."

- Francesca Ciaramella, 12

"It's a humbling feeling knowing that the four years I've participated in Student Council, I've created some sort of change, whether big or small. I know I've left an impact on the school."

- Justin Cajamarca, 12

Student Council Officers: Alfredo Chapman, Justin Cajamarca, Sharika Hoque, Kayla Dixon. Senior Class Officers: Derek Brown, Jordan Norris, Victoria Obasa, Jack Pirkel

Robert Marsanico, senior and co-president, facilitates the club meeting. Pamela Abreu and Lizette Andrade, juniors, show their musical abilities to the club members as they play their viola and violin for everyone to hear. Alexa Santos, senior, performs a brief piece to show the underclass members what she has been working on. Molly Kumar, junior, plays the xylophone as the group gets ready for the meeting to begin.

MUSIC AS WE MASTERED IT

"My favorite part of Tri-M is the performances we do for each other because we're able to feel love and support as well as showcase our musical abilities with our fellow musicians."

-Mary Keach, 12

"quote me"

"Tri-M has allowed be to be a better leader and to be more patient when it comes to learning more difficult music."

-Robert Marsanico, 12

"Whether it be supporting students from the middle school to performing at local nursing homes, it gives music kids a way to jumpstart into a future pursuing music."

-Chase Klein, 12

"Tri-M has made me more comfortable performing in front of people, which has led me to greater success as a musician."

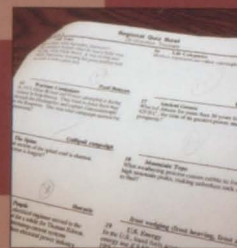

-Leah Healy, 11

Seniors: Colleen Duddy, Kathryn Elmendorf, Mary Keach, Sofia Flores, Chase Klein, Robert Marsanico, Sam Murdock, Yaa Owusu, Dallas Pigate, Peter Roy, Alexa Santos, Jordan Zalewski

TRIVIA AS WE STUDIED IT

The trivia team practices for their next competition at Copiague High School. Lorenzo Aris, Toushis Azad, and Jesse Cruz, seniors, discuss topics relative to their upcoming meet. Mr. Sullivan asks a difficult question and the team members discuss all the aspects of the topic. Kevin Souhrada, junior, makes a comment to Mr. Sullivan about the trivia topic. Souhrada confers with Lorenzo Aris, senior, about the validity of trivia fact. Mr. Sullivan quizzes the Trivia team students on some topics that he thinks might come up at the next meet.

"Winning our first four matches in a row by a large margin was definitely the highlight of trivia team thus far."
-Toushis Azad, 12

"quote me"

"Trivia Team has led me to success by giving me more confidence in answering questions."

-Jesse Cruz, 12

"Trivia Team is much like a family because of how close we are and what we do. We all help each other out and we are pretty good friends. It's a really relaxed and welcoming environment and we always have a ton of fun."

-Lorenzo Aris, 12

"Trivia team has helped me collaborate with others to succeed."

