SUMMER DISPLAYS & EXHIBITS

JULY

Outside Showcase:

Come see this month's display, "Summer Fun at the Library" to learn what we offer patrons young and old this summer.

Inside Showcase:

Susan Jaskulek is a graduate of F.I.T., NYC with a degree in Textile Design. She is a designer of original paintings, cards and collage, and she is a designer of window displays for retail stores.

Gallery:

According to the artist, LUCIN, "Art is an expression of our most intimate thoughts and feelings". Further, it is also universal for our human condition. We all experience sorrow, loss, loneliness, happiness, and hope. This living process through art is a stepping-stone to the journey of discovering the self.

AUGUST

Outside showcase:

Bay Shore Beautification Society "Garden Winners".

Inside showcase:

Sagtikos Manor Historical Society will present artifacts collected by generations of people who lived and worked at the Manor from the earliest colonial days to the Gilded Age.

Gallery:

Richard Kramer produces abstract art called Zen art, derived from the Buddhist religion and means peace and tranquility.

SEPTEMBER

Outside showcase:

John D. Santoro lives his life on the beautiful south shore of Long Island. This has afforded him countless opportunities to capture its beauty. He feels it is time to turn his lens on the world and begin his journey of becoming a Wildlife Photographer. His hope is to use this space as a way of chronologizing and documenting each step along the way.

Inside showcase:

Flora Allen is a proud member of many local art clubs. She is known for her excellence in landscape art and her vibrant use of colors.

Gallery:

Richard J. LaBella is a photographer with over 30 years of experience. His portfolio is full of unique photographs that make living near and on the water of Long Island a special experience.
