Legendary Women of Long Island

BBA230 WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

Thursday, March 12, 6:00 PM

During the glory days of Long Island's Gold Coast, society revolved around a select circle of glamorous women—the nation's first true superstars. Their lives, loves, and scandals filled newspapers, while photographers captured them sweeping down grand staircases in jewels, feathers, and lavish gowns. Figures like Ava Vanderbilt, Mrs. Clarence Mackay, Barbara Hutton, and the Countess of Bismarck set the social standard, inspiring widespread admiration and imitation. Others—Zelda Fitzgerald, Winifred Bird, Ann Woodward, and Gertrude Whitney—are remembered for the dramatic stories that followed them. Join us for an engaging evening exploring these vibrant icons of their era.

We will finish with breath work to restore balance. Please bring your own yoga mat and water.

The Swashbuckling History of Women in Piracy - BBA240 WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

Wednesday, March 25, 6:00

In the predominantly male world of seafaring, metaphors about mysterious and destructive femininity have been consistently linked to the sea. Yet flesh and blood women sailed on ships, steered them, commanded them, commandeered them, and sank with them. Spanning the globe and centuries, female pirates have sailed the seas, captivating audiences both in their time and today. Explore the history of these notorious female pirates and decide whether they were rogues, she-devils, or trailblazers.