-Trevor Polk, 11

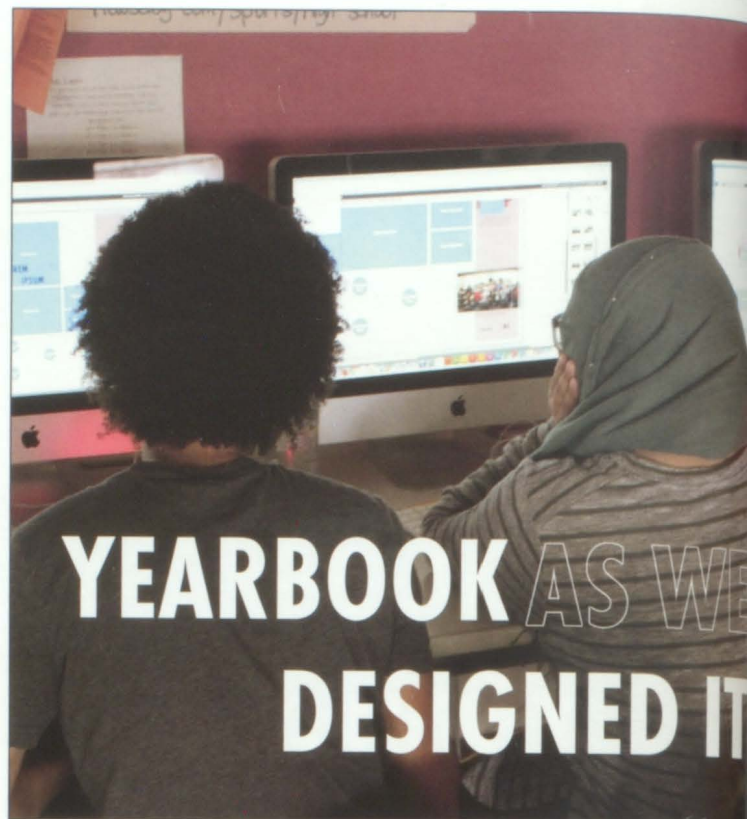

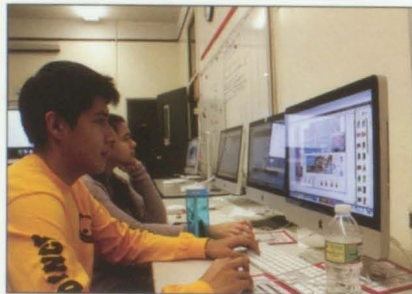

Seniors: Lorenzo Aris, Toushis Azad, Jesse Cruz, Timothy Mackey

Ketsia Olsen and Samiha Khan, seniors, begin to work on the club pages for which they were assigned. Each staff member was assigned a number of clubs and was tasked with following the club throughout the year. Grace PirkI and Jordan Norris, senior editors, organize the final pages of the Marauder yearbook with photos taken throughout the year. Justin Cajamarca and Francesca Ciaramella, seniors, collaborate on the faculty and staff section of the yearbook. Sarah Hickey, senior editor, contributes to the overall success of the yearbook by managing and editing all parts of the book.

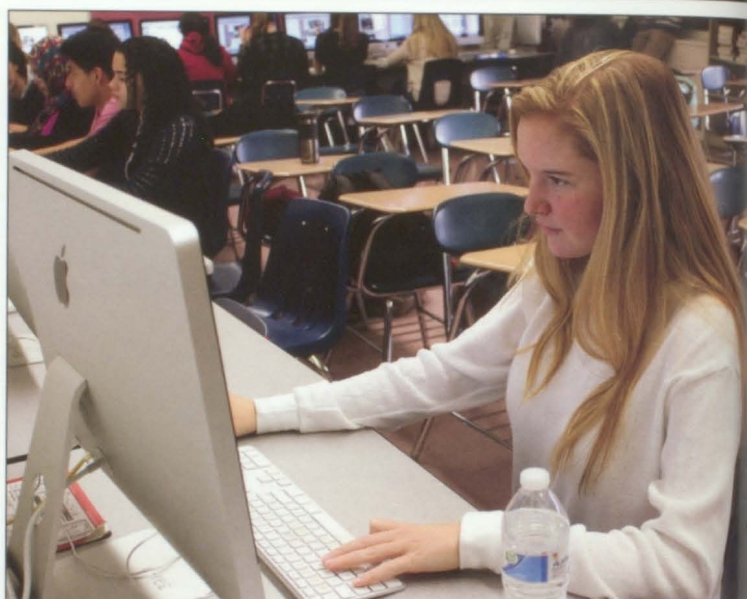

"We've collected Bay Shore High School's yearbooks that date back as far as 1927."

-Jordan Norris, 12

YEARBOOK AS WE DESIGNED IT

"quote me"

"Yearbook gives me the opportunity to see new perspectives of our students and community."

-Sarah Hickey, 12

"My favorite part about yearbook is being able to design something that friends and peers will take with them forever and look back at their high school years."

-Grace PirkI, 12

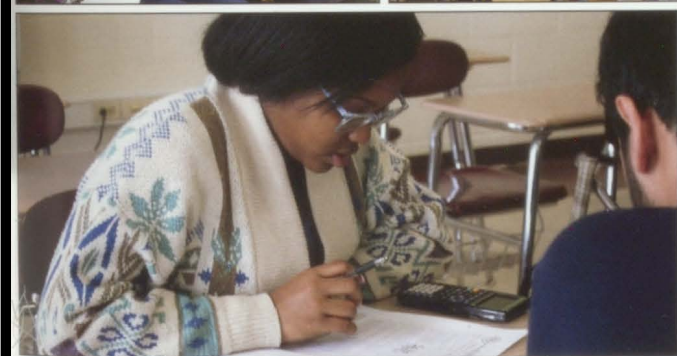

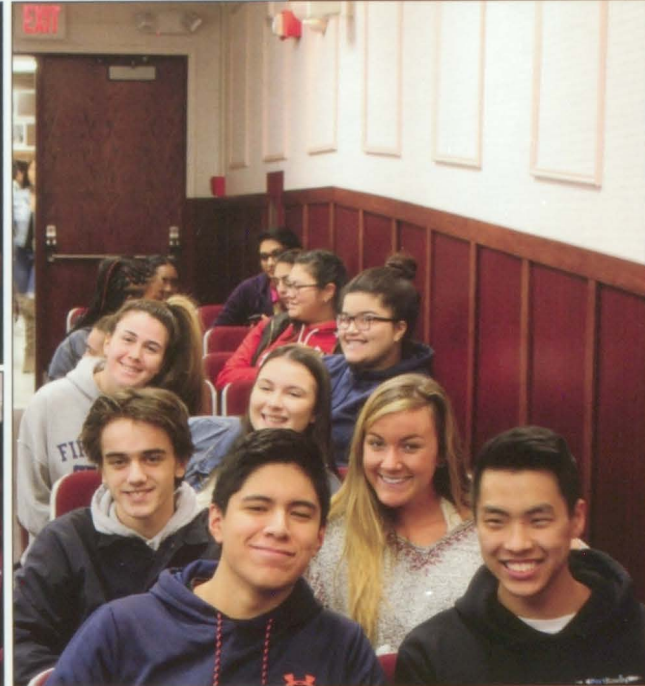

"As we all add countless amounts of photos into the yearbook pages, we are essentially telling a story about all our teachers and fellow students."

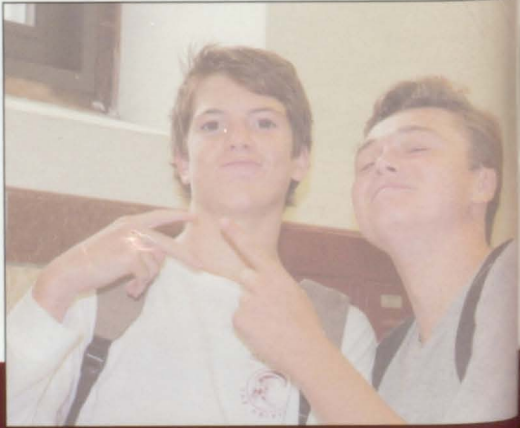

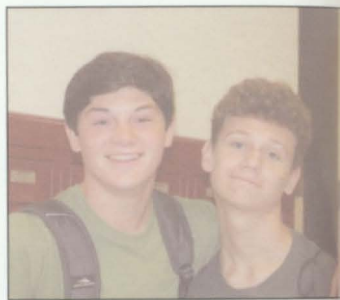

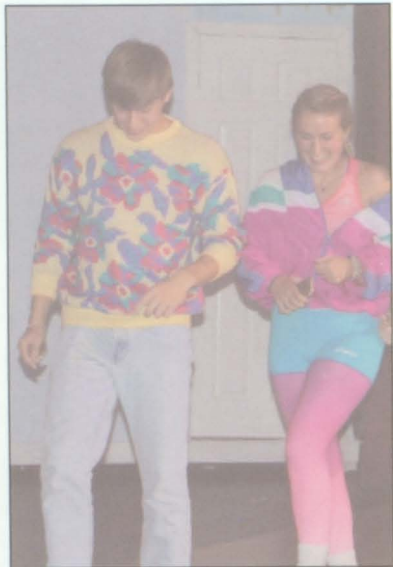

-Jordan Norris, 12

Seniors: Jordan Norris, Justin Cajamarca, Ketsia Olsen, Samiha Khan, Sarah Hickey, Francesca Ciaramella, Grace PirkI

Q&A

What do you hope to take from high school as you go through life?

// Keyly Barrios

"I want to bring my knowledge from Bay Shore High School throughout my life."

// Jalen Thompson

"I want to bring my social skills and how to talk to people throughout my life."

Daniella Diaz and Moises Hernandez pose and show off their matching halloween duo costumes; the two are best friends. Maya Banfield and Katrina Swasey walk through the gym lobby on their first day of junior year. Both are eager to see who their new classmates will be. Will Button and Joe Chimienti smile as they are both excited for the first day of junior year. The two have been friends for as long as they can remember. Xavier Shelton displays a manly pose in his halloween costume dressed as girl. He walks across the stage in hopes of winning the title of funniest costume. Grace Albergo and Sarah Ahern pose for a photo in their Bay Shore gear, showing off their Bay Shore pride. Diana Reyes and Isabella Guarino enjoy lunch on their first day of school. Ally Perez and Kate Modica stop for a photo in their halloween costumes. The pair is dressed up as cat-dog from the Nickelodeon show CatDog. Moises Hernandez, Caitlin Kennedy, Kayla Cannoyan and Kailey Meyer chow down on some lunch on the first day of their junior year. Marley Davidson shows off a cool remote feature to his halloween costume. Veronica Ginter, Ali Bernardo and Alexis Mills pose right before going on stage in their trio costume as Alvin and the Chipmunks. The trio even used props from the movie to bring out each character. Erin Giuliani shows off part of her music artist halloween costume; she is dressed as the rapper Lil' Yachty. Shayna Smith, Liz Driesch, Emma Barbiero and Catie Surian smile in the hall on the first day of their junior year. The four are super excited to kick off the year with each other.

CLASS OF 2018

Stephen Foutz and Joey Lovegrove strike a pose on stage at the Halloween competition. Tatianna Rosado dances at senior banquet with high energy. Keiry Lojan, Confesoe Bracero, Jhosely Reyes, Tai Johnson, Avery Sosa, K'ayla Brooks, Kingsley Felix, and Steven Argueta catch up on their day together during an off period. Izzy Knapp stands in front of her art piece for the IB visual arts galla. Shannon Dieumegard and Hailey Niles smile during class on a cold, snowy day. Marc Cattell, Bryan Ramsaran, and Tom Caligiuri smile for a photo during senior banquet. Falan Boyd claps to the beat of a song. Sharika Hoque and Rameema Rahman casually work together on a project in the library. Sofia Flores and Asar John enjoy a night with fellow seniors at banquet. Sade Atewogboye and Stephen Foutz embrace being in the "Time-out" room. Jack Buser holds donuts for everyone to enjoy. Buser brought donuts every other day for his peers to eat. Joe Trifoli, Ashaan Sibley, and Bryan Ramsaran keep straight faces for a photo during Halloween.

As this part of your journey comes to an end and you prepare for the next phase of what will be a very challenging and exciting time, hold on to the memories you've created. Cherish the friendships, your loved ones: those who are still with you and those you have lost. Appreciate the educators who have helped you along the way and have readied you for the future. Your mom and I have had the pleasure of watching you crawl, walk, run and excel with a grace and beauty that any parent would marvel over. Thankfully, we have been blessed with this honor. We could not be more proud! You are truly an inspiration... Congrats "BABY GIRL"...

Reece DeGraff

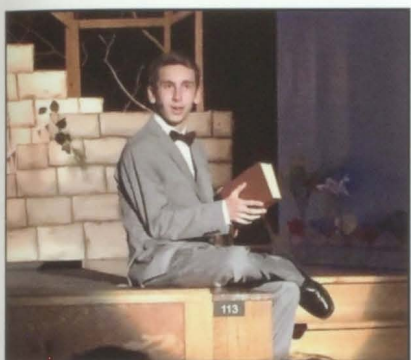

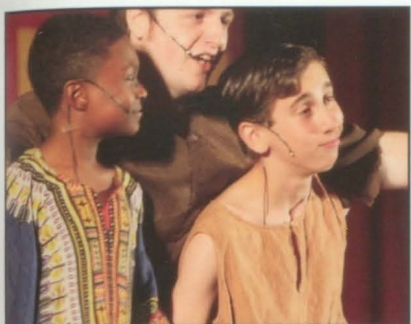

Reece,

We are so proud of the young man you are and excited to know the man you will become.

Your future is limitless! So keep pushing forward and remember to enjoy your friends and family along the way.

Our love always,

Dad, Mom, & Connor

"Once you have tasted flight, you will forever walk the earth with your eyes turned skyward, for there you have been, and there you will always long to return." - Leonardo da Vinci

The sky is not the limit for you, only the beginning of what is next to come!

Congratulations!

Love,
Mom & Dad

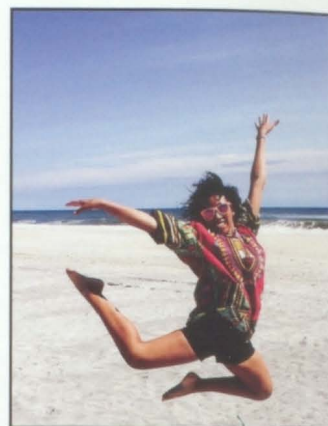

Camryn Garrett

Camryn it has been such an adventure for you during your high school journey. We wish you many more, adventures as you pursue your dreams. We are so proud of you! love mom and jay

Kayla Dixon

We are proud of the work you have done over the years. You are a woman of integrity, faith, and courage. From President of FBLA, Student Body Treasurer, Captain of Swim Team, National Honor Society, and golf. Continue to reach for the sky. Love Mom, Dad, Maya

Matt Yuskevich

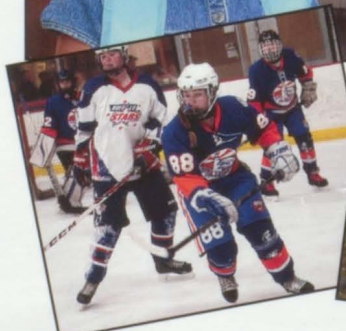

Congrats on your graduation! We are so proud of you. We wish you a bright future with a lot of opportunities. Be happy and work hard in college. "You miss 100% of the shots you don't take."

We love you!
Mom, Dad & Nick

Olivia Bradley

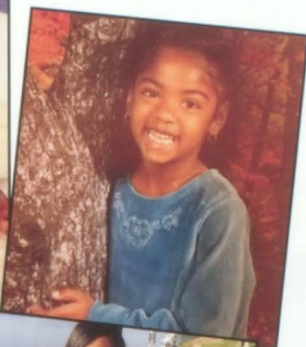

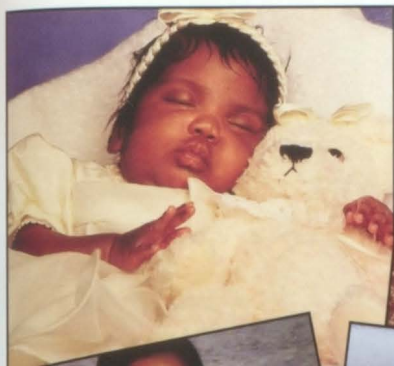

Our beautiful baby has turned into a beautiful, talented, smart and strong young woman. We love you more than words can say. Your future is waiting! XO Mom and Dad

Nina Turner

Congratulations Nina!

We are so proud of you. We are filled with pride and joy as you embark on the next chapter of your life. Stay focused and keep your eyes on the prize! With all of our love, Mommy, Daddy, Deucey, Kristen & Bria

Amy Hoeffner

We are so proud of your academic and athletic accomplishments, hard work and dedication... but also for being a beautiful person inside and out. You make the world a better place. We look forward to the continued joy of watching you grow and succeed. Go Red Dragons!

With irrevocable and unconditional Love,
Maman, Dad & Collin xoxox

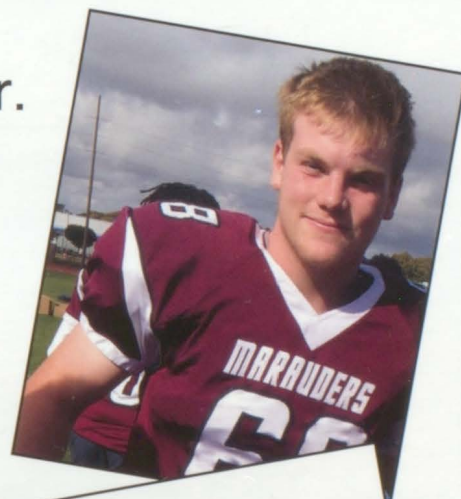

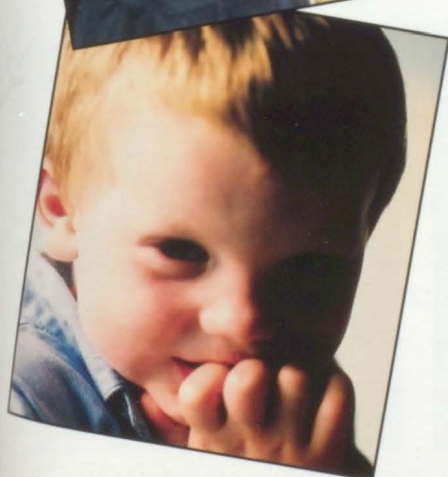

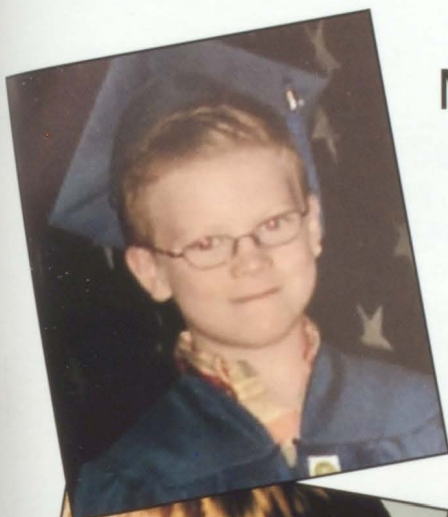

Michael Allerton Voltz Jr.

Dear Michael,
Congratulations on your outstanding achievements. We could not be more proud of your tenacious spirit and winning attitude.

"You're off to great places! Today is your day! Your mountain is waiting, so...get on your way!"

-Dr. Suess

Love,
Mom, Dad, Jack, and Maeve

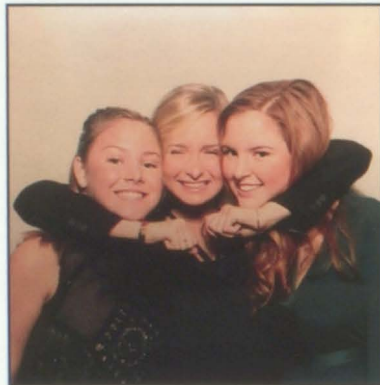

Sarah Hickey

Sarah,
As long as you've got passion, faith and are willing to work hard,
you can do anything you want.
We love you!

-Mom & Dad

Rudy Caligure

"Twenty years from now, you will be more disappointed by

AS WE go on to pursue our new lives, we carry with us all the valuable experiences and everlasting memories that were created in Bay Shore. Our connection with Bay Shore will leave a remarkable impact on our lives. We are on to the next chapter of our lives. Each of us is on our own journey. While we may choose different types of careers and paths, such as athletes, performers, lawyers, doctors, mechanics, engineers, as well as future leaders, we will all continue to be inspired by our years together in Bay Shore. Our eager minds and strong hearts have been shaped by the place we call home. This journey we call life has just begun, and we will always remember that Bay Shore was a part of it, because our time here was the life we used to know.

BAY SHORE HIGH SCHOOL

COLOPHON

The 2018 Marauder Yearbook was published by Jostens and produced entirely by a staff of 18 students, led by Co-Editors-in-Chief Sarah Hickey, Jordan Norris, and Grace Pirkel, and under the supervision of Mr. Michael Hochman. 350 printed copies of the 95th volume of the Marauder were planned. This edition is comprised of 200 full-color, 100# matte pages, with a planned distribution of May, 2018. A "Spring Supplement" is planned for distribution in July of 2018.

Computers: The staff used Apple iMac computers, exclusively.

Photography: All candid photos, club photos, and special section photos (unless otherwise indicated) were taken by the Marauder staff using Canon Rebel cameras. All student portraits, teacher portraits, and sports photos (unless otherwise indicated) were taken by Island Photography and are used with their permission.

Software: The Marauder is produced entirely on Yearbook Avenue, the Jostens on-line design website.

Fonts: Captions are 'Function Book'; Headlines are 'Function MD cd'; quotations are 'Rockingham Medium'; page numbers are 'Function ExBd'.

Then and Now: We are pleased to feature as many Bay Shore alumni as possible in this section. However, we could only include portraits of ancestors when the dates were accurately provided and/or the portrait exists in the old yearbook. Senior Superlatives: Ballot sheets were distributed to all seniors. Only sheets that were turned in were counted, and nearly 30% of the seniors turned in votes.

The 2018 Marauder staff wishes to extend the following thank yous:

-The Jostens staff, especially Mr. Matt Stucchio and Ms. Crystal Gault. You were both there with us in July when we started this book, and you have been with us every step of the way into the final submission. Your ongoing support is invaluable to us throughout the entire process. THANK YOU.

-Island Photography

-The high school and district administrators; thank you for your continued support in helping us achieve our vision. Thank you to Mr. Ted Nagengast for all of his help with any athletic matters.

-To the secretaries: Thanks to Laura Giordano and Laura Stiles from the Main Office for the help with communicating to students, parents, etc.; to Mary Anne Bisogno and Theresa Polina, from the Principal's office, for the help answering questions, mailing stuff, etc.; to Annemarie Curcio for her assistance with our photography days, and Barbara Picariello for her assistance with our staffing. Thanks to Colleen Jockers for all her help with class lists. You are all incredible people. And to all of the other secretaries from various departments and offices: thank you for any help you provided throughout the year.

-Thank you to the IT staff for always providing technical help when we needed it.

-To the custodians, thank you for lugging cartons large and small, and everything else you have done for us. You guys are the best.

-Thank you to all teachers and parents for any pictures you helped provide.

-Thank you to all students who submitted photos through replayit.com and through other means.

Grace Pirkel, Jordan Norris, and Sarah Hickey, co-Editors-in-Chief, gather at the senior banquet for the annual "Editors Photo".

Mr. Hochman's note to the Editors:
Sarah, Jordan, and Grace,

To nearly all of the students in the school, the yearbook is something they think about when they order it, and then not again until they receive it at the end of the year. For the three of you, it's something you've been thinking about since last Spring, and it's something you've spent an insane amount of personal time on. I hope that your classmates appreciate the hard work you've put into this amazing yearbook. I am so proud of the work that you did, and I sincerely hope that throughout your lives you will look at this book and smile knowing that you created this memory for all of your friends and classmates. Well done!
